

Local Department.

The Centre County Pomona Grange will meet at Centre Hall, on Tuesday, Jan. 17th.

Mr. B. F. Klepper, from Boonville, gave us a pop visit last week. Ben looks nice and sleek, as ever. He is one of Sugar Valley's solid men.

J. H. Reifsnider sold two of his properties last week, one on North street to a Mr. Shultz, and one on Penn street to merchant Spigelmeyer.

If you want good seats at the concert next Saturday evening get your tickets in time. To be had at the Journal Store at 35 cts. a piece.

Mr. Jacob Alter has purchased Mr. Wm. Mauck's homestead on North street, and Mr. Mauck in turn bought Mr. John Bame's property on Penn street.

Mr. A. C. Musser is off to Philadelphia, this week. Don't know whether he expects to buy that little town or only first rent it to see how it will suit him.

We have no space to give even a short account of the Guiteau trial this week, but can safely state that his prospects for the gallows are very promising.

Tickets for the concert to be held next Saturday evening can be procured at the Journal Store, where the chart for the selection of reserved seats will be open after Thursday.

The promise is given that Attorney General Brewster will soon begin a lively campaign against the Star Route gang. Hope he will stick to his determination.

Mr. Jacob Wolf continues to act as agent for the Lewisburg Dye Works. Shawls and other garments left at the Journal Store will receive attention. Bring them in.

THE DOCTOR STAYS.—It affords us much pleasure to be able to inform the many professional and personal friends of Dr. Mingle that he expects to stay and continue the practice of medicine among us.

Our neighbor of the Reporter was in error last week in stating that the Justice election case of Millheim had been decided in favor of the contestant. The matter will be argued before Judge Orvis at next argument court, and a decision is expected soon thereafter.

J. A. LUMBERT, the new mail contractor, has procured a fine new wagon and is prepared to carry express packages and other goods from Coburn to Woodward and all intermediate points at reasonable charges.

By no means fail to attend the Grand Concert, of Prof. Kurzenkabe and his large class on next Saturday evening. The admission fee is small and will be repaid doubly by the select and elegant programme, to be performed.

A rumor goes the rounds of the papers stating that Gen. Grant is now fully convinced of the innocence of Gen. Fitz John Porter. If Gen. Porter is innocent he is certainly the most deeply wronged man in all the land.

Some of the republican papers have commenced a regular stop thief game, by stating that the money swindled from the government by the Star Route thieves was used to further the election of Hancock. Too late, gentlemen, and entirely too thin.

A fine line of Family Bibles, Presentation Bibles, Photograph Albums, Velvet Frames, French Vases, Beautiful Scrap Pictures, Paper Boxes, and a great variety of Fancy Goods generally. Splendid S. School, Day School and Visiting and other Cards—all very cheap, at the Journal Store.

GOOD PROPERTY AT PRIVATE SALE.—The subscriber offers a good property in Rebersburg at private sale, at a moderate price and reasonable terms. It is well suited for a wagon maker, having a good shop thereon. A good mechanic could do a good business here, as there is no wagon shop in town at this time. For particulars apply to SAMUEL FRANK.

THE BROCKERHOEF HOUSE. This popular hotel has recently been so thoroughly improved that scarcely anything old remains but the walls. Costly carpets, splendid furniture, fine papering and painting, have entirely transformed the whole house. Everything is in exquisite tastes. The combination is most charming. But the chief attractions under the new arrangement are the gentlemanly proprietor, Mr. C. G. McMillen, and his obliging and efficient clerk, Mr. John McOmber. Both are experienced hotelists and gentlemen of refinement and culture besides. They understand how to conduct a first class hotel and make their guests feel thoroughly at home. Without doubt the New Brockerhoff is the most complete public house in Central Pennsylvania, and we predict that it will be largely patronized.

—One of the additional attractions of Prof. Kurzenkabe's convention is the orchestral music, which intersperses the exercises of each day. The orchestra does excellent playing and fairly delights its hearers with their sweet, melodic strains.

—Our new board of county commissioners have made the following appointments: W. Miles Walker, Clerk; D. F. Fortney, Attorney; J. H. Dobbins, M. D., Physician to Jail; Bartrim Galbraith, Janitor to Court House. The old board had previously appointed A. G. Kreamer, Mercantile Appraiser.

—Mr. Jacob Wolf has returned from the west, after an absence of over three months, spent mostly in Kansas and Illinois. He visited many old friends and acquaintances, is delighted with the kind treatment received everywhere, but thinks that old Ben nys/fahmny is about as good a place to stay as any other.

HEAVY LOSS.—Our friend Hon. W. K. Alexander sustained an almost irreparable loss last week. He was out on the mountain chopping wood when a messenger came for him to doctor up a sick colt. William made haste to visit the patient which had in the meantime recovered, and thus he lost a half day at his work. He has the sympathies of the entire community.

—Prof. J. H. Kurzenkabe's musical convention in town is now fairly under way, and there is a goodly number of singers present. Some of the finest music is being executed and the class is composed of some of the best talent in these valleys. The concert which is to finish the occasion on Saturday evening promises to be one of the grandest treats ever witnessed in this vicinity.

WHITCOMB.—The boss clothier of Lock Haven, again has something new to say to you in another column. Whitcomb is as successful in business as he is enterprising, and as enterprising as successful. He understands the value of printer's ink, freely and judiciously used. Read the new announcement, for it is to your interest to do so. If you buy of Whitcomb once you will go there again and again. Fact.

