

THE MILLHEIM JOURNAL
Is published every Thursday, in the office of the Editor, corner of Main and Penn streets at $1.00 PER ANNUM, IN ADVANCE Or $1.25 if not paid in advance.

ADVERTISING RATES.
1 square, 1 week, 1 mo., 3 mo., 6 mo., 1 year.
1 square, 1 week, 1 mo., 3 mo., 6 mo., 1 year.
1 square, 1 week, 1 mo., 3 mo., 6 mo., 1 year.

One inch makes a square. Advertisers and Executors' Notices $2.50. Transient advertisements and local notices per line for first insertion and 5 cents per line for each additional insertion.
Job Work done on short notice.

DEININGER & BUNILLER,
Editors and Proprietors.

Church & Sunday School Directory.

Evangelical.

Rev. P. C. Wolden and J. D. Shortess, French's Rev. J. D. Shortess will preach next Sunday evening, English.

Methodist.

Rev. Furman Adams, Preacher in charge.
Sunday School at 1 A. M.—D. A. Musser, Supt.

Reformed.

Rev. Zephiah A. Yearick, Pastor.
Preaching in Aaronburg next Sunday morning, German.

United Brethren.

Rev. Shannon, Preacher in charge.
Preaching next Sunday morning.

Lutheran.

Rev. John Foulkerson, Pastor.
Harvest Home services in Aaronburg next Sunday morning, German, and in Millheim in the evening, English. The usual collection will be taken up.

United Sunday School.

Meets at 9 A. M.—A. R. Alexander, Supt.

Lodge & Society Directory.

Millheim Lodge, No. 255, I. O. O. F. meets in their hall, Penn Street, every Saturday evening.
Rebecca Degree Meeting every Thursday on or before the full moon of each month.

C. W. HANSEN, Sec. W. L. BROWN, N. G.
Providence Grange, No. 217 P. O. H. meets in Alexander's block on the second Saturday of each month at 12 P. M., and on the fourth Saturday of each month at 12 P. M.

D. L. ZENBY, Sec. T. G. EHRHARD, Master.
The Millheim B. L. Association meets in the Penn street school house on the evening of the second Monday of each month.

A. WATSON, Sec. B. O. DEWOLFE, Pres.
The Millheim Cornet Band meets in the Town Hall on Monday and Thursday evenings.
J. W. FOOTE, Sec. D. L. BROWN, Pres.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

For Governor,
ROBERT E. PATTISON,
OF PHILADELPHIA.

For Lieutenant Governor,
CHAUNCEY F. BLACK,
OF YORK.

For Judge of the Supreme Court, SILAS M. CLARK,
OF INDIANA.

For Secretary of Internal Affairs, J. SIMPSON AFRICA,
OF HUNTINGDON.

For Congressman-at-Large,
MORTIMER F. ELLIOTT,
OF TIOGA.

DISTRICT AND COUNTY TICKET.

For Congress,
ANDREW G. CURTIN,
OF BELLEFONTE.

(Subject to the decision of the congress-sional conference.)

For Senator,
C. T. ALEXANDER,
OF BELLEFONTE.

(Subject to the decision of the senatorial conference.)

For Assembly,
HENRY MEYER,
OF MILES.

B. F. HUNTER,
OF DENNER.

For Jury Commissioner,
J. H. TOLBERT,
OF WALKER.

For Coroner,
H. K. HOY,
OF BELLEFONTE.

OFFICIAL RASCALITY.

A Quarter Million Embezzled.

THE DEFAULTER A FUGITIVE.

Beauties of Bess Rule.

On Thursday August 31, Major Ellis P. Phipps, ex-superintendent of the Philadelphia almshouse, was arrested for embezzlement, and was bound over in $5,000, for a hearing on Friday.

When the time for the hearing had arrived Phipps was not on hand; he had forfeited his bail and skipped, and a new warrant was issued. It was supposed that some new and interesting revelation would be made if the major could be brought to the bull ring, and the bosses, fearing this, have spirited him away. He can tell unpleasant tales. Running away is the best evidence that Phipps is guilty of the stealing he is accused of. When Robert E. Pattison becomes Governor of his State he will see to it that the laws are "faithfully" against such thieves as Major Phipps proves himself to be.

His defaultations will amount to a quarter of a million.

