

Local Department.

Announcements. We are authorized to announce that R. F. Huxford, of Benner township, is a candidate for member of the legislature, subject to Democratic rules.

We are authorized to announce that John A. Woodward of Howard township, is a candidate for member of the legislature, subject to Democratic rules.

Knarr & Luse are building a large addition to the Millheim foundry, to be used as a work shop for wood work.

Miss Emma Haas, of Millburg, was in town last and this week visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Mauck.

Frank Miller and John Luse painted Nittany Valley last week—or at least a good part of it.

Millburgers are delighted over the prospects of a rail road from their town to Mr. Gast's extensive timber forests about four miles distant.

Neighbor D. A. Musser proved "what he knows about farming" by bringing in a timothy stalk 4 feet 6 1/2 inches long. Beat it if you can.

Our farmers are having excellent hay weather this week, and large quantities of the precious crop have already been made in the best condition.

W. A. Tobias, Esq., has been making Millheim his headquarters for the last few weeks. He still has a warm heart for the old place.

Mr. McNeven and lady of New York City arrived in town last week, and expect to spend part of the summer in this valley and are stopping at Musser's hotel.

The state of the weather on the glorious 4th was not at all favorable to the full development of the "spirit of '76", and more common spirits were therefore substituted in many cases.

From this time out we will call Jim Smith a clever fellow and a real kind neighbor. He has constructed a new, substantial side walk along the JOURNAL OFFICE front.

The administrators of Adam Zerb, deceased, will offer some valuable property at public sale on Saturday Aug 5th. See notice in another column and sale bills.

Rev. E. D. Keen, of Beavertown, Snyder co county, is here on a visit to the old home and friends. "Man" seems to flourish on Snyder county soil like a green tree. He is the very picture of health.

LUTE GOES HEAD.—Last week our friend Luther B. Frank brought a wheat stalk to our office measuring 6 feet 6 inches in length, with a fine large head. It is a new variety called Patton, and promises to be very productive and popular.

The Lutheran Ladies' Mite Society had its sixth monthly meeting Monday evening 3rd inst. The attendance was very full and much interest was manifested. Several new members joined and quite a number of honorary members were elected. The society though only six months old, already has the respectable sum of $16.52 in its treasury.

LEWIS.—of the Philadelphia Branch Clothing Store, is one of the most accommodating merchants one can meet. He will cheerfully show his goods, even if you do not buy. But you will almost surely return and buy at the Branch, after having priced goods elsewhere. Clothing, hats and caps and gents' furnishing goods of every grade and price cheaper than the cheapest.

During our stay in Lock Haven on the fourth we stopped at the Irvin House, of which the Hon. S. Woods Caldwell is the proprietor. The house was filled with guests, but as usual the efficiency of its genial landlord made them all feel at home and well cared for. Under such management a hotel can't fail to win the patronage of the traveling public.

Inventors and Patentees.—should send for instructions, reasonable terms, references, &c., to Edson Brothers, Solicitors of Patents, Washington, D. C. who furnish the same without charge. Edson Brothers is a well known and successful firm of large experience, having been established in 1865.

Ah yes, the dear ladies know just how and when to do a real genuine act of kindness. But for the ladies—God bless them—all love, refinement, culture, yea, civilization itself, would soon vanish from the face of the earth! These were some of our thoughts as we gratefully viewed the finest dish of strawberries ever presented to apoor printer. Mrs. D. A. Musser was the thoughtful donor. Thanks.

Messrs. S. K. Sankey & Co., have our thanks for a bottle of ALKALINE, a toothwash manufactured by these gentlemen. We have tried this article in the family and can truly say, that it takes a satisfactory effect on the teeth after the second or third application, making them clean and pearly white. We recommend it to our readers as a first-class dentifrice. Sold by all druggists.

Our Town Council will have their regular monthly meeting next Monday evening.

Miss Mary Strohm takes this opportunity to inform the citizens of Millheim and vicinity that she will again open a school on Tuesday, July 25th, next, and kindly solicits the continued patronage of the public.

