

Local Department.

Our town council will hold its regular monthly meeting next Monday evening.

Our townsman, F. P. Musser, Esq., played foreman to the grand jury last week.

The Lutheran Synod of Central Pennsylvania met at Newport, Perry county, yesterday.

T. R. Stam has started a full-sized Boot & Shoe store in connection with his general store.

To-day the hunting season commences, and you are allowed to shoot at any kind of game and hit it too, if you can. Blaza away!

A splendid, strong 2 horse spring wagon for sale. None better in the valley. Price moderate. Inquire at the Journal office.

The Grangers of Centre county will hold their annual picnic at the old ground on the top of Nittany mountain, September 15th.

WANTED.—About 3500 first class 1 1/2 inch yellow pine flooring in the rough. Need not be fully dry. Inquire at the Journal office.

The delicious cakes that were intended for "Ye editor" at the big picnic on Saturday have gone "where the woodbine twines."

Marble door steps of the best Sutherland Falls marble, made at the Millheim Marble Works at a moderate price.

Richmond suffers extremely by a water famine. Some of the people are obliged to go a mile for a bucket full for which they are compelled to pay five cents.

Sheriff Dunkle called to see us last week. Sorry that we were unavoidably absent—glad to learn however that he had no warrant for us. Call again, Sheriff.

Post Masters now have the right to correct misdirected letters. This is a just and sensible improvement on the old way of sending all such letters to the dead letter office at Washington.

Selingsgrove has six life insurance associations, one marriage insurance society, two more of the latter applying for charters, and two more talked of.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Be wise in time. All baneful infections are promptly removed by this unequalled alternative. It is the most perfect blood purifier, and a fountain of health and strength.

Dry and clean coal is what the people wish to get in winter. To meet that want our enterprising coal dealers, Gephart & Musser are constructing a large coal shed at Coburn, and after this the coal will be in a nice condition in any kind of weather.

J. A. LIMBERT, the new mail contractor, has procured a fine new wagon and is prepared to carry express packages and other goods from Coburn to Woodward and all intermediate points at reasonable charges.

Perry H. Stover is erecting a new residence at Coburn, which will make a splendid appearance when done. That boss carpenter, Mr. Bierly of Rebersburg is superintending the work and is building the house in a neat and modern style.

I have taken D. R. V. G. with great benefit for general debility, and recommend it to all.

Rev. D. W. Beadle, Chaplain Penitentiary, Syracuse, N. Y. Guaranteed by all Druggists.

"A dollar saved, a dollar made," is the old saying. By paying your school taxes in good time you can save the 5 per cent. abatement and make something by it. See the school tax notices posted up in the stores for further particulars.

EVERYDAY LIFE IN INDIA.—A lecture will be delivered in the Lutheran church, Rebersburg, Saturday evening, Sept. 10th, by Rev. A. D. Rowe, lately returned from India, on the social manners, home-life, customs, dress, superstitions and general character of the Hindus, together with some account of European life in India.

The lecturer will also exhibit objects of worship, fancy embroidery work, Hindu women's dresses, specimens of the grains of India, &c., which he has brought with him to this country.

Admission 10 cents, 15 cents, family tickets, 50 cents.

Tickets for sale at Frank's store in Rebersburg, at Ocker's and Shafer's stores in Madisonburg, and at the Journal book store.

A colored camp meeting, i. e. a camp meeting of colored people will commence at Swengle to-morrow. White people will also be permitted to attend on the very reasonable condition that they behave themselves properly. Now if you think you can do so you may go.

We regret to learn that our worthy County Superintendent, Prof. Wolf, is sick. He could not hold his examinations this week as announced, but hopes to be able to commence next Monday.

H. C. Rothrock is the lucky chap who secured the free scholarship for this senatorial district, recently offered by the faculty of State College. Adam Hoy, Henry Wetzel and D. M. Lieb were the examining committee and unanimously reported in favor of Mr. Rothrock.

