

Local Department.

—Our Town Council will meet next Monday evening.

—It is thought that the huckleberry crop will be plentiful.

—About six hundred hands are at work on the new rail road between Sunbury and Lewisburg.

—Read the new rail road time table. Trains leave Coburn at 6.18 in the morning and 2.20 in the afternoon.

—The McKean county court granted seventeen divorces the other week. Shameful.

—Mrs. John Tonner, of Beech Creek, was here last week on a visit to her parents, Sheriff Musser's.

—Money sold at 17 per cent. premium at the regular meeting of the B. & L. Association on Monday evening.

—Col. Jacob Wolf left for Schuylkill county, on Monday morning. Guess he heard of some "nice horse" down there that he would like to see.

—Mr. John Yarger and lady, of Hartleton, were here this week on a visit to H. Tomlinson's. They appear hale and hearty.

—Phillipsburg wants a town clock. Getting busy out there. Next they will want elevated rail roads, electric lights, and such.

—A corner stone for a new Evangelical church will be laid at Cowan, Union county, next Sunday. Rev. Benjamin Hengst, of Lewisburg, will officiate.

—John R. Bair offers his services to the public as horse doctor. He has years of experience in the business and will do his utmost to give satisfaction to all that will patronize him.

—A Sanbury chap got so mad that he said the business men of that town are too stinking stingy to provide a street sprinkler. That fellow might hurt somebody.

—Prof. E. S. Breidenbaugh of Gettysburg, is hereby tendered our thanks for an invitation to attend the Semi-Centennial Celebration of Pennsylvania College.

—Next Saturday a basket picnic will be held in Keen's Grove about one and a half mile west of Millheim by the Pennus Valley Picnic Association. See bills for particulars.

—The administrators of Adam Zerby, deceased, will offer some valuable property at public sale on Saturday Aug. 5th. See notice in another column and sale bills.

—Our friend D. H. Rote took sick while clerking Dr. Musser's administrator's sale on Saturday evening. We are glad to state he never that Dan is pretty well over it again.

—The assessed valuation of all the real and personal property in Clinton county amounts to $3,946,441. About $10,000,000, would be much nearer the truth.

WANTED.—A good jour shoe maker, of sober, industrious habits, able to make all kinds of work. Apply to B. F. KISTEN, Millheim, Pa.

—The sale of the personal effects of John D. Foote, deceased, will be resumed on Saturday, and will then probably close. Quite a variety of things will be sold, among which is a splendid iron safe.

THREE REASONS.—The reasons Doll & Mingle, in Bellefonte, do such a rushing business in boots and shoes, are—first their stock is of the best; secondly, their prices are the very lowest; and thirdly, they are liberal advertisers and square men to deal with.

—Georges Valley has a flourishing Sunday School with a membership of 180. It meets in the church about a mile south from Spring Mills. If there is another rural Sunday School in Centre county so well attended we would like to hear from it.

—The family of Mr. Nelson Diefenderfer of White Deer township, Union Co., lost four children by death within a few weeks, all carried away by that dread disease, scarlet fever. The first victim was a son aged 20. The others were 8, 6 and 4 years old respectively.

—A new post office has been established at Farmers' Mills, and very appropriately named Farmers' Mills. Our friend John S. Auman, is appointed Post Master. This new office will accommodate a pretty large community and will be a great convenience to the people of that neighborhood.

—Our neighboring town, Lock Haven, is making preparations to celebrate the "Glorious Fourth" on a grand scale. Seven fire companies from Harrisburg, Reading, Tyrone and Sunbury, will be present, and others have been invited. Rev. J. Max Lantz will deliver the oration, and Miss Laura Keller, the celebrated elocutionist, will read the Declaration of Independence. Lock Haven expects to have a big day of it.

—The performances rendered by Main's Coliseum at their two exhibitions last Friday, as well as their decent and orderly conduct while here deserve all credit. The canvass was crowded both afternoon and evening and everybody was pleased and satisfied and speaks favorably of Main's circus. The town was thronged with people but no disturbances of any kind took place.

—You can get not only entire suits at Lewin's Philadelphia Branch, in Bellefonte, but single garments of any kind, whether mentionable or unmentionable. Hats and caps, collars and ties, and even umbrellas, all at the lowest price and to rich and poor alike. No better place anywhere to get your summer supplies of clothing for yourself and your sons, than the Philadelphia Branch.

