

Local Department.

Announcements. We are authorized to announce that B. F. HURST, of Beaver township, is a candidate for member of the legislature, subject to Democratic rules.

We are authorized to announce that John A. Woodman of Howard township, is a candidate for member of the legislature, subject to Democratic rules.

Mrs. Chas. A. Sturgis, from Lewisburg, is here visiting.

A good town property at private sale. Inquire at this office.

Wednesday night thieves stole a lot of fresh meat and some milk from H. H. Tomlinson's cellar.

Mr. Valentine Breen, at Woodward, has a large number of fine celery plants which he sells very reasonably.

A new postal route has been established from Coburn via Millheim to Lock Haven.

The Evangelical camp meeting for this circuit will begin at Woodward August 3rd.

Rev. C. F. Deininger and lady, of New Berlin, spent a few days with their Millheim friends last week.

Mr. Duar Neff, of Slatington, completed the slate roof and steeple on the new church last week. It is an excellent job.

The festival of the Methodist Ladies' Mite Society on Saturday evening was a success and quite a handsome sum was realized.

Prof. Kuzenknebe is running two singing classes at Lewisburg now. The old Professor understands how to do it exactly.

Gen Beaver estimates his majority at "about 50,000." Hope he will consent to be satisfied with 49,999, if he can't do any better. Cameron men would be happy with half that many.

The administrators of Adam Zerby, deceased, will offer some valuable property at public sale on Saturday Aug 5th. See notice in another column and sale bills.

Last Wednesday night a milk made sad havoc among the chickens of Mr. Valentine Breen, of Woodward, killing eighteen of them. That was mean, low business even for a milk.

The Millheim Telegraph has a notice to the effect that application will be made at the next session of the Legislature for a State Road from Cherry Run Station, Union Co., Pa., to Woodward, in Centre Co., Pa.

The papers say that the public is heartily sick of the Guitane business and all that hangs around and about it, and yet every paper is anxious to say something to keep the subject fresh before the public. "Let us have peace."

STILL THEY COME.—Mr. Ulrich, Jr., sent in an oak stalk that measures 6 feet 2 inches in length. Mike did not say whether it is Beaver or Stewart oak, but he would hardly raise the Independent breed.

We regret exceedingly that we have not room this week to publish at least the more pointed paragraphs of Gov. Curtin's great speech delivered in Congress, June 27th, on Internal Revenue Taxation.

Mr. Milton E. Bollinger, a recent graduate of the Central State Normal School, Lock Haven, will open a subscription school at Aaronburg on Monday July 31st inst. The patronage of parents respectfully solicited. Tuition moderate.

Dr. A. J. Orndorf and Mr. Jonathan Hess, of Pine Grove Mills, spent a few days in and about town last week. Both are substantial, intelligent men, first class citizens and very clever fellows generally. They are welcome to call again.

Inventors and Patentes. should send for instructions, reasonable terms, references, &c., to Edson Brothers, Solicitors of Patents, Washington, D. C. who furnish the same without charge. Edson Brothers is a well known and successful firm of large experience, having been established in 1866.

OLD MEN AT WORK.—Old Cumberland county has some lively veteran harvesters. Gates Shoemaker cut in one day fifteen acres of wheat that made 288 dozen. Mr. Long, aged seventy-six years, bound his section with three after the reaper. Mr. Shoop, aged eighty-eight years, gathered all the sheaves.

Read, Mark and Learn! That a fine, enclosed Picnic Ground, with every convenience, Swings, Croquet Ground, Quits, Pavilion, and a Fine Spring of pure water with plenty of shade, has now been completed at Spring Mills. Societies, Clubs, Lodges and all respectable parties will be accommodated on reasonable terms. Carriages and tickets to the celebrated Penn Caves at moderate rates. Address

Geo. B. Nash, Spring Mills House.

BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU SIGN.—In June a man giving the name of Amos C. Smith, and his residence at Philadelphia, obtained the signatures of the following farmers in Lancaster county to receipts for small payments made on timber lands: John Balmer, Andrew Helsey and Abraham Herr. These signatures have come back attached to promissary notes aggregating $11,000.

"MAUD."—The other day neighbor Pierce Musser launched a beautiful little pleasure boat on the old, historic mill dam. (Spell the word D. A. M. leave the n off, then it isn't swearing.) Pierce had the neat little ship painted in best style and named it Maud, after his charming, rosy-cheeked young daughter. All decent persons can hire the Maud for a trifling fee. For terms and particulars apply to CLYMER MUSSER.

S. K. SANKEY & Co. are making preparations to manufacture on an extensive scale the celebrated Keystone Cultivator. This is one of the best agricultural implements ever invented and was largely manufactured by the late John D. Foote. The new firm should have every possible encouragement by our citizens and the community at large. The concern has the smack of pluck and enterprise about it and we wish it every possible success.

John R. Koenig, hotel keeper at Womelsdorf, has a hog that will be three years old next August, and is estimated to weigh 1,300 pounds.—Reading Advertiser.

What a striking coincidence! Why Womelsdorf is our native home town. But we are much older and not nearly so heavy—and that again makes at least two marked points of difference.

The Centre County Sabbath School Association will hold its thirteenth annual convention in the Presbyterian church at Centre Hill, Thursday, Aug. 17th. It is intended to make this meeting a point of interest, if possible a little in advance of any similar meeting yet held in the county. All ministers are delegates ex-officio without appointment or special invitation. Particulars with regard to the convention will be published in season.

