AGRICULTURE.

TREATMENT OF THE COW .- There are conflicting opinions among good dairymen in regard to the treatment of cows after calving-some preferring a low or moderate diet, at most nothing more than good hay, with free access to the usual watering place and an avoidance of all warm drinks. The arguments in favor of this course for the first few days after parturition are, that is better calculated to allay fever and sconer brings the cow round to a healthy condition, On the other hand, it is urged that the animal during labor becomes more cr less exhausted, and that if the weather is cold, the taking of considerable quancities of cold water to slake thirst, has a tendency to chill the animal and impede circulation, and hence, a gruel made of bran or oaten meal, and tepid water can be given soon after calving with the best results. The latter course has been our practice, and uniformly with success. After a lapse of several hours the cow is allowed to drink as usual. It is perhaps unnecessary to say that stock at this season of the year should be entrusted to careful hands-they demand almost constant oversight and attention. They should not be hurried in en out of the stables, or allowed to fight or worry each other at the water trough or in the yard. Accidents, of course, will occur, under the most careful treatment, but by the adoption of a uniform system of kindness to all neat stock, with a reasonable share of attention, there need be little, if any "bad luck" to be anticipated. One thing we regard as imperatively demanded for success in the management of stock. Never allow a cow to be kicked or in any way abused by hired help. Whatever good qualities a man may have, better part with him at once if found disobeying orders in this respect. State the case plainly at the time of hiring, and make as a condition the forfeiture of a part or the whole of the man's wages who is found guilty of kicking or beating cows. The practice has become common and should be breken up. The animal losses from this source are immense. If every dairyman would make it a rule that his milch cow must be treated kindly, and that no expense can be taken for blows and kicks, and that no person would be employed who maltreats stock, the whole country would be greatly benefitted. We have known of valuable animals being lost by a kick, and others rendered valueless for the season by an apparently slight thump with a milking stool from bad-tempered persons. Laborers of this kind are dangerous, and the sooner one is rid of them the better. Much can be effected in this matter by good example | each slice, cover with a plate, or, better for if the owner so far forgets himself as to abuse stock he cannot expect the men in his employ to do otherwise. The start should be made with sound, healthy and vigorous stock, and from such, reasonable results may be anticipated.

A TABLE just completed by the Indiana bureau of statisties, with a view to ascertaining the benefits derived from tile draining, shows that land which yielded an average of 91 bushels of wheat per acre for five years before drainage, yielded 19 1 bushels for five years after being drained. With corn the increase was from 31 to 74 bushels per acre. During the same period the number of cases of malarial sickness diminished from 1,840 cases to 490 cases after drainage.

QUICK PUFF PUDDING. -Stir one pint of flour, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder and a little salt into milk until very soft; place in a steamer some well greased cups; put in each a spoonful of batter, then one of berries, steamed apples or any sauce convenient; cover with another spoonful of batter and steam twenty minutes. This pudding is delicions made with fresh raspberries, and eaten with sauce made of two eggs, half a cup of butter and one cup of sugar, beaten thoroughly with a cup of boiling milk and one cup of berries.

SPICED MOUNTAIN CAKE. - To the yolks of five eggs, well beaten, add one cup of sugar, one-half cup of butter, one-half pirate. cup of sweet milk, one teaspoonful of ground einnamon, one grated nutmeg, the whites of two eggs well beaten, one and a half cups of flour, having in it one measure of baking powder; bake in jelly cake pans; when cold spread each layer with an icing made of the whites of three eggs beaten stiff, and one and a half cups of powdered sugar. PRESERVING MEAT. - A new method of preserving meat is to cause the heart of the animal to pump boracic acid into the tissues. For example, a sheep is stunned by a blow, and blood being withdrawn from the left jugular vein, a strong solution of boracic acid, kept at blood heat is injected. The heart of the still living animal quickly pumps the antiseptic fluid into all parts of the body, and the sheep is then killed in the usual way. The cost is slight, and the meat thus treated will keep several weeks in the heat of summer.

RAISIN CAKE. - One cup white sugar, four tables poonfuls melted butter, stirred together, eight tablespoonfuls sweet milk, one cup flour, one teaspoonful baking powder; flavor with lemon; stir in last the beaten whites of four eggs; bake in layers: for filling, add a little water to one cup of white sugar; put it on the stove to boil; chop ene cup of raisins and beat the white of one egg; take the sugar off and stir the egg and raisins in.

ROAST SWEETBREADS make a delicate dish for breakfast. Dip the slices in beaten egg and bread crumbs till they are entirely covered, then put a lump of butter in a saucepan or a small pan used for baking. When it is melted lay the slices in, put a little lump of butter on still, with a tin cover made expressly to fit over the baking-pan. Let them bake for from half to three-quarters of an hour. Serve on toast.

CREAM-COLORED SPANISH LACE can be cleaned and made to look like new by rubbing it in dry flour: rub as if you were washing in water. Then take it out doors and shake all the flour out; if not perfectly clean, repeat the rubbing in a little more clean flour. The flour must be very thoroughly shaken from the lace, or else the result will be far from satisfactory. White knitted hoods can be cleaned in this way: babies' socks | look after." also if only slightly soiled.

HUMOROUS.

"You ain't feeling very well, are you, my son, since you sat out under the back stoop all alone with the stolen pie?" The father spoke calmly, and his tone prit ceased trembling and plucked up courage enough to observe: "Yes, father, dear, I'm pretty sick." "It's too bad." he responded, sympathetically uncoiling a trunk-strap; and then ensued a scene of wild commotion, during which the sick boy bounded about the room like an antelope that had never known a day's illness. Kneeling by his bedside that night he prayed long and ferventlylonger and more fervently than usual.

BREEDERS have noticed that a remarkable deveelopment of the tendency to lay on fat is usually accompanied by a delicacy of constitution, a diminished secretion of milk and a loss of fecundity. Very fat animals are not likely to be good breeders; in fact, the excessive production of fat is incompatible with a high development of the reproductive powers.

In arranging perches for fowls allow six inches for each bird. The perch should not be placed high when there is no space for the birds to fly down with a gradual swoop, as is natural to them when roosting in open places. Three teet from the ground in confined places is high enough, and it should be far enough from the back wall to keep the tail plumage clear.

THE Rural New Yorker says. In Flanders it is customary to churn the milk in Summer after twenty-four hours, but in Winter three days are allowed to expire, when the milk is poured into the tub that stands in the cellar. If it then does not become sour, the dairymen place a can with warm water in the tub to accelerate it.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., Dec. 22, 1881. MR H. R. STEVENS: Dear Sir,—One year ago about the present time I was afflicted with Scrofu-ous Humors, also with Catarrh. For two months my nights were seasons of agony. After a troubled sleep in the early hours, I would wake anywhere between one and three A. M. with the most excru-ciating sufferings in my head, and be forced to walk my study foor the rest of the night. During the day also I was often attacked with dizziness, both upon the street and at home, so that it seemed for a minute or so that consciousness was about both upon the street and at nome, so that it scenared for a minute or so that consciousness was about to leave me. This state of affairs continued until my nerves were sadly unstrang, and I began to fear organic disease of the brain. By advice of Rev. Geo. W.
