PROTHONOTARY. We are authorized to announce that DANIEL T. WIELAND, of Harris township, is a candidate for the office of Sheriff, subject to Democratic rules.

ASSOCIATE JUDGE. We are authorized to announce that JOHN KEMMEL, of Spring township, is a candidate for the office of Associate Judge, subject to Democratic rules.

COMMISSIONER. We are authorized to announce that JOHN HOY, Jr., of Marion township, is a candidate for the office of Commissioner, subject to Democratic rules.

REGISTER. We are authorized to announce that JOE W. PURDY, of Bellefonte township, is a candidate for the office of Register, subject to Democratic rules.

RECORDER. We are authorized to announce that FRANK E. BIBLE, of Spring township, is a candidate for the office of Recorder, subject to Democratic rules.

RECORDER. We are authorized to announce that JOHN MYERS, of Harris township, is a candidate for the office of Recorder, subject to Democratic rules.

ADJOURNED.

To-day our state Legislature adjourns, and the people will give a sigh of relief. It is true that but little good was expected from this body, and in this view of the case little disappointment is felt.

True to Nature.

The Lancaster New Era, a Republican paper gives the following graphic but faithful pen portrait of the Honorable Benj. L. Hewitt, Republican member of the legislature from Blair county and Speaker of the House.

THE STRUGGLE FOR SENATORS.

The Situation at Albany Remains Almost Without a Change. ALBANY, N. Y., June 6.—The first ballot for senator in the New York legislature for the short term was as follows: Jacobs, 25; Conkling, 26; Cornell, 16; Wheeler, 14; Lapham, 3; Rogers, 13; Bradley, 1; Folger, 1; Tremaine, 1.

Judge David Davis on Monopolies.

"The rapid growth of corporate power and the malign influence which it exerts by combination on the National and State Legislatures, is a well grounded cause of alarm. A struggle is pending in the near future between this overgrown power, with its vast ramifications all over the Union, and a hard grip on much of the political machinery, on one hand, and the people in an unorganized condition on the other, for control of the Government. It will be watched by every patriot with intense anxiety."

All About the Spoils.

From the New York World, Dem. It is just a little curious that in this supreme agony of the great and grand old Republican party we do not hear one word about the peril to the Union of a solid south, not one word about the sacredness of the ballot-box, not one word about finance and the tariff, not one word about civil service reform, not one word, in fact, about any subject except the New York Custom House and the machine.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, D. C., June 4, '81. The political situation in Virginia is held to be hardly less important than that in New York. I have seen no one who believes the Republicans can carry New York for years to come, no matter how the Senatorial fight may be decided, but the immediate influence of such a result on other Republican states is not easily to be gauged. It might be very great and it might be very small. But a Democratic defeat in Virginia this fall could hardly fail to effect the Democratic cause in other Southern States very disastrously.
