THE NEXT GOVERNOR.

Two Congressmen whose Opinions are Slightly at Variance.

Special Dispatch to the Times.

WASHINGTON, January 17.

Representative Fisher, of Pennsylvania, said to-day, in relation to the outlook for the campaign in that State next fall: "The state, in my opinion, is already made up. General Beaver will head the Republican ticket and Mr. Pattison, Controller of Philadelphia, the Democratic ticket. The Independent or Wolfe movement will not cut any essential figure in the contest. At the last election the movement took off votes from both parties in nearly equal proportion; much to the surprise and satisfaction of the Republicans. The indications are that the Democrats and Republicans will both return to their first love before they go to the polls in the fall. A full vote will unquestionably be polled, as the canvass will be red hot from the start to the finish. I am satisfied that General Beaver will be elected Governor by a majority ranging anywhere from twenty to thirty thousand."

A prominent Democrat Congressman from the same State said: "General Beaver will undoubtedly receive the Republican nomination for Governor, but Pattison will not receive the Democratic nomination. He has no strength outside of Philadelphia. He has made an enviable reputation in the role of reformer as Controller of Philadelphia. Running as Governor on the Democratic ticket he would not receive the support of one hundred Republicans in the city of Philadelphia. Thousands of Republicans would vote for him for City Controller, but in a State issue they would stand by the party nominees. A strong movement is on foot to make Judge Trunkie, of the Supreme bench, the standard-bearer of the Democracy of Pennsylvania. He is a learned, honest, popular man, and would receive the support of many Independents. The contest will be an exciting one. If the Cameron wing of the Republican party nominate General Beaver, as they will, the Independents will put up a candidate of their own or else support the Democratic candidate, provided the Democrats will give them some of the subordinate offices on the tickets, as I am of the opinion the Democrats will willingly and gracefully do. Against such a combination or with a popular Independent ticket in the field General Beaver will be beaten badly by a majority ranging anywhere from 20,000 to 50,000."

NEW RULES IN THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS' OFFICE.

At the first meeting of our new board of County Commissioners the following resolutions and rules were adopted, which commend themselves as eminently proper and necessary: Resolved, That the present board of commissioners be governed by the following rules and regulations, and for the information of the public it is ordered that they be published for four successive weeks in each newspaper of the county: 1st. That the commissioners meet in their office in the Court House, Bellefonte, on the first and third Tuesday of each month, at ten o'clock, A. M., and remain in session until four o'clock, P. M. 2nd. All goods and materials for the use of the county shall be purchased by the commissioners or by their order. 3rd. All bills presented to the board for payment must be itemized; and no order shall be drawn for any bill until the board has approved the same. 4th. No goods or material of any kind for the use of the county shall be furnished by any of the commissioners.

JOHN WOLF, H. C. CAMPBELL, A. J. GRIEST, Commissioners.

W. ALLEN WALKER, Clerk.

Elected United States Senator.

DES MOINES, Ia., January 18.—James F. Wilson was formally chosen United States senator to-day.

The work of swindling democratic members of congress out of their seats has already begun. The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun (independent) says: "The action of the sub-committee on elections of the house in the contested election case from Missouri of Sessinghaus vs. Frost is so extremely partial and partisan as to excite surprise. Frost is the democratic sitting member, and Sessinghaus the republican contestant. It is understood or admitted and proved that certain testimony in favor of the contestant had, after being sworn to before a notary, passed into the possession of his counsel, and secret and unlawful additions and alterations were made. In behalf of the contestant it was moved that this testimony be excluded, and this very proper motion, under the circumstances, has been denied by the sub-committee."—Patriot.

Hon. Robert P. Allen, of Williamsport, is becoming a somewhat prominent Democratic candidate for Governor, and the Clinton Democrat thinks he is eminently fit for the high place.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, January 21, 1882. In the Senate the bill for the retirement of Justice Hunt from the Supreme Court was passed yesterday. Justice Hunt has for a long time been unable to perform any of the duties of his office and by reason of his not yet having attained the age required by law for retirement upon pay, and of the prospect of perpetual disability, this bill was put through with a view to place a man on the bench who could, as far as is possible for one man to do, assist in clearing up the avalanche of business under which the Supreme Court is now laboring. In the House the bill for the retirement of Justice Hunt was informally discussed by the members of the committee, but as it has not yet come formally before the committee no action was taken. Enough was developed, however, to show that the measure would receive almost the unanimous support of the committee.

