Festival of the Ladies' Mite Society of the M. E. Church of Millheim. Said society will hold a festival next Saturday afternoon and evening to which they cordially invite everybody to attend.

Dr. Wetzel made the first grain shocks in the neighborhood this year. Dr. C. Sumner Musser, of Aaronsburg, is confined to bed by a severe attack of pneumonia. Since Monday there has been a slight improvement in his condition.

Prof. George W. Atherton, of Rutgers College, New Jersey, has recently been elected to the Presidency of Pennsylvania State College, and has signified his acceptance. The administrators of Adam Zerby, deceased, will offer some valuable property at public sale on Saturday Aug 5th.

Our friend W. Frank Musser expects to take charge of the Pine Grove Academy on the 24th inst. Frank is a graduate of Pennsylvania College and one of the most successful teachers in this section.

Mrs. David Ertel, of Penns Creek, has a Cactus plant that is a beauty and rarity of prolific blooming. It has at this time one hundred and thirty separate flowers. Can any of our florists beat this?

That most clever of all clever fellows, Mr. Joseph K. Moyer, of Centre Mills, sent us a sack of flour. It is most royal flour—and came just in the nick of time. Thank you Joe; hope you may yet be as rich and prosperous as your pious namesake of old.

Mr. Milton E. Bollinger, a recent graduate of the Central State Normal School, Lock Haven, will open a subscription school at Aaronsburg on Monday July 21st inst. The patronage of parents respectfully solicited. Tuition moderate.

Our young friend, Mr. F. O. Metzger of Philadelphia, after an absence of over two years came to town on Tuesday to spend a few days with his aunt, Mrs. Adolph Miller and visit his many friends. He looks hearty and every inch a gentleman. Glad to have you here, Fred, and anxious to see you stay a while.

Inventors and Patentees. should send for instructions, reasonable terms, references, &c., to Edison Brothers, Solicitors of Patents, Washington, D. C. who furnish the same without charge. Edison Brothers is a well known and successful firm of large experience, having been established in 1865.

The Ladies Mite Society of the Lutheran congregation will take up a basket collection at regular worship next Sunday evening. The society most respectfully appeals to the congregation and the Christian public for liberal contributions. The proceeds will be applied to the furnishing of the new church.

The surviving members of Co. A. 148th P. V., will hold a re-union at Rebersburg, Friday Aug. 25th, which will be the twentieth anniversary of their muster-in into the military service of the United States. A competent committee has charge of the arrangements the details of which are published in another column.

Our modest friend Jacob Shafer, near Penn Hall, sent us a timothy stalk that measures 6 feet 2 1/2 inches in length. Jacob informs us that it is of good Democratic variety and a good thermometer to gauge Gov. Pattison's majority in November. But what is the prospect for big apples, Jake, for the poor printer?

The idea used to prevail very largely that to appear in tattered or patched up clothing was a sure sign of manly dignity and moral worth. But people are fast getting other notions on this subject. Men do not get much credit these days for being slovenly in their appearance, while to be filthy is a downright disgrace. Of course much depends on the work or business in which men are engaged, and it is for this reason that Lewin, of the Philadelphia Branch Clothing House, Bellefonte, Pa., keeps a full line of clothing suitable for the laborer, the merchant, the farmer, as well as the professional man—and all at the very lowest cash prices.

Miss Mary Strohm takes this opportunity to inform the citizens of Millheim and vicinity that she will again open a school on Tuesday, July 25th, next, and kindly solicits the continued patronage of the public.

Mr. Andrew J. Immel has bought Mr. Lambert's mail contract and now runs the mail coach from Coburn to Woodward, stopping at Millheim, Aaronsburg and Fiedler & Runkle's store. Express packages and other goods if not too bulky, carried at reasonable charges. All business entrusted to him will be promptly attended to.

A NOBLE DEED.—The late Malbon Fisher, of Williamsport, at his death, bequeathed a sum of $83,000, the interest of which is used semi-annually to supply the wants of widows. In consideration of this, services commemorative of him were held over his grave on Sunday afternoon.

