

Local Department.

The Millheim B. & L. Association will meet next Monday evening.

Ninety widows are going to have a picnic all by themselves. What next? A good town property at private sale. Inquire at this office.

The attention of our readers is directed to the Sheriff's sales in another column.

G. M. Harter & M. S. Feidler give notice that they are the administrators of the estate of George Harter deceased.

Lock Haven has a debt of $164,686. The debt of Millheim is exactly $600,000. The former place has a big majority.

Don't let your Canada thistles go to seed. If you do any person can bring you before the law and have you fined $5 and costs.

Mr. & Mrs. S. D. Musser left town on Monday to attend the funeral of Mr. Cantner, the father of Mrs. Musser who resided at Milroy.

And now a New Berlin chap comes to the front with a corn stalk said to measure 14 feet 6 inches. Well, that's a whopper of a corn stalk.

The Madisonburg Harvest Home Picnic last Saturday was well attended but otherwise a rather tame affair. The balloon ascension in the afternoon was an utter failure.

We are having delicious showers of rain, which will help the corn, potatoes and vegetables along so that we can look for plentiful crops and thank kind Providence for it.

Mr. George Ulrich and family, accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Stover, are off this week on a visit to Mr. John Stover's near Lewis's own. Hope they will have a pleasant time.

FARM SOLD.—The other day Mr. B. F. Frankenberger bought the Phillips farm above Millheim, at executors' private sale, for $85 per acre. It is a choice little farm of sixty four acres.

M. M. Hilliards great Menagerie & Circus is exhibiting in Millheim to-day. Charley Madden, the celebrated clown and vocalist, endorsed by the public and press is with this show at present.

A Lancaster printer lost seven dollars at the Landisville camp meeting. Serves him right. No printer has any right to be running around loose with such a big amount of money about him.

$10 REWARD.—I will pay a reward of ten dollars to the person, to whom I gave two new fly nets, to deliver to W. L. Musser, and who will certify that he did deliver the same to said W. L. Musser. R. V. SHAFER. Late of Howard Pa.

Dr. Stam is busily engaged in rebuilding the old corner mansion, and judging from present appearance he will soon transform the old hulk into a fine dwelling house. If about twenty of our citizens would follow the example of our young city would improve rapidly.

The Millheim band attended the picnic at Madisonburg last Saturday and delighted the people with their superior and well executed music. Our town still has reasons to be proud of that organization and the citizens should not forget to appreciate the services the boys render by their delightful serenades.

VALUABLE PROPERTY TO BE SOLD.—The real estate of the late Adam Fisher, deceased, known as Farmers' Mills, in Gregg township, about two miles north of Spring Mills, will be sold by the executors on Saturday, Sept. 9th. The premises consist of an excellent flouring mill, saw mill, dwelling house and store stand, and some forty acres of land. It is one of the most desirable properties in Centre county for an enterprising business man. See bills.

Inventors and Patentees.—Should send for instructions, reasonable terms, references, &c., to Edson Brothers, Solicitors of Patents, Washington, D. C. who furnish the same without charge. Edson Brothers is a well known and successful firm of large experience, having been established in 1865.

Read, Mark and Learn!

That a fine, enclosed Picnic Ground, with every convenience, Swings, Croquet Ground, Quoits, Pavillion, and a Fine Spring of pure water with plenty of shade, has now been completed at Spring Mills. Societies, Clubs, Lodges and all respectable parties will be accommodated on reasonable terms. Carriages and tickets to the celebrated Penn Caves at moderate rates. Address GEO. B. NASH, Spring Mills House.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—We learn from a reliable source that the only son of our friend Daniel P. Heckman, residing at Buffalo Run, some miles west of Bellefonte, was killed by lightning on Monday afternoon while engaged in hauling oats. The particulars of the sad affair we can not give, nor even the name of the young man, whose age is about eighteen years.

Mr. S. S. Shaffold & Lady are spending part of the summer at the Spring Mills House. Mr. Shaffold is a special agent of the Provident Life & Trust Co. of Philadelphia. This is one of the substantial Quakers institutions of the state, and is doing a large and careful business.

