

VOL. LVI.

caner

MILLHEIM, PA., THUSDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1882.

HARTER, A.

AUCTIONEER,

MILLHEIM, PA.

C. SPRINGER,

Fashionable Barber.

Next Door to JOURNAL Store.

MILLHRIH, PA.

RROCKERHOFF HOUSE.

ALLEGHENY STREET.

BELLEFONTE, - PA

C. G. McMILLEN.

PROPRIETOR.

Good Sample Room on First Floor.

Co-Free Buss to and from all Trains. Special ates to witnesses and jurors. 4-1 TRVIN HOUSE. (Most Central Hotel in the City.) Corner MAIN and JAY Streets, Lock Haven, Pa.

8. WOODS CALWELL, Proprietor.

Good Sample Rooms for Commercial

Travelers on first floor.

DR. D. H. MINGLE, Physician and Surgeon,

MAIN Street, MILLHEIM, Pa.

DR. JOHN F. HARTER,

PRACTICAL DENTIST.

Office in 2d story of Tomlinson's Grocery Store.

Watching the mists rise ghostly white, And blend in the shadows and quench the ear Musing for ave on the might-have-been-Sweet might-have-been that may not be !--The tender hopes and the fancies green That faded and futtered from life's fair tree ; Haunted alway by a vanished face, A voice that is hushed in the midnight drear, Ah, but the world is a weary place In the gloom of the heart, the gray of the year A DUPLEX ACCEPTANCE. Young Selvidge came of a father who had always looked out for himself most industriously, but who, having always lived in a poverty-stricken village, left his son little but good advice when he died. His advice made up by repetition what it lacked in quantity; it was simply this ; "It is easier to marry money than to earn it." The young man, like a dutiful son, rolled his father's favorite precept over and over in his mind, and the more he thought of it the better he liked it, for he could not help seeing that in his native town of Pumpville, at least, money was so hard to earn, that no other way of getting it could be harder. Most of the currency in circulation came from the Big Perris pump factory, and the workmen were so poorly paid that when they came to spend part of their scanty wages at the store in which young Selvidge was sole clerk, they bought in such small quantities and that Selvidge had to work yery hard for his small salary. Selvidge did not wait until his father's death to act upon the old gentleman's injunction ; indeed, he began long be-

THE BLOOM OF THE HEART.

Under the blue of the mid-May sky,

Under the shadow of beech and lime,

Twitter of songster, flutter of spray,

Free from the thraidom of fate and time;

Lulled by the murmur of breeze and stream,

That sweetly blend with the walking dream,

A voice that is dearer than all things dear,

In the bloom of the heart, the May of the yea

And whisper one magical word alway:

In the dead November's leaden dearth

Held by the spell of an exquisite face,

Ah, but the world is a fairy place

Sitting alone in the waning light.

Watching cloud-shallops drift idly by,

the money ; but he determined that if a tyrant, and fourself-she simply he could secure the daughter he could could live no longwithout him. afford any amount of effort to gain the consent of the father. Naturally Selvidge was impatient, but he was also discreet, so he did not jeoparaize his prospects by undue haste One day, however, when Miss Perris was aim essly handling some goods that she had been looking at, she mixed them so inextricably that she had some trouble in rearranging them. Selvidge hastened to assist her, and when his hand met hers under the folds of the material, he did not resist the temptation to indulge in a little squeeze. As the hand was warm and soft, and its owner showed no inclination to withdraw it, Selvidge continued to hold it. Suddenly, after a quick glance at the door, he withdrew it and kissed it. Kate gave him a shy look, without a bit of repreach in it, from under her upper eyelashes, and this so emboldened him that he leaned across the counter and kissed the young lady's cheek. The counter would have been too wide for such an operation had not Kate considerately helped the young man by leaning slightly toward him. Then, with cheeks aglow, Selvidge looked ardently into the face that was of deeper crimson than his own, and murmured-

"Forgive me, my darling, but I couldn't help it, for I have long loved you-oh, so long !" Kate was not equal to the situation, for she said, with downcast eyes :

"I guess I've loved you, too; I've only just found it out. But what will fath r say ?" "Don't tell him, my precious one," replied Selvidge quickly. Leave me to do that, at the proper time." Kate promised, and then, rather frightened, left the store, but not until Selvidge, leaping over the counter, had followed her and given her a close embrace and several kisses behind one of the front doors, which, by the merest hesitated so long over each purch se accident, of coarse, Kate partly closed by touching it with the toe of her boot.

