

Local Department.

Three Cans of Corn for 25 cts. at Spigelmyer's.

The grain and grass fields in these parts have much improved lately and appear promising.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has decided that permanent camp-meeting grounds are taxable.

Spigelmyer beats the town for low prices. Best White Sugar—10 cts., Good Green Coffee—11 cts.

Two barrels of excellent cider vinegar, a good iron safe and a tread power will be sold next Saturday at Dr. Musser's administrator's sale.

Charley Sturgis was up to see "the folks" last week, and as usual, paid his respects to the JOURNAL OFFICE. That's a good boy.

Rev. W. H. Gotwald, of Milton, has been obliged to quit preaching for the present, by reason of an affection of the throat.

Rev. A. B. Erhard, of Fistersville, Dauphin Co., was here last week on a visit to the old home and friends. He looks well and seems to enjoy his noble work.

A large assortment of cream colored and black Batings, cream and black Granadines, and a nice Black Velvet for 50 cts per yard at Spigelmyer's.

Mr. J. Calvin Meyer, of Aaronsburg, has just completed a highly successful term as teacher at one of the public schools of Bellefonte, and is now at home again.

Architect Joseph C. Nesbit, of Lewisburg, was here last week to inspect the work of the new church. He is much pleased with it and pronounces it a first class job.

Col. J. P. Coburn & lady are in the west visiting friends and seeing the country. They touched Girard, Kansas, on the 30th of last month. Hope they may enjoy their trip.

John B. Bair offers his services to the public as horse doctor. He has years of experience in the business and will do his utmost to give satisfaction to all that will patronize him.

Gen. Garibaldi the great Italian warrior and patriot, died at Caprera, his beloved island home, on Friday evening the second instant. Italy mourns the loss of its greatest and purest man.

The Bellefonte Republican intimates that Spring Mills is the centre of the state. But what is the centre of the universe? Guess Bellefonte—until election day.

E. C. Campbell has taken his son Samuel into co-partnership, and the firm is now E. C. Campbell & Son. The new firm has already enlarged and improved their store both inside and out.

CARD.—The Veteran Club of Spring Mills hereby return their thanks to the ladies who so kindly furnished flowers and assisted in making bouquets and arches.

W. H. BARTHOLOMEW, Sec'y.

J. A. Lambert, the mail contractor on the route between Coburn and Woodward, is prepared to carry express packages and other goods to all points along the route at reasonable charges. All business entrusted to him will be punctually attended to.

THREE REASONS.—The reasons Doll & Mingle, in Bellefonte, do such a rushing business in boots and shoes, are—first their stock is of the best; secondly, their prices are the very lowest; and thirdly, they are liberal advertisers and square men to deal with.

Rev. C. W. E. Siegle has left our midst last week and located at Phillipsburg, where he expects to engage in pastoral work. He is a most excellent christian gentleman and faithful minister, and takes with him the best wishes of our entire community.

To Mr. & Mrs. JAMES GIBSON.—Unless you call and pay bill, the goods pledged for the same will be sold at public auction on Wednesday the 14th instant.

Mrs. B. NASS.

Spring Mills House, June 8th 1882.

Abner Harter is the most expeditious the most gentlemanly and altogether the best auctioneer in these parts. He has won golden opinions by the manner in which he dispatches business at the large sales of the estate of John D. Foote, deceased. It is a real pleasure to buy of Abs.

The minor improvements in town deserving mention this week are good summer kitchens built by Wash Stover and P. P. Leitzell, and a good stable by C. W. Hartman. It is not yet definitely settled when or by whom a woolen factory, cotton mill, axe factory, shoe factory, stove works, piano & organ factory—or something of the kind will be built, but as soon as we can give any reliable information on the matter we will herald the fact in our best style.

Two large Wooden Buckets for 25 cts. at Spigelmyer's.

Our young friend W. H. B. Eisehuth left for the west the other morning. Willis is a young man of good business qualifications and has always maintained an excellent character. While we regret to lose him we wish him abundant success.

The sale of the personal effects of John D. Foote, deceased, will be continued Saturday next. Dry goods, boots and shoes, clothing, hats and caps, cook stoves, plow shares, mould boards, land-sides, sled-soles, ten-plate stoves, belting, tea-kettles, and a general variety of store goods will be sold. Sale all day.

The JOURNAL OFFICE now has a new and first class fast-working job press, and we are prepared to do all kinds of job work in best style and at the lowest prices. Envelopes, letter-heads, bill-heads, statements, programmes, constitutions, rules, cards, in fact everything in the line of plain and fancy job printing done on short notice.