The Philadelphia "Evening Telegraph" of Wednesday, Sept. 6th, has the following: It is generally conceded among politicians that the sudden flight of the ex-superintendent of the almshouse and the disclosures which followed it will have an important bearing on the fortunes of the candidates of three great political parties in the coming State campaign. When approached on the subject-to-day, chairman Hensel, of the Democratic State Committee, said: "The Democratic party doesn't propose to make partisan capital out of the efforts of honest men of all parties to secure administrative reform. Whatever Mr. Pattison's office has contributed to the almshouse exposure has been strictly in the line of his uninterrupted efforts to secure honest government in every department of the city. From the outset of his career—and it has been watched by the people of the whole State, he has been aggressively earnest in his purpose that Philadelphia should get value received for every dollar expended. He has determined that the tax-eaters shall not rob the tax-payers, and I believe everybody acknowledges that to his administration the success of the reform movement is largely due. The exposure of Phipps' villainy will direct attention to the fact that the same system of plundering has been going on for years at Harrisburg. I have investigated this subject from time to time, and I am well satisfied that by collusion between the officials of State Capital Hill and the contractors for supplies there has been extensive plunder of the State Treasury. I know a contractor who was caught some years ago delivering $1,200 pounds of coal to the ton to one of the departments. In stationary supplies there have been gross frauds. The "Legislative Record" publication has been accompanied with jobbery and irregularity. The list of supplies furnished to the departments is prima facie evidence that there are immense perquisites for hangers on around the hill. The prices paid for some of them are enormous, and the character of them indicates that private houses are furnished and storehouses and cellars filled out of the State's purchases. The people are asking why the state should buy bay rum and shaving mugs for Senators, and new cuspidors, chairs, sofas, curtains and carpets every year. The large contingent funds cover a multitude of sins. Brooms, buckets, etc., are furnished in quantities sufficient to clean all the legislative halls in the country.

Pastors and folders are employed in numbers three times as great as necessary, and paid six dollars a day for the work that they can employ a sub to do for six dollars a week. Four tons of soap, 600 brooms, and as many more scrub brushes, 360 pails and 300 dust-brushes, besides 180 feather dusters—for 10 dozen of which $39.50 a dozen are paid—not to speak of window brushes, long and short, sweeping brushes and chamois skin, ought to keep things from ever falling into dirt and decay around the departments and legislative halls. But why should the State buy blacking and shoe brushes, clothes brushes and hair brushes—at $31.60 per dozen—nail brushes and hair brushes, shaving mugs—$13.45 per dozen—for State officials? The people want to know. They are going to find out. I can go on with column catalogue off this sort of pilfering at Harrisburg. It is stealing, and the people know it, and they see that the very rascals who have been in it and are living off it are Beaver's most ardent supporters. There is a feeling that Pattison is the man to stop this thing. Newspaper artillery and the declamation of reformers have proved unavailing. Even well-disposed legislators do not seem to be proof against the temptations which are offered them when the ring provides all these creature comforts for them. What is needed is an executive of iron will, honesty of purpose, and inflexible courage, to clean house at Harrisburg.
The almshouse exposures will have a great effect over the State in directing attention to Pattison as the fittest man to prosecute similar investigations at the State Capital.

FRIGHTFUL FIGURES.

The Record of a Profligate Congress.

From the New York Sun.

It is well to have the exact figures for the appropriations made at the first session of this prodigal congress, so that they cannot be successfully disputed. To be entirely on the safe side and to prevent controversy hereafter, we will take the statement made by Mr.
Allison, chairman of appropriations in the senate, rather than our own summary, even when both rest on the same data. After making a comparison between all the bills of 1881 with those of 1882, Mr. Allison sums up in these words: "Net increase of appropriations for 1883 over 1882, $77,532,621.34." He declares his party guilty of wild extravagance, while he attempts to excuse these unprecedented grants of the public money for questionable objects.

No lame explanation, no weak invention, will satisfy the people who have been victimized by a plundering congress. From the first hour to the last, one supreme purpose dominated the councils of the republican party, led by Secor Robeson in the house of representatives. That was to get the most money out of the treasury, without regard to the nature of the appropriation.

