The famous Riddleberger, repudiationst, duelist, and political adventurer generally, was nominated last week by the Virginia readjusters, republican members of the legislature for United States Senator, and will of course be elected. What an able, brilliant array of statesmen the republican party is sending to the first deliberative body in the world. Cameron and Mitchell, from Pennsylvania; Miller and Lapham from New York; Mahone and Riddleberger from Virginia. Ugh!

Appropos, in speaking of the prospective candidacy of Gen. Beaver for Governor, the Centre Democrat thinks the Democrats of Centre county have two men among them-Adam Hoy, Esq., and Hon. C. T. Alexander -either of whom would be fully as competent for the high position as the gallant general. Just so. That's where the Major hits the nail squarely on the one Joel Piper, farmer, called on the

His defense is that drunkenness and lewdness are not indictable offences, and are, therefore, neither crimes nor misnemeanors for which he can be impeached.

The Governor of Virginia charges the disgrace of repudiation in that state on the federal administration, and there is just where it belongs.

Smashing Insurance Frauds.

A Prominent Company Disbands to Avoid Exposure—Heavy Profits. Special Dispatch to the Trmes.

HARRISBURG, December 13. The Southern Pennsylvania Mutual Relief Association, of Hanover, York county, the oldest of the kind in the State and the most extensive, was disto-day at the request of the company, in anticipation of a judicial decision ending -its corperate existence. The company was represented by Judge Wells, of Gettysburg; Judge-elect Simonton, Senator Herr, Ex-Senator Mumma and J. H. Weiss. The Commonwealth knew nothing of the intention of the company until a short time before the court met and had subpœnaed between fifty and sixty witnesses to show that the business of the association had been fraudulently conducted and that it should be dissolved. The Southern Pennsylvania Insuranse Asand assessments about halt a million dollars. The books of the company show losses paid over $350,000 and a balance in the treasury of between $40,000 and $50,000. The profits of the officers and directors have been very heavy, exceeding considerably $100,000 in the aggregate.

The Millheim Journal. State Capital Mutual Relief Association another representative mutual ass tion, anothor representative mutual assessment company, will begin at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning unless the association should render such a procedure unneccessary by a course similar to that of the Southern Pennsylvania. John H. Weiss, of the Dauphin county bar, has been appointed receiver of the insurance company dissolved today. The receiver will be required to enter $50,000 securities for the faithfull performance of his duties.

Now and then you hear of a government Republican thief having been arrested, but never of conviction and punishment. The officials at Washington seem to be all "tarred with the same stick" and to bring any one of them to trial would be to expose the rest. There will be no revelations, no trials, no punishment for public robbers as long as the Republican party is permitted to remain in power, and that party will not give up control of the departments as long as perjury, fraud, electoral commissions, and the corrupt use of stolen money will enable them to retain their grip upon the Federal Treasury. Nothing but a general uprising of the people can drive the thieves from their strong entrenchments-nothing but a whirlwind of public condemnation at the polls will restore the control of the Government to the hands of honest men.-Ec.

Hanged from a Balcony by a Mob. Austin, Nev., December 14 .-- About halfpast one o'clock this morning a party of masked men forcibly entered the jailer's room in the court building, overpowered the jailer and forced him to give up the keys to the jail and the cell door where Richard Jennings was confined, who, whithout provocation and in cold blood, shot and killed John A. Barret, an old and respected citizen, the night before. Jennings was then taken out and hanged from a balcony over the front door.

Special Dispatch to the Times. NEW HAVEN, Conn., December 9 .-

Four persons, sapposedly negroes, in Ansonia, on Wednesday drugged and assaulted Mary Dowling, aged forty, and left her to die half a mile from the scene of their brutality. Yesterday morning early the woman was found lying on the frozen ground entirely naked, save a torn skirt, which was lashed around her, and a stocking, which was drawn over one foot. Her hair was tossed in confusion about her head and neck and matted with blood and grass, while her entire body, from head to foot, was cut and badly bruised. Her face was swolen so that her eyes were literally buried, while the blood that covered her was frozen hard On all sides were remnants of torn clothing. The grass and weeds looked as though crushed with a heavy tolle". She will not live. No one has been

ADEAD MAN WHO DIDN'T DIE.

The Interesting Experience in the West of a Connecticut Insurance Company. From the Haitford Courant,

One of the leading insurance companies of this city has just ended its experience with "a dead man who didn't die." In October of last year company's agent at Quincy, Illinois, and took out an accident policy for $2,500, payable to his wife, Almira JUDGE Cox, of Minnesota, is on C. Piper, in case of death. For this he ly written by the company and forwarded. For this Piper paid $55,73. $4,000 of insurance. The company heard nothing further until the receipt of a letter from the agent, dated November 1. stating that Piper had been drowned the day previous while in a skiff on the Mississippi with his brothers-in-law, Thomas H. and James H. Bryant. The agent was informed that the party were crossing a small branch of the stream when, in propelling the boat, he lost his balance, fell overboard and was drowned. The company forwarded blanks for proof of loss and in duetime they were filled out and signed by the widow and the Bryants. The latter, as the wittnesses of his death, made a special affidavit that they saw Piper drown. Nevertheless the comapany was not satisfied that all was square and two St. Louis detectives were told to look into the case. On the 3d instant the alleged drowned man Piper, was arrestsolved by the Dauphin County Court ed near Ripley, Tenn. Piper, Mrs.