Campmeeting was attended by a large number of people on Sunday and we are glad to add that good order prevailed. On Sunday night however some malicious villain cut up Mr. M. L. Fiedler's harness so badly that he could not use it to go home with. Such acts are about the meanest and lowest form of revenge or deviltry we know of.

Among our visitors during the last week—excepting the candidates—were Col. Shortridge and Major Forster, of Bellefonte, Rey, W. C. McCool, of Turbotville, Pa., Mr. Samuel Harter, of Georges Valley, Mr. R. V. Shafer, of Mill Hall, Mr. George Huss, of Linden Hall, and B. F. Kiepper and son of Booneville—a fine looking and substantial set of men. They may call again.

ADVICE GRATIS.—The candidates just nominated for congressman, senator, assemblymen, jury commissioner and coroner had better go to Lewin in a body and have their sizes taken for campaign suits. "Don't you forget it" gentlemen. We want you to have the best possible appearance when you come around to solicit our votes, or make speeches, and Lewin is just the chap to rig you out in first class style. Don't risk defeat by appearing in patched unmentionables and general slovenliness.

GOOD NEWS TO THE POOR.—The grain circular issued by the Department of Agriculture at Washington gives the following encouraging account from information and estimates collected up to July 11th. Taking 100 as a basis the corn crop promises a yield of 85. The State making the most favorable average is Georgia, 108, and the poorest is Illinois, 68; and Iowa, 72. All the Southern States show a high condition; most of them will average 100. Wheat, with the present promise of spring, it is anticipated, will show a crop of 450,000,000, to 500,000,000 bushels. Rye is fully 100, and presents the feature, perhaps never before known, of selling for less money per bushel than corn. Oats are in high condition and are represented as 103. Potatoes are in largely increased acreage, standing at 107. The increased acreage of corn is 2,500,000 acres.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.—Everybody is going to the Mountain picnic. W. F. Rearick lost a valuable horse. The animal trapped into a nail and had to be killed. Mr. E. L. Bergstresser, the photo artist is here and makes excellent work. His prices are reasonable and he has plenty to do. Mr. J. Groves's cellar wall is going up. Mr. P. S. Dale is getting his "addition" fixed up very nicely. He is improving constantly. More men of his stamp are needed in town. Mr. T. B. Jamison is rebuilding his house—a good move. Our old friend Daniel Loso has improved his property more than any man in town. Success to the old veteran. Grenoble says the cash system works splendidly—all O. K.

News Miscellany.

An Italian beggar at Williamsport had $2,000 sewed up in his clothes. There are eight nationalities represented among the workmen on the new railroad near Sunbury. The prospects for a large peach crop in Delaware and Maryland were never so flattering as at present. It is estimated that it will exceed by over a million baskets any preceding year. Three Berks county men held a post-mortem upon a valuable cow which had died suddenly, to see what ailed her. All of them were blood poisoned, one died from lockjaw and the others are not expected to live. THE "Pattison and Black" balloon which was sent up from Centre Square, York, on Saturday evening remained in the air about twenty minutes. It took a northeasterly direction at first, but on rising higher struck another current, which carried it in a westerly direction and it landed near the residence of Chauncey F. Black. Margaret Kane, of Mauch Chunk, walking in bare feet stepped upon a vicious copperhead which at once immodestly buried its fangs in the calf of her leg. She was stupefied with liquor and a live toad fastened on the wound. The toad obligingly absorbed the poison and died, and the little girl recovered.

SAM PATCH.

The new railroad routes are so numerous in Forest county that an old farmer who had seven hens tied each hen to a separate railroad stake in his yard, and each stake represented a different railroad company. That would be a good place to build a union depot.

A confirmed drunkard tried to stab a Pittsburg priest in order that he might be imprisoned and placed beyond the temptation of strong drink, the appetite for which is beyond control.

The prophet Venner must have been most fearfully mixed when he made the weather for July. If he can do no better for the balance of the season he had better shut up shop.

Dr. S. M. Bell has been arrested in Somerset county on the charge of having failed to register as the statute requires. His case is the first under the new law.

The railroad laborers at Sunbury, especially the negroes and foreigners, make things lively in that vicinity. The other night Sunbury came near being the scene of a very serious riot.