Hon. W. R. Bierly, of Williamsport, honored us with a call on Monday. Willis was once one of our own Brush Valley boys, but is now a prominent and successful lawyer in Williamsport and a member of the legislature. He has just returned from a trip to Missouri and speaks in glowing terms of the great west, particularly the fine prospects for an abundant harvest.

You can get not only entire suits at Lewin's Philadelphia Branch, in Bellefonte, but single garments of any kind, whether mentionable or unmentionable. Hats and caps, collars and ties, and even umbrellas, all at the lowest price and to suit and poor alike. No better place anywhere to get your summer supplies of clothing for yourself and your sons, than the Philadelphia Branch.

On Tuesday about noon the dreaded cry of fire was heard on our street. Our people rushed to the scene, which proved to be Squire Reifsnyder's summer kitchen. The entire inside of the roof was all ablaze when discovered but fortunately the fire had not yet broken fully through the roof. Ready hands were instantly at work flooding the building with water and afterwards tearing off the entire roof. The fire was soon extinguished. Had it been discovered a little later or had our people been less expert or daring, it might be our sad duty to-day to record the destruction of a good portion of our town. As it was it is another warning to our citizens to adopt some measure to fight the destructive fiend successful in case of an emergency. Will it be heedless?

The Central Mfg. Co. of Lewisburg are doing an immense business this year. They have been in business for twenty-two years and are building more machines than ever before. The Buckeye mower, so well known in this county, is still kept at the head of the list. The Bates Harvester introduced in 1880 at once took the lead, the sale in our county being 2 in '80, 6 in '81 and 46 last year. Their agents in this county, Jno. DeLong & S. Strohecker, sold last year 49 machines. Farmers should remember that these machines are not yankee grimecracks, but made on the line of our railroad. The shops can be reached twice a day, making it very convenient for repairs. Their machines are all put out on their merits, warranted durable, well made, of good material and run light, and as the record proves will outlast any other machine in the market. Machines built by this company 22 years ago are still running in this county.

The Bellefonte Republican gives its readers the following bit of information on dog law. The law is a trifle defective, inasmuch as it does not specifically state what a dog may lawfully do when he catches a fellow stealing hams. If we were a 'semblyman we would have it amended.

If anyone is attacked on the highway by a dog the party has a right to kill the dog, and the owner can be held accountable for any injury inflicted by the animal. Even on the premises of the owner of a dog, should a party be attacked and injured, after endeavoring to protect himself, the owner can be made responsible for damages inflicted provided it can be shown that at the time he was in pursuit of business or on a friendly visit. If a dog by barking at passing horses and vehicles occasions any damage, its owner is liable for the loss sustained. Thus the law very properly affords people protection for loss or injury caused by dogs.

Decorated Day at Spring Mills.

The Veteran Club of Spring Mills, Farmers' Mills Cornet Band and George's Valley Sunday School marched to the George's Valley Cemetery and decorated the graves of the departed heroes, after which Prof. Lewis Reiter delivered a very able and eloquent address, which very forcibly brought back the memories of years ago, when we stood side by side with those who now slumber in the silent tomb. The Veteran Club, Cornet Band and Spring Mills Sabbath School assembled in Grenoble's Hall from whence they proceeded in solemn procession to Spring Mills Cemetery and strew their flowers and evergreens on the graves of the patriot dead, who sleep their long sleep in this quiet, beautiful spot. The Rev. Furman Adams then delivered a very instructive and impressive address, after which the large assemblage of people dispersed. All these exercises were well attended, everything was marked with the solemnity due the occasion.

The Dubs Missionary Society.

The Dubs Missionary Society of the Evangelical S. S. of Millheim held its first quarterly meeting on the Eve of May 22nd 1882.

The attendance, though inclement weather, was good and showed the degree of interest manifested by the members.

Since the organization of the Society, last March, the membership, and interest in Missionary work, have greatly increased.

The musical and literary exercises at each monthly meeting, being the second Monday evening of each month, are of an interesting and entertaining character and are cheering to the hearts of the young while the middle aged delight "to see the young so gay," and all are learning more and more concerning the needs of the heathen and destitute while all are being more deeply touched with the feeling of sympathy for the poor and the deprived.

Financially the society is doing well, and quite a number have volunteered to raise corn or potatoes, a brood of chickens, turkeys or fowls of some kind garden vegetables or earn money some way; and next Autumn the society expects to have a great "gathering-in-day" or "harvest-day" when the products are to be brought together and all can behold the fruits of a little toil and labor for the aiding of missionaries in striving to spread the Gospel of Peace.—Salvations of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, to the world.

