DEAD.

THE ASSASSIN'S BULLET PROVES FATAL.

PRESIDENT GARFIELD NO MORE.

HIS DEATH ANNOUNCED AT 10.55 LAST NIGHT.

SHEER EXHAUSTION THE IMMEDIATE CAUSE OF HIS DEATH.

THE PRAYERS AND HOPES OF A GREAT NATION HAVE BEEN DEFEATED. AFTER NEARLY THREE MONTHS OF INTENSE SUFFERING BORNE WITH SUBLINE AND HEROIC FORTITUDE THE END HAS COME. THE PRESIDENT IS DEAD, AND WITH HIS LAST BREATH HE DRAWS WITH HIM THE PROFOUND AFFECTION OF A BEGRIEVED PEOPLE. FOR A SECOND TIME IN THE HISTORY OF THE REPUBLIC ITS CHOSEN CHIEF HAS BEEN SENT TO DEATH BY THE TREACHEROUS BULLET OF A CRUEL AND COWARDLY ASSASSIN. FOR DAYS AND WEEKS THE WHOLE PEOPLE HUNG WITH ALTERNATING HOPE AND FEAR UPON EVERY BULLETIN THAT ISSUED FROM THE ROOM OF THE VICTIM UNTIL HOPE AT LAST YIELDED TO THE GLOOMY CONVICTION THAT THE END WAS NIGH. ALL THAT HUMAN AFFECTION COULD CONCEIVE AND ALL THAT HUMAN SKILL COULD DO HAVE BEEN IN VAIN. IN THE PRESENCE OF THIS GREAT CALAMITY THE NATION BOWS DOWN WITH HUMILITY AND SUBMISSION TO THE HIGHER POWER WHO HOLDS IN HIS GRASP THE DESTINY OF MEN AND THEIR GOVERNMENTS.

THE OBSEQUIES.

The remains of the late President of the United States will be removed to Washington by a special train on Wednesday, September 21, leaving Elseron at 10 a. m. Detachments from the United States army and from the marines of the navy will be in attendance on the arrival at Washington to perform escort duty. The remains will lie in state in the rotunda of the capitol on Thursday and Friday and will be guarded by detachments from the executive department and by the officers of the senate and house of representatives. Religious services will be observed in the rotunda at 3 o'clock on Friday afternoon. At 5 o'clock the remains will be transferred to the funeral car, and be removed to Cleveland, Ohio, via Pennsylvania railroad, arriving there Saturday at 2 p. m. In Cleveland the remains will lie in state until Monday at 2 p. m., and be then interred in Lake View cemetery. No ceremonies are expected in the cities or towns along the route of the funeral train beyond the tolling of bells. Detailed arrangements for the final sepulture are committed to the municipal authorities of Cleveland, under the direction of the executive of the state of Ohio.

Vice President Arthur was sworn into office as President of the United States at his residence in New York on Tuesday.

From the Philadelphia Record, Sept. 13.

MR. WOLFE'S REASONS.

He Intends to Test the Sincerity of Reformers.

The Cause of His Becoming a Candidate for State Treasurer—He Expects to Poll a Large Vote.

Hon. Charles S. Wolfe, of Union county, the Independent Republican candidate for State Treasurer, arrived in the city yesterday for the purpose of consulting with his friends here relative to his candidacy. In explaining the reasons for his action Mr. Wolfe said: "One of the important objects I have in view in making this fight is for the purpose of determining how much sincerity and practicality there is in the Independent Reform movement in Pennsylvania. When I left Harrisburg last week my first thought was to withdraw from the contest for the present, but after thinking over the matter I consulted with some of my friends and determined to go into the fight. I do not want the office of State Treasurer, as every one knows, but it is better to make the battle now than next year, when the same tactics that were repeated in this election will be tried again. Then we will have a Governor and other State officers to elect, and if the machine attempted to crowd down the Independents there would be an open revolt. So it is far better to settle this question now than to postpone it until then. If there is any other man in the State whom the Independents would prefer as a candidate to myself I will willingly withdraw, and turn in earnestly for him. Many of those who have been termed Independents are not really so, but are waiting around for the machine to take care of them. Why, at Harrisburg it was agreed in the Davies conference that John Steward, ex-Senator Langdon and Attorney General Lear should go into the convention and make powerful protests against the machine, sitting down upon the Independents. But did they do it? There was not a protest. All these things have disgusted me, and I have determined, with the aid of my friends, to test the Independents of this State and see whether they really desire reform. I will poll more votes than I thought I could when I started as a candidate. There will be nothing left undone, so far as organization and work are concerned. Where my first speech will be made I do not know yet. All these things must be arranged. But I am in earnest, and I would not believe the word of any of these ringsters. When I get on the war path they know it. They will hear from me soon.

Gen. A. E. Burnside, United States Senator from Connecticut, died suddenly at his residence in Bristol, Tuesday the 13th inst.