The idea used to prevail very largely that to appear in tattered or patched up clothing was a sure sign of manly dignity and moral worth. But people are fast getting other notions on this subject. Men do not get much credit these days for being slovenly in their appearance, while to be filthy is a downright disgrace. Of course much depends on the work or business in which men are engaged, and it is for this reason that Lewin, of the Philadelphia Branch Clothing House, Bellefonte, Pa., keeps a full line of clothing suitable for the laborer, the merchant, the farmer, as well as the professional man—and all at the very lowest cash prices.

We hereby tender our thanks to Prof. W. T. Meyer for a very fine piece of music for the piano, called "Moonlight in the Forest." It is adorned by an excellent engraving on the title page, expressive of the name and spirit of the music. Mr. Meyer, the author is becoming celebrated as a composer of music and it affords us pleasure to state that the extensive publishing house of W. F. Shaw, Philadelphia, have permanently engaged his services.

Prof. Meyer will commence a term of music lessons at Aaronburg and Millheim next Monday and Tuesday, and will give instructions to a few scholars every week on those two days. On account of his permanent engagement with the mentioned firm he will not be able to teach a great number.

Temperance Meeting. The Temperance Meeting at Millheim on Monday evening, July 24th, was a success. At the ringing of the bell many gathered into the Evangelical church to hear Mr. W. D. Blackburn deliver a fine lecture on the great subject of Temperance, after which the following were elected as officers of the "Millheim Constitutional Amendment Association": viz Dr. S. Guitaneus president; W. K. Alexander, B. O. Deininger, H. K. Luss Vice President; D. L. Zerby Secretary; Jacob Gephart Treasurer; and an executive committee of seventeen ladies and gentlemen of the town.

This was an excellent step and "is but just begun." Mr. Blackburn received a rising vote of thanks for his noble work so highly appreciated here. The County Constitutional Amendment Association Convention shall be held on July 28th at Bellefonte. Places have been secured, free, for all delegates.

SECRETARY. SPRING MILLS ITEMS. Spring Mills Academy opened with some fifty students.

There are quite a number of tourists and city folks at the Spring Mills House already and more are coming. The park is enclosed and a fine shady retreat it is. Mr. Grenoble is piping the water for the hotel from Sam'l Leitzell's spring into a reservoir, and then by a hydraulic ram to the third floor of the hotel, which will soon have all the modern conveniences of the times.

SAM PATCH. The Georgia Democrats have nominated Hon. A. H. Stevens for Governor.

—Harvest is about over in this neighborhood and a very good average harvest it is. Hay is more abundant than it has been for the last forty years. Many of our farmers have made forty, fifty, sixty loads and some even more. Conrad Immel, on the Gentzel farm at Penn's Creek, took in seventy-five loads and left the grass on an entire field out after mowing it. Oats, barley, corn and potatoes all promise a rich yield, while fruit alone will be rather scarce. To all human appearance this will be an exceptionally fruitful year in our valleys, while we have been thus far most graciously spared from casualties and damages by storms, hail, lightning and floods.

As a people—locally speaking—we have much cause for thankfulness to our Heavenly Father for these rich gifts. How are we affected by them? Will they stimulate us to renewed industry, to new enterprises in our varied business pursuits and callings? Will we be more liberal in our benevolence, more charitable to the suffering and poor? Will we give any more than our usual pittance to the building of churches, the support of the missionary cause, the endowment of colleges, and to other benevolent and religious objects which appeal to us so earnestly for help? Will we be any more public-spirited as citizens, more dutiful as Christians, or will we enjoy God's richest blessings without giving any practical evidence of gratitude, as if we were to live here forever, in groveling selfishness, without any due appreciation of duty—without any noble desires or aspirations to do some good as we travel along the journey of life down to the grave and eternity? Let us reflect.

Their names were John Hayes, aged thirteen years; John Bone, aged eleven, and Alfred Jarvis aged ten. John Manning, another boy who was injured in the same manner on July 4, died on Tuesday night. A boy named Joseph Delaney also died on Tuesday. Alexander, son of Captain George H. Johnson, of Gloucester, Mass., died last night from lockjaw, caused by a toy pistol wound. He was thirteen years of age.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 20.—Fifteen fatal cases of lockjaw, caused by wounds from toy pistols on July 4th, have been reported in this city, and three in the country. Six boys have died in Burlington, Iowa, and three in Peoria, Ill., from the same cause.

Advices from Ireland state that there is great danger of a general failure of crops, which is the one thing yet needed to make the condition of that restless and unhappy country completely miserable. A few weeks ago there was prospect of an abundant harvest, but continued heavy rains have beaten down the fields of growing grain and already have injured the potatoes, and even with a change to fair weather now there will be short crops in many parts of the country.

On the 5th of August the annual encampment of the First division National Guard, under command of General Hartranft, opens at Lewistown, and the camp will be maintained for six days. The site is one mile from town and beautifully located, having a plateau for military movements. It is expected that 8,000 troops will participate on the 10th. The First City Troop of Philadelphia is to march home a distance of 160 miles, in easy stages of forty miles a day. The camp will be named after General John F. Reynolds, who was killed at Gettysburg.
