

Local Department.

—Lancaster Almanacs, English and German, at the Journal Store.

—Our town council will hold its next regular monthly meeting on Monday evening.

—Our schools were closed on Thanksgiving day, and it seemed to suit the boys to a "T."

—The trade in holiday goods has commenced and all tastes and notions can be satisfied in our different stores.

—Gunners seem to be plentier than game in this section, judging from the empty bags they bring home.

—Wm. Kerstetter shot a deer last week just before Coburn. It was of the kind called spiezbuck.

—The celebrated Rockford stockings—the best in the world, for sale at the Journal store.

—Marble door steps of the best Sutherland Falls marble, made at the Millheim Marble Works at a moderate price.

—The champion porkers in town were slaughtered yesterday by A. O. Deininger, weighing 471 & 491 pounds respectively. Next!

—WANTED 150 to 200 pounds of good nice dried apples or "snits" for which a good price will be paid cash at the Journal store.

—A new stock of Day Books, Ledgers, Time Books, Memorandas, Receipt and other blank books just received at the Journal store.

—A splendid, strong 2 horse spring wagon for sale. None better in the valley. Price moderate. Inquire at the Journal office.

—WANTED.—About 3500 first class 1 1/2 inch yellow pine flooring in the rough. Need not be fully dry. Inquire at the Journal office.

—The papers say that Deininger's death, one of the convicted Kintzier murderers, in the Snyder county jail, was caused by poison.

—Renovo borough had to pay a Mrs. Finney $700 damages for injuries received by reason of a bad board walk. Rather expensive neglect.

—Dr. J. R. Stam, of State College, was in town last week, and as rumor has it, is trying to buy a property here with the intention of settling.

—On Wednesday night we had a snow of about three inches deep, and on Thursday the air was made lively with, "The tintinnulation of the bells."

—If you have any dealings with Adam Zerby's estate, go and settle with the administrators at squire Eisenhuth's office, December the 17th. See their notice in another column.

—Work has been suspended for the present—perhaps for the season, at the new church. That grim old codger, Mr. Winter, came along unbidden and unwelcome and gruffly commanded all hands to stop—and they did stop.

—J. A. LUMBERT, the new mail coach tractor, has procured a fine new wagon and is prepared to carry express packages and other goods from Coburn to Woodward and all intermediate points at reasonable charges.

—In accordance with an act of the Legislature passed in May last all the anthracite coal mining companies have provided ambulances and stretchers at their collieries to convey injured miners to their homes.—Saturday Democrat.

—That piece of boardwalk in front of F. Catherman's residence on North Street is a bad place. Many will slip and fall heavily in walking over it this winter. The council ought to see to it and avoid possible accidents and consequent damages.

—Lewisburg has a new monthly paper, named "The Indicator," and devoted to Literature, Agriculture, Temperance and Religion, a copy of which is on our table. It is an eight page sheet, well written and fairly printed.

—An effort is being made in town to raise a large singing class for Prof. J. H. Kurzenkabe, the well-known vocal teacher. The Prof. consented to come to Millheim about the last week in December and expects to finish up the term with a rousing convention in January. All those desiring to participate as members of the class, will please inquire at the Journal Store for particulars.

—821 Buggies, spring wagons and carriages were manufactured in Millheim during the past season—an average of over two and a half for each working day of the whole year. There are thirty firms engaged in the business, Mr. Jacob Gutelius heading the list, with 105 buggies, 12 buckboards, 8 spring wagons and 4 carriages. Now that's what we call enterprise and business.

—People hereabouts express their opinion very freely, and in quite a variety of forms, on the state of weather.

Thursday last many thought the day was ugly; some said it was tremendous; Adolph calls it grausam; Col. Adams pronounced it ridiculous; many more thought it was bad for the season.

—Mr. Lewin of the popular Philadelphia Branch Clothing Store, Bellefonte has just returned from the eastern cities with a tremendous stock of new clothing. If you wish to spend the holidays in a becoming manner you had better at once get yourself one of his fine new suits, which he sells lower than can be bought at any other place in the county. Lewin can rig you out for a trifling sum of money in such exquisite style that your own wife will hardly know you on your return from Bellefonte. Give him but half a chance just to see what he will do for you.

—DOLL & MINGLE the enterprising Boot & Shoe dealers in Bellefonte keep a full stock of everything in their line. Any possible style or kind of boots, shoes, slippers and overshoes are there, and their prices are as low as the lowest. Give them a call and you will find that you can fully suit yourself both as regards quality and price. "Cap," the junior partner of the firm, will treat and serve you in best style.

