Local Department.

A new comet is fast approaching the earth and will be visible in a few days.

Mr. George W. Swartz and family, of Lewistown, were here on a visit to his aged parents, over Sunday.

Mrs. John H. Thomas, of York, is present with us this week. She was called here by the sad occasion of a funeral.

The Young Men's Christian Association of Central Pennsylvania will hold its annual session at Bellefonte, Sept. 22nd to 25th.

WANTED.—About 3500 first class 1 1/2 inch yellow pine flooring in the rough. Need not be fully dry. Inquire at the Journal office.

Marble door steps of the best Sutherland Falls marble, made at the Millheim Marble Works at a moderate price.

Mr. C. W. Sturgis, late of Lewisburg but now residing in Lancaster, was here on a visit to his son Charles, this week. The old gentleman is hale and hearty and seems to enjoy life.

Millheim has the latest advertising novelty—a dog running through town plastered over with sewing machine advertisements. Anything to starve poor printers.

Unasked and unexpected Millheim gets the most important county office in the lot—F. P. Masser for Auditor. How we love to see true merit appreciated.

Hall's Vegetable Scissilian Hair Renewer is the most reliable article in use for restoring gray hair to its original color and promoting its growth.

Little Johnny Zeigler, a Millheim boy now residing in Union county, called to see us on Saturday. Johnny looks as pleasant and can laugh as heartily as ever.

On Monday morning Mr. J. W. Snook broke ground for a new brick dwelling house on Penn street. Attention, improvements, FORWARD MARCH!

MORE SIDEWALKS.—Our council clerk sent notices to twenty one property holders on North street, requiring them to build side walks. The council seems to have been struck with the spirit of improvement.

The soldiers' orphans honorably discharged from the several orphan schools of the state, will have a reunion at Harrisburg, Aug. 24th. Gov. Curtin will deliver the principal address.

Pastor Tomlinson will preach his Harvest Home sermon here on Sunday, when a collection will be taken. Now don't forget to bring your quarter, if you are poor, your half if you are "able," or your $3 if you are rich.

WANTED, at the Journal office, on subscription or other accounts, 10 bushels of potatoes, 25 bushels of corn, several gallons of good apple butter. If you have any of these articles to spare and owe us, bring them along.

The other day Frank Kister showed us a pair of shoes fit for a king to wear. There may even be kings that don't deserve to have such shoes. However that may be he will make you a pair of the same kind if you wish it.

Barber Springer was the busiest man in town on Saturday. Don't know just how much he made, but judging from his impudent overbearing talk he must have salted down at least several barrels.

J. A. LAMBERT, the new mail contractor, has procured a fine new wagon and is prepared to carry express packages and other goods from Coburn to Woodward and all intermediate points at reasonable charges.

A large crowd of people attended camp meeting on Sunday. About 250 "rigs" passed through Millheim alone, and fully as many were told passed the toll gate. No accident happened that we know and it affords us much pleasure to add that good order prevailed.

Ulrich's pottery is fast approaching completion, and what then? Well, an axe factory, woolen factory, broom factory, silk factory, watch factory, furniture factory, steam tannery, car shops, ship yard, or anything of the kind would do.

Ten years ago while gathering ice, I strained my back and took cold, and I have been in pain ever since, until after consuming three bottles of Dr. V. G. I am well now, 89 years old and feel like a colt.

B. B. Blodgett, Baker, Syracuse, N. Y. Guaranteed by all druggists. Do you want to buy a farm in Nittany valley or in Penn township, or a small piece of land near Millheim? If so read the notice and sale bills of the executors of Jonathan Phillips, deceased, and be on hand on the days of sale, Sept. 3rd and Sept. 10th next.

Rev. James D. Wilson, D. D., of New York city, preached a most excellent sermon in the Reformed church at Aaronsburg, Sunday afternoon. Mr. Wilson is a minister of culture and piety and his sermons are excellent food for mind and heart. He will have communion services at Spring Mills next Sunday morning.

Michael Ulrich shows us the finest set of harness we have seen these many years. Mike should have more judgment though, than to show a poor printer such a grand harness, for it makes us real sad to think that we can never possess one like it, and least of all "the appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining"—such as a lashing nag and splendid phaeton. No, not we.

