WANTED-A LITTLE HORSE SENSE. -In an interview a few days ago, Charles S. Wolfe, the leader of the Independent Republicans, says:

"The situation is about this If the men; but if they do not place a good ticket in the field the Scalwarts will win and the result will be the disintegration of the Democratic party and the formation of a new party in this State, composed of the best elements of the two prominent parties as they now stand."

Democrats, listen to this! A very trifling thing is needed next fall for the Democrats to carry the State-only a little "horse sense." We hope they will look about them and pick up this desirable article. We will assist them with our old DEMOCRAT spy-glass .-Northumberland Co. Democrat.

ON THE WAR PATH. A Town Destroyed by the Indians. THIRTY-FIVE WHITES KILLED. Sarcastie Letter to the President and Cabinet.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 26.-A dispatch from Shakespeare N., M., dated yesterday, says: A telegram just received from the operator at Stein's Pass reports that the town of Greeleysville, in Arizona, just over the New Mexico line, was burned and completely destroyed this afternoon by Indians. Thirty-five white people were killed. The Indians are scattering into small bands and making for the Chiricahua mountains. Colonel Forsyth, with his entire command, is in pursuit.

A Tucson dispatch says: at a mass meeting of several thousand citizens held to-night it was unanimously decided that the following be sent, and it was immediately wired as an open let ter to the president and his cabinet and to both houses of congress: "During the rejoicings incident to the grand military display announced to take place at Fortress Monroe, we requested to call. beg to offer you as a skeleton to sit at your banquet the fact that nearly 100 of our pioneers have, within a few days been wantonly murdered in cold blood by the devilish Apaches whom a cruel and a mistaken policy permits to survive their crimes. If some small porvive their crimes. If some small porvive the subscriber of the subscriber, all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate are hereby notified to make immediate settlement, and those having claims against the same, to present them properly authenticated for settlement. vive their crimes. If some small portion of expenditure incurred in your grand display could be directed to such measure as would preclude the probabillty of an increase in the list of our murdered dead, we could send you a greeting of gratitude and cheer, in place of the message revealing our sorrow, belplessness and our desolation.

ODD FELLOWS' CELEBRA-TION.

Commemorating the Sixty-Third Anniversary of the Institution of the Order.

Wednesday of last week was observed by Odd Fellows in Pennsylvania and 433 all over the United States as the sixty- 418 third anniversary of the institution of the order at Baltimore in 1819 by Thomas Wildey and a few friends. A uniformed battalion of Patriarchs from Philadelphia went to Norristown, commanded by John P. Nicholson, to attend a celebration held there, in which | 433 numerous lodges from different parts 433 of the State participated. The Most Worthy Grand Patriarch, J. P. S. Gobin, of Lebanon, was present and delivered the oration, and addresses 433 were also delivered on the benevolent 433 work of the order by Past Grand Sire John W. Stoke and Mrs. Martha A. Bridge, of Michigan, the widow of a past grand master, who is visiting Pailadelphia. The lady is a member of the Rebekah degree, to which only wives and daughters of Odd Fellows 433 are admitted. In several of the city Lodges addresses were made and the service set apart for the occasion performed. Apollo Lodge, No. 296, bad 433 a reunion of its members, who dined together in the evening. There are 868 Lodges in the jurisdiction of the 415 State of Pennsylvania, with a member- | 433 ship of 76,476, and of these 143 lodges, 415 with a membership of 25,000 are located in Philadelphia. $158,605 was expended for relief in this city last year.

A Mob's Greeting to a Jury.

GREENSBURG Ind., April 24 .- A mob of fifty masked men at 6 o'clock this morning called on the jailer, and, by choking him, tried to get the keys of the jail, but failed. They then knocked in the jail door, took out O. M. Garrett, hung him to a maple tree ten feet from the jail and left after placing a placard on the body, reading: This is greeting to the Jennings county jury." Garrett had been acquited in Jennings county of complici- 415 ty in the assassination of Mr. Walton State Treasurer's Appointment. by a negro named Frazer, and after acquittal had been arrested on another General Silas M. Bailey, who will charge. There are fears that the mob 403 take charge of the state treasury next will next hang Frazer and Mrs. Wal-

WEST CHESTER, April 25. Much excitement was caused here to-day by the announcement that J. D. Andrews had killed his wife at their residence near Hayesville, in this county. It appears that for several years "Professor" Andrews, as he is famil- 433 iary called, has manifested a tendency to insanity and an attendant was hired Democrats have horse sense and name to watch him, Lastnight, while Mrs. a good ticket, one that is progressive Andrews was in her sitting room, her and up with the times, they will defeat husband, who had been left unguarded 461 Beaver and the rest of the Cameron for a moment in an adjoining room, seized a rolling-pin and, quietly steal- 150 ing up behind his wife, dealt her a terrific blow on the head. She fell to the floor insensible, while the attendant, returning just at this moment, secured Andrews and summoned medical aid. There was no hope, however, and Mrs. Andrews died at four o'clock this morning, without recovering conscious 406 ness. She was about fifty years of age. 87 Professor Andrews who is about sixty years old, accum ulated a large fortune by his wonderful skill as a mathematician. He was known as the "Lightning Calculator," and it is supposed that his peculiar mental exercises was the prime cause of his mind breaking Death From Hydrophobia.

Pottstown, April 24.-John Irey, aged 18 years, son of Benjamin Irey, of Lawrenceville, Chester county, died today of hydrophobia. Yesterday he 430 had spasms and it required eight men to hold him in bed. His ravings were 418 terrible. He frothed at the mouth and barked like a dog. He was bitten in the arm by a dog last fall and it was almost impossible to get away from 400 the animal. He was placed under the 440 treatment of Dr. Emery, the Phenix- 300 ville hydrophobia physician, but it is 400 said he did not follow the doctor's ad- 400 vice. Several other persons bitten by the same dog are in a great anxiety and considerable excitement prevails.
