

Local Department.

—Marble door steps of the best Sutherland Falls marble, made at the Millheim Marble Works at a moderate price.

—You can get a good Overcoat at Spigleweyer's for $3.25 and better ones for a little more money.

—The largest assortment of Dress goods in Millheim is to be found at Spigleweyer's. No trouble to show them.

—WANTED 150 to 200 pounds of good nice dried apples or "suits" for which a good price will be paid cash at the Journal store.

—A new stock of Day Books, Ledgers, Time Books, Memorandas, Receipt and other blank books just received at the Journal store.

—A splendid, strong 2 horse spring wagon for sale. None better in the valley. Price moderate. Inquire at the Journal office.

—J. A. LIMBERT, the new mail contractor, has procured a fine new wagon and is prepared to carry express packages and other goods from Coburn to Woodward and all intermediate points at reasonable charges.

—Do any of our readers know the whereabouts of that friendly, genial old chap called Indian Summer? His presence here is very much desired and he would be welcome to stay at least several weeks.

—Don't forget that the Journal Book Store has a splendid lot of Germantown Wool, Zephyr, Silk Floss, Rick Rack Braid, Canvas, Crochet Hooks, Knitting Cotton, and everything necessary for fancy work always on hand.

—Rev. L. C. Edmonds, of Adamsburg, Snyder county, will deliver a free lecture in the Reformed church, Aaronsburg, on Saturday evening, Nov. 20th, instant. Subject: The Great West. The public is respectfully invited to attend.

—WANTED.—About 3500 first class 1 1/2 inch yellow pine flooring in the rough. Need not be fully dry. Inquire at the Journal office.

—DOLL & MINGLE the enterprising Boot & Shoe dealers in Bellefonte keep a full stock of everything in their line. Any possible style or kind of boots, shoes, slippers and overshoes are there, and their prices are as low as the lowest. Give them a call and you will find that you can fully suit yourself both as regards quality and price. "Cap," the obliging junior of the firm, will treat and serve you in best style.

—JOHN LUSE is without doubt the handiest chap to have about you when there is work to do, we know of John can erect a building, fresco a church, build a monument, run a paper and repair or "fix" almost anything you give him. Millheim would have hard scratching to get along without John.

—ANDREW'S GLOBE STORE in Lock Haven keeps about everything in the dry goods, fancy goods or notion line you can think of, besides, a great many things you don't think of. You can not go wrong for anything your lady folks want, of the thousand and one articles that constitute the make-up of their dresses. Andrews is an active, enterprising business man, knows exactly what he is about, sells as cheaply as the cheapest and is a wholesale clever chap besides. Read what he says in his advertisement and then go and try him.

—Lewin's Philadelphia Branch Clothing House, in Bellefonte is the most popular as well as the most successful establishment of the kind in Centre county. Lewin understands the clothing business in all its details, and his many customers know that they get full value for their money. The large store is just now filled with stacks and piles of Overcoats, suits, hats, and gent's furnishing goods generally. Every taste and every person can be suited. Nor need you go anywhere else with the idea of buying cheaper. Lewin sells at rock bottom prices. He simply "beats 'em all."

—For the last three or four years Millheim has improved considerably in good new buildings and the rebuilding of old ones, among which the fine dwelling houses of James P. Smith, Jonathan Harter and F. P. Musser, deserve creditable mention. Snook's new mansion and the Lutheran church, both fine brick structures are now under way. The church if completed according to the plans will be a model of credit to the congregation and an ornament to the town. We understand too that some of the other congregations expect to repair their churches next summer, in which they should receive all possible encouragement. But there is still lots of room for other buildings. What Millheim most wants to enhance it as a live and growing town, is about a dozen thrifty mechanical establishments. Choice building lots can be bought at very moderate prices, building material is abundant and rates lower than at most towns of our size and advantages, and living is as cheap here as most anywhere. Come along, then, about a dozen of you at once—good, sober, industrious men, to build homes and open business. The Journal will bid you welcome.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.—On Thursday night, Nov. 10th, an attempt was made to rob the store of Judge Frank & Son, Rebersburg, the particulars of which are as follows: Official business demanding the presence of the Judge in Bellefonte, the scoundrels thought an opportune moment presented itself to make a pillaging tour to the store. At about one o'clock in the night, Luther B. Frank, the junior of the firm, was awakened by a slight noise at the door leading to the ware house and store, on the north side, and hastily made ready to see what was up. Grasping a horse pistol which was kept convenient, he quietly came down stairs, went into the kitchen a few steps from the door where the noise was heard, cocked his pistol quietly, opened the door which led to the scene of operations and hastily ushered himself into the presence of what proved to be two men trying to effect an entrance into the store. One of the men immediately fired at Luther, the shot taking effect, while the other tried to escape. Luther, knowing that he was shot retreated, the robbers making good their escape. Dr. Hillish was at once summoned and in a short time extracted a 32 calibre ball from the lower, inner side of the right knee.