The Sterling Comedy Company will give performances at the Town Hall on Thursday and Friday evenings. This will not be one of the ordinary variety shows so common at this season, but a regular theatrical entertainment of high character, such as rarely find its way into smaller towns. We see very flattering notices in a number of papers of the plays this troupe gives and hope our people will improve the opportunity to enjoy something really meritorious in the line of comedy.

Read what a stranger who signs himself "Brush Valley," has to say about our cemetery. It does not sound very musical but may do us good. We have written and talked, begged and pleaded on this matter until our heart is sick even to think of it. Utterly hopeless to effect any reform we have made up our mind to keep our own burial lot in good order—have always done so—and there the matter may rest as far as we are concerned.

Reunion at Aaronsburg.

Friday the 12th inst., was a very pleasant day at Mr. William Harter's, in Aaronsburg. On that day there was a family reunion held at his attractive and comfortable home. The family of Mr. & Mrs. Harter consists of twelve children, eight sons and four daughters—all of whom were present on the happy occasion. Such reunions are of rare occurrence indeed. A family of fourteen members, including the parents, and all, in the providence of God, are permitted to meet around the old family table, to enjoy one more good dinner. It was a very happy event. The sons-in-law and daughters-in-law, except two, and a number of grand children, were also present. The repast, the presents, the lemonade, watermelons &c., were abundant and delicious, and the reminiscences truly grateful. An observer would naturally think of the words of the Psalmist: "Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thy house; thy children like olive plants round about thy table. Behold thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the Lord. He shall see his children's children and peace upon Israel." (The welfare of the church.)

It was a good reunion. It will be a green spot in the memory of all who were present, and with the help of photographs taken at the time, will be long remembered. It is the sincere wish of numerous friends of Mr. Harter and his good wife, that they may yet live a long time and have many good days, yea, best days, to enjoy their gutter altar Kaffe, Demokratische Grundgesetz und Lutherischer Handel, and at last all meet in a grand, eternal and better reunion in Heaven above, than ever they had on earth! ACCIDENTS in Union county. The other week a man lost his life by accident at the Central Foundry, Lewisburg, on the 4th inst. Mrs. Joel Riehl, near Lewisburg, was gored by a savage bull, and severely hurt. On the 4th Mr. David Reichly was thrown from a wagon while hauling oats, in Buffalo township, and had his shoulder dislocated. On the 6th inst., a young man named Cake had his right hand severely smashed, in New Berlin, by cog wheels. On the 5th, at S. S. picnic near Mifflinburg, a little daughter of Samuel Wilson ran so severely against a tree that she fell down insensibly. Her face was much cut and bruised. On the 2nd inst., R. V. B. Lincoln, Jr., of Hartley township, had the thumb of his right hand cut off while arranging a reaper for work.

For five years I have been troubled with Constipation, Liver and Stomach troubles, coupled with loss of memory and sleepless nights. Three bottles of Dr. R. V. G. has made me a well man and a happy one.

ACCIDENT.—Monday afternoon a painful accident happened to a ten year old daughter of Mr. Henry N. Swartz, near Millheim. Mr. Swartz was engaged in rolling a log to his saw mill, the little girl assisting. The log had been rolled a short distance and then left running down a little hill itself. The girl stood up close to the log, which caught her dress as it started, and was thrown clear over the other side. It seems that then the end of the log must have struck the girl's face bruising and lacerating the one side of it badly. It is not known yet whether the eye is injured. The wound is a severe one though not necessarily dangerous.

Last week we had a broad, heavy streak of luck. First we got a dicker with a kind lady for a Christmas turkey. She is to fatten it nice and plump, outcher and clean it at the proper time, all ready for the roasting pan—and take it all out in Journals.

Next we got an invitation from brother Abs Musser to attend the grand Haines township picnic soon to come off, including complimentary tickets for the whole "Haushalt ung" for dinner. We gratefully accepted the generous proffer "matter of course." Lastly we found a two-cent coin out at Smithtown in the middle of the road, which, though it looks a little the worse for wear will be gladly received at par by one or the other of our creditors, on account. If luck keeps gushing upon us at this rate we will soon get independent and saucy as a Philadelphia boot black.

