If any further evidence that Arthur's administration will be an out-and-out Stalwart-Grant rule, the appointment of Ex-Senator Frelinghysen as Secretary of State, furnishes the proof only too well. While he may not be personally corrupt himself, he certainly was a silent witness to all the loathsome corruption that will forever brand Grant's second term with incomy, me aided Grant's San Domingo speculation scheme, helped to smother up the French arms fraud investigation, and to crown all, was one of the notorious "eight" on the Electoral Commission that so wickedly cheated the country out of its choice for President in 1876. It is altogether fit that Arthur, who himself was removed from the New York Custom House for dishonest practices, should appoint Frelinghysen his Prime Minister.

The Nation's Humiliation.

From the Pottsville Miners' Journal. A perusal of the proceedings attending the trial of the infamous wretch Guiteau is sufficient to cause the cheeks of every American citizen to burn and tingle with very shame and mortification. When we recall the thrill of horror that shocked the nation on that fatal second of July and the consuming indignation against the base assassin tnat burned with a fervid and feverish intensity during the fong and wearing suspense of President Garfield's struggle for life, it is impossible to realize that the hideous mockery now going on at Washington is the culmination of that awful drama.

Notwithstanding the several statements to the contrary, President Arthur will not take formal possession of the white house until the latter part of t is week, possibly Thursday or Friday, Steward Crump says, however, if the president desires to move in earlier, they can give him accommodations, though the rooms selected by the president for his private use are not ready .-Harrisburg Patriot.

How a Sharper Makes Money.

From the Poughkeepsie (N. Y. ) Eagle. son with the "Ninty-five cent game." His method of doing business is to enof some article; on receiving it he tenders a two dollar bill in payment; the change given him by the storekeeper generally consisting of a dollar bill or silver piece and ninty-five cents in small coin, he places the dollar in his for making trouble in getting the bill changed, and, placing the five cents on the ninty-five cents, pushes it towards the storekeeper, asking for a dollar dill, saying he dislikes to carry so the pushes it towards the storekeeper, asking for a dollar dill, saying he dislikes to carry so the pushes it towards the storekeeper, asking for a dollar dill, saying he dislikes to carry so their girlish ways and then it will be the girlish ways and then it will be the girlish ways and the pushes th talking until he can place both the dollar bill he had originally given him. 78,000,000 per year.

A Lycoming County Specimen.

As a specimen of death-rattle insurance, the case of Samuel Miller, of Clinton township, is instructive. Samuel held a $1,000 policy on the life of his father, Joseph Miller, in a Selinsgrove concern. Joseph died in July and Samuel was suspected of hurrying off the old gentleman; was cast into jail, but was subsequently proven innocent and released, at a cost of about $40. In the meantime the assessments were dropping in with distressing regularity and Samuel, who is a poor man, was sorely pushed to pay them. This week be went down to Selinsgrove and received the magnificent sum of $13 for his policy, after having paid out and lost in money and time full $100 .-Muncy Cor. Williamsport Bulletin.

Preparations are being made to pass a bill in the next congress for the admission of Dakota as a State. The purpose of this scheme is to get two more Republican U. S. Senators and thus secure a Republican majority in the Senate. When the intelligent mind calmly considers modern politics in this country, the conclusion must be reached that everything is being prostituted for the sake of party and party ascendancy. The public interest is entirely uncared for and the only inquiry with politicians in regard to any measure is, not whether it is a public benefit but whether it will help their party. If the history is read with any degree of attention it will be seen that we are fast traveling in the road which leads to the destruction of our form of government with liberty in name but not in reality.-Ex.

The Kintzler Murderers before The Pardon Board.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 22.

Ex-Senator Dill, of counsel for the murderers of John Kintzler and wife, who were killed in Snyder county in December, 1877, appeared before the board and suggested the cases of Jonathan Moyer and Israel Erb, sentenced to be executed December 16, be heard the Penn street school house on the evening of the second Monday of each month.

A. WALTER, Sec,

B. O. Deininger, Prest.

He stated that since the day of hangat a subsequent meeting of the board. ing had been fixed by the Governor statements had been made by Jonathan Moyer and the late Emanuel Ettinger exonerating Erb from participataken in the matter, but not enough to justify present action in the case. Mr. Dill stated that the Governor, after having been informed by him that the necessary papers could not be prepared in time to be heard at the November meeting of the board, agreed to respite the prisoners. Mr. Hower, of Selinsgrove, who assisted in the prosecuti on. contended that the defendants' counsel had a month and a half to prepare evidence, ect., and opposed delay because of the insecure condition of the Snyder county Jail. Referring to Ettinger's statement he said it was no confession. It had been drawn from him while in a Wiker Run. dying condition by leading questions, the prisoner answering by a shake of the head. He promised to show that Ettinger did not die a natural death, but committed suicide. The board agreed to hear the murder case at the next meeting, provided the Governor granted the condemned a respite.

A SENSIBLE GIRL.

The Kind of Young Ladies We Want, but Which Are Hard to Find. To the Editor of The Times: I read with a great deal of interest a communication in your Sunday edition of October 16, signed "Junita" who made a reply to a "committee of one" touching the relative rights and privileges of young ladies who are as yet under parental restraint. Most girls of this age have an idea that they ought to be allowed perfect freedom and do as they please, simply because they happen to be girls. This is a mistaken idea. Girls under eighteen should always ask permission when they wish to go any place or to do something which they are not quite sure they have a right to do. It may be taken for granted that if a girl disobeys her parents she will be disobedient all through life, and such a person would naturally make a wretched wife for any man except those of a puny nature. There are too many girls who can be seen running around the streets when they should be at home, helping their mothers or engaged in some of her useful work. Men do not care particularly to have wives who are aquainted with all the latest slang phrases, and when called upon can act A sharper is on his way up the Hud- the lady to perfection. What they want are true, sensible and well-bred girls, who have been bro ught up to ter a store and ask for five cents worth | work and know what is expected of them as wives and mothers. The too awul nice young ladies, who are neither wax doll nor human being, but a between will do well enough for the dan dies but for my part give us the girl who has an inborn knowledge of the household duties and who has been pocket, and, suddenly finding a five broughtup under true parental restraintcent piece in that receptacle, apologizes It is quite time girls got this foolish

There is scarcely a man or boy in change and the bill together, when he this country but carries a lead pencil in coolly asks the victim to exchange the his vest pocket. It is estimated that two dollars on the counter for the two 250,000 pencils are purchased each day.

> Discovering a Mammoth Oyster Bed.

MINEOLA, L. I., November 25 .- A mammoth bed of seed oysters has been discovered in Long Island Sound off the mouth of Hemstead Harbor. A large fleet of vessels are at work on the bed. One hundred bushels are caught in a day by each vessel.

Astonished to Hear of Garfield's Death.

Atchison Letter in the Kansas City Times. I dislike to state the fact, but yesterday a man was in town to purchase goods for his family, who lives down in the Missouri flats, who was surprised to hear that James A. Garfield had been assassinated, and that Guiteau had been undergoing trial for the crime, and then begged some one to tell him when "Gawfell" was elected.

The Rev. Dr. Pomeroy, of Cleveland, in a sermon exclaimed: "The feeling is profound that the halter is the only proper remedy foriusanities like Guiteau's."