HE DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS LOADED.—Early on Monday morning Wallace Kerstetter, one our young men, was amusing himself, with a pistol in Spigelmyer's store. Of course he did not know it was loaded, but it was, and discharged its contents through Wallace's hand. The wound is not dangerous, though painful.

Young men are a little slow to learn that pistols are not exactly the best toy to play with.

EXTENSIVE CARRIAGE WORKS.—John S. Fisher's Carriage Shops, one mile west of Hebersburg take the lead in this county for the finest and most fashionable Buggies, Carriages and Family Wagons. He keeps the Dexter Queen, Timken, Vanderbilt styles constantly on hand and makes it a point to turn out the best finished wagons in the country. Try him and you will be satisfied and pleased with his excellent work.

The election in Iowa on the 27th ult., on the adoption of an amendment to the constitution, prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, resulted in favor of the amendment by a majority of about 40,000. It seems that the prohibitory idea is growing, especially in the west, and other states are soon expected to follow the lead of Kansas and Iowa.

We had the pleasure of a call last week, by Mr. John A. Woodward, who is a candidate for legislature, as will be seen by formal announcement in another column. Mr. Woodward resides near Howard and is a farmer from choice. Besides farming he edits with much ability the Agricultural Epitome a semi-monthly journal published at Watsonport. Mr. Woodward is a gentleman of information and culture, well versed in the political history of the country, and a positive and thorough Democrat besides.

Some business men think it does not pay to advertise, while others think it does. Among the latter is the extensive and popular Bee Hive Dry Goods house of Lock Haven. The JOURNAL has advertised the Bee Hive regularly for the last six years, and the enterprising proprietors feel satisfied that it pays them well for every dollar thus expended. There is no store in Lock Haven that is so well known to the people of the valleys as the Bee Hive—none that does so large and regular a trade to this part of Centre county.

This week it falls to our lot to announce the departure of two of our aged fathers into the eternal world—John Bierly, of Brush Valley and Geo. Harter, of Millheim. Both were men of spotless character and reputation, prominent and active members of the Christian church.

They were excellent types of that sturdy, industrious, plain and honest class of people so well and favorably known as Pennsylvania Germans. After long lives well spent they go down to their graves respected by the entire community. May they rest in peace.

Read, Mark and Learn!

GEO. B. NASH, Spring Mills House.

SAD CASE OF SUICIDE.—On Wednesday morning the 5th inst. our community was startled by the shocking news that Mr. Thomas Hosterman, a widely-known and a prominent citizen of Haines township, had committed suicide. The report, at first somewhat discredited, soon proved only too true. In the morning of the sad day the family were up early. Mr. Hosterman left the house under pretext of attending to some work at the barn. Not returning when breakfast was waiting, one of his daughters went out to see what detained him, and was horror stricken to find him in the barn with his jugular vein cut, bleeding to death. With a common pocket knife he had committed the dreadful act.

For some time past Mr. Hosterman had suffered under a disturbed state of mind and was frequently very much depressed. He was in good circumstances and surrounded by a highly respectable family who has the deepest sympathies of the entire community.

The remains of decedent were buried in the new cemetery at Woodward, on Thursday following. Rev. P. C. Weidmyer preached in English and Rev. E. Stambach in German, to the large concourse of people that had assembled.

Mr. Hosterman was in the 60th year of his age.

We call the attention of our readers to the large, new advertisement of the Bee Hive Dry Goods Store at Lock Haven, J. F. Everett & Co., proprietors. This is one of the largest, best-known and most successful business houses in this part of the state. The Bee Hive does an immense business, extending throughout Clinton county and into large portions of Centre, Cameron and Elk. The elements which insure such large results are—strict business integrity; a thorough knowledge of the trade; the widest possible range in grade and price of goods and the fullest assortment at all seasons; the lowest, uniform prices to all; competent and obliging salesmen and judicious and liberal advertising. This is a combination of points that can not be surpassed anywhere.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROHIBITION.—A series of public meetings in the interest of constitutional prohibition, will be held in Centre county, at the following places:

