—Lewisburg is severely afflicted with rail road on the brain. Hope she may safely recover.

—Mr. Whitney, the man shot who himself at Penn Hall the other week, died on Sunday last.

—The tall form of Rev. Samuel Smith, of Buffalo X Roads, darkened our sanctuary door one day last week. Welcome to call again.

—Dave Zerby is the Invincible man in town. He got the Bellefonte Democrat to say so positively and that ought to settle the matter absolutely.

—Mrs. Samuel H. Meyer has been appointed toll keeper at Aaronburg and will soon remove thither. It is a very fit and worthy appointment and does honor to the community.

—Millheim boasts of a Billiard saloon—another indication that we are fast growing into a city. Small places must shift along without these modern conveniences. Opera House next.

—Hon. H. L. Deffenbach has retired from the editorial chair of the Clinton Democrat. The profession and the party both will be sorry to lose the active services of the able old veteran.

SPRING MILLS ACADEMY.—There is perhaps no better institution of its grade in the state than the Spring Mills Academy; and if you have sons to educate or to prepare for college you can hardly do better than to send them there. See card in another place.

—J. A. Limbert, the mail contractor on the route between Coburn and Woodward, is prepared to carry express packages and other goods to all points along the route at reasonable charges. All business entrusted to him will be punctually attended to.

—Some of our defeated candidates are just as well pleased as if they had been elected while others are not. No use in getting mad about it, that don't help matters. The chap that gets the most votes is the man the people want, and that's all there is about it.

—We are credibly informed that the little town of Zion, Nittany Valley, proposes to build two churches next summer—Lutheran and Reformed respectively. Madisonburg also talks of building a new Lutheran church.

—We spent a few days in Rebersburg last week quite pleasantly. Good company, fine music, a few odd dollars and most excellent grub—who wouldn't be happy under such a brilliant combination? Yes, we expect to "call again" they said we should.

—A fine line of Family Bibles, Presentation Bibles, Photograph Albums, Velvet Frames, French Vases, Beautiful Scrap Pictures, Paper Boxes, and a great variety of Fancy Goods generally splendid S. School, Day School and Visiting and other Cards—all very cheap, at the Journal Store.

—The Reading Eagle thinks that Mayor King should be nominated as the democratic candidate for Governor. The Journal thought and said so long ago. With such a fit and noble leader we could give the Stalwarts, Independents and Half-breeds combined Hail Columbia and Kingdom come.

—Prof. Wm. T. Meyer is fast becoming famous as a composer of fine piano music. His last and certainly one of his best productions is a piece called Belle Fontaine (Bellefonte) dedicated to the citizens of Bellefonte. We heard the Professor render the piece and were delighted with it, although we don't claim to be a virtuoso in that particular line.

—As concerning our county accounts we have the authoritative assurance that everything connected with the matter will be thoroughly examined by our board of county auditors, and that every improper, excessive or illegal charge will be disallowed. We have full confidence both in our commissioners and auditors that they will guard the public treasury and the interest of the tax payers as well as any set of public officers possibly could.

—The Centre Reporter has been misled to say that Millheim has no watchmaker now, as Mr. Sturgis has gone to Lewisburg. Mr. Sturgis did go, but he still carries on at the old place here and has a good man to attend to the business. All work guaranteed, "don't you forget it."

The Summer Session of Spring Mills Academy will begin MONDAY, APR. 17th., 1882. Tuition $10, 13 and 16 for term of twenty weeks. Boarding reasonable. For further information call on or address

Lewis REITER, A. B., Principal,
SPRING MILLS, PA.

—Mr. Frank Russel, formerly from Aaronburg, now residing at Garrison, Pottawattomie county, Kansas, had the misfortune to be burned out recently. His dwelling house and furniture store attached were entirely consumed by the flames, though most of the furniture was saved. Frank sustains a heavy loss which was only partially secured by insurance.

A BUSY PLACE.—One of the busiest places in Penns Valley is the MILLHEIM MARBLE WORKS. Fine monuments and elegant head stones are made in the best style of the art and in quick succession. The establishment has earned a reputation for good work and fair dealings second to none in this part of the state, and has a wide spread and increasing patronage.