During the few weeks that followed, the course of love ran smoothly though secretly. The couple met daily at the store, and occasionally in the Perris fore, with his father's assistance, to cul garden at an hour that should have tion with a smart blow at Selvidge's tivate the acquaintance of young women found Kate asleep in bed. But the

who had money or prospects, and it young man's prospects were rudely was by his father's advice that Selvidge, blighted one might, when old Perris, ad of learning the narental true able to sleep on account of the heat

"And she sht," said Selvidge The headquarters of the Secret Divigorously to him. Within half an vision of the Treasury Department is hour he had anred her letter by one of the most interesting places for proposing an elonent. Forty-eight sight-seers in Washington. The "rogues' hours later he reced a reply warmly accepting his proition, and saying gallery" will serve well to entertain the visitor for an hour. On the walls hang that Kate would at him at the angle of the Plum ValleFemale Seminary portraits of most of the noted countergrounds that was rked by a huge elm feiters who have been detected, the tree, the time to bhe following Suucollection numbering about 2.000. In day night and the ir midnight. one corner of the room stands a large

Selvidge was suly beside himself with joy, yet he tended strictly to safe in which is stored $800.000 in spurbusiness. He read a town not far ious money. Near the safe is a press from Plum Valley: Friday evening, and took with him young preacher of his acquaintance-ie of the sanctimonious young lows, without a counterfeit plates, than turn an hones parish, who infest nety, and are as penny, though he was a skilled artist ready for a chancjob as any impecunious burgle On Sunday evening he hired sarriage with four seats, and he and t preacher went out ing first been reconitred by daylight The carriage stopp a few hundred yards from the senary, which was on the outskirts of e village, and Selcradle," which was he signal agreed about a million dollars.

upon. Insta_tly a rure enveloped in a waterproof cloak merged from behind the hedge, and well-known voice ejaculated,

"My darling !" Selvidge was about clasp his fiftythousand-dollar lovewhen another figure, also draped n a waterproof, emerged and exclaind.

"My darling !" In the voice of theecond figure Selvidge recognized the ccent of Florence, but before he had tim to think about his situation, twent more girls in waterproof rapidly apeared before him, and exclaimed in chous : "Isn't he a darling'

on examining the stick it was found to "Kate-Florence !'gasped Selvidge, be hollow and filled with bad coin. 'what does this mear?

Other portraits were those of the Rev. "It means," said hate, "that when Dr. Thomas and his wife, who for a you make love to twogirls at the same time too successfully carried on their time you ought to know better than to select two pupils of the same boarding operations; Bailey, the only man who school." Kate emphasized this injuncever made a good imitation of the paper on which money is printed; Brodwell. ear, and at the same time Florence's small hand fell with great weight upon on whom was captured 1.000 counterthe other ear. Then both girls fell teit $25 notes of the Spanish Bank of

A National Rogues' Gallery.

The Ghosts of Red Creek.

eastward. With the swamps of the Pascagoula river as a refuge, and the upon, there are few choicer spots for deer. Knowing this fact, a small party used by Charles Uhlrich, an ingenious of gentlemen, on the day before a crisp German who thought it easier to make cold Christmas, started from Handsboro in a large four-wheeled wagon for a thirty-mile drive into the wilderness of pine and a week's sport after the deer. The guide was Jim Caruthers, a true woodsman, and the driver a general tactotum, a jolly negro named Jack Lyons, than whom no one could make a better hoe-cake or cook a venison steak. His laugh could be heard a quarter of a mile, and his good-nature was as expansive as the range of the laughter. The usual experiences of a hunting camp were heartly enjoyed during the Among the pictures desplayed is that first days of this life out of doors; but of Halleck, who robbed the Treasury its cream did not rise until about the cash room of $47.000. He was employfifth night, when, from familiar intered in the cash room, and by making a course, Jack Lyons became loquacious, false package for the Adams Express and after the day's twenty or twenty-Company he was enabled to extract the ive-mile walk, would spin yarns in front money from the building. Another of the camp fire, which brought forgetpicture is that of Bixley, the counter-fulness of fatigue. feiter, who several times succeeded in The night before New Years was evading the law. When captured no tensely cold. The cold north wind of money could be found upon him, but the afternoon had subsided at sunset, one of the officers noticed the peculiar and only a gust now and again touched look of a cane the prisoner carried, and the musical leaves of the pines, making them vibrant with that mournful score of nature's operas which even maestros have failed to catch.