The next monthly meeting is to be held in the Evangelical church on Monday evening June 12,—all are invited to be present, and bring their singing books along. Let all come with cheerful hearts for singing, literary exercises, and work.

A Murderous Assault.

On Monday morning last Anthony Mayes, a young man residing in this city, and Warren Mix, a lumberman from Driftwood, hired at the livery stable of Smith & Probst a horse and buggy to drive to Logansville. While they were in the narrows, near Mt. Pleasant church, Mayes drew a revolver and shot his companion twice, the first shot entering the cheek below the left eye and the second penetrating the jaw. Mix grappled Mayes and a struggle ensued, during which the latter was either thrown or jumped out of the vehicle, and ran off. Mix then took up the reins and drove to the nearest house, where he received assistance and was conducted to Logansville. He was taken from there to Mill Hall, and in the evening was brought to this city, where his wounds, which are not thought to be dangerous received a surgeon's treatment.

A warrant for the arrest of Mayes was issued by an alderman of this city, and the officers have been making efforts to apprehend him, but up to this writing he has not been found. He is a young man, somewhere in the twenties, about 5 feet 8 inches in height, and weighs in the neighborhood of 160 pounds. He was in his shirt sleeves when he left the wounded man, and had on a blue shirt and light suspenders. He had no coat with him. His face is rather longer, than broad, light complexioned; his hair is dark.

The incentive to the assault is supposed to have been robbery, as Mix had about $20 in his possession and it is asserted that Mayes knew the fact.—Clinton Democrat.

This is presumably the same Anthony Mayes who for several years had his home about Millheim. Although he could hardly be considered a model young man while here, no one would have considered him capable of such a wicked act.

News Miscellany.

THE KINTZLER MURDERERS.

Ordered by Judge Bucher to be Chained to Their Cells.

A correspondent of the Reading News writing from Middleburg, Snyder county, says: About a week before court a burglar confined in jail here made his escape, which put Judge Bucher on his mettle, and he said to Sheriff Reichley:

"You must chain Uriah Moyer and Israel Erb, the convicted Kintzler murderers, or else take the full consequences if they escape."

Sheriff Reichley replied that he "pitted the men, whereupon the judge answered:

"Well, if they escape who will pity you? You can be indicted for not keeping prisoners secure and allowing them to escape." The sheriff then chained Moyer and Erb.

The Bartholomew heirs have heard from their committee which recently went to Germany to look after their lost fortune. According to the newspapers the committee report that the fortune is a sure thing and that the money will soon be forthcoming.—Clinton Democrat.

A Church Falls, Killing Six Persons.

LANCASTER, Pa., May 28.—While a congregation of Dunkards was engaged yesterday in raising a frame church in Rapho township, this country, the structure fell, and at least fifty men were caught under the timbers. The following were killed: John Shenk, Samuel Witmoyer, Samuel Blecher, Jacob Gibble and Jacob Kendig. Twelve others were badly maimed.

RISKY.—A law of the United States revised statutes will make it lively for any one who fancies he can fill up holes in a punched coin for the purpose of passing it off on his unsuspected neighbor. The penalty is $3,000 or imprisonment for five years, at the discretion of the court or both.

AS USUAL.—There were the usual number of thieves, pickpockets and swindlers following after the circus. In the afternoon there was a rush for tickets and this was the time for the villains. Mr. Levi Shoemaker, of West Buffalo twp., had his pocket book taken from his pocket. It contained about $45.00 in money and valuable papers. Others had money stolen from their hands and were swindled out of it in different ways.—Lewisburg Journal.

Preparing for a Great Family.

From the Chicago Times. A bachelor named Tait, residing near Wabash, has for many years declined to dispose of any of the wheat produced on his farm. The idea has taken firm lodgement in his mind that he is to be married and the father of a large family, and he is just as ambitious to raise large crops and store them up as the average American citizen is to accumulate mountains of silver and gold. Mr. Tait is further possessed of the idea that a great family will visit the land in the far-off future, and that he will then need every pound of his wheat to supply the wants of his family.

DIED.

On the 3rd inst. at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Wm. Ettinger, at Milton, Pa., Mrs. Joanna Sophia Kurtz, relict of Mr. Ludwig Kurtz, late of Aaronsburg, aged 82 years, 11 months and 27 days.

Deceased was buried on Tuesday, in the Reformed Cemetery at Aaronsburg, upon which occasion Rev. J. H. Tomlinson preached an impressive sermon from Second Corinthians, 5:1.

Another Kurtz left surviving her five children—Louis Kurtz, J. G. Kurtz and Mrs. Ettinger, of Milton, Hon. Fred Kurtz, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. Harshbarger, of Nittany Valley.