—Mr. Philip S. Moyer last week made 16 barrels and 9 pounds of flour from 67 bushels and 40 pounds of wheat—an average of a barrel for every four bushels and fourteen pounds of wheat. Now if any other dusty miller in the state can do better, let him step three paces to the front and announce his full name. The flour was made for J. W. Russel, of Aaronburg.

—Prof. J. H. Kurzaknabe's concert at Mackeyville, Clinton County, last week were a splendid success. His convention through the week was well attended and his class of singers consisted of the best and finest material of Nittany Valley. The musical performances on Friday and Saturday evenings were rendered with superior efficiency and sent the large audience home a well pleased and satisfied people. The fame of the Prof. is spreading rapidly and every community he visits freely acknowledges his proficiency as a teacher and leader of vocal music.

—In these days when disease seems to be afflicting the very air, people should take most scrupulous care of their health. Good wholesome food, moderate work, regular habits, absolute cleanliness, proper ventilation of houses, a good conscience, pleasant and even temper, and last but not least—good, warm clothing, such as Lewis, of the Philadelphia Branch sells so cheaply, are about the best preventives we know of. If you give strict attention to all these sanitary regulations and yet take sick you will have the comfort to know that it was providential and not the result of your own carelessness or neglect.

—Our legislature passed at least one good law last winter, namely that over-seers of the poor will hereafter be elected for two years, and that only one will be elected each year. Of those elected this spring the one that had the highest vote holds over for two years. In our borough it hits Yony Harter right in the centre, and it is a comforting thought that such a kind-hearted, christian man, who has two broad farms, lots of grain, apples, taters and such, and plenty of spontaneous besides, is bound to take care of his poor fellows for two years to come. Truly that's a matter to be thankful for.

The Musical Convention at Rebersburg. Although our little hamlet is no progressive town in the fullest sense of the word, perhaps owing to a lack of natural resources, yet the week just past demonstrated beyond a doubt that her citizens are sufficiently alive to get up and support a musical convention. The largest class of singers that perhaps ever assembled in Centre county was to be seen in the Lutheran church here, led by that prince of fellows, Prof. J. A. Weaver. All things seemed to work together for good during the convention. The weather was most favorable—petty jealousies were buried and everybody seemed to work for success as if it were a matter of personal interest. No less than one hundred and eighty-seven class tickets were sold. Freeburg, Adamsburg, Woodward, Aaronburg, Millheim, Penn Hall, Spring Mills, Centre Hall, Lemont, Madisonburg, Centre Mills, Wolf's Store, Logansville, Salona, Miesburg, Dakota, Ill., and other places were represented in the class.

It was a week of pleasure and enjoyment to all, from the little boy to the gray-haired sire, whose spectacles had to be called into requisition to realize benefit and pleasure.

The sessions were also well attended by spectators, especially the concert, when the spacious church was filled to its utmost capacity.

The financial results are also exceedingly flattering, the proceeds being upwards of $175, thus fully realizing the object of the committee who worked so vigorously for its success.

MEMBER.

—That man Camp up in Centre Hall is simply a capital chap. Yes, he is a good citizen, a kind husband and father, a benevolent man and most excellent mechanic. Just guess what he did for us last week. Why he sent us a whole lounge at once and a most beautiful and comfortable one at that. O how grateful we feel toward Mr. Camp, as we rest our weary body on that lounge, after the toils and labors of the day. Mr. Camp has more lounges of the same kind—ones for you if you wish. Or, if you prefer, you can have a parlor suit, chamber suit, set of chairs, large rocker, centre table, or anything you may desire in the furniture line—all of excellent make and at the lowest prices. Fact. Camp is your man for furniture.

A NOBLE WOMAN.—After Joseph Musser, of Lewisburg, failed in business and became poor, his wife put her wits to work as to ways and means to make a living. She organized an improvement party of one, got herself a knitting machine and went to work herself at knitting. She soon found that she got more work than one machine could do, and she bought another, and another, until now she runs quite a number of machines and has a regular full-fledged knitting factory, and is doing a profitable business. She did not first hold meetings and adopt a constitution and by-laws, make speeches, ask to be exempted from taxation and talk of "business" and "enterprise" and damn the town and every wealthy man in it for not investing his money in "home enterprise;" but she made up her mind what to do and then went to work and kept to work, and the result has been profitable to herself and gratifying to her friends and neighbors. And that is the only way business can be done successfully.—Selinsgrove Times.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 2, 1882.

