

Local Department.

SALE REGISTER

Persons getting sale bills printed at the Journal Office will have their sales announced in this register free of charge. Feb. 24th—John Long, near Millheim, live stock and farming implements.

—Union county is agitating the question of a poor house.

—Saturday—rain and sleet, very dis agreeable, even for March weather.

—We are informed that Rev. Zwingly Yearick has declined a call from the Aaronsburg (Reformed) charge.

—Communications giving local news and happenings in short, readable form, are always welcome. Send them in friends.

—To-morrow (Friday) Jonathan Moyer, one of the murderers of the Kintzlers, will be hung at Middleburg, Snyder county.

—The Reporter intimates that somebody in Miles township has been cutting too many scalps out of one skunk skin. Who is the guilty chap?

—Haines township has a cash balance in her treasury of $639.04, and all debts paid. That is what we call good management.

—Those of our subscribers who change their post office addresses by removing to other places will please notify us of the fact.

—Sales and fitting are plenty, but corn, potatoes and apples scarce. Patience, friends—a good fruit year is prophesied by those old enough to know.

—The JOURNAL OFFICE had printed more sale bills this winter and spring than ever before in the same time, and we are ready to print many more. Our bills are popular.

—Brother Tuten has recently invented a very ingenious and convenient little article for country editors and thinks of getting it patented. He calls it "It is said."

—Our borough fathers appointed Jonathan Harter Treasurer of the borough. This is an excellent selection, for if the borough gets strapped Yooy can run the shanty on his own hook.

—All goods at the Philadelphia Branch Clothing House are marked in plain figures and the lowest figures at that you can find anywhere. Lewin is not to be undersold by anybody.

—Our friend Frank Musser will again open a school in Aaronsburg, in April. Frank is a thorough scholar, an experienced, competent teacher and a young man of good standing and character. Hope he will get a good school.

—If you need a dictionary—and you certainly do, for have been talking about getting one this long while—don't spend your money for anything less than Webster's Unabridged, the latest and best. The Journal store will furnish you one as cheaply as anywhere.

—We learn from reliable sources that several young mechanics expect to remove to town in spring to go into business. That's just the class of people we want. Good steady, industrious mechanic's are doubly welcome. Come along—a dozen of you at once.

—Prof. Kurzenknebe passed through town on Monday, stopping just long enough to shake hands with his friends. He has just closed a successful singing class and concert at Logansville and now goes to Hartleton. He is in best health and spirits.

CAUTION.—All persons, and more particularly merchants, are hereby cautioned not to sell goods to any person on my name without a written order from me, as I will hereafter pay no accounts except contracted by myself.

WILLIAM WOLF. —J. A. Limbert, the mail contractor on the route between Coburn and Woodward, is prepared to carry express packages and other goods to all points along the route at reasonable charges. All business entrusted to him will be punctually attended to.

—Miss Mary E. Strohm wishes to inform the citizens of Millheim that she expects to open a subscription school this spring, and hereby most respectfully solicits the patronage of the public. Tuition—$1.25 to $1.50. 3t

—John H. Breen, the jolly miller at Centre Mills, last week ground 24 barrels and 127 pounds of excellent flour from 100 bushels of wheat, for Jackson Limbert. This is within a small fraction an average of a barrel for every four bushels. Who can beat it?

SELECT SCHOOL.—W. Frank Musser, A. B., will open a select school in the Academy building, Aaronsburg, Monday, April 17th next. The course of instruction will include the English branches, Latin, Greek and German. For terms and particulars address W. FRANK MUSSER. 3t

WHITCOMB.—Lock Haven's most enterprising clothier, has reconstructed, rearranged, revised and reinspected his advertisement. Read it—it will do your heart good just to see how cheaply Whitcomb sells. He knows exactly what he is doing and can suit people to a T, both in quality and price.

—The old and new cemeteries of Millheim are in a terrible condition and sadly need repairing—both on the part of the association and lot owners. This duty should not be neglected any longer. Beautify the "city of the dead."—Millheim Telegraph. The same can be said and with more force of the Millheim cemetery, but it seems almost impossible to induce people to take a proper interest in such matters.