THE BIG LEGACY.—Mr. Allen Bartholomei of Altoona, one of the numerous heirs, who recently sailed for Europe to ascertain whether or not the supposed great fortune existed only in the mind of their New York attorney, has returned to Altoona and the Tribune of that city reports him as saying that the prospect of obtaining the fortune is very bright.

The good people of Aaronsburg have been much annoyed of late by a number of petty thefts. Flour and other provision, clothing, linen from the clothes line and other things are constantly going where the woodbine twines. Even cows are being milked by others than their owners, before the dawn of day. We suggest that our Aaronsburg friends put a stop to these depredations.

"MAUD."—The other day neighbor Pierce Musser launched a beautiful little pleasure boat on the old, historic mill dam. (Spell the word D. A. M. leave the M off, then it isn't swearing.) Pierce had the neat little ship painted in best style and named it Maud, after his charming, rosy-cheeked young daughter. All decent persons can hire the Maud for a trifling fee. For terms and particulars apply to CLYMER MUSSER.

EXTENSIVE CARRIAGE WORKS.—John S. Fisher's Carriage Shops, one mile west of Rebersburg take the lead in this county for the finest and most fashionable Buggies, Carriages and Family Wagons. He keeps the Dexter Queen, Timken, Vanderbilt styles constantly on hand and makes it a point to turn out the best finished wagons in the country. Try him and you will be satisfied and pleased with his excellent work.

Hon. John B. Linn, of Bellefonte honored us with a call last week. He has for some time been busily engaged in collecting material for his forthcoming History of Centre County, which promises to be the most comprehensive and complete of its kind ever published. Mr. Linn is a gentleman fully competent for the work and has large experience in writing local history. His Annals of Buffalo Valley is a work of sterling merit.

REUNION.—Of the surviving members of Company "A" 148th Regt., P. V. at Rebersburg, August 25th, 1881—the 20th anniversary of their "muster-in" into the U. S. service. The members of the company will form at 9 A. M., on the spot in front of the Rebersburg Hotel where they were sworn into service twenty years before, and will be briefly addressed by Maj. R. H. Foster of Bellefonte. Thence the company, orphans of deceased soldiers of this company, and soldiers belonging to other organizations, will march in procession to Kreamer's woods, south of Rebersburg, where a Historical Sketch will be given of the service of Company A during the late war, by Maj. R. H. Foster. Gen. J. A. Beaver and other distinguished speakers are expected to be present and deliver addresses, after which the soldiers will go into camp and prepare dinner for themselves in the most approved style.

Knapsacks packed with eight days' rations and other necessary appendages pack-mules to carry ammunition, provisions and utensils, and soldiers' complete outfit on a march, will be among the attractions of the day. A brass band will be present to enliven the occasion with music. A cordial invitation is extended to all soldiers and soldiers' orphans to be present and a general invitation is given to citizens to be present and make it an occasion for a basket picnic. Soldiers are requested to bring with them cooking utensils and provisions to prepare meals as they were accustomed to in the army. Arrangements will be made to accommodate all members of company

"A" and their families and orphans of deceased soldiers of this company, coming from a distance, by calling on the committee of arrangements.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

Farmers are busy cutting grain. The precious crop is an excellent one.

Capt. McCool saw a big deer wandering around leisurely on his farm. The Captain is a law-abiding citizen and would not shoot a deer out of season—and it seemed as if Mr. Vinton knew it.

Something new and beautiful is almost daily added to the new Spring Mills House. Mr. Nash understands how to improve the fine resort.

Rev. James D. Wilson, of New York city, is here on a visit to his venerable father and friends. He preached a very able sermon to a large and appreciative audience on Sabbath evening.

Jacob McCool will remove his steam saw mill back to the old site near his residence in a few days. Jacob is the boss sawyer in these parts.

Mr. I. J. Grenoble has adopted the cash system. Hope others will soon follow and make it general all around. Mr. G. promises to sell goods very closely, and he is just the man to make good what he promises. He understands the mercantile business fully. Success to him. SAM PATCH.

