

Local Department.

—Lock Haven had a $6000 fire on Monday night, 18th instant.

—We had several thunder showers on Thursday night.

—A good town property at private sale. Inquire at this office.

—Mr. John Keen is again confined to his bed with no present prospects of improvement.

—The Synod of the Reformed church will meet in Bellefonte, in annual session, Wednesday, Oct. 11th.

—The Bellefonte Nail Works are now in active operation. 125 kegs of nails is the average product each day.

—Prof. Wolf requests us to state that there will be a special examination of teachers at Bellefonte, Saturday Oct. 7th beginning at 9 A. M., sharp.

—Mr. Abs. Mingle moved the other day from Aronsburg into an empty house in Petersburg—one of the suburbs of Millheim.

—Jeremiah Haines, executor, will sell the estate of Geo. Weicht, deceased, about five miles east of Rebersburg, on Saturday, Oct. 7th, next.

—The Ladies' Lutheran Mite Society will meet at Mr. Jacob Alter's next Monday evening. A general attendance is desired.

—A fine line of Family and Presentation Bibles, Photograph and Auto-graph Albums, fine Stationery, &c., just received at the Journal Store.

—Business is increasing at Musser & Smith's Hardware Store, and the latest addition is a brand new clerk. His name is Thomas E. Burd, and he seems to be just the chap for the place.

—David Zelger, of Bald Eagle township, Clinton county, was sentenced to the penitentiary for one year and fined one hundred dollars and costs, for cutting off the tails and otherwise injuring the cattle of Henry Hager.

—Mr. Andrew Harter removed from Swengle, Union county, to Millheim, on Monday. Mr. Harter expects to engage in the leather finishing business. We extend our welcome and best wishes.

—The Synod of Central Pennsylvania met at Lewistown on Wednesday and is expected to remain in session over Sunday. Pastor Tomlinson with Mr. John H. Musser as delegate, are in attendance.

—Mr. John W. Smull, formerly of Brush Valley, but for many years residing at McConnell's Grove, Stephenson county, Illinois, paid the JOURNAL Office a visit last Saturday. He reports crops and business good in Illinois.

—If any of our farmer patrons have a barrel or two of good, fresh cider to spare we would be ever so much obliged to have it. Nor are we overly particular as to the price—so we can pay it in JOURNALS. Now just please don't all speak at once.

—The prolonged strikes throughout the country are about over and everywhere laborers are returning to work. The total loss to workingmen in wages alone amount to at least $10,000,000, but it is hoped they gained considerable wisdom even if dearly-bought.

—Mr. A. C. Musser and family spent their vacation in Buffalo Valley last week, returning on Saturday evening well pleased with their trip. Clark is in ecstasies over the beauties of old, historic Buffalo, and we believe every word he says on that line even without the formality of an affidavit.

—The new uniforms for the band have come and give perfect satisfaction. They are made to fit elegantly, and the flashy trimmings give them a rich and novel appearance. This puts the boys on the level with any band in the county, both as to music and dress.

Inventors and Patentees.—should send for instructions, reasonable terms, references, &c., to Edson-Brothers, Solicitors of Patents, Washington, D. C. who furnish the same without charge. Edson Brothers is a well known and successful firm of large experience, having been established in 1865.

NOTICE.—Subscribers to the Lutheran church at Millheim who have not paid their subscriptions are most kindly requested to do so. The amounts are long overdue and the money is much needed. Friends help us along.

JOHN TOMLINSON,
JONATHAN HARTER,
B. O. DEININGER,
Finance Committee.

—It is announced that the Pennsylvania R. R. Company has issued orders to all ticket agents to refuse to sell tickets to all persons who are intoxicated, and all gatekeepers are instructed to pass no one who is under the influence of liquor.

This is a proper and most salutary order. Drunkards are not fit to take care of themselves and should not be permitted in company with sober and decent people.

—A Lewisburg man has a sunflower that measures seventeen inches in diameter. Half a dozen such would be just too lovely for anything—except to trim a lady's hat in the most approved and latest style.

—The cheapest place to buy goods in these parts at the present is Stam's. They are selling out absolutely at cost to close out and quit the business. There is no catch or draw in the matter but a real, bona fide selling out at cost. A full line of ladies dress goods, prints, clothing, boots & shoes, queens-ware &c., all at cost—at cost—at cost.

—Our friend P. H. Stover, at Coburn now has everything in good working trim for business. He is prepared to pay the best ruling price for all kinds of grain and sell coal, plaster, &c. at the lowest market rates. By strict attention to business he hopes to merit a share of public patronage. See advertisement in another column.

A PREACHERS BIG SNAKE STORY.—Rev. E. L. Krupp, of Laurelville, Westmoreland county, states that while his wife and a male relative were out berrying, a few days since, they came across a den of 150 rattlesnakes, and killed them all in fifteen minutes.

—Dill & Mingle have now the fullest line of boots and shoes for men, women and children, in Centre county. We know whereof we affirm when we say that they keep the very best in their line and sell as low as the lowest. They are good and reliable men to deal with and their customers are always pleased.

—We notice with infinite pleasure in the Bellefonte papers that Mr. W. G. Morrison, the gentleman engaged to teach our Grammar School, stands well in the profession. The school board of Worth township, where he taught with much success for eight successive terms upon learning that he had accepted a school here, passed a series of highly complimentary resolutions of Mr. Morrison and his work.