A Healthy and Prosperous Family.

Mr. William Harter and Rebecca his wife, nee Hess, residing in Aaronsburg, are the happy parents of a remarkable family. They have eight sons and four daughters—all living and all, parents and children—enjoying that best boon of Providence—good health. They have all been brought up in the Lutheran faith, have always maintained excellent characters, and are all well to do—some even wealthy—in this world's goods. Four of the sons are farmers, three, tanners, and one an editor—no idlers and only one "Dintschlecker" in the entire lot. The first eleven never had occasion for the doctor while living under the parental roof. They are all married but one, and even she, we understand, has prospects. They are all naturally intelligent, honest, industrious; have good practical business qualifications, but not one of them as far as we know, has either a collegiate or academic education. Several of them served their country with much honor in the War of the Rebellion, and one of them suffered long from a painful wound received on the field of battle. Their aggregate ages, counting only even years, sums up the respectable figure of 578, and if the months and days were included, would run it up at least five years more. This gives to each an average age of 41 years, 3 months and 12 days, counting only the full years of the age of each one. On Friday the 12th inst., they had a family reunion at the hospitable home of the parents in Aaronsburg, and it was the first time in their lives that all had met together anywhere. What strikes us as most remarkable in the history of this interesting family is the fact that the grim monster, Death, has not once entered the family circle for over forty-seven years! How much longer will all be spared? God only knows.

This is the proud record of a sturdy Pennsylvania Dutch family, and if there is another one in all the land that can exceed it in all the essential points of terrestrial happiness, we would like to hear from it.

Following is a list of the names, residences, and ages, of the several members: William Harter, Aaronsburg, Pa. 71 years. Rebecca Hess Harter, " 67 " Israel, Stark Co., Ohio, 47 " Mrs. Fred. Kurtz, Centre Hall, Pa. 45 " Jonathan, Millheim, Pa. 44 " Neha, Nevada, Ohio, 42 " Mrs. Lewis Mench, Aaronsburg, Pa. 41 " William H., Hartleton, Pa. 39 " Daniel H., Smithville, Ohio, 37 " Mrs. Levi Murray, Centre Hall, Pa. 35 " Andrew, Hartleton, Pa. 33 " Aaron, " 30 " Thomas H., Nevada, Ohio, 27 " Kate, at home, 20 "

Communicated.

Mr. Editor:

Believing that the efforts of all Christians should be an active and visible oneness in Church and Sunday School work, and that the time has come when the partition walls are being broken down and professing Christians are meeting on a more common level, the Sunday Schools of all denominations, in Haines township have agreed to hold a joint picnic or celebration at Winkelblech's grove, near Pine Creek school house, Saturday, Aug. 27th, 1881, to which a general invitation is extended to every person to attend. As this is to be a basket picnic all persons of course will understand that pies, cakes, &c. do not grow in the woods. Short addresses will be delivered by different persons invited. Come one, come all, and let this be a day of joy and gladness as well as a day of reunion.

J. C. MOTZ, Chairman of committee.

Editors Journal:—

I had occasion the other day to attend a funeral at Millheim, and frankly confess that I was mortified beyond my power of expression, over the disorderly and dilapidated condition of your cemetery. I have never seen such a chaos of tall grass, weeds, stone heaps and rubbish in a grave yard before. There is not even a decent walk to the cemetery. One is obliged to walk around or crawl over big rock, and old logs or take the dusty street to get there. This state of things is not creditable to your citizens. But why is it endured? Has the cemetery company no trustees or directors? Could not the town council build a sidewalk? In short could not something be done to show due respect for the last resting place of your departed fathers, mothers, children and friends? Let your people arouse and do something to wipe out the stigma that the condition of their 'city of the dead' reflects upon them.

BRUSH VALLEY.

Frank Crowfoot, of Nelson, Tioga county, so brutally beat his wife last Friday night that she fled to the woods and hid between two logs and covered herself with brush. She was discovered by searching citizens twenty-four hours after.

MARRIED.

On the 25th ult., at Centre Hall, by Rev. S. M. Reeder, Mr. Samuel J. Metzler to Miss Ella Bortoff, both of Potter township.

