

Local Department.

—Snook's brick makers have begun work.

—Wm. Mauck has built a first class stable. Good for Willyum.

—Mr. Henry Brown is building a new smithy, on the site where the old pottery stood.

—On Sunday evening and night the sky was illuminated by bright rays of the northern light.

—Dr. Stam is busy repairing his property. He intends to give it a complete overhauling and make it look like new.

—Last week everybody was out of humor over the cold raw weather, but the weather just kept on cold and raw all the same to the end of the week.

—On Monday morning Miss Strohm's school commenced. Are you sending your children, or do you prefer to have them run the street?

—B. F. Miller and John W. Luse are painting Adolph Miller's house. That's right, boys; and now that you have begun better paint up the whole town.

PHOSPHATE.—John H. Musser keeps constantly on hand at Coburn Station a superior quality of phosphate, which he sells in large or small quantities at most reasonable prices.

—Some of our exchanges say that there will be a total eclipse of the sun on the 27th of May, but fail to state that it will not be visible in any part of the United States. Give the whole truth brethren.

—Mr. A. G. Kreamer, the Mercantile Appraiser, was around last week assessing our merchants. Mr. Kreamer is a competent officer, a gentleman, and one of the leading democrats of Walker township.

—If you find a little paper in your JOURNAL on which the amount due is written, you would confer a real favor by sending it at once. Printers need a little money sometimes, just like the most of mankind.

—J. A. Lambert, the mail contractor on the route between Coburn and Woodward, is prepared to carry express packages and other goods to all points along the route at reasonable charges. All business entrusted to him will be punctually attended to.

WANTED.—The undersigned wishes to secure a man who will either rent his blacksmith shop, two miles west of Woodward, and carry on the business, or work for him as a hand. For particulars apply to

J. M. WEAVER.

—Mr. Solomon Etlinger left a real curiosity in our sanctum last week in the shape of a petrified potato. It comes from the "ould" country, and looks just like any other later. Solomon is importing potatoes from Ireland in large quantities.

—A fine line of Family Bibles, Presentation Bibles, Photograph Albums, Velvet Frames, French Vases, Beautiful Scrap Pictures, Paper Boxes, and a great variety of Fancy Goods generally Splendid S. School, Day School and Visiting and other Cards—all very cheap, at the Journal Store.

—Chamber Suits, Parlor Suits, Lounges, Chairs, Tables, or any other articles in the furniture line, of the latest style, best make and lowest price, at Camp's Furniture store, Centre Hall.

WILL NOT REACH.—We made the sad discovery the other day that our potatoes will not quite hold out until the season for new ones comes. Now, if a word to the wise is sufficient, several words to the benevolent and merciful ought also to be sufficient to bring forth several bushels of the needful. Who will respond to our call?

—The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Central Pennsylvania will meet at Aaronsburg, Tuesday evening May 2nd, closing with a public missionary meeting on Wednesday evening, when an address will be delivered by Rev. J. W. Goodlin, Secretary of the Board of Missions. All are invited to attend.

—The undersigned will offer at private sale, between now and the 1st of May, the following personal property, to wit:

1 "New Jasper" heater, with fixtures; 1 "Flora" range, in good condition; 1 Child's crib, as good as new; 1 buggy harness & fly-net; 2 horse blankets, one of which is gum; 1 strap of sleigh-bells; 1 pitch-fork, long-handled, good as new; 1 wood saw, buffalo robe.

Persons who will have need for articles of above description, either now or next Fall, will find here a good chance to buy at a low figure. Call & see, at Reformed parsonage, Aaronsburg, Pa. C. W. E. SIEGEL.

—The rush at Lewin's Philadelphia Branch Clothing Store, Bellefonte, continues unabated, out Lewin is not the man to permit his stock to go down, if his prices are down to the very lowest figure. Hold up in buying your spring supplies. You will go to Bellefonte some time before long, and then you can call at Lewin's and be suited exactly. That's your best way.

A BUSY PLACE.—One of the busiest places in Penna Valley is the MILLHEIM MARBLE WORKS. Fine monuments and elegant head stones are made in the best style of the art and in quick succession. The establishment has earned a reputation for good work and fair dealings second to none in this part of the state, and has a wide spread and increasing patronage.

CLEAN UP.—At this season of the year, more than at any other, there should be complete and thorough cleaning up in and around every household. Health and comfort both demand it. The house should be cleansed and well ventilated from garret to cellar—especially the latter. The accumulated foulness of the winter should be driven out. A small flame fire will do it effectively. The garden, yard, out-houses and all should have proper attention. Cesspools should be abated, ash piles removed, fences whitewashed, rubbish of all kinds removed. In short everything unsightly as well as everything unhealthy should be done away with as soon as the weather is favorable for such work. Think of it—do it—it may save you a doctor's bill. It will certainly be no small source of satisfaction and happiness to yourself and family.

—The shoe store of Doll & Mingle is one of the most substantial business houses in Bellefonte, if not one of the largest. Both partners are practical shoemakers as well as men of strict integrity and excellent business qualifications. You can go to their store with the full assurance that they will deal with you fairly and squarely, and that all they represent respecting their goods is fully substantiated by the facts. Just try them to see how well you will be pleased.

