Our merchants and business men are discovering—even if a little late—that there is magic in printer's ink. Come along gentlemen, we can serve you all.

Mr. Adam Jordan, residing near Snook's mill lost a valuable horse last week. The animal took sick in the team, while hauling bark and died within an hour.

Rev. T. J. Frederick, of Pine Grove charge, near Sunbury, has been obliged to resign on account of failing health. Mr. Frederick has the sympathies of many friends and acquaintances here.

Don't overlook the advertisement of C. A. Sturgis' Jewelry Store. Charles understands the Watch and Jewelry business thoroughly and you can feel sure in going there that you will be fairly and squarely dealt with. Go and see the really fine stock on hand.

HEAVY LOAD.—Gust Deinger hauled a load of marble from Coburn to Millheim the other day, weighing 3688 pound, with one horse. "Posey," the noble animal which drew the load, is of the African race, female persuasion.

Friday will be a big day for Rebersburg, or rather Kreamersville, near by. Gov. Curtin, Gen. Beaver, Senator Alexander, and no doubt other noted men will be there. Quite a number of our citizens, together with our justly celebrated cornet band will also go. Hope they may all enjoy themselves to the fullest extent.

NOTICE.—Subscribers to the Lutheran church at Millheim who have not paid their subscriptions are most kindly requested to do so. The amounts are long overdue and the money is much needed. Friends help us along. JOHN TOMLINSON, JONATHAN HARTER, B. O. DEININGER, Finance Committee.

ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday Mr. John Klinefelter, while painting at the outside of the new church, had the accident to fall from the scaffold, about eight feet from the ground. The poles were set in small excavations in a slanting position, and the ground had become loosened by the rain, which caused them to slip from their position and the scaffold to fall.

Mr. K. was considerably bruised but not dangerously hurt.

Applicants must be punctual, and should enter the first class at which they are present, which ought to be in the district in which they intend to teach.

That's the way Prof. Wolf puts it in his notice of teachers' examinations—and the few words mean a great deal. They mean that he will discountenance the usual practice of many applicants for certificates, of attending a number of examinations just to get the hang of the thing—the general run of the questions, before they enter a class to be examined themselves. This may seem a trifle harsh, and yet we are not sure but that it is entirely fair. However that may be we know one chap who is happy that he is out of the profession and out of the bothersome examinations.

News Miscellany.

Pennsylvania has a colored vote of about 24,000. The huckleberry trade of Soranton will amount to about $80,000 this year. The Allentown silk factory employs 500 hands. The criminal court of Berks county, now in session, opened with one hundred and ninety-five suits on the docket. This is a good showing for old Berks.

Advices from Washington state that the White House will be thoroughly renovated, repaired and cleaned. It would be better for the health of the health of the country if the official inmates would undergo the same process.

A Jefferson county man killed thirty rattlesnakes and claims the championship.

The son of a Louisville merchant was ten years ago taught to drink by a lady moving in good society. The young man went to a drunkard's grave and the father never meets the lady on the street without showering curses and abuse upon her.

EMERY J. GARFIELD, a cousin of the late President, kissed his wife on the morning of August 1, and disappeared from his home in Cincinnati. Since then he has not been heard from and his friends are alarmed lest harm should have befallen him.

Washington's Oak Destroyed.

WASHINGTON, August 15.—A gigantic oak at Mount Vernon, which has always been known as "Washington's Oak," was destroyed by a stroke of lightning a few days ago. The tree had many associations and gained its name from the fact that the President's favorite resting place after the heat and labors of the day was beneath its grateful shade.

A Clock With Satin in it.

Superstitious people on the South Side have their fill in the way of a mild sensation just at present. A clock owned by James Colby, 566 Third avenue, stopped running the very minute that Guitane was hanged, June 30, and all subsequent efforts to set the machinery going have proven fruitless. The clock is of the very best make, is in good order and experts pronounce it in as good shape to run as any clock in the city. Mr. Colby announces his belief that some unearthly power is controlling the clock and that no human agency can start it. In this opinion a goodly number of superstitious people join.

Death of Senator Hill.

ATLANTA, Ga., August 16.—About two o'clock this morning Senator Hill was found to be rapidly sinking. He breathed with much difficulty. He continued to sleep, however, and at a few minutes after six o'clock his death occurred without a struggle. His age is 59 years.

Mr. Hill was one of the best and purest public men in the country. He was elected to the United States senate in 1877 where he distinguished himself in debate, and by his conversation and ability. He was an eloquent orator and one of the ablest and most successful lawyers in the southern states.