> In front of two new and white tents two spertsmen reclined at length within reach of the warmth of the fire, while opposite them rested at ease the guide and the worthy Jack Lyons.

Wearied with the day's chase four dreams, with pipes of silver and floors stauch hounds-Ringwood, Rose, Jet of precious stones. When even the

NO 39.

out, an' de old red curtain dat I fought I seed was in rags. 1 didn't kno' zactly what to think 'bout dem s'range To the northward of Mississippi city and its neighbor, Handsboro, there ex- voices, but I started back to de wagon, tends a track of pine forest for miles when it lightened, and bress God, dar with but few habitations scattered in de front yard was six graves just through it. Black and Red creeks, with made. Something wrong here I sed; their numerous branches, drain this re- and I builds a fire by de wagon and gion into the Pascagoula river to the digs de wheel out. Jest den old Squire Pasture kem along de road from Mobile and he tells me de news. Ole man luxuriant and unfrequented bottoms of Gibbet cut de froats of his wife and the Red and Black creeks to browze fore chillerns and shoot hisef in de head out un jealously of his wife. Dey was all buried in de front yard and de house was deserted ten days befo'. "Gemmen, when I hear dat, dem mules make de quickest time to Mobile vou eber s ed, an youse can tell me dar's no ghostes, but you don't catch me oun dat log house of Gibbet's ceptin sun's an hour high."

Jack looked suspiciously over his houlder into the darkness and crawled into his blanket, muttering :

"It scares dis nigger eben now to teil bout dat night."

Sleep soon fell upon the camp, but the impression of old Jack's story survived the night, and the next day he still asserted its truth.

Public Baths.

It is only people like our own, that claim the best of civilization, to whom the public bath is almost a thing unknown. We have here and there a sw mming school, which is a mere private exercise and amounts to but little at the most; and we have in the hot summer a few inclosures at the head of a wharf or on the side of a bridge, which one needs the bath bitterly before entering, Acknowledging this, we claim that we have instead private baths in private houses for those that can afford to pay the rent of such houses. But so had the ancients private baths beside their public ones, and of a beauty far exceeding the visions of our extravagant

Lapp, the Mexican, the Japanese, has a public bath, butalthough of mean description, it seems incredible that we, who boast ourselves so near the top of possibility in all improving things, should hardly be on a par with, if we are not actually beneath, such as they. One may say, with truth, perhaps, that emperors built the vast and superb affairs to divert public attention from the loss of liberty, that they ran into fearful abuses when one ruler indulged where another all but dwelt within their walls, and where they became at last

the thing is no argument against its use; it is to be hoped that our knowledge and religion would be of better proof than what answered for those of liberty, if an emperor could win devo-

in eight or ten baths a day, and

and could command a handsome income almost any where. A curious article rests upon Uhlrich's for an evening dri, the ground hav- press. It is a miniature representation of the old bell and tower of Independence Hall, from which was rung out the decree of liberty in 1776. It 18 vidge proceeded onot and alone. Ar- made from redeemed greenbacks after rived at the elm te, Selvidge softly they have been destroyed and converted whistled a bar or twof "Empty is the into paper, the structure representing

A Corner Ornament.

for an inch, the lambrequin is tacked to the shelf, and the tacks are concealed

On MAIN Street, MILLHEIM, Pa.

B. FASHIONABLE BOOT & SHOE MAKER Shop next door to Foote's Store, Main St., Boots, Shoes and Gaiters made to order, and se lafactors work on a near style.

H. A. MCKEE. S. R. PEALE. PEALE & McKEE. ATTORNEYS AT LAW. Office opposite Court House, Bellefonte, Pa.

C. M. Bower. C. T. Alexander. A LEXANDER & BOWER, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, BELLEFONTE, PA. Office in Garman's new building. TOHN B. LINN,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Office on Allegheny Street. CLEMENT DALE,

ATTORNEY AT LAW, BELLEFONTE PA.

