VOLUME LVI.

This number begins the 56th year of the JOURNAL, calling the old Centre Berichter, Demokratischer Berichter and JOURNAL all the same paper, for such they are, substantially. We will not now repeat the history of the Berichter and JOURNAL having done so on similar occasions before, except to state what we never knew before, namely that the first number of "Der Centre Berichter" was issued at Aaronburg, Pa., Thursday, Aug 9th, 1827, by Adam Gentzel, years before a majority of the readers of the JOURNAL were born.

Ever since we took charge of the paper, nearly six years ago, we labored honestly and faithfully to make it as interesting and useful as our modest qualifications and meagre means would permit; and we have the satisfaction of knowing that we succeeded to a clever extent. The JOURNAL has many warm friends, and their number is increasing yearly. The year just closed it has been prosperous, and we find no reason to complain. Our advertising and job work have increased considerably and we have added a goodly number of substantial names to our list of subscribers, while but very few have discontinued.

Altogether we feel encouraged to labor on in our chosen sphere.

It would indeed be strange if our Stalwart President did not by accident make some good appointments. Hon. B. H. Brewster, the new Attorney General, is such an exception. He is an able lawyer, and an honest man. But while his appointment reflects credit on Pennsylvania, it is a "thorn in the flesh," a real stinger, to Dan. Cameron. Mr. Brewster has not the slightest affinity, constitutional or political, with the Cameron gang, as the following deliverance which appeared in the Philadelphia Times in 1877, will abundantly show:

"Last winter our people were shocked with the election of J. Donald Cameron, the irresponsible son of a Senator of whom I will not speak, because he and his associates have become a part of public history, and must be measured with more deliberation than can be given in a casual conversation like this—a son that has neither mind, attainments, dignity of character, knowledge of public affairs, party services of personal worth to warrant his advancement, and has no record but a bad one as an intriguer and manager of bad men. He was forced into the War Department, as the price of his offer to betray his State and renounce Gen. Grant, and after being there he was so base born in his notions of decency and gentleness as to solicit and urge, by all the mean arts of political contrivance, that he should be retained as the companion of Cabinet officers and gentlemen who did not want him. Failing in that, by the coarse brute force of organized power, he jostled his old father out of his place, and thrust himself into a Senate where he will be an object of derision and disgust. The public are sick of these odious men, and the public will do away with them. We have destroyed human bondage in the south; we will next break down political bondage in the north and south."

Hon. Charles S. Wolfe On Beaver's Candidacy.

In speaking for the Independent Republicans of Pennsylvania Mr. Wolfe delivers himself as follows: We cannot afford to elect General Beaver governor when it means the control by Cameron of the Pennsylvania delegation in the next republican national convention, the placing of Pennsylvania patronage in his hands for another four years and the bettering of his chance for re-election to the United States senate. I am in favor of a more honest and capable administration of public affairs and greater political freedom and a higher tone of public morals than we have had in this state. I never expect to see it accomplished through Cameron, McManes, Quay, Magee and their set and any one whom they put forward. Beaver, if elected, will probably give us independent reform after the Mitchell pattern. Remember this: The Camerons do not allow any man preeminent who does not swear allegiance to them.

President Arthur appointed and the senate immediately confirmed Ex-Senator Timothy O. Howe, of Wis., Post Master General of the United States. Mr. Howe has no qualifications whatever, that at anybody else than Arthur and the senate can see, for the important and complex duties of the office. He is an old fossil, a bitter, chronic partisan, and was repudiated by the republicans of his own state. But all this goes for nothing. He is a stalwart, Granite third term, and that gave him the high office.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR seems disposed to profit by the lessons of the murder of Garfield. No stranger is admitted to see him now until he has told his business to the private secretary. Very few persons are allowed to ascend the stairs and take their places in the waiting room, where, last spring one hundred and fifty to two hundred persons were often to be seen at one time.

Princely Reward For Kindness.

MISS SUSAN ALLEN, of Lynchburg, Va., remembers that when she was a girl she helped to nurse at her father's house a wounded Confederate soldier. The other day she received $10,000, which sum had been left her through the will of the wounded soldier, lately dead.

THE KINTZLER MURDER.

Uriah Moyer Convicted in the First Degree.
MIDDLEBURG, Snyder county, Pa., December 19.—The jury in the case of Uriah Moyer, who was tried in this place last week for complicity in the murder of the old Kintzler couple on December eighth, 1877, came into court late on Friday night, after being out six hours and a-half, with a verdict of murder in the first degree. Reasons for a new trial were filed. The verdict gives general satisfaction as there was no room for doubt as to Moyer's guilt.

Advice to Girls Who Need It.

From the Montreal Star.
Girls who want husbands should take this piece of advice. Do not be fond of promiscuous business streets at all hours of the day. That is, do not make a regular thing of it. Do not go about so that people will know for certain that you will be "down town" when you have no business, and do not let the impression go abroad that you go on the beat as regular as clock-work. It does not look well. It appears as if you preferred to be on the hunt rather than improving your mind or darning your stockings. It looks as if being gazed at was your highest ambition, and seeing men stare at you more in harmony with your tastes than making your home happy and your surroundings cozy and comfortable.

A Man Mysteriously Struck Dead.

From the Seattle (Cal.) Post.
A friend describes to us a remarkable scene witnessed by him at a religious meeting on Whidby Island, W. T. A member of the church while talking called upon God to strike him dead if a certain statement made by him in the strongest and most unequivocal manner was not literally and exactly true. He had barely uttered the last word when he fell dead. Coming as this did in the church and upon a leading member, after the making of such a declaration, the effect upon the congregation can only be imagined. It was a stunning, terrifying, awful. The witness of such a scene can never again doubt the omnipresence and omnipotence of God.
