Dissensions in the Republican Party: Our Republican friends have their sore troubles in the very beginning of the administration of the scholarly and amfable Garfield. Dissensions ; and divisions appear on every hand. Mahone, haddleberger, Gorham, Dorsey, Blaine and Conkling, are forced to the surface in rapid succession as troublesome factors, disturbing the peace and armony of the party. If matters continue at the present rate the party itself will soon fall to pieces from want of cohesion, rottenness and utter corruption, Just now: Ex-Secator Conkling is the rock on which the turbulent waves break and divide; and to show how widely the bosses diverge we quote the New York Tribunc and Gen. Grant, as representative authorities of the two leading fuctions. The

Consider | for a moment Mr. Conkling's per sonal character, his relation with his fellw-men, his habit of command, his affectation of superiority, his lofty carriage, his dietatorial manners, his belligerent disposition, his touchi ness and his implaca bility-could anything be more absterd than to present such a man to the public for sympathy as one who had been 'conspired against, ridiculed, and abused? The country is beginning to get son.e idea of the value of Conkling's service to the Republican party. delivers himself as follows:

Gov. Hoyt vetoed the judicial apportionment bill passed by the recent legislature. The veto message was filed in the office of the Secretary of the common wealth on the 18th. It is an able document in which the Gov. shows conclusively that the bill is clearly unconstitutional besides adding heavily to the expenses of the state. The Gov. deserves credit for the timely veto. He submits a plan of his own for the reorganization of the judiciary, which seems to be practicable and good, and has the advantage of not increasing either the present number of judges nor their salaries, which are already a beavy burden to the state.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, D. C., June 17, '81. The President is kinder to Sunday School children-much kinder-than to Virginia Readjuster Democrats. Delegations of bot h have visited him of late, and there was a great deal of difference in his treatment of them. He was cordial and kind to the children, perhaps, because he knew they were pure and honest, and short and unkind to the Readjusters-the disturbers of Democracy-because he knew they were not honest. Whether the President is or is not himself a thoroughly honest man, he is too good politician to commit himself in conversation with a discreditable faction of the Democratic party. Following up this line of action he yesterday advised a Republican delegation from Virginia to maintain their organization in that State. The President, by the way, was vesterday injuriously connected with an attempt to bribe a New York legislator to vote against Conkling-that is, evidence to that effect was given at Albany. While there is little dotbt that the attempt to bribe was made, there is also no doubt, -or very littlethat the attempt was made without the knowledge of the President. The mere fact that John I. Davenport made the offer, and that 'only his word connects the President with it, is sufficient to acquit the President. This licensed violator of the right of suffrage-this official buildoz 'r-has been denounced as he deserved by Democrats, and defended by Republicans. It is unfortunate for the President that Davenport is an administration man, but it is not fair to attribute to the President all the villainies of which Davenport may have been guilty.

The report of the Treasury Investigating Committee which Secretary Windom refuses to give out, is, it should be said in justice to that gen-

CARROLL. Terrible Cyclones in the West. Sunday the 12th inst., was again a terrible day for storms in Missouri and Minpisota. That in Missouri, of which we give the account here, was ed by the president I will tell you without any structive to life and property: ST. JOSEPH, Mo., June 14 .-- Sunday was a terriple day for cyclones in northeastern Missouri. The atmospheric pressure was very great retween 4 and Conkling and Platt. Mr. Conkling is my friend. He has been a warm supporter of mine, but for 5 in the afternoon, and during that one short hour no less than three "twisters" dealt death and destrustion in as many paths. The first that came to the knowledge of the Herald was from King City and vicinity. This cyclone started near Savannah, in Andrew county. Its course was northeast, through Flag Springs and King After much delay the Supreme Court City. Many houses were destroyed and not less than twelve lives lost in Andrew county. At Flag Springs and King City the destruction was much greater, the loss of life in that vicinilaw the same as other corporations. Ity being probably fifty. The public It may be that technically speaking school building in King City, a large brick structure, was razed to the ground. Hundreds of horses, cattle, wise as our laws now stand, but at hogs and sheep were killed, one man the same time the obnoxious decision losing eighty cattle, another sixty proves that neither the legislature nor sheep and another seven horses. Another cyclone started four miles southwest of Rosedale, Andrew county. and passed eastward one mile south of Rosedale. The course of all the above cyclones was east by northeast. Another started eight miles northwest of Hopkins, in Nodaway county, its course for twelve miles being southeast. It was one-quarter of a mile wide, and nothing escaped destruction in its track. Many lives have been lost in all of these cyclones, and the destruction to property, which cannot now be estimated, was very great. O^{RPHANS'} COURT SALE.—The subscriber administrator of the estate of John Crouse, late of Miles township. Centre Co., Pa., dec'd, will offer at public sale, on the premises of de-cedent in Miles township atoresaid, the follow-ing described real estate on
