A VFRY BEAUTIFUL PREMIUM ENGRAVING has been issued by "Peterson's Magazine," for 1881, to reward persons for getting up clubs. The plate is large, 20 inches by 16, and would ornament even the most refined parlor; for it is executed in the highest style of art. It is entitled "HUSH! DON'T WAKE THEM," and represents a little girl, seated at a bedside, where her two sick dolls are, and she is holding up her finger, warning-, and is prepared to carry express pack- ly, as she speaks. It is really one of ages and other goods from Coburn to the most charming pictures possible; Woodward and all intermediate points all the little ones, especially, will be delighted with it. Any one can secure this beautiful engraving, gratis, by getting up a club for "Peterson." Only the enormous circulation of the Magazine can explain why the proprietors can afford to give such premiums. A Father Shot for Beating His Son.

ASHLAND, October 26 .- While waiting for a train at the Philadelphia and Reading depot here to-night a drunken man, who refused to give his name or residence, commenced an unmerciful atack upon his son, a lad of thirteen. People standing by interfered, when he parent drew a revolver and attemped to shoot those interfering. A struggle ensued, in which the pistol was discharged, the ball entering the drunken man's head and porbably fatally wounding him. He was carried to the station house. His son was so severely beaten without cause that he is in danger of his life.

A Bloody End to a Circus Performance.

ATLANTA, Ga., October 26.—After Cartersville, Ga., a difficulty occurred between some of the circus men and a Deputy Marshal and others. A negro was shot in the head and killed. Others were badly beaten and bruised. Two of the circus men were shot. Whisky was at the bottom of the trouble. A lion and bear escaped from the cages during the melee. The bear was shot and killed, The lion is still at large. Considerable excitement

PITTSBURG, October 27.—An attempt was made by three men to rob the Chicago express train on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago R. R. on its way to this city , about 12 o'clock last night. The train had just left Bucyrus Ohio, and was running at the rate How to GET RID OF CANADA of about fifteen miles an hour when the men boarded the train and attempted to force their way into one of the Pull- Dried Cherries..... man sleepers. They were met in the vestibule by Conductor Shallis, who endeavored to eject, them, whereupon one of the party drew a revolver and fired several shots, fortunately without injuring any person. The passengers were aroused by this time, and the thieves, becoming frightened, escaped by jumping from the train.

DOVER, Del., October 25 .- Jerry Scanlan and Curtis Williams, living in South Murderkill Hundred, near this town, have for some time past been on one should subscribe to any magazine tween them respecting some boundary until they have seen a copy of "Peter- lines. Yesterday afternoon Scanlan was in this place and after drinking heavily started for home, saying he intended to kill himself. About dusk. 306 Chestnut St. Philadelphia, Pa. he went to Williams' house, armed with a shotgun. He knocked at the door and when Williams responded he called him out. A few words passed between them, when Scanlan fired, with the muzzle of the gun almost touching Williams. The shot took effect in the left shoulder. As soon as Scanlan saw what he had done he discharged the other barrel of the gun into his own body, the ball entering the abdomen. He then crawled as far as a ditch, where he was found soon afis thought it will penetrate two feet of ter by Williams' brother. Neither solid iron when discharged from the Scanlan nor his victim are expected to

A Financial Crash.

The Mechanics' Natio al Bank of Newark, N. J. closed on Monday, October 31 st. It was the largest bank in New Jersey and one of the most influnetial. Its capital was $500,000 and its surplus $466, 000. The exact amount of its deposits we have not yet learned, but understood that they were large. The bank had an excellent credit, anp some of its managers are indentified with the management of other important corporations, like the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance company of New York, and the principal saveigs banks there. All the rumors current agree on the point that there has been a heavy defalcation, and this is charged to the cashier, O. L. Baldwin, who was the acting executive officer of the ment, stated that in his opinion the bank. It is said that yesterday he called Lewisburg. Their place is 230 Market | Cox said the date now fixed must be | worth about $50,000. The news came like a thunder clap on the community,

There was not a suspicion that the institution was not the strongest in Newark. The directors have been considered the most trustworthy body of men in the city, the reputation of Baldwin as a financier probably stood first in the state. The bank is closed to all comers, and no official facts have been made known beyond the arrest of Baldwin on a charge of embezzlement and the sending for goverment eqam-

Coyle, the alleged murderer of Emily Myers, was found guilty of murder in the first degree at York. Yesterday a motion was made and reasons filed for a new trial. There is small possibility of him getting it.