Mr. Jacob Kamp, the boot and shoe man of Lock Haven, accompanied by his son, gave us a pleasant call last week. He had been on an advertising trip, and hadn't much time to spare as live business men seldom have. Shall be glad to have him come again and make a longer stay.

The folks at home desire to return thanks to the firm of Musser Brothers & Co., for that excellent dinner on picnic day. The firm prepared the splendid repast, the "folks" helped to do away with it, and we do the "blighting," and thus a fair and equitable division of the whole business made.

Hon. S. R. Peale, of Lock Haven and H. A. McKee, Esq., of Bellefonte, have associated together as a law firm, in Bellefonte. Mr. Peale is an able and experienced lawyer and has been engaged in many important suits in the courts of Centre county, while Mr. McKee is a young man of fine attainments and much promise. They make a strong combination.

Your Dr. R. V. G. has cured me of Chronic Diarrhea, Urinary difficulties and Chronic Dyspepsia of 15 years standing.

James Coakley, Balliste, N. Y. Guaranteed by all Druggists.

All persons, both clerical and lay, that intend being present at the inauguration of the Professors of the Missionary Institute at Selingsgrove, on Friday, Sept. 16th, 1881, will be furnished with free entertainment—by giving timely notice to either of the undersigned of their coming.

The inaugural exercises will take place on the campus ground where a free luncheon will be served.

J. E. F. HASSINGER, S. F. GREENHOE, Committee.

Do you want to buy a farm in Nittany valley or in Penn township, or a small piece of land near Millheim? If so read the notice and sale bills of the executors of Jonathan Phillips, deceased, and be on hand on the days of sale, Sept. 3rd and Sept. 10th next.

OURAGE BY A TRAMP.—On Monday one of those bold, mendacious acts so frequently perpetrated by tramps, happened right in our midst. Daniel Breen, a lad of about ten years, son of Henry Breen, the miller at Campbell's mill, went out to a potato patch on Wetzel's hill to call the folks to dinner. The boy detained himself a little while pursuing bumble bees after the others had left. Nearing a cluster of brush in his chase a tramp suddenly sprang forth from his hiding place, pounced upon the boy and tore his clothes into shreds. He then dragged him into a near woods, and with a big knife in hand and heavy threats made him state that his father had money.

Then he gagged him and left him under threats not to stir, to cut a whip or club. Daniel still had presence of mind and pluck enough to attempt an escape and succeeded to get away from the brute and ran home. He was so frightened and exhausted that he could scarcely give an account of the matter. Mr. Breen in company with John H. Swartz at once made pursuit for the villain but he had made good his escape. No doubt he had been hid in the brush all morning ready to pounce upon innocent prey.

WANTED, at the Journal office, on subscription or other accounts, 10 bushels of potatoes, 25 bushels of corn, several gallons of good apple butter. If you have any of these articles to spare and owe us, bring them along.

TOM MORTON, the well-known, good-natured tramp, died in the Danville Assylum, Aug. 14th.

"Poor Tom Morton," as he was called, led a roving life from town to town, living off of the liberality of the people, although he had a good home, and his parents were anxious to keep him there. Alit ought not endowed with a well balanced mind. Tom was kind hearted, polite and obliging; he was extremely fond of children and would play with them for hours together. In appearance he was long, gaunt and ungainly. He had a double row of teeth, which did not add to his personal appearance. He was endowed with a most wonderful memory. Faces and names once seen or heard, were never forgotten. He knew every one from Sunbury to Lock Haven by name, and could tell every engine on the road by its bell or whistle, whose hand was on the throttle and who was firing. About eight years ago it was supposed Tom set fire to the stables of John Markle and the City Hotel. He was taken to Danville to the Assylum, and has been an inmate of it ever since. He grew to like it there very much. His death was caused by consumption. He was 35 years of age.—Ex.