Northwest corner of Diamond.

A DAM HOY, ATTORNEY AT LAW.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Orphans Court business a Specialty,

a child.

WM. C. HEINLE, ATTORNEY AT LAW BELLEFONTE, PA. Practices in all the courts of Centre County. Special attention to Collections. Consultations in German or English. BEAVER & GEPHART, ATTORNEYS AT LAW BELLEFONTE PA. Office on Alleghany Street, North of High. YOCUM & HARSHBERGER, the sulphate of iron up the glass tube acof purchase, sometim boarding house in which they had in Lyon's Building, A The glass tube, part of which retains its for the satin, and silk embroidery for my whip. I didn't knock loud needer. cheese and strawberries; iced coffee or cording to the depth to which it descends. him than at the goods. lived, and no one at the house could W. F. REEDER. D. H. HASTINGS. oliginal color, is then measured on a scale, painting. If velvet is used, a tiny gilt God bless us all, gem'men, de ligh chocolate a chasse of Curacoa for ces HASTINGS & REEDER, This was indeed unexpected luck; tell where they had gone. instead of falling in love with money Before he could inquire elsewhere, and thus the depth of the sounding is in- cord, or braid, should be used for a went out like dat, and I hear set up a dames, and fine champagne for the men, and having to labor hard for his end, however, he was delighted by a letter heading; it must be broad enough to laugh, ha-ha-ha. How dat set my ATTORNEYS AT LAW, d ated money was falling in love with him, from Kate, who said that her father Trust not the polished stone or cover the tack. The shelves, unless knees a-shaking. I opens de do' and BELLEFONTE, PA. and doing almost all the work. Sel had settled $50,000 on her in order to He that hears much and speaks none Office on Allegheny street, two doors east of the mice occupied by the late firm of Yommer > Hast-to a. mooth-tongued stranger, both are they are ebonized wood, should be cov- dare was no sign of anybody. I struck at all shall be welcome in both tower vidge did not forget that it was old reconcile her to Loarding-school life, Perris, and not the daughter, who had but the school was horrid, the principal ippery. a match and all de furniture was moved and hall, ered with black silk.

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

of blacksmithing, had become a clerk left his bed and strolled in stockinged in a village store, and thus placed him- feet, and with a pipe in his mouth, self where he might frequently see the about his garden. An unusual appear young women of the vicinity in great ance of a shaded rustic seat that at variety, without subjecting himself to tracted his attention proved, on inexpense or even loss of time. vestigation, to be due to Selvidge, As Selvidge was not bad looking and with the head of Kate pillowed confidwore better fitting clothes than any rugly on his breast. Then there was a majority of the young father willare the arew, and within no minuis buryath: well enough, but as none of them exactund made an humbly apology, in which ly answered his purpose, he carefully he took all the blame to himself, and abstained from love-making. Many of had also promised to leave the town at the daughters of farmers and millhauds once and forever, old Perris kindly giving him a thousand dollars with were buxom and pretty, and a few were clever, but on the short list in which to set himself up as a village which Selvidge had included the name merchant somewhere else. of every girl who had any money, or Selvidge departed, without saving could hope to have any, there was not a good-bye to his employer, within, twen-name that represented five thousand ty-four hours, but not before he had dollars, and although five thousand bribed one of the Perris servants to dollars is not to be sneezed at, Selvidge give Kate a letter containing florid had set his heart on a much larger sum. protestations of eternal devotion : it He had almost made up his mind to also coutained his photograph and his change his base of operations and go to address, which he had determined New York, which the two or three should in future be at New York. thousand dollars realized from the sale Within a week, old Perris suddenly of his father's property would enable took Kate off for a trip, the unannounc. him to do in fair style, when an unex. ed destination of which was a country pected chance fell in his way. Old boarding-school where the espionage Perris, the sole owner of the Pumpville was reported to be very strict. But a pump factory, had an only daughter, fortnight did not elapse before, in spite who, thanks to the laziness, luxury and of sly father and strict school principal, indulgence peculiar to the families of the lovers were exchanging letters that rich men who are rather coarse-grained bore double or treble postage. and vulgar, changed in a single year Arrived at New York, Selvidge did trom a school girl in short dresses to a not make haste to go into business for full-blown young woman, who scarcely his capital-now about $4,000-was knew what to make of the change and too small to enable him to buy an inhad no one at home to inform herterest in any firm strong enough to Mrs. Perris being an invalid whose only command the respect of old Perris in reatment for any unexpected state of the good time that Selvidge assured affairs was to fret at it. himself must come sooner or later. On So Miss Perris, as people began to the other hand, he could afford to live call the young woman who a year before well and keep up appearances; and as had been merely little Kate, did about any well-dressed adventurer of passable as she pleased. There was no bad commanners can readily find his way into pany in the vulage for her to fall into, some New York sets that contain many for her father did not allow her to asrespectable people, Selvidge soon found sociate with the village people except at himself in a grade of society where all school and in church, and there was no the gentlemen wore dress coats when "set" of young people who could give making evening calls.

