Our county auditors completed their work and filed their report in the Prothonotary's office on Saturday evening. It will be submitted to the judges of our court for approval at the special court next week. If approved it will be finally disposed of as far as we know.

Sheriff Spangler's accounts for boarding prisoners and removing fish baskets was cut down $1612.90, and we understand that measures will at once be taken to recover back this amount into the county treasury. This is plainly right and anything short of this would not satisfy our citizens, who have watched this matter with much interest ever since the commissioners' statement appeared.

Our commissioners and auditors have begun well, and if they continue in the same line, of which we have no doubt, they will earn a debt of gratitude from every tax-payer of the county. Good, faithful officers who will guard the interests of the citizens and conduct their business on an intelligent system and strict business principles, is what the people want, and know how to appreciate.

What a Technicality May Do.

One of the most ridiculous and lamentable illustrations of the injustice of adhering to the fine-spun technicalities of law is given by the sudden collapse of the prosecution of Pratt, the sanctimonious swindler who was guilty of extensive embezzlements while treasurer of the Reading Saving Bank, of Boston. There was no doubt of his guilt and no lack of evidence to convict him, and in the first court his trial resulted in his being pronounced guilty on twenty-nine counts of the fifty-two embodied in the indictment. He appealed to the Supreme Court, alleging a flaw in the indictment, and when the document was examined it was found that, although it charged him with being "guilty of larceny," it did not use the specific words "stole, took and carried away," which, it seems, the rule of the Massachusetts statutes require to be embodied in the indictment. For this reason the Supreme Court quashed the indictment and swindler Pratt goes free.

The United States Senate has placed Gen. Grant on the retired list, by a vote of 35 to 17, with the rank and pay of general. What good reasons there are to pay this great national lumbar about $10,000 a year out of the public treasury no one who is not a senator can see. It is the first case in which an Ex-President is pensioned, although there was hardly a single one that did not deserve it more than Grant. His administration will always stand out in bold and painful relief for general incompetence, corruption ring rule and utter rottenness. It is to be hoped that this will be the last dose of Grantism a patient but nauseous people will be asked to swallow for a while.

UNDER the new apportionment bill the electoral college of 1884 will be composed of 401 members, providing no new States are admitted previous to that time. But Dakota will certainly become a State, in which event the electoral college will contain 405 members and the next President will have to score 203 votes.

Conkling and Sargent Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The senate in executive session has confirmed the nomination of Ex-Senator Conkling as associate justice of the supreme court and also that of Ex-Senator Sargent as minister to Germany.

The vote on Conkling's confirmation is understood to have been thirty-nine yeas against twelve nays. Eight democrats and four republicans, namely: Hoar, Dawes, Morrill and Hawley voted against him Sargent's nomination was confirmed without a division.

THE Philadelphia Times gives the stalwart slate candidates for state offices next fall as follows:

Governor, JAMES A. BEAVER, of Centre.

Lieutenant Governor, WM. T. DAVIES, of Bradford.

Supreme Judge, WILLIAM HENRY RAWLS, of Philadelphia.

Secretary Internal Affairs, J. M. GREER, of Butler.

Congressman, SAMUEL B. DICK, of Crawford.

Judge Trunkay Dissents.

PHILADELPHIA, February 27.—This morning Justice Trunkay, of the supreme court, delivered a dissenting opinion in the salary case of Commonwealth ex rel. Charles S. Wolfe vs. Samuel Butler. He holds that the salary means a fixed sum for a specific service, and that the first section of the act of May 11, 1874, clearly violates the constitution.

The Selingsgrove Times is in error when it says that the decision of the Supreme Court was unanimous in favor of the $500 per diem pay to members of the legislature. Judge Trunkay, the best and ablest man on the bench, filed a very decided as well as sound opinion against the decision of the majority. He very properly and forcibly says that "salary" is a specific gross amount and that "wages" by the day are not a salary.

ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE QUEEN VICTORIA.

Her Life Attempted at Windsor.

LONDON, March 2.—As the Queen was entering her carriage at Windsor this evening a man in the station yard deliberately fired a pistol at her. No injury was done and the Queen was driven immediately to the Castle. The man, who is a miserable-looking object, was seized by several policemen and taken to the police station. He gives his name as Rhoderick MacLean.

The Queen arrived at Windsor at about 5.25 P. M. She has been in London since Tuesday, where she gave a drawing room on Wednesday in honor of the Princess Helena of Waldeck, who is to marry Prince Leopold. There was a large crowd of spectators awaiting her arrival. The Queen walked across the platform of the railway station to her carriage, which was waiting to take her to the Castle. John Brown had already ascended to his seat behind the carriage, when a man standing at the entrance to the station yard among a number of spectators pointed a pistol at the carriage and fired. To judge from the report, which was sharp, but not loud, the pistol was not heavily loaded.

As soon as the Queen arrived at the Castle she ordered an enquiry to proceed to the depot to inquire if any one had been hurt. The Right Honorable Sir Henry F. Ponsonby, the Queen's secretary, at the same time proceeded to the police station, and after obtaining all the information possible telegraphed to Mr. Gladstone the facts of the assault. It is understood the Queen has not sustained any shock.

In the House of Commons this evening Sir William V. Harcourt, replying to any inquiry from Sir Stafford Northcote, stated that the man MacLean, who shot at the Queen, was a clerk by occupation and a native of London. He added that the Queen was not alarmed by the event.

MacLean is 27 years old. He states that he is a grocer's assistant. The doctors pronounce him sane. The revolver is a six-chambered Colt's American. Two chambers were found loaded and two had been recently discharged. Fourteen ball cartridges were found on the prisoner. MacLean says that hunger actuated the crime. The Cabinet sent a dispatch to Windsor expressing gratification at the failure of the attempt at assassination.

This is the fourth serious attempt upon the life of the illustrious Queen, all of which have of course proved failures. Her faithful subjects more than ever believe that she possesses a charmed life.

A Texas Town Destroyed by a Cyclone.

GALVESTON, March 1.—A special to the News, dated Valley Mills, February 28, says: A severe cyclone struck this place at nine o'clock last night, almost completely destroying the town, only one business house being left standing. Brinkham's Hotel, a two-story building, was carried some distance and hurled into a confused heap. Ten persons were in the hotel at the time of the accident, all of whom were injured, but none seriously. There was no loss of life, but the damages to property will amount to $20,000.

A Burglar's Big Haul at Pottstown.

POTTSTOWN, March 2.—The office of John Thomson, treasurer of the Schuylkill Bridge Company, was entered last night and $700 in money and a gold watch was taken from the safe. The safe was relocked in some manner by the robbers after abstracting the money from it. Mr. Thompson did not discover that he had been robbed until he opened his safe at noon to-day.

The Fate of Ten Secreted Tramps.

JOHNS, Ill., February 28.—A freight car loaded with brick was thrown into a ditch, eight miles from here, yesterday. Ten tramps were secreted in the car at the time, two of whom were killed outright and the others so badly injured that their lives are despaired of. The names of the unfortunates are not known.

Pulling His Head Nearly Off.

SPECIAL DISPATCH to the Times.

ERIE, March 3.—This evening Leon Miller, a merchant of Union City, went to the woods, flung a noose over the limb of a tree, fastened his legs and arms and then sprang off a projection fifteen feet from the ground, nearly pulling his head from the trunk. He was sixty-five years old. No cause can be assigned.
