

BEININGER & BUMILLER, Editors and Proprietors.

Local Department.

—Read the sale bills of Dr. P. T. Musser, administrator of the estate of John D. Foote, deceased.

—Several new houses are being built at Coburn. It is also rumored that the Evangelical church is to go up without delay.

—The Millheim B. & L. Association meets next Monday evening, which means that you are to pay up your dues. "Don't you forget it."

—Deininger & Musser have again received a large lot of marble direct from the quarries. This firm furnishes very fine monuments and other work as low as city prices.

PHOSPHATE.—John H. Musser keeps constantly on hand at Coburn Station a superior quality of phosphate, which he sells in large or small quantities at most reasonable prices.

—Mr. P. H. Musser, our young jeweler, who is carrying on the business for C. A. Sturgis, of Lewisburg, is having lots of work. He is a careful and prompt mechanic and an obliging young gentleman. Go and try him.

—Jerome Spigelmayer has returned from New York with a fine, large lot of Spring and Summer goods. Mr. Spigelmayer is one of the most enterprising as well as most successful merchants in the valley.

—J. A. Lambert, the mail contractor on the route between Coburn and Woodward, is prepared to carry express packages and other goods to all points along the route at reasonable charges. All business entrusted to him will be punctually attended to.

—Rev. Zwingli A. Yearick, the new pastor of the Aaronsburg Reformed church, begins his labors here on next Sabbath. He is a young minister of excellent reputation and true abilities and we wish him abundant success in our midst.

—W. R. Eitlinger, of Woodward, will have sale of all his personal property, two building lots and lumber for a house, on Saturday, May 6th. This will be a good opportunity to buy splendid furniture, carpets and other household goods.

WANTED.—The undersigned wishes to secure a man who will either rent his blacksmith shop, two miles west of Woodward, and carry on the business, or work for him as a hand. For particulars apply to J. M. WEAVER.

—The new monster hotel at Spring Mills, which is to be known as the Spring Mills House, is to be formally opened on the 15th instant. Mr. Nash the proprietor, is an experienced hotelist, and will spare neither labor nor expense to make it a popular summer resort.

—No better place to buy boots and shoes in the county than Doll & Mingle's, in Bellefonte. They sell a lady's dress shoe for $2.00; a fine button walking shoe for $1.00; carpet slippers for 25 cents; men's brogans for $1.00, and others in proportion. Try Doll & Mingle's shoes.

—The Council of Du Bois, Clearfield county, has passed an ordinance making it compulsory for traveling salesmen to pay a license when plying their vocation in that town. Now, if one town has the right to tax traveling agents we presume that others have too, and suggest that our council look into this matter. The borough needs all the revenue it is lawfully entitled to.

—Business is quite brisk at Mrs. Anna M. Weaver's Millinery Store, since the arrival of the new Spring and Summer styles. The ladies who have been there say that the hats are just a little too lovely for anything.

NOTICE.—Work is to be resumed at the new Lutheran Church in Millheim, and all persons knowing themselves indebted on subscription are most respectfully requested to make payment. All monies subscribed are needed at an early day.

JOHN TOMLINSON, JONATHAN HARTER, B. O. DEININGER, Finance Committee.

LARGE SALE.—Dr. P. T. Musser, administrator, will sell the personal effects of John D. Foote, late of Millheim, deceased, beginning Friday, May 19th inst. There is a very large amount of goods on hand and the sale will be adjourned from time to time until all is disposed of. In the store there is a very full assortment of the various classes of goods, especially in the boot, shoe and clothing line, as well as prints and dress goods. This sale will afford a good opportunity to the public to buy cheap. For full particulars see bills.

—We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement in today's JOURNAL of Harris' popular Millinery and Variety Store, Lewisburg. There is no establishment that we know of where our ladies can suit themselves better, or buy cheaper, those beautiful institutions called hats, which are so indispensable to their happiness. Harris is the boss place in Central Pennsylvania, not only for hats, but for the thousand and one other articles used to trim up and beautify the dear ladies.

THE ROYCE REAPER.—I hereby make known to the farmers of Centre county that I intend as heretofore to ship reapers on trial to all who wish to buy. I ask no one to sign any contract, but all will have a fair trial before buying. The Royce must stand or fall on its own merits. For simplicity of construction, lightness of draft, ease of management and efficiency of work it stands unrivaled. For further information I respectfully refer to men who have used it—Jacob Kerstetter, Daniel E. Gentzel, Jacob J. Gentzel, Coburn Post Office, and others.