Phillipsburg is expending about $200,000 on building improvements this year. Will somebody take the census and tell us what Millheim is doing?

Children Playing With Rattlesnakes.

Yesterday afternoon, while Mr. Spires was passing the residence of Isaiah Anderson, in Brooklyn, he saw two little children throwing sticks at a rattlesnake, and from their familiarity with his snakeship he realized that they were not at all familiar with snakes. He hailed Mrs. Alexander and asked her to bring him a gun, for he did not dare to cope with it by means of a stick only. The gun was brought, the snake's head was shot off, and the body measured nine and a half feet.—Florida Times.

JOE GUTWALD'S WAY.—Joseph Gutwald, of Cambria county, announces himself a candidate for the Legislature, as follows: "My Platform—I am a candidate for the Legislature, subject to the Democratic Primary Election, I have been a life long Democrat, in favor of Low Taxes and Low Salaries. If I should not get to your home between this and the election, please accept the following excuse: The Road is Long, the Weather's Hot! Time's Precious, the Election Close! Go to the Election on the 19th of August, 1882, and be sure to vote for yours, respectfully, JOSEPH GUTWALD."

Michael Miller, an old man of 92 years, met his death at Millheim last week by the following singular accident. He lived with his son-in-law, Mr. Jacob Ruhl, occupying a room on the second floor, which he seldom left. It seems, that at about half past six o'clock on Thursday evening, while no attendant was in his room, Mr. Ruhl being absent from home and Mrs. Ruhl being engaged in household duties in the room below, he arose from his bed and attempted to open a bureau drawer. In doing so, the knob came loose, when he fell back and into an open stairway, pitching down the same. Mrs. Ruhl, hearing him fall, ran and opened the stair-door, finding him sitting on the lower step, conscious but unable to explain the cause of the mishap, the cause only being ascertained from seeing the drawer knob lying at the foot of the stairs. Mrs. Ruhl and her son William assisted him up stairs and into bed, when Dr. Brubaker was called in, who made a careful examination of his body, finding many and severe bruises on his shoulder, arm and back, but no bones broken. He lingered until about half past two o'clock on the following morning (Friday) when death came to his relief.

Workmen Don't You Forget It.

"If Hancock is elected, this establishment will close." "If you want your iron mills closed, and all industries dependent upon them brought to a stand still, vote for Hancock." The above expressions were common in the republican papers in 1880, and many workmen were frightened and deceived into voting the republican ticket at that time. Hancock was not elected, but Garfield was, and what has been the result? Have "better wages" followed his election? No; the miners of this county are getting only ninety cents per day now. Has "steady work" been "assured" to the men in the iron mills and elsewhere? No; there are now one hundred and fifty thousand men in "general idleness," and who did not reach this pitiable condition by the election of General Hancock. The roseate times promised to follow the election of General Garfield have not come, but instead, strikes for higher wages and "general idleness" have. The republicans can not get rid of the logical effect of their own proposition. Two years have passed since the last presidential election, and although Hancock was not elected, the iron mills, as said, are closed, and over one hundred thousand workmen are out of work. Had that of 1880 been the first attempt made by republicans to deceive the laboring men, there might be some excuse, but it was not. Time and again has this same old story been rehearsed and the workman bitten by the lying bait every time. It is about time they are getting their eyes open to the own interests.

Stoverdale camp has the appearance of a "little town built in the woods." There are sixty-eight frame buildings and twenty-five tents on the ground.

A distinguished British military officer will be present at the camp at Lewistown. He has been detailed to study the military system of the United States.

A Houtzdale girl died a terrible death from the bite of a rattlesnake.

An Armstrong county farmer was thrown in front of a mowing machine and literally cut to pieces in a few seconds.

WHAT IT MEANS.—The election of Pattison to be governor would mean only in the State what his election to be comptroller meant in Philadelphia, a pure administration, the scattering of the rings, the baffling of the thieves, and an honest and decent State government for the term of four years. This may be a prospect full of terrors to the bosses, but it has no terrors whatever for the tax-payers of any party.—N. Y. Sun.