The Lewisburg papers are jubilant over the new rail road, and they have reason to be. In speaking on the matter the Journal says:

Every present indication points to the speedy pushing to completion of the railroad. The engineers have rented an office in A. M. Lawshe's building, this place and they have been taking surveys for the new road in our borough and along the line between West Milton and Blue Hill. They have doubtless fixed upon the line that will be adopted, but have not yet made it public. As soon as the line is located thousands of men will at once be placed at work and there will be a busy time in this section the balance of the year. The largest job before the railroad company will be no doubt the bridge at Sunbury. We are told it is to be an iron one.

It is almost certain that the L. & T. Co., will at once have their road completed to Tyrone, and the business on that line will be increased.

We hope the prediction concerning the completion of our own road may prove correct. Penna Valley should by all means have a western rail road outlet.

THE ROYCE REAPER.—I hereby make known to the farmers of Centre county that I intend as heretofore to ship reapers on trial to all who wish to buy. I ask no one to sign any contract but all will have a fair trial before buying. The Royce must stand or fall on its own merits. For simplicity of construction, lightness of draft, ease of management and efficiency of work it stands unrivaled. For further information I respectfully refer to men who have used it—Jacob Kerstetter, Daniel E. Gentzel, Jacob J. Gentzel, Coburn Post Office, and others.

Apply to LEMUEL CAMPBELL, Sunbury, Pa., or W. L. BRIGHT J. H. MUSSER, solicitors, Aaronsburg, Pa.

—The following is considered the premium "exemption" note out. It is in use in Iowa and perhaps other western parts, and it is to be hoped that it may confine itself to that section:

$100. Dubuque, Iowa, Jan 1st, 1882. One year after date I promise to pay to the order of John Doe, one Thousand Dollars without abatement for value received. Without relief from appraisement, stay or exemption laws, and in case suit is instituted for its collection, anything and everything in my possession can be levied upon and be sold, including the last suit of clothes, the school books and food for my children, with the coffin or coffins any of the family may be buried in; and in case that every article is sold and there remains anything due on the note, I agree that the services of myself and family be sold until the demands of that note are satisfied. And I further agree that in case suit is instituted for its collection, to pay reasonable attorney fees, together with board bills, hack hire, saloon bills and other miscellaneous expenses for him-elf and near relatives while suit is pending. And I further agree to live on corn bread and sorghum molasses until the demands of this note are satisfied with interest at the rate of ten per cent from date, payable annually.

ANOTHER MURDER IN CLEARFIELD COUNTY.—The other Saturday evening a fatal stabbing affray occurred in Du Bois, Clearfield county. Two miners, Harrington and Overand, jointly occupied a shanty near the colliery of Bell, Lewis & Yates. In the latter part of February they had a brawl, in which Harrington was knocked senseless by Overand; after this the latter left the "shanty" and boarded elsewhere; but on Saturday afternoon last, about 5 o'clock he again called at the "shanty" and Harrington refused him admittance. Both, it is said, were steeped in liquor. A fight ensued, which ended by Harrington (who was inside of the "shanty") and claimed right of possession) stabbing Overand with a miner's tamping needle, an instrument from four to five feet long, made of steel three-eighths to one half an inch in thickness and tapering to a point, as a needle, and hence its name. The instrument entered according to post mortem examination, the heart, one inch above its base, causing instant death.

Harrington was taken to Clearfield and lodged in jail on Monday evening by the Du Bois Constable.

Superstition in Snyder County. James Middlewarth, esq., justice of the peace at Troxville, Snyder county, writes to detective Lyon, of Reading, that "last Sunday Joseph Moyer and a few others opened the grave of Jonathan Moyer and exhumed the body to see if he was really dead or not. Some of Jonathan's friends have been laboring under a delusion that he was not dead when he was buried. The coffin was opened, and it is said, the face of the dead man looked as natural as when in full health and life. The only discoloration visible was reported to have been along his brow. The murder business is quiet, though Mr. Edmonds still goes about harping upon his ideas among the different congregations where he preaches. His conduct is turning his friends even against him, and he will only lose the respect of law-abiding citizens."

Above item which we clip from the Harrisburg Patriot, is intended to throw a bad but very unclear light upon Rev. Edmonds, who is well known here. Just what the ideas are that he is "harping" upon, or what connection or bearing they have on the Kintzler murder, does not appear. The friends of Mr. Edmonds here must wait on more light.

News Miscellany.

The consolidation of the cities of New York and Brooklyn is being agitated. This would make a city of 2,000,000 inhabitants and place it second on the list of the largest cities of the world.

The Pennsylvania railroad company are making arrangements to build a new depot at Harrisburg. It will be eight hundred feet long, and will be surrounded with a garden, in which will be fountains, shrubbery, &c.

Jay Gould has rail road and other stock representing $54,000,000, which yields him an income of $3,240,000 a year; $270,000 a month, $9,000 a day, $375 an hour, $25 a minute and over $1 each second. He ought to be able to make an honest living.