The democrats carried the house of representatives in the tidal wave of 1874 by a majority of seventy, ousting a republican majority of one hundred.
That revolution was mainly caused by the excesses of Grantism. The people rose up and rebuked the corruption of Grant's first term. They compelled the Washington ring, the whiskey ring, the Indian ring, the postal ring, the army ring, the navy ring, the land ring, and the other organized rings to suspend operations. They broke up much of the stealing that had been common in all the departments, and they forced the republicans to abandon venal practices that had disgraced the administration.

The democrats came in pledged to retrench and reform, and they kept faith with all their obligations. The record of the Forty-fourth congress is an honorable witness of the fidelity and of the zeal with which every pledge was redeemed. They reduced the appropriations many millions the first year, against the bitter opposition of a republican senate, and against the false cry that the reduction would crumple the public service. That good work was continued, through perhaps with less vigor than should have been exhibited. During the six years of democratic ascendancy in the house, jobbery found no favor, and the lobby became impotent. The old brokers in legislation withdrew from active business and gave up Washington as their headquarters. The rules with which the democrats began their career shut the lobbyists out and excluded the multitude of "riders" that were mounted on appropriation bills prior to their advent of power.

The republicans obtained a narrow majority in the present house, which they have augmented by coalition with the greenbackers, and by turning out six democrats who were fairly elected.
The transition from one party to the other revived instantly the scenes, the methods and the lobby that were familiar before the tidal wave of 1874.

This session of congress has brought together the jobbers, the traders, the thieves and the speculators, who were accustomed to flourish and to dictate legislation under republican rule. The election of Keifer, and the leadership of Secor Robeson, announced to the country that prodigality was to be the law, and that corruption was to be the practice of this congress. The result shows that the announcement was true.

At the end of eight months this congress disperses, leaving the foulest record in our legislative history, surpassing the worst days of Grantism in reckless expenditure, and defying public opinion by outrages that are likely to receive condign punishment at the ballot box. Headless of the lesson of 1874, the republican leaders have exceeded their own worst extravagance and neglected the duties which the people demanded at their hands. Senator Allison's reluctant confession of seventy-eight millions' excess over the last appropriation will stand in judgment against them at the fall election.

What Cameron May Do.

From the New York Journal.

Cameron is fighting for his political existence. His own political existence not Beaver's. He is too astute to endanger his own security for any man on the ticket. The Stalwart rank and file are well drilled and will implicitly obey their masters, the bosses. When the order is given to two or three days before the election to tomahawk Beaver and save certain Senatorial districts it will be implicitly obeyed. Perhaps this as much as anything else accounts for Beaver's sudden glumness.

No Dodging the Issue.

From the Crawford Journal, Rep.

General Cameron can depend upon one thing—neither the tariff bugbear nor the copperhead dodge will deter the Independent Republicans from taking his son Don's political scalp in the next affray.

The Republicans of Huntingdon county will probably have two tickets.

The Eastern Free Press thinks

Stewart will get 4000 votes in Lancaster county.

FRIGHTFUL FIGURES.

The Record of a Profligate Congress.

From the New York Sun.

It is well to have the exact figures
for the appropriations made at the first
session of this prodigal congress, so
that they cannot be successfully dispu-
ted. To be entirely on the safe side and
to prevent controversy hereafter, we
will take the statement made by Mr.
Allison, chairman of appropriations in
the senate, rather than our own summary, even when both rest on the same
data. After making a comparison between all the bills of 1881 with those
of 1882, Mr. Allison sums up in these
words: "Net increase of appropriations
for 1883 over 1882, $77,532,621.34." He declares his party guilty of wild extravagance, while he attempts to excuse these unprecedented grants of the public money for questionable objects.

No lame explanation, no weak in-
vention, will satisfy the people who
have been victimized by a plundering
congress. From the first hour to the last, one supreme purpose dominated
the councils of the republican party,
led by Secor Robeson in the house of
representatives. That was to get the most money out of the treasury, with-
out regard to the nature of the appropriation.

The democrats carried the house of
representatives in the tidal wave of 1874 by a majority of seventy, ousting
a republican majority of one hundred.
That revolution was mainly caused by
the excesses of Grantism. The people
rose up and rebuked the corruption of Grant's first term. They compelled the
Washington ring, the whiskey
ring, the Indian ring, the postal ring,
the army ring, the navy ring, the land
ring, and the other organized rings to
suspend operations. They broke up
much of the stealing that had been
common in all the departments, and
they forced the republicans to abandon
venal practices that had disgraced the
administration.