evening par ies for the sole purpose of Then it struck this discreet fellow dancing and flurtation. There were no that it might be well to have two young men in the vicinity whom her strings to his bow. Kate was a darling, father would have allowed to visit her, and must be her father's heir ; but supeven had he realized that at fifteen pose she were to die, or the old man years a girl may be something more than were to fail hopelessly, as he saw some New Yorkers of high standing doing?

Miss Perris was, therefore, thrown To think was to act, so after skillfully upon herself for all her diversions, and informing himself about the young sue sometimes grew desperate over her ladies in his set, Selvidge began to pay inability to use up her time. She read special attention to Miss Florence a great many novels, selected by herself. Wernton, who was the reputed heiress, which increased her trouble rather than in her own right, of one of the handdiminished it; she drove her ponies somest estates in Western New York. juriously about the country roads, set Miss Florence was the counterpart of the family servants by the ears so fre-Kate in almost every respect; she was quently that they had to be changed slight, sentimental and retiring; but as every month or two, dressed expensive- she had a heart and had not an accepted ly and in shocking taste, and made of lover, she soon succumbed to Selvidge's herself the stock topic of conversation attentions, while the young man, who and joke among the mill hands and never before had met a lady of her kind, really lost the heart which he had their wives.

As the store in which Selvidge was given to Kate; so he declared his love, clerk was the only one in the village that He more than hinted that there was a kept any of the small dress goods and temporary obstacle to their union, but little things that even the poorest women there was just enough mystery about imperatively demand, Miss Perris sud- this to bind the sentimental girl more ciosely to him.

> Meanwhile he was not neglecting any promising opportunities to pick up any tortune that might be had before mar-painting. Velvet may be substituted gallery and knocks wit de but end of Devonshire or other crea back and the whole party began to pelt the discomfited man with eggs, which, though not stale, were harder and stickier than Selvidge had ever imagined that any kind of eggs could be.

Fast Time to Enrope

People who love European travel but ness and oncean voyage, with its seasicktied to learn that s sances, will be gratigurated which when completed will subreve the sea voyage from here to Liverpool nearly one-half and reduce the time about one-third. The plan seems to be entirely feasible and does not involve, as one might at first suppose, some cheap Yankee method of compressing the Atlantic Ocean into half its present compass, but simply proposes to utilize the whole amouet of pracicable land transportation, leaving to be compassed by the steamship voyage only the distance from the eastern point of New. foundland to Galway, Ireland, which is about 1,640 mues.

A company has lately been organized called the Great American and European Short Line Railroad Company. It proposes to utilize routes already in existence from New York and Boston to Oxford. Nova Scotia. A new line seventy miles in length is already under contract to comolete the connection to the Strait of Canso which is to be bridged, and one hundred The V on a five-dollar bill has been and twenty miles of new road built from there to Cape North, the eastern extremity carefully scraped off, the "fifty" stamp of Cape Breton Island. A steam ferry is on a cigar box nealty pasted on, and in to be a link in the chain across the Straits some way the whole bill changed. Most of St. Lawrence, a distance of fifty-six of this class of work is done by Chinese miles to the west coast of Newfoundland, counterfeiters, and their photographs from which point a railroad 320 miles in occupy considerable space in the gallery. length across Newfoundland will complete the route. On the European side the rail A raised check which hangs upon the and terry connections from Galway to wail attracts considerable attention. Liverpool are already complete. There is The original was a check on the 'Third very hitle doubt but this enterprise is des-National Bank of New York for $451. tined to prove a success, as the company All of the writing except the signature is amply able to carry out its designs and has already procured the necessary char was removed by acids and the amount ters and has part of the line under conchanged to $26.968.75. The check was tract. When it is completed they propose presented at the bank and paid. The to run a daily line of steamers each way, plates, by which any fifty-dollar bill in so that persous desiring to go to or come issue can be counterfeited, are also from Europe can start on any given day and will not need to be delayed for the shown. sailing of a first-class vessel, as is often the case at present. The company expect to have the road completed in less than 5 vears.