Luther expects to recover speedily, as the ball is not supposed to have touched either bone or tendon. It is rumored that he knows who the dastardly villains are, and if so public opinion demands a speedy prosecution. Rather than allow freedom to such demons let them be hunted down like wild beasts.

Rebersburg, Nov. 15. 1881. JUSTICE. SPRING MILLS ITEMS

Smith & Co, of Lewisburg, rented Runk's grist mill, and W. A. Kerlin and Wm. From are to run it. No better millers in the county.

R. H. Duncan & Son's new store building is nearly completed. It will have one of the finest store rooms in the valley. Success to the gentlemen.

The Spring Mills Academy is in a flourishing condition. Mr. Lewis Renter A. B. the able principal, is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall College.

Geo. P. Ream bought G. B. Crawford's new house for $500. Cheap enough.

Last Saturday morning as the engine sent a car on Grenoble's siding he collided with the repair men's hand car. Amos Koch turned a summer-sault down the embankment but was not much hurt. T. Kennelly was hurt badly and is confined to bed. Hope he may soon recover.

UNCLE TOM. News Miscellany.

There are 599,925 scholars in the Sunday schools of this state.

The treasurer of Deaver county last week in opening the door of his safe in the court house was seized by two men. While one held him the other helped himself to the cash and bills amounting to $13,000.

A Man Who Disinherited Moustaches. READING, November 2.—Gerhart Bechtel, of Washington township, Berks county, died some time ago. His will was filed in the Register's office on Monday. It contained this remarkable provision: "That I further disinherit and prohibit from participation in the distribution of my estate such of my male descendants as persist in wearing moustaches." Probably all the interested male descendants will be hairless on the upper lip hereafter.

LYCOMING INSURANCE COMPANY. The Receiver's Report shows a Large Deficit.

The report of J. A. Beeber, Esq., Receiver of the Lycoming Fire Insurance Company of Muncy, was filed in the court of Common Pleas, Lycoming county, Nov. 4th. It showed the gross liabilities of the company to be $362,072.81, the assets $185,570.76. The premium notes amount to $875,019.78; cash in hands of Treasurer at time of appointment of Receiver, $12,382.69; cash since received by Receiver, $1,942.22. The deficit is $176,472.05, making an assessment of from 21 to 22 per cent necessary. The Court directed the Receiver to file a bond of $50,000 to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; also, to report to the Court as soon as sufficient funds should be realized to pay 10 per cent of the liabilities, and to print his report as Receiver, already filed, together with the order of the Court and the fact of the filing and approval of the bond, for the information of all concerned.

The report shows conclusively that he officers of the old and rotten swindling concern are fully ripe for the penitentiary.

A NERVOUS looking man went into a store the other day and sat down for half an hour or so, when a clerk asked if there was anything she could do for him. He said no, he didn't want anything. She went away and he sat there half an hour longer. When the proprietor went to him and asked if he wanted to be shown anything. "No," said the nervous man, "I just want to sit around. My physician has recommended perfect quiet for me, and says above all things I must avoid being in crowds. Noticing that you did not advertise in the newspapers, I thought that this would be as quiet a place as I could find, so I just dropped in for a few hours of "isolation." The merchant picked up a bolt of paper cambric to brain him, but the man went out. He said all he wanted was a quiet life.—Ec.

Proposed Admission of a New State.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Republican Senators and members are preparing a bill for the admission of Dakota into the Union as a State. They feel sure of two more Republican Senators if the Territory is admitted as a State, and with them hope to secure a permanent majority in the Senate. They expect opposition from the Democrats, but depend on Mahone and David Davis to carry it through.

Men's imprudence very often gets them into trouble, and some time ago a country man in Illinois who went to Missouri to work. He got fair wages and saved some money. He then started for home. When he came to a certain station in Illinois he had to lay over to make the connection. In the mean time he went into a saloon and purchased something to eat and displayed his money. That very act cost him his life as a "rough" who saw him display his money when he paid his bill spotted him and killed him before the arrival of the next train.—Ec.

Pennsylvania needs such a Law Badly.

Under the new law, any person holding office under the constitution and laws of the state of Indiana, who shall become intoxicated during the business hours of his office, shall be fined not more than $100 nor less than $50, to which may be added imprisonment in the county jail not more than ten days, for the first offence. For the second offence he may be deprived of his office by the Circuit Court. This law includes all the county and township officers—such as clerk, sheriff, justice, constable.