The democrats came in pledged to
retrench and reform, and they kept
faith with all their obligations. The
record of the Forty-fourth congress is
an honorable witness of the fidelity and
of the zeal with which every pledge
was redeemed. They reduced the appropriations many millions the first
year, against the bitter opposition of a republican senate, and against the
false cry that the reduction would crum-
ple the public service. That good work
was continued, through perhaps with
less vigor than should have been exhibited. During the six years of democratic ascendancy in the house, jobbery
found no favor, and the lobby became
impotent. The old brokers in legislation withdrew from active business
and gave up Washington as their headquarters. The rules with which the
democrats began their career shut the
lobbyists out and excluded the multi-
tude of "riders" that were mounted on
appropriation bills prior to their advent
of power.

The republicans obtained a narrow
majority in the present house, which
they have augmented by coalition with
the greenbackers, and by turning out
six democrats who were fairly elected.
The transition from one party to the
other revived instantly the scenes, the
methods and the lobby that were familiar before the tidal wave of 1874.

This session of congress has brought
together the jobbers, the traders, the
thieves and the speculators, who were
accustomed to flourish and to dictate
legislation under republican rule. The
election of Keifer, and the leadership
of Secor Robeson, announced to the
country that prodigality was to be the
law, and that corruption was to be the
practice of this congress. The result
shows that the announcement was true.

At the end of eight months this congress disperses, leaving the foulest record in our legislative history, surpassing
the worst days of Grantism in reck-
less expenditure, and defying public
opinion by outrages that are likely to
receive condign punishment at the ballot
box. Headless of the lesson of 1874,
the republican leaders have exceeded
their own worst extravagance and neglected the duties which the people
demanded at their hands. Senator Allison's reluctant confession of
seventy-eight millions' excess over the
last appropriation will stand in judgment against them at the fall election.

What Cameron May Do.

From the New York Journal.

Cameron is fighting for his political
existence. His own political existence
not Beaver's. He is too astute to en-
danger his own security for any man
on the ticket. The Stalwart rank and
file are well drilled and will implicitly
obey their masters, the bosses. When
the order is given to two or three days before the election to tomahawk Beaver
and save certain Senatorial districts it
will be implicitly obeyed. Perhaps this
as much as anything else accounts
for Beaver's sudden glumness.

No Dodging the Issue.

From the Crawford Journal, Rep.

General Cameron can depend upon
one thing—neither the tariff bugbear
nor the copperhead dodge will deter
the Independent Republicans from taking his son Don's political scalp in the next affray.

The Republicans of Huntingdon

county will probably have two tickets.

The Eastern Free Press thinks

Stewart will get 4000 votes in Lancaster county.

MAHONE went up like a rocket and is coming down like a stick. Everything points to a speedy termination of his rule. His party is dividing against him and deserters are numerous. Since the debt question is no longer one of politics the Virginia freebooter has shown himself in his true light. His only excuse for cracking the whip over the voters is to secure what spoils he can for himself and his henchmen. His party is entirely one of spoils, and it cannot stand for any length of time on a platform of that nature. It is almost certain that the State will be against him this fall and his contract to deliver seven or eight Readjuster Congressmen over to the administration cannot be carried out. In several of the districts where he has been strong there are three tickets in the field, and it is not likely that he can carry more than one or two of them. The days of Boss rule in Virginia are numbered.—Times.

The following pen picture of President Arthur's cabinet we clip from a radical stalwart paper, according to which the constitutional adviser of our practical politics President are not particularly distinguished either for ability or virtue:

According to Dame Rumor Messrs.
Frelinghuysen, Howe, Brewster, Teller and Folger are seen to retire from the cabinet. It is intimated that Freling-huysen is too much of an old woman, Howe is too old and Brewster is too fond of the flowing bowl. Folger is to be Governor of New York and Teller is to return to the Senate from Colorado.

Temperance in New York.

SYRACUSE, September 6.—The State constitutional amendment committee, representing various temperance organizations in the State, calls a State Convention at Syracuse, October 4, to take steps to secure the submission to a popular vote of a prohibition amendment to the State constitution. Local temperance societies are invited to send from one to three delegates.

The oldest democrat in Sugar

Valley if not the oldest man in Clinton county, is Mr. Christian Kerk-ner, aged eighty-nine years. He was born in Germany, served in Napoleon's army and saw the burning of Moscow. Recently he made a visit on foot, walking eighteen miles in one day and returned home the next.

