Democratic State Convention.

Independent Movements in Huntingdon.

HUNTINGDON, June 8.—It has just become known here that a meeting of Independents was held at this place on Monday evening last.

The most prominent names mentioned for the democratic nomination for Governor are Cen. W. S. Hancock, Judge Trunkey, Ex-Senator John G. Hall, Senator S. P. Wolverton, Hon. Win. H. Hopkins, Hon. R. E. Managhan and Hon. Wm. H. Pattison.

Chairman Bogart has issued his call to the Democratic State Convention to meet at Harrisburg on Tuesday the 28th inst. J. A. Casanova and D. A. Musser, are the delegates for Centre county.

Judge Mayer, of this district and Judge Cummin, of Williamsport, are mentioned as probable candidates for Supreme Judge.

The election in Oregon seems to have gone Republican by a very small majority. The Independent wave has not reached the Pacific coast.

It is thought that congress will adjourn about the 10th of July.

EX-SENATOR WALLACE'S VIEWS.

The Independent Movement Sporadic and the Democracy's Chances Good.

PITTSBURG, June 6. Ex-Senator William A. Wallace was asked to-day what he thought of the Independent movement.

sporadic and not general. In many Democratic counties there are but comparatively few Independents and the pressure of the Federal Government's power will lay the heavy hand on these people and on election day there will be fewer of them than there are now.

The Hanging of Guiteau. General Crocker, warden of the prison in which Guiteau is confined, has upwards of two hundred applications from correspondents to witness the execution.

The Camp-out at Lewistown. The camp of the National Guard of Pennsylvania at Lewistown is looked forward to with much pleasure by the command.

A Democratic Opinion. From the Philadelphia Times' Washington correspondence.

A Boss Gets Rampant. Hon. George Lear, who presided over the Stalwart republican state convention, refuses to call the convention together again.

WASHINGTON LETTER. WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12th, 1882.

After a protracted discussion, running through several weeks and furnishing some rather peculiar incidents, the Army bill got through the Senate with a compulsory retirement clause attached requiring all officers to be retired at the age of 64 years.

was an amusing contest between those who wished to accept the former and those who desired the latter omitted from the operation of the bill.

Few people realize what an immense institution the U. S. Patent Office is getting to be and how enormously its business is increasing.

Sentiment here is quite unanimous that it is time for Mr. Reed, the counsel for Guiteau, to cease his useless efforts to arrest the execution of the mandate of justice on that horrible criminal.
