

Local Department.

James D. Luse has broken ground for a new house on Penn street. That's business, Jim, go in.

Lewisburg has started up a new band. Millheim has an old one, but it is good.

Gen. Wm. McCandless has announced himself as a Democratic candidate for Governor.

Reuben Grimm, Guardian, will offer a valuable property in Madisonburg at public sale, Dec. 31st. See notice in another column.

Two new Presbyterian churches were built in Millheim this last summer, one of which is completed and the other nearly so.

Mr. Harvey Lamy has bought himself a lot and is going to build himself an house. Go in, Harvey, while you are yet young.

On Saturday night a board shanty near Pittsburg was burned to the ground and eleven of the sleeping inmates roasted to death, while many others were severely injured.

Gen. Judson Kilpatrick, United States Minister to Chili, died at Valparaiso, on the 4th inst., of Bright's disease. He was a dashing and brave officer in the late war.

There is to be a grand musical convention at Freeburg, Snyder county, commencing, Monday, Jan. 2nd, to continue during the week. We understand that our own W. T. Meyer is to preside at the organ.

An exchange thinks there is a fortune in store for the chap who will invent a bonnet that can be worn in any part of the congregation and always present the trimmed side toward the congregation.

Warren Woodward, son of the late Judge Warren J. Woodward, of the state Supreme Court, committed suicide at Reading last week by shooting himself. He was in poor health and under great mental depression.

J. A. LIMBERT the new mail contractor, has procured a fine new wagon and is prepared to carry express packages and other goods from Coburn to Woodward and all intermediate points at reasonable charges.

John Karn, Philip A. Musser and Daniel Auman had a bear hunt in Poe Valley last week. They shot a bear of the hog kind weighing over 300 pounds. They kindly remembered us with a nice roast, for which they will accept our thanks.

No-wont do at all this way. Every fellow is hopping mad because somebody says the other chaps logs weighed heavier. We are tired of this strif card insist that the regular hog committee must be appointed in due time for next year. Judge Hartman, to the front.

DOLL & MINGLE the enterprising Boot & Shoe dealers in Bellefonte keep a full stock of everything in their line. Any possible style or kind of boots, shoes, slippers and overshoes are there, and their prices are as low as the lowest. Give them a call and you will find that you can fully suit yourself both as regards quality and price. "Cap," the junior partner of the firm, will treat and serve you in best style.

BUSY AS A BEAVER.—Neighbor Frank Kister is at it hard and heavy making about the neatest and best dress hoes ever seen in this section. Frank is an expert in the business, has lots of work and more coming, and what we particularly like about him he makes a real bona fide effort to avoid the common fault of shoemakers.

It affords us pleasure to announce that Prof. Kuzenkabe is again coming to Millheim to teach a singing class. He fixes Wednesday evening the 28th, as the time to begin. We trust that all our young folks will improve so rare an opportunity to acquire a practical knowledge of vocal music. Get yourself ready to start in at the beginning.

Mr. Duan Neff with several men is now putting a slate roof on Snook's new mansion. The work progresses fast, looks well, and is first class. Mr. Neff is an experienced mechanic, having made a large number of new roofs in Milton and other places. This is the second slate roof in Penn's Valley, the first one being in Centre Hall, and was put up many years ago.

We are happy to learn from papers and letters, that our young, old friend, Mr. Anteb S. Ruhl, of Rockford, Illinois, is getting along in the world swimmingly. He is a leading citizen and business man of the thriving young city, runs the celebrated Nelson Knitting Factory, whose hosiery has a world-wide reputation, is happily married and has an interesting family—but his perverted politics—pshaw! And we can not help thinking of what was said to a certain other young man who had asked an important question: "one thing thou lackest." Guess we must go out there some time and set Anteb right.

It seems to be expected of every paper, city or local, large or small, to give at least a fair synopsis of the President's annual message. But to do so even approximately in the Journal would crowd out all other reading matter and local news. Knowing that our readers would much dislike to have our Stalwart President's message take up all our available space, we concluded to give it in the form of a supplement and let each one have his own conclusions about it. We may still have some comments to make upon it at a later period, but have not the time, nor are we in just the exact humor to do so now. Suffice it to say that we take no stock at any price in President Arthur.

In order to off-set the dry and prosy message of the President, we concluded to print our own annual message on the other side of our supplement. Our message differs widely from Arthur's, but we submit to the intelligent people of the United States whether ours is not the plainer, more pointed and practical document of the two. Our suggestions and recommendations are not hid and lost in a multiplicity of words, but will be readily understood by all. Neither are we so exclusive and upish as to address ourselves to a select class of senators and congressmen only: we speak to all—wether senator, congressman or plain citizen. In one other point our message has a most decided advantage over President Arthur's—it is brief. "Brevity is the soul of wit," Arthur's message has neither brevity nor wit, and least of all—soul—in it. We know what people like to read, especially at this festive season. Arthur don't—and that's the difference between Arthur and we.

Lewin's Clothing, Lewin's Clothing, Lewin's Clothing, Is the best, Is the best, Is the best, And the cheapest, And the cheapest, Ever offered, Ever offered, In the County, In the County, In the County, DEININGER & MUSSER have again received a car load of marble direct from the celebrated Sutherland Falls quarries Vermont, which is the very best, both for beauty and durability now in the market. This firm has turned out a large amount of work during the summer and fall, including some very fine monuments. A massive double monument is under way to mark the last resting place of Mr. & Mrs. John Ruhl, at Rebersburg.

Col. John W. Forney, the distinguished journalist, politician and lecturer, died at his home in Philadelphia, last Friday the 9th inst. On Monday the remains were interred in Laurel Hill cemetery. The pall bearers were General W. S. Hancock, Hon. W. D. Kelley, General D. E. Sickles, Hon. S. J. Randall, Hon. E. B. Hart, Hon. A. G. Curtin, Colonel A. K. McClure, George W. Childs, Daniel Dougherty and Lewis C. Cassidy.