—A fine line of Family Bibles, Presentation Bibles, Photograph Albums, Velvet Frames, French Vases, Beautiful Scrap Pictures, Paper Boxes, and a great variety of Fancy Goods generally Splendid S. School, Day School and Visiting and other Cards—all very cheap, at the Journal Store. 1f

A BUSY PLACE.—One of the busiest places in Pennsylvania is the MILLHEIM MARBLE WORKS. Fine monuments and elegant head stones are made in the best style of the art and in quick succession. The establishment has earned a reputation for good work and fair dealings second to none in this part of the state, and has a wide spread and increasing patronage. 1f

—If you want a suit of furniture, or even a single piece, remember that Camp, at Centre Hall, will sell you as low, if not lower than you could buy anywhere—besides which you can go to Centre Hall and return home from any part of Penna Valley in a day, and in that way save expense. Patronize Camp and you will be well satisfied both with his work and prices. 2t

The Summer Session of Spring Mills Academy will begin MONDAY, APR. 17th., 1882. Tuition $10, 13 and 16 for term of twenty weeks. Boarding reasonable. For further information call on or address LEWIS REITER, A. B., Principal, SPRING MILLS, PA.

GOOD AND TIMELY HINT.—Business over the country is booming, manufacturers are crowded with orders, railroads are taxed to their utmost to convey freight, money is plenty, real estate is advancing, States and municipal treasuries are filling up—what a contrast with the deplorable condition of things a few years ago. The careful man will now provide for the future, when the evil days shall come, but the thoughtless young man will spend that which he has and let the future take care of itself.—Ez.

A SURPRISE PARTY.—A number of our ladies gave Rev. N. Shannon a surprise donation on Wednesday evening of last week. The family had no intimation of the intended raid, and when the ladies came, one after another, with baskets, bundles and packages, their surprise was only equalled by their joy and thankfulness. Something like fifteen dollars' worth of groceries, dry goods and sundries were piled upon a table in the room. After a pleasant time spent in social conversation, and a short address and prayer by Mr. Shannon, the ladies left for their homes well pleased for having made one home happy. Such deeds are what we call practical religion—such scenes cause the angels to rejoice. They strengthen the bonds of love and charity on earth and bear precious fruit for eternity. *

ANOTHER.—On Monday afternoon a number of the good people of Aaronsburg, together with a few from Millheim, made a surprise visit to Mr. B's, in the former place, bringing wood, wheat, flour, potatoes, apples and groceries in quite respectable quantities, and of prime quality. The "man with a voice" was on hand to make a little speech, and the kind donors were about as happy as the recipients of the timely presents.

Mr. B. is an industrious mechanic and a most worthy citizen, but has been afflicted with sickness and unable to work for over a year. NEW WORDS.—The new Edition of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, numbering 1228 quarto pages, contains nearly 5000 new words or new meanings of old ones. These words range over the fields of science, medicine, invention, discovery, research, etc., departments which in this age are constantly yielding fresh ideas, requiring new words to express them. That they have not been hastily compiled is evidenced by the accuracy and careful study given to their etymology and definitions. The intelligent reader, or any reader who would be intelligent, will find this feature of the dictionary quite indispensable.

Rev. P. O. Weidemyer's Case in Court.

From the Lewisburg Chronicle of March 16th. This case occupied the Court the better part of two days, but the Court, while charging the jury that the matter complained of was libellous, directed the jury to find a verdict of not guilty of the charge, because of a failure in proof of such publication as was necessary to sustain the indictment. The jury however, imposed costs upon the defendant, and after rendering their verdict united in the following statement, which was done in justice to the prosecutor:

"We, the undersigned juryman who sat upon the trial of Christiana Catherton, in which the Rev. Peter C. Weidemyer was the prosecutor, having rendered our verdict of not guilty, in accordance with the direction of the Court because of the technical failure of proof of publication do with great cordiality and perfect unanimity say that before them the charge made against him of improper conduct at the Camp-meeting near Yeesley's in the county of Union, in the summer of 1878, was wholly unsubstantiated, that the Rev. Peter C. Weidemyer clearly showed, by the evidence that the charge was unfounded and that the said Rev. Peter C. Weidemyer came out of it with an unspotted character and unimpaired reputation. We do this at our own suggestion and with a desire to vindicate the character of one whom we regard as entirely innocent.

BRUSH VALLEY ITEMS.

Squire Carlin is about ready to put on the judicial robe.