I have had the liver complaint twenty-five years and my blood became poisoned, and abscesses formed on my lungs, ten of them at one time, and discharged like ulcers. Was given up to die by sixteen different doctors. Twelve bottles D. R. V. G. has caused all sores to fill with new flesh and heal; I am thirty pounds heavier in flesh than I ever was, and sound and well; age 47. D. R. V. G. saved my life. Mrs. A. C. Wakefield, Azan Block, Syracuse, N. Y.

The other Sunday a man named Lowery was run over and killed by a train at Millersburg, Juniata county. On his person were found two revolvers, a butcher knife, a deck of cards and a bottle of whiskey. What an outfit for a journey to eternity.

T. R. Stam has the largest stock of Boots and Shoes in town and sells them at 20 per cent. less than any other store in the valley. Men's Boots $2.25, $2.50, $2.75 and $3.00 up. Boys' Boots at $1.25 to $1.75. They are going with a rush. Come and get some before they are all gone.

Fence board advertisements, observed an old farmer, "are well enough as landscape ornaments, but if you are desirous of purchasing an article it is easier and more convenient to look through the columns of a newspaper to see who has it for sale than it is to hook up a team and drive around the country reading fences."

While John Stewart was hunting squirrel, in Westmoreland Co., recently, he heard and saw something moving in the leaves of a fallen tree. Thinking it was a squirrel, and not seeing distinctly, he shot at the moving leaves and immediately heard a heavy fall. Supposing he had shot a coon, he hurried to the tree and found that he had shot a boy, about 14 years old who was also hunting. Stewart was not acquainted with the boy, and did not know he was in the woods. He was recognized as Frank McFall. He died the same day, several shots having entered his skull.

SAM USSER, our nice, fine-looking Post Master, School Director and clever fellow generally, is not in the habit of doing things by halves, and so when by some means he found out that we stood in need of a pocket knife he generously concluded to present us with a good one, and forthwith carried out his resolutions. The knife is one of the celebrated "Centennial" brand, has four bright, sharp blades, cuts keenly as a razor, is well finished and altogether a nice, useful article for a country editor to have. Whenever we shall have occasion to scrape our pencil, snits apples, cut kindling, or put our grand new knife to any one of the numerous uses for which a first class pocket knife is intended, we will gratefully remember our kind friend Sam, but his greatest reward will be in Heaven.

The Haines township Sunday school picnic, which was held in Winkleblech's grove last Saturday was one of the largest we ever attended. It is estimated that 2000 people were on the ground. The six Sunday schools of said township combined themselves for this picnic, and the people turned out en masse. The Farmer's Store Band furnished the music during the day. The weather was just what could be desired and so everybody was in good spirits.

After the schools were seated in the morning the exercises were opened by prayer, followed by able addresses by Rev. J. Tomlinson, Rev. J. A. Bright, of Jersey Shore, Rev. P. C. Weidemyer and Rev. C. W. E. Siegel. The people then dispersed for their dinners, which were composed as usual at such occasions of the choicest and best things in large quantities.

The grove presented a lively picture in the afternoon, when everybody was moving and talking pleasantly until nearly evening, when the crowd went to their homes well satisfied with the enjoyments of the day.

News Miscellany.

Ex Governor Dingley of Maine, claims that, as a result of the prohibitory law in that State, every brewery and distillery has been closed; that the bar rooms have been greatly reduced in number, there being at present 700, and these "Maine—ly secret;" that the liquor sold in these places does not exceed $1,250,000 in annual value, or $2 per inhabitant, against $15 in the other States.

Captain Cook, the Ohio hero who slapped some other person in the mouth for expressing joy at the shooting of the President, says that he will not accept office of any kind. The odd part of it is that he is an Ohio man.

A family of German immigrants passed through Harrisburg this week consisting of father, mother, nine children, forty grand children and eleven great-grand children. Enough of them were married to make the entire party number ninety-five. They were bound for Northern Iowa.

Johnny Skae, of San Francisco, was once worth $10,000,000. One night last week he was committed to jail in San Francisco in default of the payment of $5 fine for drunkenness.

The Telegraph says that a new and vigorous temperance crusade is being organized for the entire State, and will be begun in Harrisburg early in September. It is simply a fight against liquor and has no political affiliation.

