A Temperance Prize for Sunday Schools.

At the recent Convention of The Centre County Sunday School Association, a gentleman whose name is withheld for the present, offered five dollars in gold to the Sunday school scholar in Centre county, sixteen years of age or under, who shall prepare the less than three competitors. The name and post office address of the competitor should been closed in a sealed envelope to accompany the paper. The papers must be torwarded by Dec. 15th, 1882, to the undersigned.

Chairman Ex. Com., C. C.S. S. A. P. S.-Committee will endeavor to secure prizes for the second and third

-We learn that a Sunday School picnic will be held in Evert's woods, near Coburn, next Saturday, at which four or five schools will be present. The Millheim and Woodward Bands will furnish the music. We have not heard who the speakers are or what the special exercises will be, but suggest that all go to see and hear for themselves.

-Our school board has engaged the following teachers for the coming winter term, which begins Oct. 23rd. All are practical teachers and come with good certificates and othrewise well recommended. The board herein did its contemplate erecting a Sunday School duty well and it is to be hoped that our citizens will properly support both the board and the teachers in their efforts to improve and elevate our schools.

-The Young Men's Christian Assoc!ation of Bellefonte have commenced publishing a neat little monthly called The Record, the first number of which is before us. It is small but first class, both as to matter and form. The Agsociation is an active, live institution and no doubt is a means of doing thuch good. Its rooms are supplied with four daily papers, two semi-weeklies, twenty-six weeklies and thirteen monthly papers and magazines, besides a library of five hundred volumes, accommodations for writing, &c. A flourishing Boys' Branch is also connected with the Association.

-We had the pleasure of spending Saturday and Sunday among friends in Mifflinburg and enjoyed the visit very much. Of course we hunted up and shook hands with all former Millheimers and Centre countyans and found them all well and happy. We met the Reighards, John Sankey, Samnel J. Weiser, J. Wilson Barber, Uncle Sam Schoch, John Gutelius, Mrs. George Spyker, Minadore Schware, Geo. W. Foote, Wm. K. Forster and John F. Chambers. Others were away from home, and we felt sorry that our old friend S. P. Snyder was among the lat-

Mifflinburg is really a fine town, has a most beautiful location, and is surrounded by one of the richest farming districts in the state. The view from the hill south of town is simply delight ful beyond description. We can never get enough of that Schoene Aussicht, and enjoyed it with increased pleasure

Miffinburg has a very decided moral and religious tone. Five good churches and as many congregations and Sunday Schools-Reformed, Methodist, Lutheran and two Presbyterian-mostly seem to be well attended and in a flourishing condition.

Although not a mai afacturing town Mifflinburg does considerable trade in mercantile and mechanical lines. Every department of merchandise is well represented, every ordinary need is fully supplied. Altogether Mifflinburg is a good place to stay, permanently or for a few days only.

Eliza Pinkston in Jail in Mississippi.

From the New Orleans Times-Democrat. Eliza Pinkston, who cut such a prominent figure before the committee of "visiting statesmen" with Radical proclivities who were in New Orleans in the spring of 1876 for the purpose of making out a case against the people of Louisiana, has come to grief, as we learn from the Canton, Miss... papers that she was arraigned, with a lot of other thieves, on a charge of robbing, before Mayor Thomas, of that town, and placed in jail to await the meeting of the Circuit Court. "Mrs. ill be several years before the series Pinkston" is in a bad scrape and is completed, and the designation she wants her Republican friends to come to her relief immediately.

DIED.

Mrs. Margaret Weaver departed this life on the 17th of September, 1882, aged 80 years, nonths and 13 days.

The deceased was born in Penn township, Union county, Pa., and was received into communion with the Reformed Church by confirmation, under the pastorate of the Rev. Isaac Gerhart of blessed, memory. In the year 1828 she was united in matrimony to Mr. George Weaver, of Haines township, who preceded her into the eternal world September 11th, 1852. The latter years of her life she spent with her The latter years of her life she spent with her only daughter, Mrs. Major J. B. Fisher, of Penn Hall, where she received that constant and tender care which proceeds from a true fillal affection. The funeral services took place at the Salem's Reformed Church on the 19th and was attended by a large concentral of relatives and attended by a large concourse of relatives and sympathizing friends. sympathizing friends.

That mother Weaver was a member of the church is not the best thing that can be said of her; but what is better, she was a consistent member, an earnest christian, whose life and conversation said: "I know that my Redeemer fiveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God."