—Our friend Rev. J. G. Shoemaker came nobly to our relief this week—just when we needed help so much—with a long and interesting letter. The reverend gentleman preaches fine sermons and writes splendid letters—only he winds up this time a little abruptly by requesting to have his JOURNAL sent to West Alexandria, Preble county, Ohio, whence he is soon going. Was is lets mit Kansas, Herr Pfarrer?

—There is no better place in Penn's Valley, or for that matter in Centre county, to buy furniture, than W. R. Camp's, at Centre Hall. Mr. Camp understands his business thoroughly and is a square man to deal with. His furniture is made of the best material, well put together, neat and tasty in design and of excellent finish. If you need anything in his line you would do well to give him a call, and examine his stock and prices before going elsewhere.

—The slate roof on the new church is complete, as far as it can be made for the present. It is a splendid job of work and looks well. Mr. Duan Neff, of Milton, had the contract and the work reflects credit on the mechanic. He has much experience in the business and is a reliable man. We predict that slateroofs will become more general in a short time as the costs are only about one third more than shingle roofs. Read Mr. Neff's advertisement in another column.

—The Philadelphia Times always hits the nail squarely on the head, every stroke—whether in matters of news or matters of opinion. The following little tip is a "just splendid" specimen in the latter line, and it makes us poor "country editors" feel so proud and happy:

The Millheim Journal has entered upon its fifty-sixth year of its life and it is as sprightly and fresh as it is possible for it to be. It has been under its present management six years, during which time independence and enterprise have been its chief characteristics.

A GENEROUS BOARD.—The Board of Managers of the Millheim, Nittany and Bald Eagle Turnpike Company did a generous act at their recent annual meeting. The Lutheran congregation of Millheim owed the company a considerable bill for toll, and petitioned the board to have the account donated. The managers, instead of voting the amount out of the treasury, paid it out of their own pockets. Bravo, brethren! such acts deserve honorable mention. The following are the names of the gentlemen composing the board: A. H. Bes t, President, Condra Long, General Manager, Andrew Krape, B. F. Shafer, Samuel Shafer, Emanuel Harter.

The Teacher's Journal, published daily during the late session of the Institute, by Messrs D. M. Lieb and J. R. VanOrmer, is before us. It was conducted with marked ability and proved an entire success financially and otherwise. The teachers of the county are much indebted to the publishers of the spicy little Journal for the full and explicit account of the doings of the Institute. And indeed we feel very grateful for being relieved of the necessity of publishing the lengthy proceedings.

News Miscellany.

It is said that the undertakers and marble dealers of this State are going to ask to have a law passed that no man can re-marry until the expenses of his wife's funeral are paid.—Ez.

A number of farmers report to us that they have been swindled by purchasing a patent churn, the agent of which is now traveling through our country. Those who have been victimized report the churn a swindling of the first water, and that the agent deserves a rough reception. It would be well for neighboring papers to book up their subscribers in regard to this churn cheat.—Lewisburg Journal.

SIMPLE CURE.—If the following, which was written to the Liverpool Mercury, be true, there is nothing very alarming in small-pox. Mr. Hine says: "I am very willing to risk my reputation as a public man if the worst cases of small-pox cannot be cured in three days, simply by the use of cream of tartar. One ounce of cream of tartar dissolved in a pint of water, drank at intervals when cold, is a certain never-failing remedy. It has cured thousands, never leaves a mark never causes blindness, and avoids tedious, lingering illness."

A Severe But Sure Cure.—ELLSWORTH Kan., January 3.—W. E. Graham, who killed, robbed and burned Philip Egly, at Venango, Ellsworth county, was hung by a mob in front of the court house last night. W. B. Rose would have met the same fate but was taken from the jail and secured by the sheriff during the excitement.

A Five-Year-Old Murderer.—SPRINGFIELD, Mo., January 3.—During a quarrel between two little children, named Williams and Gates aged seven and five years, respectively, the younger of the two secured a revolver belonging to one of the elder members of the family, and, discharging the weapon at his little adversary, killed him instantly.

Heavy Snow in the South.—PETERSBURG, Va., Jan. 1.—Snow fell here nearly the entire day. South and east of this city it has fallen to the depth of ten inches, delaying all trains in those directions.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Dec. 31.—The Missouri River closed last night. The ice is gorged against the bridge of the St. Paul and Omaha Railway, taking away 300 feet of the structure. It will take a week for repairs.

FRIGHTFUL DEATH.—The Boiler of a Steam Thresher Explodes, resulting in the Death of one Man and the Destruction of the Barn and Crops.

From the Mill Inburg Telegraph. On last Friday afternoon as Messrs. Meckley & Kieffer were engaged in threshing grain with their steam thresher, at the barn of Mr. Sol'n Walter, in Chillsquaque Twp., North'd Co., the boiler burst, throwing fire into the barn, as well as terribly wounding Mr. David Kieffer, one of the managers of the machine. The fact of his being badly injured was not immediately known, hence all the other workmen were intent on saving the live stock, which, being accomplished, they discovered Mr. Kieffer lying near the barn terribly cut and bruised and horribly burned and life extinct. An inquest was held and a verdict rendered in accordance with these facts. Mr. Kieffer was aged about 22 years; was a single man. Late in the evening the body was conveyed to the home of his widowed mother in White Deer Twp., this county. We also learn that Mr. Meckley was considerably though not seriously burned. Another gentleman by the name of Johnson was severely kicked by a horse when removing the animal from the barn. Besides the barn and crops all the surrounding outbuildings were destroyed. If insured or not, at this writing we have not learned.

MARRIED.—On the 25th of December last, by Jacob Emerick, Esq., Mr. John Hoover, to Miss Susan Sanders, both of Penn township.

DIED.—On the 25th ult., in Potter, township, Mr. Aaron Spangler, aged 43 years and 6 months.