The fitting season is at hand and quite a number of changes will be made. Our doctors announce "good times" as quite a number of people are sick.

Three new houses will be erected in Rebersburg the coming summer. Mr. Jefferson Royer is first to begin active work.

No more tooth-ache.—Dr. L. H. Leitzell, a graduate of the Pennsylvania Dental College, has located in Rebersburg, and already has an extensive practice.

Money is quite plenty in our valley this spring. Nearly everybody—excepting "Occasional" seems to be anxious to deposit a little surplus cash. By the way, Mr. Editor what will you do with your thousands, eh? [What a cruel, heartless question to ask a poor editor. No, it is too much, even for our almost matchless patience. We hope the school directors of Miles will establish a school in which good manners will be the exclusive branch taught, and "Occasional" the only pupil. Ed.] Our teachers need not expect increased salaries in the near future, as two new ones have arrived with the intent to stay. One stops with Mr. J. C. Morris while the other stays with Mr. C. O. Mallory—both places well suited for pedagogical training. By the way one is a girl, the other a boy. Now for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. OCCASIONAL.

The Smallpox Excitement in South Bethlehem.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., March 15.—The smallpox excitement at South Bethlehem continues unabated and 120 cases are now reported in a small town of about four thousand inhabitants. The faculty of the Lehigh University decided this morning to allow any students to leave who desired, until further notice, and the students are now hurriedly leaving for home. Many heads of families are arriving on every train and taking their daughters from Bishopthorpe school, which is located on an eminence a short distance from the town. It is probable that the scare will close that school. It is too early to state definitely the virulence of the disease, although it is known that several cases of confluent smallpox have been reported. No deaths as yet. The authorities are talking about arresting a drunken doctor, who visits patients, and then travels around with the same clothing on. Ten more houses were quarantined this forenoon. A number of violent patients, with confluent smallpox, are handcuffed and guarded at home.

SOUTH BETHLEHEM, March, 19.—The smallpox excitement here continues, though it is more subdued than last week, because of the belief that the epidemic is under control. Nearly every person here and in Bethlehem has been vaccinated and good results are already apparent. Only four new cases have been reported. Eighteen deaths have been reported since Friday, two occurring to-day. There are now five cases in Bethlehem and one in old South Bethlehem.

Sergeant Mason's Sentence.

NEW YORK, March 10.—The court-martial in the case of Sergeant Mason, who shot at Guiteau, rendered the following sentence from Governor's Island to-day: "Sentence: To be dishonorably discharged from the service of the United States, with the loss of all pay and allowances now due or to become due to him, and then to be confined at hard labor in such penitentiary as the proper authorities may direct for eight years.

THE ROYCE REAPER.—I hereby make known to the farmers of Centre county that I intend as heretofore to ship reapers on trial to all who wish to buy. I ask no one to sign any contract but all will have a fair trial before buying. The Royce must stand or fall on its own merits. For simplicity of construction, lightness of draft, ease of management and efficiency of work it stands unrivaled. For further information I respectfully refer to men who have used it—Jacob Kerstetter, Daniel E. Gentzel, Jacob J. Gentzel, Coburn Post Office, and others.

Petitions are in circulation and are very generally signed for the pardon of Sergeant Mason, the man who tried to shoot the assassia Guiteau.

Guiteau is still engaged in the auto-graph and photograph business. His average daily sales to visitors reach from $12 to $15, and upon some days he takes in $20. He recently offered this sentiment to some ministers who called to see him: "The Republican party, wrecked by Garfield, saved by Guiteau's inspiration and Arthur's statesmanship."

MARRIED.

On the 15th inst., by Rev. U. F. Swengel, Rev. J. M. Dick, of Liverpool, and Miss Alice Conrad, of Danamann. On the 18th inst., at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. W. H. Groh, Mr. Albert C. Mingle, of Bellefonte, to Miss Maggie E. Cap, a daughter of George Hoffer, of State College, Pa. "Cap" is a graduate of the JOHNS HOPKINS, and a gentleman in the best sense of the word. He is now one of the most successful young business men in Bellefonte, where his standing is strictly prime. "A No. 1." He was down this way last week to give his relatives and friends an opportunity to get acquainted with his brand new wife, and they are simply delighted with Cap's good choice and judgment. The happy couple have our best congratulations and wishes.