On the 7th inst., at Centre Hall, by Rev. W. E. Fisher, Mr. Henry O. Duck to Miss Lydia F. Weaver, both of Gregg township.

DIED.

On the 13th ult., at Rebersburg, Pa., Aug. 13th, 1881, of consumption, Ammon Erastus Wolf, son of Henry Wolf, aged 31 years, 1 month and 14 days.

His remains were buried in Rebersburg Cemetery, Tuesday morning, August 16th, in the presence of many mourning relatives and a large concourse of people. The mournful occasion was improved by an able sermon by Rev. W. M. Landis, from John 8:12 and followed by the writer in lines of admiration and comfort. Revs. J. F. DeLong and W. A. Haas also assisted in the services.

Ammon E. Wolf was a man of fine intellect, and therefore might have been a very influential and useful man in the Church of Christ, but also like so many others equally gifted, was enticed and drawn away from God and the Church, and found employment if not enjoyment in things that are not only questionable but sinful in themselves. He permitted himself to be appointed an agent for speculative life insurance, which among other things he so much deprecated during his last days. He was brought up in a Christian family, under pious influences, and at mature age united with the Christian Church; but according to his own confession, later sorrow and lamentations, did not "wash with God" according to his profession and vow. For this he wept bitter tears of repentance, turning unto God with contrition of heart and confession of sin, and with faith laid hold of God's promises and found Jesus, the sinner's friend, precious to his soul. He called his friends and neighbors together to rejoice with him in the mercy and goodness of God, so strikingly shown to him. He took his associates by the hand, earnestly exhorting and entreating them to consecrate themselves to the service of God, and not continue to live as he had done while death was his.

This passed away a noble young man in the very prime of life. We firmly believe that in his last days he was pardoned, accepted and redeemed by the Lord Jesus Christ. May his short but brilliant life be a blessing and his solemn words of admonition and warning bear rich fruit for eternity.

He leaves behind him a sorrowing widow and a little daughter. May the Lord be unto the widow more than a husband, and unto the little one more than an earthly father, and finally unite them in an unbroken family at God's right hand above. W. R. M.

On the 14th inst., in Millheim, Mary Emma, daughter of Henry K. and Rosie H. Luse, and granddaughter of Rev. C. E. and Mary A. Deisinger, aged 9 months and 29 days.

On the 17th inst., in Millheim, Mrs. Catharine Field, aged 78 years, 8 months and 24 days.

Funeral to-day (Thursday) at 2 o'clock, P. M.

H. R. WHITCOMB,

LOCK HAVEN, PA.

Takes this method to announce to the people of Penns. Brush and Sugar Valleys that after a highly successful season he still has, to select from, and in order to reduce this large stock quickly he has reduced his prices from 10 to 50 per cent.

25,000 WORTH OF CLOTHING,

We have revolutionized the Clothing business in Lock Haven. You can get as good a suit from us as any tailor can make, and at less than half the price; and for style and fit they are often superior. Boys like stylish suits as well as men, and we have them in all grades.

Boys Clothing is a Specialty With Us.

No use looking for better goods for boys than we have—you can't find them. No living man shall be allowed to give their customers better value for their money than can always be found at my store. And where is the mother that likes to make children's clothes? Can't make them fit. "Never look well", is the complaint of every one. We've got all grades and they are just cute and nobby as they can be. A change of weather means a change of clothes; a change of clothes requires a change of patterns and styles of materials. The house that has the choicest and newest changes in styles and patterns is likely to secure the greatest number of new customers and best please and retain its old patrons. In these days it is not everything that looks like clothing that will sell, but in the keen competition between different houses it will be the survival of the fittest.

OUR CLOTHING IS

Unequaled in Quality,

Unexcelled in Style,

Unexceptional in Fit.

And the people have, by a large majority, decided to patronize

WHITCOMB.

We have a much larger stock of new style Hats than all the other stores in Lock Haven together, and our prices are always the lowest. Full stock of Trunks, Bags, &c. Gents' Furnishings, a large line of sold at from 10 to 25 per cent. cheaper than anywhere else in this section. Call and see us. Special prices to parties from a distance.