- Oseola Mills, Tuesday eve, July 11th, Philipsburg, Wednesday " 12th, Flemming, Thursday " 13th, Milesburg, Friday " 14th, Pine Glen, Sunday " 16th, Snow Shoe, Monday " 17th, Howard, Tuesday " 18th, Pleasant Gap, Wednesday " 19th, Stormstown, Thursday " 20th, Pine Grove Mills, Friday " 21st, Boalsburg, Saturday " 22nd, Centre Hall, Sunday " 23rd, Millheim, Monday " 24th, Aaronsburg, Tuesday " 25th, Bellefonte, Thursday " 27th, Friday " 28th.

These meetings will commence at half past seven o'clock P. M. County Meeting or Convention at Bellefonte on Friday, 28th.

At each meeting held in the county Auxiliary constitutional amendment associations will be organized, and addresses delivered by a representative of the state Association and others. Those who favor a continuance of the liquor traffic and license system, are invited to attend all these meetings, and to those who are opposed to the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, or any mixture or compound thereof, except for legitimate purposes, a reasonable amount of time will be given to defend their cause.

Turn out, everybody, irrespective of party, and bear the discussions. At each meeting delegates will be selected to attend a county meeting or convention to be held at Bellefonte on Thursday July 27th, commencing at 10.30 A. M. and continuing during the day. During its sessions a County Association will be organized.

The movement is entirely non-partisan. The public, without distinction of sex, race, party or denomination, is cordially invited to favor these meetings, with their presence, influence and money.

The pastors and at least two laymen from each church in the county are requested to attend the convention at Bellefonte as delegates. Will the ministry of all denominations, and others in the county who are interested, please make thorough announcement of all the above meetings, and lend your aid and influence to make all a success?

By order of Executive Committee, Cut this out and preserve it for reference.

News Miscellany.

A Lancaster county little girl died suddenly from excessive rope jumping.

The man Whipple, who was recently shot at East Lewisburg, in an endeavor to arrest him, has since died. He seems to have been the head of a gang of robbers.

Houtzdale had a brutal prize fight the other week. Two fellows named Reese pummeled each other fearfully in the presence of a large crowd of men and boys, without an attempt by the officers of the law to interfere. What a shame on all concerned.

Doesn't Know His Own Children.

A Charlottesville correspondent tells of a Simms Gap patriarch who is now living with his ninth wife. Three hundred of his descendants were present at a recent family reunion. He has fifty-three children. He doesn't know all of his own children, as they won't consent to be branded, and as for his grandchildren none but a Napoleonic memory of faces would be able to recognize them. The old gentleman is but a little past eighty years of age.

Bitten By a Beheaded Reptile.

Mr. Jack Helton, workman for the Chestnut Company, killed a large rattlesnake last week by cutting it in two leaving a foot or more with the head. Mr. Helton undertook to examine the fangs of the serpent with a short stick and was struck by the snake, or what was left of it, and its fang came in contact with his hand, since which time the hand has been badly swollen and throwing Mr. Helton into spasms. There is some chance for the bite to result fatally.

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE.

One Hundred Excursionists Reported Drowned in a Steamboat Collision.

PITTSBURG, July 4. Intelligence is just received here that the steamer Scioto, with an excursion party on board, collided with a tug-boat near Mingo Junction, Ohio. One hundred persons are reported drowned. Telegraphic facilities are meagre, but additional facts will be forwarded as soon as possible.

Run the Cause of the Scioto Disaster. PITTSBURG, July 7.—Five more bodies have been recovered from the wreck of the Scioto at Mingo Junction. Today a diver from Cincinnati went into the hold, but found no bodies. He states that there is a very swift current and that in all probability the bodies of the victims are now miles below the wreck. The list of missing as revised to midnight to-night lists 41 from Wellsville and 22 from East Liverpool, with 8 from other points. It is practically settled that whisky was at the bottom of the disaster, as some of the officers and many passengers had freely circulated the bottle before the collision and were drunk at the time.