Mrs. John L. Henry, of York, after long quarreling with her husband, purchased five cents' worth of red pepper and on Wednesday afternoon threw it in his face. He will lose one or both eyes and his sufferings were so intense that he called on his friends to kill him.

A New York coroner's jury at last has been found that condemns the use of the toy pistol and recommends its suppression by property authority. Within the last six months probably fifty young lives have been sacrificed by this diabolical invention. In its way it is as bad as a Russian bomb.

The speculative insurance men have placed $150,000 on the life of Mrs. Eliza Holder, of Amity township, Berks county, who is 83 years of age.

The sales of the Moody and Sankey hymn books, which are called by the name of "Gospel Hymns," amount to 9,337,000 copies.

A single grape vine at Cajon, Cal., bears five tons of fruit, the weight of which has broken down the sturdy oak tree on which the vine climbs.

In President township, Venango county, on Thursday, two children were bitten by a rattlesnake and died soon afterward. The mother ran to their assistance as soon as they were bitten, and while absent from the house another child upset a pot of boiling water and was scalded to death.

D. H. Trexler, of Williamsport, who had for some time been despondent from financial reverses, hung himself on his bed room door Saturday evening. He was a respected citizen, forty-eight years of age.

The Philadelphia Record says that no man engaged in the speculative life insurance business should again get into the Legislature. Upon which the Harrisburg Independent remarks: "Neither should they be allowed membership in the church or fellowship in society. They are pariahs, whose very breath smells of graveyards."

TO ADVERTISERS.

GEO. P. BOWELL & CO'S SELECT LIST OF LOCAL NEWSPAPERS. An advertiser who spends upwards of $5,000 a year, and who travels less than $250 in this list, will find it in every instance the BEST. When printed in CAPITALS it is the ONLY name in the place. The list gives the population of every town and the circulation of every paper.

The rates charged for advertising are barely one-fifth the publishers' schedule. The price for single States ranges from $2 to $50. The price for one-half month in the entire list is $25. The regular rates of the papers for the same space and time are $2,000. The list includes 322 newspapers of which 157 are issued DAILY and 75 WEEKLY. They are located in 758 different cities and towns, of which 28 are State Capitals, 253 places of over 5,000 population, and 168 County Seats. Forcopy of List and other information address GEO. P. 1881. MIDSUMMER. 1881. H. R. WHITCOMB, LOCK HAVEN, PA.

Takes this method to announce to the people of Penna. Brush and Sugar Valleys that after a highly successful season he still has, to select from, and in order to reduce this large stock quickly he has reduced his prices from 10 to 50 per cent.

We have revolutionized the Clothing business in Lock Haven. You can get as good a suit from us as any tailor can make, and at less than half the price; and for style and fit they are often superior. Boys like stylish suits as well as men, and we have them in all grades.

Boys Clothing is a Specialty With Us.

No use looking for better goods for boys than we have—you can't find them. No living man shall be allowed to give their customers better value for their money than can always be found at my store. And where is the mother that likes to make children's clothes? Can't make them fit. "Never look well", is the complaint of every one. We've got all grades and they are just cute and nobby as they can be. A change of weather means a change of clothes; a change of clothes requires a change of patterns and styles of materials. The house that has the choicest and newest changes in styles and patterns is likely to secure the greatest number of new customers and best please and retain its old patrons. In these days it is not everything that looks like clothing that will sell, but in the keen competition between different houses it will be the survival of the fittest.

OUR CLOTHING IS

Unequaled in Quality,

Unexcelled in Style,

Unexceptional in Fit.

And the people have, by a large majority, decided to patronize

WHITCOMB.

We have a much larger stock of new style Hats than all the other stores in Lock Haven together, and our prices are always the lowest. Full stock of Trunks, Bags, &c. Gents' Furnishings, a large line of sold at from 10 to 25 per cent. cheaper than anywhere else in this section. Call and see us. Special prices to parties from a distance.