—Again the time is here when stove pipes must be "fixed," and in the interest of domestic happiness and harmony we offer a fine chronometer of the man who was "First in War, first in Peace and first in the Hearts of his Countrymen" to the chap who will do it all nicely and completely without losing the sweetness of his temper. Competitors must bring certificates duly attested by their better halves.

—Before you buy your stock of winter clothing—and the time to do so is soon at hand—make up your mind to call at Lewin's Philadelphia Branch, Bellefonte. If you can not visit yourself there it is not likely that you can be suited anywhere. Lewin is determined to lead and does lead all dealers in clothing in this part of the state. He strictly adheres to the "one price system" for all.

—Last week the sad news reached us from Guntur, India, that Rev. A. D. Rowe, the beloved Lutheran missionary in that country, had died of typhoid fever. The date of Mr. Rowe's death is not given, but it was certainly recent, as no news of his sickness had reached this country.

We know two little of Mr. Rowe's history to attempt a biographical sketch, but will at a later date lay before our readers the principal facts of his truly interesting life.

—The Sunday School picnic in Everett's woods on Saturday was well attended, notwithstanding the disagreeable state of the weather. The Elk Creek, Liberty and St. Paul's schools were present. The Millheim, Woodward and Farmer's Mills bands made the music, and Revs. J. Tomlinson and Z. A. Yearick delivered the addresses. Those who ought to know say that the cakes and other good things embraced a wide range in variety, and all were delicious in flavor.

—Mr. F. P. Musser left home on Monday morning for the Yellowstone Valley, the new Eureka of the west. He is one of a committee of three which started together on Monday from Howard, to spy out the land with a view to forming a company of emigrants. Their destination is Miles City, Montana Territory. Quite a number of young men in Centre county, especially in and around Howard, expect to join the new colony, if the report of the pioneer committee will be as is now expected.

The largest chestnut tree in Lancaster county stands within a few hundred yards of Manheim borough line, on the public road leading to Sporting Hill. Its circumference is twenty-three feet six inches one foot above the ground. The tree was measured forty-five years ago, when its circumference was twenty-one feet four inches.

—We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of Messrs J. R. Smith & Co. Milton, Pa. and are happy to assure them from personal knowledge that there is no better place to buy house furnishing goods in the state. They keep a large assortment of elegant parlor suits, chamber suits, chairs, or any single piece of furniture desired, all of the best material and workmanship and cheaper in price than can be bought at most places. Their music room is full to repletion, ranging from the low-priced but really good organ up to the costly and elegant Chickering piano. Besides these they keep every standard make of sewing machines, a large line of china and queensware, fine paintings and engravings, in fact almost everything in the house furnishing line.

We had the pleasure of visiting this fine large establishment last week, and were shown through all the departments by the enterprising and gentlemanly head of the firm, Mr. J. R. Smith, and we take pleasure in recommending it to our readers as a very good and safe place to buy.

—On Thursday evening of last week the hospital mansion of Mr. J. W. Snook was the scene of a happy social gathering. It was the occasion of the wedding reception of Mr. & Mrs. J. W. Stover, who were married on Tuesday evening before. The following invited guests were present: Rev. John Tomlinson & lady, Aronsburg; Mr. & Mrs. L. B. Stover, Mr. & Mrs. George B. Stover, Woodward; Mr. & Mrs. A. Walter, Mr. & Mrs. A. A. Frank, Mr. & Mrs. H. H. Weiser, Mr. & Mrs. Jonathan Harter, Mr. & Mrs. H. E. Duck, Mr. & Mrs. John Keen, Mr. & Mrs. B. O. Deininger, Mr. & Mrs. D. Musser, Mr. & Mrs. J. C. Smith, Mr. & Mrs. Fred Catherman, Mr. & Mrs. Frank, Miss Salina Gephart, Miss Ada Eisenhuth, Millheim.

At 7 o'clock the company was invited to be seated to a dinner that would have done honor to a princely feast. The spacious table literally groined under the load of good things and the guests did full justice to the interesting subject as well as to themselves. After the demands of the "inner man" were satisfied to the full, the company resolved itself into smaller knots and parties, to engage in free and easy conversation and to listen to the sweet strains of music furnished by our celebrated cornet band. The whole affair was much enjoyed by all present, and at a seasonable hour the guests left for their homes, with the best wishes for the happy couple as well as for the kind host and hostess.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

Prof. Wolf is rather rigid in his examinations of teachers, but none too much so. Let the standard be raised. All but the Spring Mills Grammar School and two others in Brush Valley are now supplied with teachers as follows: Decker's—F. F. Jamison; Farmer's Mills—W. A. Krise; Penn Hall—E. F. Smith; Cross Roads—E. L. Jordan Gate—Amanda Grove; Mountain—Jeremiah Heckman; Polk Hill—H. M. Cain; Beaver Dam—R. Petherhoff; Spring Mills Primary—Clara Gutse; Spring Mills Intermediate—Maggie Hanna.

Prof. Reiter will close a very successful term of the Academy with a public exhibition on Friday evening. The Professor did his whole duty but some of the students should have been more industrious.

Happy to say that our sick are all improving.

Grenoble is doing a lively trade.

Andrew Korman bought the farm of the late Rev. P. S. Fisher for $6000. Andy is a very successful farmer.

Samuel J. Hering had the misfortune to lose three valuable cows. They had eaten too much young clover and burst.

Lewis M. Roberts, the horse thief recently arrested in Butler county, has been identified as the Rogers who was convicted of counterfeiting at Williamsport in 1871 and sentenced to twenty years' imprisonment, but who was pardoned in 1875. He is a native of Millintown, and the Altoona Times says his family are of the highest respectability.