BELLEFONTE LETTER.

Bellefonte, Dec. 13th, 81. CHURCHES.—An elegant new iron fence adorns the front of the Episcopal church.

Rev. Pennepacker of the Methodist church, is conducting a revival that we sincerely hope may result in much good. The new Edifice of our Reformed friends is nearing completion; it is a model of neatness, durability and artistic workmanship.

The personal property in the Presbyterian church will be offered for sale shortly. Sheriff Spangler will dictate terms. The most unpretentious church building in Centre county is the one occupied and used as a house of worship by the Friends or Quakers of Bellefonte, and yet some of the wealthiest citizens of town are numbered among its members.

Mr. Wm. Mills, colored, now takes part in the deliberations of our school board, in place of Rev. Geo. Skinner, colored who has accepted a pastorate at Danville. These gentlemen have by honest, hard work and fine purpose secured for themselves the respect of all who know them.

It has been settled that Gen. J.A. Beaver is to be the Machine Boss Stalwart Republican candidate for Governor next year.

President Arthur, it is said, has been induced to throw the weight of any influence he may have in this State in favor of our townsman.

Judge Mayer presided last week of Court.

Only thirteen persons are ardently desirous of serving the people of the County as Commissioners, clerk. Thirteen candidates and three voters. Let us all smile.

Several of our Sunday schools have instituted Meetings, called Sociables, upon the assembling of which the members sing, read essays, recite select reading, deliver orations and have a good aesthetic time generally. Good idea.

Benjamin Kerstetter, administrator of the estate of Daniel Kerstetter, deceased, will have sale of the personal effects of decedent, Saturday, Dec. 31st at one o'clock, at Coburn. Carpenter's tools, boards, lumber and household goods will be sold. See notice in another column.

The coming convention of the Centre Co. Teacher's Institute promises to be a very brilliant one, and we hope it may be as useful in its practical benefits to the profession. One of the principal features of the Institute will be the publication of the daily Teacher's Journal, by Prof. D. M. Lieb and our talented young friend, Mr. J. R. VanOrmer. The Journal was a grand success last year and we trust it will still be more so this year.

News Miscellany.

AUTOMATIC brakes are now used on freight cars.

AMERICA has one-third of the 189,000 doctors in the world.

THE Philadelphia and Reading railroad company have recently ordered fifty new locomotives.

A company has been organized at Harrisburg for the purpose of mining copper on 3000 acres of land lying partly in this State and partly in Maryland.

The managers of the Bethany Orphan's Home, at Womelsdorf, Berks county, which was recently destroyed by fire, have decided to rebuild the institution and invite contributions to aid the work.

Cattle are now shipped from Pittsburg to Philadelphia in fast trains, in order to comply with the law which forbids the keeping of live stock in cars over twenty-four hours without unloading to feed.

The elopement of Martha Neally, the richest heir-ess in Claremont county, Ohio, with Dr. John McDonald, an already married man, was noteworthy from the fact that the girl's mother accompanied the couple in their flight.

The body of an unknown man was found in an abandoned chamber of the Bellevue shaft, near Scranton on Saturday night, with the hands and face entirely eaten away by rats. From the appearance of the clothing, the body had been there for the last five years.

Killed in Trying to Save Her Cow. NORRISTOWN, December 8.—Margaret Kane, a woman about forty-five years of age, and the mother of five children, was killed on the railroad at Bridgeport this morning. She attempted to drive her cow from the track, when the engine of a passenger train struck her and threw her ten or twelve feet. Her head was horribly crushed and she lived only a short time.

A Denver (Colorado) paper was received here last week which contained a lengthy account of the arrest of a number of railroad conductors and brakemen on freight trains on the Kansas Pacific railroad who were charged with robbing boxes of merchandise, etc., while in transit on the railroad.

Among the conductors arrested appears the name of F. M. Furey, formerly conductor on the road at this place. According to the paper a large lot of the stolen merchandise was found in his house. His wife stated that she had urged her husband to have nothing to do with this kind of work and that she herself had burned up many articles to get rid of them. The arrested ones were placed in jail, and were to have a hearing in a few days. Much sympathy had been expressed by the people of Denver for the family of Mr. Furey.

FROM WEALTH TO INSANITY.

The Romance of a Young Woman Found Demented at a Depot.

JERSEY CITY, December 7. An insane woman was arrested at the Central Railroad depot in this city night before last, having come in the cars from Easton, Pa. Last night it was learned that the woman's name is Annie Thompson, formerly a resident of Montclair, N. J., where her family were at one time wealthy people. By unsuccessful speculations her father became impoverished, and his reverses preyed on him so that he died. The mother and two daughters came to New York, and one got occupation as a book-agent. About six months ago she began to show signs of mental aberration, and about three months ago mysteriously disappeared. The next thing heard of her was that she had attempted suicide by jumping in the rapids above Niagara Falls. Two men who saw her preparing for the fatal plunge forcibly restrained her. She was sent back to New York, and since then her whereabouts were unknown until her present arrest. She was this morning sent to the county jail, so that she might be properly examined by the county Physician. All efforts to find her friends have been unavailing.

Cameron's Congressmen.

From the Pittsburg Dispatch, (ind. rep.) Senator Cameron called his congressmen together and said to them, "General Keifer is your candidate." To which they meekly responded, "General Keifer is our candidate," and presto! the whole situation is changed. The republican congressmen from Pennsylvania have been branded "Cameron's Cattle." Had they not rather be branded "C. C.," in order that very one may know at a glance whose property they are?

MARRIED.