State Senator Eckley B. Cox, of Luzerne county, is spoken of as a Democratic candidate for Governor next fall. He is able and fit for the place.

The death of Gen. Burnside gives the Democrats a clear majority in the United States Senate, even without Senator David Davis. If that vapory, undefinable thing called senatorial courtesy is not stretched to an undue limit the Senate will have a Democratic President, pro tem.

The Republicans of Pennsylvania have something worse than an elephant on their hands—a Wolfe, and a real savage one at that.

Gen. Bailey, the Cameron candidate for State Treasurer, may be a good enough man personally, but he is an out-and-out stalwart, Granitic and third-term, and that ought to be enough to keep every independent Republican vote from him.

It would be real funny, if it were not a very serious matter, to read how some Republican papers pitch into the bosses who have for years loaded it over the masses of the party. In pronouncing in the favor of the Hon. Charles S. Wolfe, Independent Republican candidate for State Treasurer, the Millheim Telegraph speaks about as plainly of the machine leaders, their "obnoxious measures, steals, bribery and the like," as any Democratic paper possibly could. Hit them again and again, brother Schoch, they have long ago deserved it all and much more besides.

Of course, at first blush the general verdict is that it is ill-thought-out and only serves to disrupt the party. But when voters who care more for principle than for party—who have the right to know the truth—who only deem it duty to recognize leadership and party discipline when leaders vote the popular will in the naming of candidates—who when this large class of intelligent voters throughout the state recall the past week of the bosses, how they have degraded the sentiment of the people in state and national campaigns, how the purchasable delegates of machine leaders retain their hold on office power, and how they have striven for the defeat and independent voters be greatly tempted to espouse the cause of Chas. S. Wolfe—who has made the rule of his life to war against the rule of obnoxious measures, steal, bribery and the like.

Centre county now has four tickets in the field—the Democratic, Republican, Temperance and Greenback, so that every political opinion or shade of opinion can be suited. Of course it will suit a large majority of the voters to vote the Democratic ticket which will be triumphantly elected.

The people of Centre county have more general interest in the office of county commissioners than in any other. The board of commissioners have almost exclusive control over the county finances. They appoint and direct our tax collectors, have the supervision over our public buildings, and in many directions they can be either extravagant or economical. It is therefore of the utmost importance that they should not only be men of strict integrity but that they should possess good business qualifications. The late Democratic county convention was exceptionally fortunate in their selection of candidates for these places. Messrs. Greist and Wolf are men eminently fit for the important trust. Mr. Greist is an enterprising and successful business man in Unionville. He has before this served a term as county auditor with much credit. Mr. Wolf is one of our most intelligent and progressive farmers in the county. He enjoys the respect and confidence of all who know him. Both are men of good repute and standing, and both will be elected by large majorities.

The Republican county convention of Centre county presents the name of Gen. James A. Beayer as a candidate for Governor.

The Greenbackers of the county still seem to have some vitality as an adjunct to the Republican party. They held their county convention in Bellefonte the other Tuesday, and not to be outdone by other parties, nominated a ticket. Ex-Congressman Yocum and Jacob V. Thomas were the leading spirits. The ticket is made up of really good men, but for the life of us we can't see why our Greenback friends should go to the useless trouble of nominating a county ticket. Following are the names of the candidates: Sheriff—Thomas M. Way; Prothonotary—H. W. Hoover; Treasurer—John C. Motz; Register—Joe W. Fary; Recorder—J. Miles Green; Commissioners—John I. Thompson, C. H. Struble; Auditors—John Dawson, John E. Eurray.

AN APPEAL FOR HELP.

Contributions Asked for the Half-Starved, Homeless People of Michigan.

CINCINNATI, September 17.—The following appeal, signed by Mayor Caulton, William Harttraff, John Sanborn, Charles A. Ward, Omar D. Conger, Charles B. Peck and Peter B. Sanborn, has been telegraphed from Port Huron, Mich:

TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE: We have to-night returned from the burnt district of Huron and Sanilac counties. We have seen the burnt, disfigured and writhing bodies of men, women and children. Rough board coffins contained the dead, followed to the grave by a few blinded, despairing relatives. Crowds of half-starved people at some of the stations asked for bread for their families and neighbors. We hear of more than two hundred victims already buried and more charred and bloated bodies are daily discovered. Already more than 1,500 families are found to be utterly destitute and homeless. They huddle in barns, school houses and in their neighbors' houses, scorched, blinded and helpless. Some still wander half-crazed around the ruins of their habitations, vainly seeking their dead, some in speechless agony, wringing their hands and refusing to be comforted. More than ten thousand people, who only a week ago occupied happy, comfortable homes, are to-day homeless and homeless sufferers. They are hungry and almost naked when found in such numbers and so widely scattered that our best efforts and greatest resources fail to supply their immediate wants. Without speedy aid many will perish and many more will suffer and become exiles. Our people will do their utmost for their relief, but all our resources would fail to meet their necessities. We appeal to the charity and generosity of the American people. Send help without delay.
