DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

For Governor, ROBERT E. PATTISON, OF PHILADELPHIA. For Lieutenant Governor, CHAUNCEY F. BLACK, OF YORK.

DISTRICT AND COUNTY TICKET.

For Congress, ANDREW G. CURTIN, OF BELLEFONTE. (Subject to the decision of the congressional conference.) For Senator, C. T. ALEXANDER, OF BELLEFONTE.

Cameron has the Floor.

In his able speech at the Independent mass meeting at Easton on the 23rd of Sept., Senator Stewart boldly resented the fling of the Stalwart papers that he had begged office from Cameron.

At the headquarters of the independents, Philadelphia, a further request was received from citizens of Montrose Susquehanna county, asking Senator Stewart to speak there.

Republican County Convention.

The Republicans of Centre county held their convention in the Court House on Tuesday the 26th ult. Judging from the proceeding it is evident that everything had been "arranged" before the convention assembled in the most approved Stalwart style.

An Honest Confession.

Hon. Eli Slifer, of Lewisburg, is a gentleman well known throughout the entire state, as a man of irrefragable public and private character. He has served the people well and faithfully as a member of the legislature, state senator, state treasurer and secretary of the commonwealth, and there never was a breath of suspicion against his personal or official integrity.

The Congressional Conference.

For the 22nd Congressional District convened at the Ward House, in Tyrone, at 1.30 p. m., on Wednesday, Sept. 27th, and organized by selecting R. P. Billings, of Lock Haven, Chairman, and G. W. Foote, of Millheim, Secretary.

Curtin Nominated.

It affords us much pleasure to inform our readers that Ex-Gov. Curtin was renominated for Congress by the conference which met at Tyrone the other Wednesday. This is a nomination eminently fit and proper and we predict that our illustrious member will be re-elected by a largely increased majority.

The Senatorial Contest.

The senatorial conference of this district met at the Bush House, Bellefonte, on Tuesday, Sept. 26th. The following were the conferees from the several counties: Clinton—A. W. Brumgard, R. C. Quiggle, W. A. Wensel.

Adjourned until Monday.

RENOVO, September 29.—The senatorial conference of this district adjourned to-day to meet in this place on Monday evening next.

Stewart's Estimate of His Strength.

Senator Stewart's Interview in N. Y. Evening Post. Of course no one can foresee the result of the desperate struggle which the machine will wage in the coming weeks, but I firmly believe that if the election should be held next week the vote for the Independent ticket would be not less than 150,000.

Stewart's Estimate of His Strength.

Only a short time ago the stalwart papers eulogized Tom Marshall as a statesman and patriot and now they denounce him as an ingrate and a fool. Marshall can stand it if the stalwarts can.

What Chairman Hensel Thinks.

Chairman Hensel, of the Democratic State committee, said that the nominations by the Republican city conventions seemed to be on the whole very weak, and this fact he believed would help the Pattison ticket if Democratic wisdom would take advantage of Republican blunders.