—It affords us much pleasure to call the attention of our readers to the school statement for Millheim Borough for the year ending June 6th, instant. It shows that the tax duplicate was fully settled for, that exonerations were but a trifle, that all debts were paid—including the painting of our school houses—and that there is a cash balance of $248.65 in the treasury. This is what we call business, and we hope our town council may imitate the good example of the school board and take measure to settle up all outstanding duplicate and taxes. Let there be a full squaring up of our municipal affairs every year.

THE COUNTY ROADS.—Would it not be well if every township would construct, say one or two miles of good hard stoned road every year. This would cost comparatively a small sum, and would in a few years place the road of a township in superb condition. There is always much stir made during the early Spring when many of the roads in the country districts are so impassable, in relation to providing hard beds for the principal highways, but when the season advances, and the frost has disappeared, and the holes and ruts are filled up by gravel, the idea vanishes until another season of deep mud comes around, when the subject is again agitated.—E.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The public is respectfully invited to attend a Sunday School Entertainment in the Reformed Church, Aaronsburg, on Saturday Evening, June 24th, 1882. The Programme will consist of Dialogues and Recitations interspersed with select music, vocal and instrumental, under the leadership of Prof. William T. Meyer, assisted by Dr. John F. Harter, Corneter, Mr. B. F. Kister, Piccolist, and Dr. J. J. Desiler, Clarinetist.

Admission—20 cents for adults, and 10 cents for children under 12 years. Proceeds for the replenishing of the S. S. Library.

Doors open at 7 o'clock, entertainment to begin at 8.

By order of the Committee.

—We received a private letter from Rev. J. A. Bright, of Ellsworth, Kansas, under date of June 3rd, in which he states that he and his family feel content and satisfied in their new western home. He speaks in warm terms of the kindness and good social disposition of the people.

His charge extends from Ellsworth to Lincoln Centre, near which Mr. Philip B. Stover resides—a distance of twenty-five miles.

Concerning the prospects for good crops Mr. Bright writes: "For the last few years crops have not been very good in Kansas, but this year makes up for it all. Wheat, rye, oats, corn and potatoes all look fine. The peach crop will also be heavy. Folks here have already been eating ripe peaches, cherries, plums and strawberries for over a week, brought from the Gulf states and sold at enormous prices. I also saw some new potatoes from Texas the other day, very fine, and cost only $3.00 per bushel."

THE VERDICT OF THE JURY.

We have just received a copy of the most popular piece of music ever published in this country, called the "Verdict March," composed by Eugene L. Blake. It is written in an easy style, so that it can be played on either piano or organ. The title page is very handsome, containing correct portraits of Hon. Geo. B. Corkhill, Hon. J. K. Porter, and Judge W. S. Cox; also a correct picture of the twelve jurymen who convicted the assassin of our late beloved President. This piece of music should be found in every household throughout the entire country. Price, 40 cents per copy, or 3 copies for $1. Postage stamps taken as currency. Address all orders to F. W. Helmick, Music Publisher, 180 Elm, Cincinnati, O.

News Miscellany.

Some men will not take a political paper and never read an article on politics. They therefore know no more about the system of government under which they live and which protects their person and their property than a mule knows of astronomy. If all men were like them society would eventually relapse into barbarism and physical might again become the law of the land. The man who does not care to inform himself sufficiently as to be able to exercise the privilege of suffrage intelligently does not deserve to live under a government where the people choose their own rulers and make and unmake their own laws.—E.

From almost every part of the great west comes the cheering news that the prospects for good crops never were better.

Two foolish editors down in New Orleans shot at each other until one of them received a ball through both legs. It was done to vindicate their honor.

The old court house at Ebensburg, Cambria county, was recently sold at public auction for $52, while the jail brought only $50.

The New York World has of late been paying great attention to the crops throughout the United States, and from carefully prepared reports received from all sections it appears that the outlook is most promising for a largely increased yield. The cereals especially are doing well and have been little injured by the unpropitious weather of the winter and spring. This will be good news to all classes of people.

A Fatal Fight Between Two Girls.