Two years ago Senator Reber Cook was the recognized leader of the Republican party in New York and Chester A. Arthur, the deposed Collector of the Port of New York, one of his lieutenants. Yesterday President Arthur sent to the Senate the name of Mr. Conkling, a private citizen, for confirmation as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. When the subject came up, Mr. Sargent's nomination was passed round and read in the Senate, it created quite a stir, as everybody was surprised, especially at the nomination of Mr. Conkling. There is considerable speculation as to whether Mr. Conkling will accept or decline. It is said he was not communicated with on the subject, and some of his friends think he will decline. Should he do so it is regarded as among the strong probabilities that Senator Edmunds will be appointed. Up to the last moment the friends of Mr. Sargent insisted that he was to be made Secretary of the Interior, and they now say that this was the programme recently.

Later in the afternoon it was stated at the Capitol, by those assumed to know, that Mr. Conkling was formally tendered the appointment on the Supreme Bench before it was made public, and that he signified his acceptance. If this be true, there is no doubt of his confirmation by a unanimous vote.

Gen. Grant will arrive at the White House on his visit to President Arthur, the first week in March. The exact date of his arrival is not known at the White House. This visit will be of about a week's duration. If he is placed on the retired list under the bill which passed the Senate yesterday, his pay will be three-fourths of $13,500, the pay of the general of the army. A retired officer of the army has not all of the perquisites—such as commutation for fuel, quarters, &c.—enjoyed by officers on the active list.

Lent being upon us, the votaries of pleasure are taking a well earned rest, and until the season is over there will be nothing in the way of social events worth of chronicling.

Mrs. Belva Lockwood, the female lawyer of Senator Ben. Hill, is gaining considerable notice in legal circles; her business is rapidly increasing, and frequently she is found on cases of considerable importance, and has demonstrated the fact that as an opponent her ability has been much maligned. She goes about the city on a tricycle, defying public criticism, and may be seen any day, rain or shine, gliding along our smooth asphalt pavements to and from court, the capture of allies.

I am going over to the navy yard next week, and will give you some of my impressions of the ships there, and what is being done to improve them; and any other items of interest that I may be able to pick up.

News Miscellany.

That Terrible Coal Oil Lamp.

WILLIAMSPORT, Feb. 21.—A terrible coal-oil accident occurred in this city last evening about half-past nine o'clock, through which Mrs. Jacob J. Walters lost her life. Mrs. Walters and her daughter were sitting at a table near a lamp, when the oil took fire. The daughter, in attempting to throw the lamp out into the yard, caused her clothing to become ignited, when the mother in attempting to extinguish the flames also became enveloped and before assistance arrived her clothing was almost entirely burned from her body. She lingered in great agony until a few minutes past ten o'clock this morning, when death came to her relief, she being conscious almost to the last minute. The only part of her person that escaped the flames were her feet and a portion of her face. Both ears were burned to a crisp. The daughter's life was saved through the exertions of her mother, her injuries not being of a nature sufficient to cause death. She is badly burned on the side and about the breast. Mrs. Walters was thirty-six years of age and leaves a husband and three children to mourn her terrible death.

Both Parties to a Duel Killed.

GUADALAJARA, Mexico, February 17.—Senors Morelo and Sevovito, rival editors, fought a duel here yesterday with pistols. Both were accompanied by their seconds and a few friends. Both fired and both fell dead simultaneously.

MRS. GARFIELD has received from Mrs. Scoville, the sister of Guiteau, a letter beseeching her to intercede in behalf of the assassin. The gist of the plea is that the man who did the shooting was crazy. The conclusion is: "Forgive, even as Christ shall forgive us all."

A Warning From the Gallows.

Frank Rumberger, one of the murderers of old Mr. Troutman in Dauphin county now sits in jail waiting to be hung. He has this to say of bad company and bad looks:

"As a warning to young men and boys from six years old to manhood, I would say beware and shun evil company of all kinds—the low in character of both men and women. I owe my misfortune to-day to an evil-minded woman. My first theft was when I was six years old. I got the idea of becoming a burglar and highwayman from reading dime novels."

MARRIED.

On the 29th Dec. last, by Rev W. M. Landis, Mr. Charles E. Zeigler, of Cedar Springs, Clinton Co., to Miss S. Ellen Kerstetter, of Rebersburg.

DIED.