The rumor that the Secretary of the Treasury will be transferred to the United States Supreme Court in place of Judge Hunt, said a veteran politician at Willard's last evening, "is no idle one. You can bet your last dollar that Judge Folger will again don the ermine. There is every reason to believe that he accepted the Treasury portfolio on the express condition that he would quickly be transferred to the Supreme bench. A significant indication is the fact that since he assumed control of the Department not a single appointment of importance has been made therein. Even when Assistant Secretary Upton resigned, the important place was left vacant, and another was detailed to attend to the duties of that office." Also it is said that Conkling will be sure to step into Folger's shoes in the Treasury.

The Treasury Department has disbursed for interest during the current month $10,335,000 and $2,425,000 in redemption of bonds. There are $70,000,000 standard silver dollars in the Treasury and $2,000,000 silver certificates outstanding.

The Capital, from a social view, is assuming its normal condition; round upon round of receptions, state dinners parties and balls. The heart of the society bell is made glad and the pocket of the society man correspondingly low. Only the rich (in Washington) deserve the fair, and they get them too. The small pox thus far has not visited us to the extent of more than three or four cases, and, while upon all sides it is epidemic. The District and outlying country are singularly free, and this in the face of our numerous and equal population of colored people, who generally are the principal breeders of this and other loathsome epidemics. Should the small pox break out and become serious in its ravages, there would soon be a horde of the many who go far to make Washington what it is, the most delightful winter residence in America.

President Arthur is overrun with country delegations seeking appointment for home offices. Hardly a day passes but crowds from country districts call on him with petitions, verbal and written, advocating some particular man for this, or that, or the other office. It must be a nuisance to the President; his time is valuable, and so much of it ought not to be taken up in this manner. He is so non-committal that very little satisfaction can be gotten out of him anyway, and it would be better if the petitioners remained home and sent their documents by mail.

The new Postmaster general is weeding out the unnecessary clerks in his Department after a fashion calculated to inspire any feeling but comfort and security among his immense staff. A number find their discharges made out each morning, and that, too, without the usual donation of a month's pay. Evidently the gentleman from Wisconsin has found something rotten in his recent acquisition.

THE PHILADELPHIA TIMES

Now stands confessedly at the head of Philadelphia Journalism in all that makes a thoroughly complete, general and family newspaper. It is more complete in its news, in its special correspondence, in its varied contributions on all subjects of popular interest, and in all the qualities of a newspaper for the family circle and for the business man than any of its contemporaries, because its facilities and resources are equal to every want of a first-class national journal.

"THE WEEKLY TIMES" has nearly doubled its former large circulation during the past year. Its contributors from week to week are among the foremost men of the nation, and no department of news literature is slighted in any number or any pretentiousness. It is adapted as well to women as to men; hence, although its political intelligence is full and accurate and its political editorials free and fearless, liberal provision is made for literary, dramatic and musical matters, travel and adventure, fiction, poetry, fashions and the chronicle of current social events. In all these departments the pens of the best writers are engaged, while selections from other journals are made with care, taste and fairness that are unsurpassed.

"THE ANNALS OF THE WAR"—chapters of unwritten history contributed by prominent actors in the war of the rebellion, are a valuable feature of the paper and have become a recognized repository of such matters, whether from Northern or Southern sources. This department, as well as all others, will be kept fully up to the high standard of former years.

TERMS: THE DAILY TIMES—Delivered in the City of Philadelphia and surrounding Towns for Two Dollars a week. Mail Subscriptions, postage free, Six Dollars a Year, or Fifty Cents a Month.

THE WEEKLY TIMES—Fifty-six columns of the choicest reading, especially prepared to meet the wants of weekly newspaper readers. One copy, $2.00; five copies, $8.00; ten copies, $15.00; Twenty copies, $25.00. An Extra copy sent free to any person getting up Clubs of ten or twenty.

THE SUNDAY EDITION—Double sheet, eight pages. The best known and most accomplished writers contribute to its columns every week. Two Dollars a year, postage free. Single copies, Four Cents.

THE ANNALS OF THE WAR—A Manual of Political and other Information, published on the First of January, every year. Fifty Cents a copy. THE ANNALS OF THE WAR—A royal octavo volume of 800 pages, beautifully illustrated. Written by Principal Participants in the War North and South. Price, $3.00.