BUSY AS A BEAVER.—Neighbor Frank Kister is at it hard and heavy making about the neatest and best dress shoes ever seen in this section. Frank is an expert in the business, has lots of work and more coming, and what we particularly like about him he makes a real bona fide effort to avoid the common fault of shoemakers.

R. R. ACCIDENT.—There was a considerable wreck at Coburn station last Saturday. The morning train arriving at that station at about 7 o'clock, A. M. consisted of three truck cars, loaded with prop timber, in front of the engine and several freight cars behind. The intention was to get the truck cars also behind the locomotive by running them on the main track for which purpose they pulled down below the switch at Kerstetter's. Starting backwards from there at a rapid rate the trucks were detached from the engine, which ran on the sidetrack. The rails being cold and slippery the engine was thrown off, only one of the wheels remaining on the track. It plowed its way between and on the ties from the cut up to Perry Stover's grain house when the three trucks instead of being on the main track followed the engine and ran with great force into the same, causing in and demolishing the front part completely. The collision threw the cars crosswise on the tracks making pieces of the rails and ties. As far as we can learn no person was hurt seriously. A wreck train was sent for at once and arrived on Saturday evening, when the road was repaired and cleared for the passage of regular trains.

BELLEFONTE LETTER. Bellefonte, Pa., Nov. 30th, 1881. I HEARD—that Mr. A. Walter and Mr. Frank Bowers were pressing some Bellefonte bricks on Saturday. That we may not have any glass made here after all. The management have said the cost of sand, owing to trouble in getting it, would not pay them to manufacture it.

That the nail works are to be rushed on to completion at a lively rate. That Fort Spangler is pretty well filled with boarders. This speaks ill of our morals as a county.

That Millheim merchants do not advertise in the Journal as they should. [It's true; and the worst is they don't see their mistake in neglecting it.—E.] That the management of the Brockerhoff House changes hands, Jan. 1st, 1882.

That Mr. Al. Mingle is suffering with a troublesome boil that insisted upon taking up its abiding place near one of Cap's optics, causing said member to appear in ministerial dress.

That drummers consider our merchants without a single exception the safest in the state.

That the Centre Co.'s new building is not nearing completion very rapidly.

That the Court House ring is preparing some of its members for that station in life where he who would live must do some work, inasmuch as most of them will be requested to step down and out Jan 1st. Good bye, boys. You have always acted on the square and we all wish you God speed in whatever you may undertake.

That Mr. A. K. Runkle who is one of Lyon's stanbys is seriously ruminating upon the joys incident to a favorable matrimonial alliance and, no Providence preventing, thinks that when the roses bloom again he will be the happy head of a first class domus.

That Prof. J. C. Meyer is doing good work as Asst. Principal of our schools.

That our town has been blessed (?) with traveling shows of all kinds this season.

ARRIVAL OF NEW GOODS.—The Journal Book Store is filling up with new and select goods. Just received a large stock of heavy Envelopes, Paper, Fine Pasteries, Novelty Book Straps, Penboxes, Shipping Tags, Paragon Pen and Pencil Cases, &c. The finest and cheapest stock of Vases in town at the Journal Store. Additions to the stock are coming almost daily and in a few days the variety of Holiday goods at the Journal Store will be the largest and fanciest in the valley.

A KIND INVITATION.—Those of our patrons who are indebted to us on subscription, for one, two or three years, or for job work, are most cordially invited to call and settle their accounts. It takes money to run a paper and printing office, and a good deal of it throughout a year. All expenses for paper, material and work, are cash items and must be promptly met. In order to enable us to do this subscribers should settle up every year. The subscription price of the Journal is low and we do our level best to make it as interesting and useful as possible.

Come, friends, call to see us on business. We very much need several hundred dollars, and if we get only approximately what is due us we have plenty and to spare.

News Miscellany.

The Cologne cathedral has been finished, after 635 years work. There is still hope for the Washington monument.

The official report makes the total population of the United States 53,155,783.

A Fight Led by Rival Saloon-Keepers.

CINCINNATI, November 22.—A two-days' battle between two factions of countrymen, led by rival saloon-keepers, has just ended at Fisher's station, Indiana. The fight continued night and day, stones, pistols, knives and pool balls were freely used and Benjamin Couch was beaten to death by Hump West, a saloon-keeper. West was afterward beaten to a pulp and Andy Farrell, a saloon-keeper, was horribly mangled. Thirty-two others were wounded, some fatally. One man was found in the woods at midnight, dead. There is a reign of terror in town and a Sheriff's posse found Farrell, bloodstained beyond recognition, patrolling the street in front of his saloon armed with a gun.