FISH AND GAME LAWS.—It is illegal to catch and retain trout under five inches in length, and it is illegal to catch fish in any other way than with rod, hook and line. Penalty for each fish illegally caught or retained $10, or offered for sale $25. Buss and pike fishing commences on the 1st of June, and it is illegal to catch them in any other way than with rod, hook and line, under a penalty of $10 for each fish illegally caught. Sunday hunting and fishing is prohibited under a penalty of $25. One half of all fines goes to the informer. At this time of the year there is no game of any kind that can be legally hunted or killed. Constables having personal knowledge of violations of the law, or if furnished with good evidence that the law has been violated, are bound to make return thereof.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT LOGANSVILLE.—On Saturday, the 22nd inst., at about 12 o'clock m., fire broke out in J. B. Brumer's dwelling. As soon as the alarm was made, people flocked to the scene and did their utmost to extinguish it, but to no purpose. It continued to spread and soon the large dwelling house of Hon. G. A. Achenbach was enveloped in flames. Both of these were burned to the ground. Indications were of such a nature at one time that it looked as though the whole town would be consumed in a vast sheet of devastating flame. In a very short space of time the roofs of twenty buildings caught fire. Through the skill and energy of the Logansville Bucket Company the fire was finally extinguished. Many of the household goods of the families burned out were saved. The loss is fully covered by the insurance. Mr. Brumer's in the Home of N. Y., and Mr. Achenbach's in the Sugar Valley Mutual Fire Insurance Company.—Clinton Democrat.

That was truly a very close escape for Logansville; and we have often feared that a similar or worse fate may some day befall Millheim. In the absence of all necessary appliances to extinguish or even check a fire, what could be done to save the town from destruction, if a fire would break out on a stormy day in the central or western part? If a fire had once gained headway under such circumstances, the people would be utterly helpless against the destroying element.

We have no desire to alarm, but feel it our duty as journalists and citizens to call the attention of our people, and especially the council, to this grave question.

—The Synodical Sunday School Convention that met in Aaronsburg on Tuesday evening and adjourned on Wednesday evening, was a successful affair. The attendance of delegates and visitors was very creditable, and the good people of the steady and churchly old burg manifested their interest and appreciation not only by attending almost en masse, but by a genuine hospitality toward the strangers present. There is perhaps no town within the borders of the broad old Keystone that better understands or entertains any meeting that has for its object the promotion of Christ's kingdom upon earth.

The essays, addresses and discussions were eminently practical and pointed, and will no doubt leave beneficial and lasting impression upon all who attended and feel an interest in Sunday School work. The cause received a good impetus. That popular and beloved divine, Rev. L. A. Gotwald, D. D., President of the Board of Home Missions, was present, and delivered two very able and comprehensive addresses—the one on Women's Missionary Work—the other on The Relation of Sunday School Instruction to Missions. These addresses were listened to with intense interest. The Doctor held the large audience spell bound for about an hour each time.

We feel impelled to pay a compliment to the President of the convention, Rev. J. A. Koser, of Pine Grove Mills. He is one of the best presiding officers we ever saw; and but for the fact that he has a higher office now, we would see to it to have him nominated for Vice President in 1884. He would certainly preside over the "first deliberative body in the world," with more ability and dignity than our common run of Vice Presidents are able to do.

—The Women's Missionary Society of the Synod of Central Penna. held its annual convention at Aaronsburg on Wednesday. We did not learn any of the details of the proceedings, but they will be published in pamphlet form in connection with the minutes of the Synodical S. S. Convention at an early day. This much, however, we casually learned, that much interest was manifested at the sessions of the society, and that renewed activity in missionary work will follow. We also understand that at Miss Puella E. Dornblaser, of Ma ckeyville, Clinton county, was elected Vice President, with powers to travel the bounds of Central Synod, a la P. residing Elder, lecture on mission work and organize congregational missionary societies. Correspondents will please address her after this date, when writing on official business, as Miss P. E. Dornblaser, P. E.

It has been suggested by the Post office department that all letters of importance, and especially those containing checks or other papers of value, shall have plain directions for returning the same to the sender printed to the outside. If this plan is followed, it will soon d away with much of the work of the dead letter office.

A CONDUCTOR'S HEROISM. While Mangled and Suffering He Prevents a Serious Collision on the Rail.

It came out at the Coroner's inquest at Philadelphia that the accident to Conductor Robert Glenn on the Pennsylvania Railroad, near Honeybrook Station, on Monday of last week, which caused his death at the Pennsylvania Hospital, was attended by an act of self-sacrificing heroism. The train which Glenn had charge of was cut into sections, the intention being to send the last half upon a siding. Glenn fell off the back platform of the first section and was run over and had both legs mangled. As he lay he saw that the second section did not run on the siding. Raising himself on his crushed limbs, he signaled the engineer to go ahead, which he did, and succeeded in preventing a collision between the two sections. Charles Glenn, a brother, having told the Coroner that Dr. O. A. Allis, of the Presbyterian Hospital, had refused to go to the hospital and perform an amputation, and that Dr. Wattles had said that this would have probably saved Glenn's life, as he lay for hours without attention, postponed the case to hear the physician's explanation.