News Miscellany.

A Reading man was fined $25 for using indecent and insulting language. The public debt was decreased $12,560,096.70 during the month of June.

Ex-Gov. Curtin will deliver an oration at Gettysburg on the 29th inst.

In many places the wives and children of the strikers are suffering for want of food. That is what strikes are a good for.

Jacob Coleman, a respectable and well to do farmer residing near Middleburg, Snyder Co., committed suicide on the 30th ult., by hanging.

It is now discovered beyond a doubt that Mrs. Scoville, on the morning of Guiteau's execution, sent him a handsome bouquet of flowers, some of the buds of which contained heavy doses of arsenic; and in addition a vial of rank poison was worked neatly into the bouquet. It seems that it was her desire to get an opportunity to whisper the words "Chew the buds" in his ear.

Happy now are the clerks of the stores whose proprietors do not believe in advertising. They can stretch out upon the counter, place their heads upon a roll of self faded calico, throw a piece of bobbin over their faces, and snore the happy hours away.—Ex.

WAR IN EGYPT.

War has commenced in Egypt. On the 11th instant the British war fleet opened fire on the fortresses of Alexandria, the batteries replied and the action soon became general.

A London Times correspondent gives the progress and result of the battle as follows: ALEXANDRIA, July 11.—9.10 a. m.—The attack on the forts has now been kept up two hours. Smoke hangs over the city along the line of the shore batteries and among the ships, and it is difficult to see what damage has been done. It is certain, however, that the enemy has suffered very heavily. Fort Marsat Kamat has been blown up. The fire from the other batteries and forts is slackening. The top of the tower of fort Pharos has been carried away and many guns have been dismounted on that and other forts. The flag of the Geneva Red Cross is flying over hospital in the city. The Dutch and Greek flags are hoisted over their respective consulates. At the beginning of the bombardment immense excitement was visible. Crowds of people were seen wending their way toward the palace. The streets are now deserted, the people having fled or taken refuge in cellars. Up to noon four forts had already been blown up and fires broke out at different parts of the city. The casualties on the British side were five killed and twenty-seven wounded. The loss of the Egyptians was heavy.

OFF ALEXANDRIA, July 12.—1.30 p. m.—A flag of truce is shown from the town and a vessel steaming toward the fleet is displaying a flag of truce. A dispatch from on board the Challenger, dated at 5.15 this afternoon, says: "The flag of truce is still flying. Several large fires have broken out in various parts of the town."

LONDON, July 12.—A dispatch from Alexandria, sent at 9.22 to-night says it is supposed the Egyptian troops have evacuated the town, as the fires to-night are assuming larger proportions. The town is reported to be almost empty, and it is believed has been left to the low Arabs, or possibly the Bedouins, to plunder. The darkness of the night makes the conflagration appear very vivid. It is supposed the town is being reduced to ashes wilfully. At sunset the white flag was still flying.

The causes that lead to the present war in Egypt are many and complex, and withal very difficult to understand by the average American. Egypt is a dependency of Turkey and as badly governed. In 1876, Ismail Pasha, the Khedive, had brought the country into an alarming condition financially. The interests of foreign bondholders were at stake and France and England became alarmed for their supremacy of the Suez canal. The two governments made an alliance against Egypt, and notified the Pasha that he must stop his extravagance and reform his government, which he promised to do but failed, and in 1879 he was compelled to abdicate. Tewfik Pasha, became the ruling head under supervision of England and France. Of course the Sultan consented to this arrangement, simply because he could not prevent it. Thousands of foreigners were appointed to lucrative offices, which was a constant source of irritation to the Egyptians, and this is the more immediate cause of the war. A national party which includes the army, has been formed under the leadership of Arabi Bey, the Minister of War, and their battle cry is "Egypt for the Egyptians." Alexandria is demolished by the British war ships, but further military operations must be carried on by land. England has the sympathy of the great powers now, but the "balance of power" question may soon become a troublesome factor. The small beginning at Alexandria on the 11th inst may lead to a general European war.