A FRIGHTFUL FALL.

Five years ago, at the age of 20 years, H. M. Zorn, a native of Laurelton, Union county, Penn'a., went west to seek his fortune in the mining regions Colorado. He and his partner, Jay Craft, were working a claim called the Shamokin Lode on Slate mountain, near its summit. They had nearly completed their contract and were preparing to leave for the winter and return to Pennsylvania. In going to and from their cabin to the tunnel they had to go along a narrow path that was cut out and wound up along the side of the mountain. At one place the path was particularly dangerous, being only 18 inches wide and notched so as to afford foothold. On one side was the precipitous mountain and on the other a frightful declivity of 1800 or 2000 feet. There had been a crust of snow for a week or so about the summit of the mountain, making it very dangerous to walk the path. In going along the narrow and dangerous defile Zorn missed his footing and went over. He tried to grasp at something but couldn't, and he continued his fall for 1800 or 2000 feet till he reached the foot of the mountain, dead and crushed almost out of human shape. Mr. Craft could lend no help and could only stand and gaze with terror upon the horrid spectacle.—Sellinggrove Times.

Dr. Rothrock of Middleburg testified that he believed that Emanuel Etinger died from the effects of a dose of poison, and the commissioners had him dug out last week and his stomach taken out for analysis. The object we understand is, if he committed suicide, to invalidate his case as evidence before the board of pardons.

DAVID HUMMEL, of Orwigsburg, Schuylkill county, left his home on Sunday, and not returning friends went in search of him. He was found in a dying condition on the mountain, and is believed to have been waylaid and robbed.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS.—Mr. John D. Squires, of Lewisburg, was recently stricken with paralysis at Mahanoy City, where he was visiting. He is in a very critical condition. The case is a peculiar one, as Mr. Squires is a young man.

Burglaries and robberies are of daily occurrence in the towns and rural districts of central Pennsylvania. It is the duty of the citizens to keep a close watch on all strangers who appear to be with out any particular business and it should all the time be borne in mind that an easy address and good clothes are no guarantee of honesty.

Put from off your feet thin shoes for the ground is damp and has toothache, neuralgia sore throat and other kindred diseases in it, sufficient to penetrate a paper sole.

The Kintzier murderers have been respited by Governor Hoyt so that their cases can come up before the Board of Pardons next month. If they then fail to get commutation of sentence to imprisonment for life the Governor will then select a final day for their execution.

DIED.

On the 16th ult., in Potter township, Mr. Philip Confer, aged 71 years, 8 months and 29 days.

On the 24th ult. Elizabeth Metz of Woodward, Centre Co., Pa., Aged 80 years, 1 month, 7 days. Disease Cancer of the Stomach.

HOW TO INCREASE YOUR INCOME.

Just at this season of the year there are, among our readers, those looking for employment for the next six months. We have lately received from L. E. Brown & Co., the well-known manufacturers of safe lamps, for agents to handle one or more suitable persons in this locality, to act as agents in introducing their product, and after consideration we take this method to comply with the request. The firm are manufacturers of a large number of household articles, which they introduce to the public by means of a large number of household articles, 1000 persons in their employ. The particular articles which they seek to introduce here, at this time, are: Brown's Perfect Stove, generally acknowledged to be the best in the world of which nearly one million were sold during the last year; the Kitchen Queen, the latest and best invention in Coal Oil Lamps; and the only absolutely safe Lamp made; the Centennial Cake and Bake Pan, and article which has a national reputation, and is the delight of every housekeeper; the Half Minute Egg Beater, which always works at sight; and the new Acto-Belted Bronze Profile Cast of JAMES A. GARFIELD, with memorial frame—the best selling article ever put into the hands of an agent, the best of all portraits, chromos or steel engravings that have been offered. It is a true article of the martyred hero than any we have ever seen before, and its price brings it within the reach of all. For these reasons, Messrs. Brown & Co. desire as many agents as can be advantageously. Any smart, intelligent lady or gentleman can make a fine income in this way. The firm will send to any responsible person free who will assume the agency here and go through a complete course of these goods, and amount of five dollars. The reputation of this house is first rate; the goods are what they represent them to be. The terms are liberal, and we advise those looking for general, remunerative employment to send to them for further information. Their address is: L. E. BROWN & CO., 64 Walnut St., CINCINNATI, O.