LUMBERTON, N. C., June 4.—There was a terrible fight in St. Paul's township yesterday between two girls, on account of a young man, which resulted in Francis McNair plunging a dirk into Jane McKellar's heart. They fought each other like tigresses and the McKellar girl had nearly succeeded in choking Miss McNair to death, when the latter, with a final effort, released herself and stabbed her opponent and then swooned across the body.

Ex-Governor Moses Sentenced.

NEW YORK, June 6.—Franklin J. Moses, ex Governor of South Carolina, pleaded guilty today in the Court of General Sessions to petit larceny. The plea was accepted by the District Attorney, and Judge Gildersleeve sentenced Moses to the Penitentiary for six months. Moses who is forty years of age and claims to reside in West Twentyninth street, was indicted for obtaining by false representations $32 from Dr. Nathan Bozerman, of Fifth avenue, in February.

A LEADVILLE SCENE.—A strangely tragical scene was witnessed in Leadville a few days since. As a policeman was taking D. W. Fresher to the jail on a charge of robbing Robert Bartamoss, the latter appeared on the street, and Fresher broke away, drew a revolver, and fired at Bartamoss. The ball hit him in the right breast and passed through his body. Bartamoss stood motionless for about a minute, and then, raising a rifle which he was carrying, fired at Fresher, the ball striking him in the heart. The street was crowded at the time.

A bill in equity has been filed in the York County Court against the officers and directors of the Southern Pennsylvania Mutual Relief Association, of Hanover, Pa. The complainants are Jacob and Mary Minter, who in their bill allege all sorts of fraud and deception and set forth that in May, 1880, a policy for $3,000 was issued on the life of Elizabeth Kohler, which, with the knowledge and consent of the company was transferred to complainants; that six months later the assured died, and though complainants had paid in assessments over $400 they received no benefit money. The case borrows interest in that it will be a test as to the responsibility of the officers, and if decided in favor of plaintiffs hundreds of similar suits will follow.

MISDEEDS IN MISSOURI.

Six Mounted Men Rob a Bank at Brookfield in Daylight.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 8.—Particulars are received of an attack on the bank of Brookfield yesterday by six armed and mounted men, who rode into the town of Brookfield just as the bank was closing for the day, dismounted, and covering the clerks with their revolvers, robbed the safe of about $5,000. They kept up a rapid fusillade with their firearms as they rode through the place, overawing the townspeople. The men were all masked. The county sheriff and marshal organized a posse as speedily as possible and went after the robbers. Dick Little, ex-Marshal Leggett and others of this city, who are familiar with the James gang, think that Frank James was not connected with the affair, although they admit the job was done up in the James boys' style. It is claimed that Frank is not in the neighborhood. There is plenty of tall timber near Brookfield, and it is not thought likely that the gang will be captured.

A dispatch from St. Joseph says: A telegram from Kirksville, not far from Brookfield, states that a party of men have been stopping on the Harper farm five miles southeast of that place, for the past three weeks. They kept their revolvers on all the time. Nobody knew them. Several horses were stolen there on Saturday night.

Surrounded and Captured.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 9.—The Brookfield bank robbers, four in number, were surrounded in the woods about 130 miles northwest of Kirksville, at 6 a. m., and finding resistance useless surrendered. They were taken to Kirksville where a number of their friends are congregated, and say the prisoners shall not be taken to Brookfield. A fight is looked for.

A Woman's Fight for Life.

From the Lexington Gazette.

During the week Mrs. Camden, who lives on the Lexington (Va.) and Covington turnpike road, one mile from town, was attacked by two black snakes whilst on her way to the spring. There is a path through a field of grass leading to the spring, along which she was going when the snakes made fight. One of them wrapped itself around her foot and ankle whilst the other stood on its tail and endeavored to get about her waist and neck. She fought the reptiles with a bucket which she had in her hands and cried out lustily, when her son, a young man, came to the rescue with a hoe. One of the snakes left Mrs. C. and made a vigorous assault upon the young man, but he speedily dispatched it with his hoe and then went to the relief of his mother and succeeded in killing the other snake. The snakes were of the species known as "racers," and noted for their propensity to chase people when disturbed. They were about five feet long and very slim. Mrs. Camden, though terribly frightened, has suffered no ill consequence from the encounter.

MARRIED.

On the 21st of July, 1881, by Rev. E. Stambach Mr. Jacob F. Stover with Miss Susanna Long.
