The Independent Convention.

tion has come and gone. It was a next November. brilliant success throughout, and the ticket nominated will be an important factor in the opening state campaign, whether it be elected or not.

The personal of the convention was a most excellent one. Senator Mitchell, the man who so boldly threw off the Cameron yoke, was there. Philip C. Garrett, President of the committee of One Hundred, a body that has done so much to purify politics in Philadelphia, was also a member of the convention, and so was Hon. Geo. E. Mapes, H. L. Foster, Thos. W, Philips, Alan II. Dickson, the irrepressible Charley Wolfe, and many other leading Republicans throughout the state. Senator Mitchell took the chair as temporary President and made a ringing speech against the Cameron Boss rule that has so long cursed our state. A permanent organization was effected by making Henry L Forster, of Venango, Presi-

Hon John Stewart, of the committee on resolutions reported a platform which was adopted.

following ticket:

ing personal political ends; we denounce the practice of levying assessments and demanding contributions, for party use, from public offices; we denounce severally and collectively the evils and eorruptions which accompany the conduct of the government as a "spoils system," and which are inseparable from such a method of administration; and we denounce the system of "boss rule" and "machine" control, which, when tamely endured, makes leaders into autocrats, and reduces the mass of the citizenship into political bondage.

Fourth. We declare our purpose to take up the work which fell when Garfield fell; we demand in place of the "spoils system" the reformation of civit service by law, so that the appointed places therein may by freely open to all fit and meritorious citizens, and removals shall be only for good and sufficient public cause; we demand instead of the prostitution of the public service to private uses, its necognition as a high and honorable trust, to be administered for the people's benefit, with efficiency, economy and integrity; we demand, instead of the insolence, the proscription and the tyranny of "bossism" and "machine" rule, the free and conscientious exercise of private judgement in political affairs, and the fathful discharge, by those who assume representative trusts, of the expressed will of the people.

1. That delegates to state conventions shall be chosen by the people in the manner in which candidates for the general assembly are nonlinated.

2. That representations in the state convention shall be by counties and shall be apper-tioned according to their republican vote. 3. That state conventions shall not be held without at least sixty days' notice, nor earlier than the second Wednesday in July, except in presidential years.

4. That the republicans who voted for the republican candidate for president at the presidential election next preceeding shall be entitled to join in the choice of delegates to state and national conventions. ational conventions.

The Harrisburg Patriot on the Independent Convention.

The state convention of independent republicans which assembled in Philadelphia yesterday accomplished its work speedily and harmoniously. It was an assemblage of the intelligent and thoughtful men of the republican party, with but a very slight admixture of the professional politician. In fact the material of the convention consist. ed almost exclusively of original, hard shell republicans, who have never had the slightest strain of democratic blood in their veins and who pride themselves on being republicans from principle. The nominations made by the convention prove the truth of this description. Hon. John Stewart, of Franklin county, the nominee for governor, has been a life-long republican of the strictest sect. He was always extreme in his political views, especially on all questions relating to the rights of the negro. He was an advocate of the principle embodied in the Fifteenth amendment long before his party in its organized capacity dared to endorse it. He has been a radical of radicals and because of his very radicalism chafed under the yoke of Cameron and finally refused to wear it. He is a man of ability and courage and if in earnest in the fight in which he is enlisted will make a spirited and telling canvass. Major George W. Merrick, of Tioga, the candidate for secretary of internal affairs, is made of the stern stuff which has long distinguished the fiery, anti-slavery element of the Wilmot district and is a worthy colleague of Mr. Stewart. Colonel William McMichael, nominated for congressman-at-large, is the son of the old Whig orator, the late Morton McMichael, and has been a straight republican all his days. The other nominations are in harmony with the general character of the ticket. The convention 434 evidently succeeded in carrying out the 3501 idea expressed by Senator Mitchell in his speech on taking the chair as temporary president. It nominated a ticket which will be "endorsed at the polls by the republicans." The pronounced republicanism of the candidates precludes the possibility of their receiving any democratic support and there will 433 be no repetition of the Wolfe folly of The Independent Republican conven- last year on the part of the democracy

CAMERON'S UK ASE.

'Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad." Senator Don Cameron visited Philadelphia last week to tell his satelites and servants what was tobe done in the present distracted condition of the Republican party. The meeting can in no sense be called a conference, for there was no attempt at deliber ation or exchanging views. Cameron simply told the leading business men and Stalwart bosses that they must support his ticket without wincing, else he will op- | 100 pose the tariff bill and smash things generally. He directs that the late convention must be re-assemblea to nominate a con gressman-at-large, vice Marshall, who declines. The Imperial Boss was insolent and dictorial to the utmost. He was simply raging and fierce as a madman. The Times gives the closing scene of the meeting thus:

The convention then nominated the following ticket:

For Governor—Hon. John Stewart,

Among those closeted with the Senator about the middle of the afternoon were Chairman Cooper and his secretary, John McCullough, Selectman For Governor—Hon. John Stewart, from the Tenth ward; Colonel Wm. from the Tenth ward; Colonel Wm. M. Bunn and Major E. H. Nevin, Jr., 400 Franklin county; Lieutenant Goyernor—Levi B. Duff, Allegheny county;
Secretary Internal Affairs—Geo. W.
Merrick, Tioga county; Supreme Judge
—George Junkin, of Philadelphia;
Congressman-at-large—Col. Wm. McMichael, of Philadelphia.

The ticket is considered a very strong one altogether. •

M. Bunn and Major E. H. Nevin, Jr., editor of the Evening News and Surveyor of the Port. Bad as the Senator's humor had been all day, it was now growing worse, being aggravated by an ulcerated tooth. In the most vigorous language he expressed contempt of what he termed "soreh eads" and "kickers." Now and then, when Mr. McCullough or Mr. Cooper, or some one else, would pass a remark up-The convention was highly spirited on what the Independents had been doand enthusiastic from beginning to ing in this city in the last year or two, or make aguess at the extent to which the Horticultural Hall ticket might

The Platform.

The republicans of Pennsylvania who will not surrender their political rights, and who maintain the exercise over their own conscience and judgement concerning public affairs having assembled in state convention, make the declaration of principles and purposes:

First, We declare our attachment to the principles of the republican party-freedom, union, nationality, equal rights before the law, maintenance of the public faith, protection to home industry, and we demand that the record which has been so nobly made shall be wisely and tearlessly perpetuated.

Seesnd, We declare that the nomination and election of James A. Garfield to the presidency signified to us the triumph of a true reform in the civil service, and of an enlarged liberty of action for the masses of the republican party in the nomination of their candidates and the conduct of their party affairs; and we deplore the overwhelming evidence presented to us in Peansylvania that the eatamity of his assassination has been followed by the overthrow of three reforms in the hands of his successor.

Third, We denounce the system which makes "patronage" and "spoils" out of the public offices; we denounce the practice of giving them to political managers for use in advancing personal political ends; we denounce the practice of levying assessments and demanding contributions, for party use, from public offices; we denounce severally and collectively the evils and converted to the throticultural Hall ticket might hurt the regular nominees, Mr. Cameron would impatiently declare that the thurt the regular nominees, Mr. Cameron would impatiently declare that the thurt the regular nominees, Mr. Cameron would impatiently declare that the thurt the regular nominees must and would be elected.

"I never saw the Senator in such add temper before," said a gentleman who lives in the interior of the State and in his choicest terms of condemnation compileted the whole Independent brood to the most torrid of zones.

"D—them all, the exclaimed; we'll give them ing. He is very mad—very mad, indeed. You could have heard his voice