Gen. E. S. Bragg, member of congress from the Second Wisconsin district, was recently arrested for the non-payment of a gambling debt.

A Town Ruled by a Mob.

MOUNT VERNON, Ind., September 4.—This place has been threatened by a mob in consequence of an effort to close the saloons on Sunday and at eleven o'clock every night. About 1 o'clock yesterday morning the residence of John Paul, the City Marshall, was fired by a mob and burned to the ground. The Deputy City Marshall was terribly beaten by a gang of roughs The telegraph and telephone were for a time guarded by the mob to prevent communication with the neighboring towns.

THE CHEAPEST CAMPAIGN PA-PER IN THE STATE.

THE DAILY PATRIOT will be sent to single subscribers until the tenth of November next, at the rate of $1.25 per copy; to clubs of five and upwards at the rate of $1.00 per copy.
The WEEKLY PATRIOT will be sent until the week after the election at the following rates: Single copy, 40 cents; club of five, 35 cents per copy; club of ten, 30 cents per copy; club of twenty, 25 cents per copy; club of fifty, 20 cents per copy.

The campaign will be exceedingly interesting, and every citizen should be posted on its issues and events. Send in your orders. Address PATRIOT PUBLISHING CO.,
Harrisburg, Pa.

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

EXECUTORS' NOTICE.—Letters testamentary on the estate of Mrs. Mary Mark, late of Millheim deceased, having been granted to the undersigned, all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate are hereby notified to make immediate payment, and those having claims to present them duly proven for settlement.

Penn township,
Sept. 7th, 1882. Executor. 61

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of administration on the estate of Daniel Grinn, late of Miles township, deceased, having been granted to the undersigned, all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate are hereby requested to make immediate payment and those having claims against the same, to present them duly authenticated for settlement.

Madisonburg, Aug. 17th 1882 Administrator. 61

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of administration on the estate of George Harter, late of the Borough of Millheim, deceased, having been granted to the undersigned, all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate are hereby notified to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same to present them duly authenticated for settlement.

Penn township,
Sept. 7th, 1882. Administrator. 61

EXECUTORS' NOTICE.—Letters testamentary on the estate of Thomas Hosterman, late of Haines township, deceased, having been granted to the undersigned, notice is hereby given to all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate to make immediate payment, and to those having claims to present them duly authenticated for settlement. We have appointed 12th inst. a day of settlement, at the late residence of the deceased.

THOMAS W. HOSTERMAN,
CHARLES W. HOSTERMAN,
Woodward, July 27th 1882. Executors. 61

Lewisburg and Tyrone Railroad Time Table.

LEAVE WESTWARD.

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Montandon	7:05	9:40	12:05	2:05	4:00	6:00	7:55
Lewisburg	7:25	10:00	12:25	2:25	4:20	6:20	8:15
Fair Ground	7:30	10:05	12:30	2:30	4:25	6:25	8:20
Diell	7:35	10:10	12:35	2:35	4:30	6:30	8:25
Yokum	7:45	10:20	12:45	2:45	4:40	6:40	8:35
Millheim	8:00	10:35	1:00	2:55	4:50	6:50	8:45
Millmont	8:20	10:55	1:20	3:15	5:10	7:10	9:05
Laurelton	8:30	11:05	1:30	3:25	5:20	7:20	9:15
Wiker Run	8:40	11:15	1:40	3:35	5:30	7:30	9:25
Cherry Run	8:45	11:20	1:45	3:40	5:35	7:35	9:30
Fowler	8:55	11:30	1:55	3:50	5:45	7:45	9:40
Colburn	9:05	11:40	2:05	4:00	5:55	7:55	9:50
Spring Mill	9:15	11:50	2:15	4:10	6:05	8:05	10:00

LEAVE EASTWARD.

LEAVE EASTWARD.
	2	4	6
Spring Mills.....	A. M.		P. M.
Colburn.....	5.50		1.50
Cowen.....	6.18		2.20
Cherry Run.....	6.28		2.33
Wiker Run.....	6.48		2.53
Laurelton.....	7.05		3.15
Millmont.....	7.20		3.40
	7.40		3.52
Midlandburg	8.00	A. M.
		11.45	P. M.
Vicksburg.....	8.15		4.03