The advantage of this route are two fold A pretty ornament for the corner of a -the lessening of the tune required for coom is made of three ebony shelves, or the trip and its consequent discomforts, three shelves that have the appearance and the avoidance of the dangers of the of being ebony, because of a little ebony coast from New York to Newfoundland during the stormy scasons. When this railing at the back of each shelf. To route is completed a considerable more each of these shelves a narrow lambrethan one-third of the present distance to quin is attached. A handsome set of Europe may be compassed in a palace car these shelves has a lambrequin, five and the ocean trip reduced to four days inches deep, of drab satin; on this is or less. A trip to Europe will then be hardly more than a journey to Omaha or painted a spray of violets, with leaves New Orleans and stems; the bottom is fringed ont

Deepsea Sounding.

by a velvet ribbon, on which is worked It is clauzed that, for ordinary purposes a Grecian pattern in shaded yellow silk. of navigation while a ship is at full speed. Sir William Thompson's new apparatus A dot is worked in the centre of each for deepsea sounding has proved its pecusquare. The next shelf has a lambrehar superiority. In its construction a glass tube filled with air is hermetically sealed

a spray of scarlet and white flowers at the top, but open at the bottom, and ping; and at the same time Selvidge bewhat I'se tellin yer is as sure as Jinny'll bread and butter; plovers' eggs au with delicate foliage. The edge is prepared with red prussiate of potash. It gan to notice that Kate had ceased to be blow de horn on de last day. I walknaturel : galantine, quail pie in lavers s placed in a brass tube, closed at the bot. fringed, and the top finished with rib-BELLEFONTE, PA. a little girl. He hesitated a long time ed up to de house and dar I saw a bright D. S. KELLER, om, but allowed the free ingress and before adding her name to his list of can. riage. He went West to look at a bon : but instead of the Grecian pattern of fricandeau veal; eggs, jelly, truffles, light inside. It showed out fro de pressure of water from above. The brass didates for the position of wife, for the mining adventure that promised well, usual seasoning. Substituts capon and use other fancy stitches. On the botube is partially filled with sulphate awe in which he had been taught to and some letters that were forwarded windows, and I saw shaders of Miss cut out truffles if economy is an object ; tom shelt put a cardinal satin lambreof iron, and wherever this comes into conholl old Perris and his money was not to him went astray, so when he retact with the interior of the glass tube it quin of the same depth and style and Gibbet and Mrs. Gibbet on de window the crown artichoke or asparagas cold, easy to overcome. Gradually, how- turned to town he was greatly astoncurtain-shore honeys, shore. De front eaten with oil and Tarragon vinegar ; BELLEFONTE, PA, turns into a Prussian blue. The pressure finished in the same way as the others, ever, he began to notice that Miss ished and disappointed to find that of the water compresses the air, forcing Daisies and grasses are pretty for the do' was shet, and I steps up on ter de fruit tarts ; cold plum pudding with Consultations in English or German. Office Perris, while discussing possible articles Florence and her mother had left the

Cuba ; Doyle, Brockway, the prince of and Boxer-were dreaming of a future rude Russian in his inland village, the counterfeiters, and Smith, the engraver, quarry. the famous trio whose counterfeit $1.000