Messrs. Linn, Dill and Smith, Attorneys for Israel Erb and Jonathan Moyer, publish a notice in the Middleburg Post that they will apply to the board of pardons at its next session, on Tuesday, Nov. 15th, for the pardon of Mr. Erb, and Mr. Moyer, convicted of the murder of Gretchen Kintzler. —Sinsgrove Times.

Womelsdorf Orphans Home Burned.

READING, Nov. 11.—The Bethany Orphans' Home, a charitable institution of the German Reformed church, located at Womelsdorf, this county, was entirely destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning. The fire was discovered between 12 and 1 o'clock. The losses heavy. All the orphans were saved.

FRIGHTFUL FIGURES. Report of the Pension Bureau.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The annual report of the Pension Bureau for the last fiscal year shows that on the 30th of June, 1881, there were 238,833 pensioners; 28,740 pensioners were added to the roll during the year, and the names of 10,712 were dropped, leaving a net increase of 18,028. The commissioner of Pensions asks a regular appropriation of $100,000, and a deficiency appropriation of $20,000,000 besides. These figures are simply enormous.

The contest for the speakership of the next house will now begin in dead earnest. In the east the only prominent candidate is Mr. Hisscock of New York, Judge Kelley having fixed his eye on the chairmanship of the committee of ways and means. But Judge Kelley's extreme protective tariff doctrines and his heresies on the currency will make him very objectionable to many of the republicans for that position. The western candidates for speaker are Kasson of Iowa, Kiefer of Ohio, and Orth of Indiana. Some objection is made to Mr. Kasson in the east on account of former free trade utterance, but that will not affect him much in the west where comes the preponderance of the republican strength in the house. As for Kiefer it is generally conceded that Ohio has had quite enough for the present, and Orth went do. By the time that congress meets it is likely that the struggle for speaker will narrow down between Hisscock and Kasson with the chance in favor of the latter. —Patriot.

DIED.

At the residence of Howard Condo, in Miles township, Nov. 6th inst., Mr. Samuel Condo, aged 90 years, 5 months and 29 days.

The subject of this sketch was born in Berks county, Pa., May 10th, 1801, during the administration of President Washington. Before reaching majority he came to Centre county, learned his smithing and followed it for forty consecutive years, applying himself most vigorously to his craft. He was a skilled workman and his fame as a smith spread far and wide. Not only did Brush Valley share the fruits of his labor, but all parts of the county, as well as portions of Clinton county, took advantage of the benefits which patrons derived from the work of the "famous old smith" as he was styled. To give the readers an idea of the large amount of work he did, I will state that he ironed 284 large, broad-bottomed wagons, during the sixty years he followed his trade. This would make a train of about a mile and a third long.

He was the father of twelve children—eight of whom survive him to mourn their loss.

He was a quiet, unassuming man, never indulged in the idle gossip of the community and was therefore never a participant in local quarrels.

He undoubtedly observed plain hygienic laws, for he never was sick a day prior to his final illness. Never used spectacles, and even as late as last summer did a little mowing with the scythe. He walked to Rebersburg and back with apparent ease, a distance of two miles, only a short time ago. But finally disease took hold of the strong robust frame, and after intense suffering for ten days he fell a victim to erysipias. He was a member of the Lutheran church for many years. May he rest in peace. Rebersburg Nov. 14, 1881. G.

HOW TO INCREASE YOUR INCOME.

Just at this season of the year there are, among our readers, those looking for employment for the next six months. We have lately received from L. E. Brown & Co., the well-known manufacturers of specialties for agents to handle a request to put them in communication with one or more suitable persons in this locality, to act as agents in introducing several of their patented household articles to the public. They are anxious to comply with their request. The firm are manufacturers of a large number of household articles which they seek to introduce here, at this time, are Brown's Peerless Sifter, generally acknowledged to be the best in the world of which nearly one million were sold during the last year; the Kitchen Queen, the latest and best invention in Cutlery Lamps and the only absolutely safe Lamp made; the Centennial Cake and Bake Pan, and article which has a national reputation, and is the delight of every housekeeper; the Half Minute Egg Beater, which always sells at a profit, and the new A. to B. Revolve Bronze Frolics Cast of JAMES A. GARFIELD, with memorial frame, the best selling article ever put into the hands of an agent, the best of all the portraits, chromes or steel engravings that have been offered. It is a truer likeness of the martyred hero than any we have ever seen before, and its price brings it within the reach of all. For this county, Messrs. Brown & Co. desire to employ agents as an advantageously. Any smart, intelligent lady or gentleman can make a fine income in this way. The firm will send to any responsible person free who will assume the agency here and go to work, a complete outfit of these goods, to the value of five dollars, the names of which are listed on the first page, the goods are what they represent them to be. Their terms are liberal, remunerative employment to send them for further information. Their address is—L. E. BROWN & CO., 61 Walnut St., CINCINNATI, O.