Mr. Vanderbilt appears to be making money in some of his little outside speculations. It is said he owns $61,000,000 of Government bonds, bought within the last two years. During that time these bonds have advanced ten per cent in price and he has received eight per cent interest, or an increase to Mr. Vanderbilt's fortune of eleven millions of dollars.

Burned to Death While Asleep.

MILLFORD, April 10.—Mrs. William Davenport, of Montague township, Sussex county, N. J., was burned to death yesterday. She was sitting asleep in front of the fire place, where her clothes were ignited and when found her body was burned so terribly as to be scarcely recognizable. She was 25 years of age and leaves one small child.

The second annual convention of the State Constitution Amendment Association will be held in Huntingdon on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 9 and 10. The call, which is signed by Ex-Chief Justice Agnew, invites all auxiliary Constitutional Amendment Associations, Women's Christian Temperance Unions, Temples of Honor, Royal Templars and other temperance societies to send delegates.

A Georgia Story of a Silver Dollar.

From the Sandersville Mercury. Mrs. Wicker, when a girl twelve years old, was kicked in the forehead by a horse, fracturing her skull, and her physicians took an old Spanish dollar and cut it and put one-half over the fracture, which she carries to this day. The other half was either misplaced or lost and was never found until a few days ago, when Mr. Great Wiggins, who occupies the house now, was having the door-facing repaired, the workmen came across it stored away behind the old facing, where it has been for seventy-two years. Mrs. Wicker is still living and in good health, and is about eighty-four years old.

A Man Dies After He is Buried.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., April 10.—The brother of James Gilliland, who was buried two weeks ago, came from a distance and had the body exhumed this morning and found that it bore evidences of having been buried alive. The body was turned on one side and the face scratched from evident struggling.

A Baby Clutches a Wildcat's Tail.

From the Helena Herald. An almost famished wildcat a few days ago appeared in the midst of a flock of sheep in the valley near Big Hole, M. T., and selected a fine lamb from the flock. The owner of the sheep was attracted to the scene by the noise of his dog. He found the cat busy devouring the lamb and his little three-year-old son clutching the tail of the cat, attempting to pull it off, and the dog barking and scampering around it. He soon removed his little boy from his perilous position and dispatched the wildcat with his rifle.

A PREACHER'S PLAIN WORDS.—That was a pleasant way in which a newly settled Methodist minister disarmed the criticism of the people in the congregation to which he had been sent. Instead of getting angry about it, or complaining that they had hurt his feelings, he remarked from the pulpit: "I hear that you say I am not much of a preacher; well, I know it; and I know that if I could preach first rate I would not have been sent here to preach to such a lot of ignoramuses as you." The church folks were struck with a new sense of the fitness of things as regulated by the admirable machinery of Methodism for adapting means to ends.

William Tells of the Eastern Shore.

From the Centerville Record. There are two young men residing in the lower part of Queen Anne's county, near Winchester, who practice the test that was required of the renowned and historical Swiss, William Tell, viz., to shoot an apple from the head of his son. These young gentlemen practice their pastime almost daily, without compulsion and with ease and certainty. The weapons used are pistols and the distance from ten to fifteen paces. We are informed that these young marksmen will place upon the head of one an apple, orange or ball and permit the other to shoot at it with impunity and that the object is seldom missed. When the first who shoots is tired the other will take a turn, and neither evinces the least fear.

A Betrayer Shot by his Victim.

SPECIAL DISPATCH to the Times. PITTSBURGH, April 10.—While James McCue was at work at a South Side planing mill this afternoon Elizabeth McCue, who is not related to him, approached him and said: "What are you going to do about this?" "What do you think?" he answered. "I know what I will do," said Miss McCue, and she drew a revolver from under her shawl and fired. The ball entered James' left breast, on a line with the lung. He ran and she fired a second time, but missed him. He told an officer he had been shot and while talking Miss McCue approached and the three went to a physician's office. James will probably die. Elizabeth is a pretty seamstress. Some months ago she left the city for a sad cause and upon her return sent for James to come and marry her. He refused and she decided to kill him. She is now in jail, awaiting the result of his injuries.

The Customer who is always Short.

There is still another class of customers that it may be well to speak of. This class never pick up anything in the store, but they frequently fall a few cents short of having money enough to pay for what they purchase. If, when they come in again, they are reminded by the storekeeper of it, they are very apt to go off in a huff, and pronounce Mr. Blank the meanest man they ever knew, because he actually dunned them for five or ten cents; and yet that five or ten cents may be more than his profit amounts to on the article. A law suit in this city recently revealed the fact that some years ago there was a man living here who, although quite wealthy, was exceedingly penurious. He was a daily customer at a certain store, and always managed to be from three to ten cents short of the amount to pay his bill. The storekeeper asked him several times for the small amounts that were due, but he always had some excuse for not settling. The merchant finally procured a book in which were entered the articles this man purchased, the date, and the amount he fell short. This was continued for some two or three years, when the customer died and the storekeeper presented his claim, which amounted to nearly one hundred dollars, to the executors, and recovered every dollar.—Ez.