The firelight brought out in bright rebond is so neatly done that it is almost lief the trunks of the tall pines like impossible to tell it from the original. cathedral columns, and sparkling through Most counterfeit gold pieces are made the leafy dome overhead the scintillatof platinum. The value of a $5 piece ing stars glistened with a diamonp made of this metal is $4.60, the counbrightness. A silence which added its terfeiter only realizing 40 cents for his influence to the scene rested about the labor. The manner of making counterborders of the creek below, and gave plaster particular, is to take a block of more effect to the story of the veteran cast of the genuine coin in the make a would have a perhaps it otherwise and after binding the pieces together "If de deer run down de creek." said make a hole on one side through which old Jack smacking his lips over a careto pour in the metal. When this is fully prepared brewing of the real Camfinished, a thin sheet of silver is pressed bolton punch, "wese boun to see fun the theatre of disgraceful scenes. But upon it, and after putting on the serratto-morrer, for dev'll take us down that it may be said to all the latter, as we ed edge, the work is completed. Most by de old Gibbet's place. In daylight are very well aware, that the abuse of counterfeit silver money is made of dar's no place like it, but after nightfall, brass, which produces a good ring, and you bet you wouldn't catch dis niggar a counterfeit fifty-cent piece of this dar." kind weighs nearly the same as genuine Old Jack was naturally asked why he coin. A specimen of fine work done didn't care about visiting the Gibbet's things with those ancients who so dewith a pen and ink is a twenty-dollar place at night. Asking to be excused graded themselves, and for the former, bill, the difference between it and the until he filled his pipe, the silence was if the enjoyments of the bath really genuine note being so small that a nonunbroken until his return. He piled on could divert the Romans from the thought expert could not detect it. Another inmore pine knots and commenced. teresting exhibit is some raised money.

prizoup de wheel. Den I saw I was at Mi - seed de old man.

tion by building them, then it was "Yu' kno' gemmen, dat when de gunboat was in de sound we folks had to because the people prized them and travel way back hyar on dese roads out desired them and held them even above un de range of dere big guns. I was the worth of liberty. Heaven forbid gaged by Mr. Harrison in hauling salt that our people should ever follow such from de factory at Mississipi City, on de example so far! But one cannot help beach ober to Moblie, an' I had been seeing that if we, as a people, showed making a trip every week or so. Dis but the first thrill of such a desire for back country road was neber thought these public baths-that is, if we showed ob by de federals, an' we had good any desire for them at all-we should times along de way, no shells and .no have them. For it is we who are the emperors and rulers here. It is our shootin'.

"De nite, gemmen, I's speakin' of own voices that govern, and if we want was a Friday dat yous all know is un- public baths, and when we want them. lucky. Well, you see, I . hitched up they will rise like an exhalation, That Betsie and Rose in de lead an' ole Fox | it is not advisable, that it is not desiraan' Blossom at de pole, an' takes in de ble, to have them made vehicles of biggest load ob salt dat team eber car- mere luxurious sensation and objects of ried. I starts out an' crosses de Biloxi magnificence is evident. But if cleanliriber at Hansboro just as de moon was ness is next to godliness, then it is a goin' down. Yes, boss, dese roads shame that the masses of our populaweren't no better den dan now, an' de tion are kept so remote from godliness. rain had made 'em mighty rough when and our unwashed millions-even our yer comes to de holes.

board shanties on wharves and bridges "I sat in de seat whistlin' 'De Cows being miserably insufficient, and our is in de Pea Patch,' and a thinking of Turkish and Russian contrivances being Sarah Jamison, what was afterwards my too costly for any but the rich and wife, when I felt de off fore wheel go reckless-cannot obtain at any price kerseush !' in a hole up to de hub. I'd what the Roman citizen, at a time when made 17 mile out of Hansboro. I did money was worth far more than now. some cussin', and den went to de fence obtained for the eighth of a penny. about 20 yards off and took out a rail to

How to Fill a Picnic Basket.

ter Gibbet's place. I try and try on at de wheel, but no go; so I sez to myself. A prize being offered for the best as-I'll go on up to de house and get old sortment, it was awarded by the judge Mr. Gibbet to give me a turn. I had to the following: Olive and sard n done gone by dyar two weeks afore and sandwiches; cold salmon with horseradish sauce, eaten with salad or plain let-

quin of old gold satin, on this is painted ATTORNEYS AT LAW, denly began to do a great deal of shop-"Now, gemmen, yer listen to me, for tuce; aspic of prawns with brown