The Assassin's Trial.

Guiteau's trial is dragging its slow length wearily along. A great many witnesses have been heard on part of the defense, but Guiteau himself is the principal actor in the scene.

"May it please your Honor, the American people do not desire that this case be tried in public, and I do not desire it. I say with the utmost respect to this court and jury and my counsel, Mr. Scoville, that I am not satisfied with the political situation as developed here in this case."

Four Hundred Consumed. LONDON, December 9.—The Central News Association has a dispatch from Vienna dated this afternoon, saying: Four hundred corpses have thus far been recovered from the ruins of the burned theatre.

Vienna, Dec. 11.—The work of the removal of the debris has been resumed. The hall of the hospital where the bodies are laid out presents agonizing scenes. The official list gives the number of missing at 917. It is feared that as the debris is removed hundreds of bodies will be found in the blocked up passages.

the democrats whose seats are to be contested were elected by large majorities, and there are no good grounds for contests in any one case, with the possible exception of the sixth Mississippi district, where it seems that Chalmers was given the certificate on the ground that many of the ballots cast for his opponent were illegal.

THE "TIMES" ON GITEAU.

THE TIMES has hitherto refrained from comment on the merits of the case of Guiteau, the assassin of President Garfield; but the testimony is now before the jury and the world, and every intelligent journal and citizen can reach a final judgment.

Profoundly as the nation was shocked by the atrocious murder of President Garfield, the trial of the criminal has been delayed until the sober reflection of the people had taught the supreme necessity of trying and judging Guiteau with the same fairness that would be accorded to any ordinary offender and it has been done.

A TALE OF TERROR.

Three Hundred People Consumed in a Vienna Theatre. Which Takes Fire From The Upsetting of a Lamp Upon the Stage—Many Spectators Injured and Others Saved by Jumping from the Windows. Sickening Scenes of Horror.

VIENNA, December 8, 9.30 p. m.—This evening at 7 o'clock a theatre formerly the comic opera house, where Sarah Bernhardt recently performed took fire owing to the falling of a lamp on the stage and the building was consumed. The house was tolerably full. The loss of life was very great. Up to the present time seventy bodies have been recovered. Many were injured. Sixty were saved by ladders and by jumping from the windows.

The scene was terrible, the flames shooting up through the roof and eventually gutting the entire building. One hundred and forty-five bodies have been brought out of the theatre, but the dead therein are still numerous, many bodies having been consumed in the galleries and other elevated parts of the building. The chief cause of the catastrophe was that in the confusion the iron partition separating the stage from the auditorium was not lowered.

Thousands of people assembled in the neighboring streets where they could hear the cries of agony of the people at the windows of the theatre praying to be saved. The rapidity of the flames prevented the people from taking advantage of the ordinary exits. Only a small proportion of the audience saved themselves, which they did by leaping from the windows, three stories high, into cloths held below.

Midnight.—The taking out of bodies from the theatre continued. It is estimated that three hundred persons perished. Some of the bodies are fearfully disfigured. Several persons were injured in springing from the windows. On the spreading of the news of the disaster the performances at the other theatres were stopped.

THE season of the year is again at hand when the corps of Mulligan guards arrange themselves on sentinal duty along the curbstone in front of churches while the congregation passes out. This is the most liberal-hearted and self-sacrificing military organization the county can boast of in time of peace. Their services are voluntary and gratuitous—they are always on hand, rain or shine, and will not be deterred from discharging their patriotic duty, or driven from their post, by the captivating smiles of young ladies or protests of church officers.—E.
