

Local Department.

The North Street School will not be open until Monday the 30th instant.

A good town property at private sale. Inquire at this office.

School Books and school supplies of every kind at the Journal Store.

Rev. John Tomlinson is visiting friends and relatives in Bedford county.

The weather is very warm for the season, otherwise alternating between beautiful sunshine, mist and rain.

Neighbor Springer has made material improvements to his property on North street. Jacob has taste, enterprise and cash.

The wide-awake, progressive town of Philipsburg, at the other end of Centre county, is illuminated with electric light.

Our thanks are hereby tendered in best style to Chairman Hensel for a fine life-sized crayon portrait of Governor Pattison.

A fine line of Family and Presentation Bibles, Photograph and Autograph Albums, fine Stationery, &c, just received at the Journal Store.

Mr. F. P. Musser, scarcely home from an extended tour to Montana and Dakota Territories, left early on Monday for Pittsburgh to attend the U. S. Court as a juror.

THIS SICK.—Mr. John S. Homnan, who for several weeks was seriously ill, is improving. Father John Hess was no better, at last account, and Mr. Isaac Behm is in a critical condition.

Gov. Hoyt has designated next Tuesday the 24th as a legal holiday, in order to give all who have time and money a chance to attend the Bi-Centennial at Philadelphia, which is to celebrate the two hundredth anniversary of the landing of William Penn.

If any of our farmer patrons have a barrel or two of good, fresh cider to spare we would be ever so much obliged to have it. Nor are we overly particular as to the price—so we can pay it in JOURNALS. Now just please don't all speak at once.

As soon as the election is over and the results known, our citizens should go to work with all the deliberation and circumspection that such an important task that such an important question demands and appoint—a hoy committee.

Mr. R. M. Wolf, of the mercantile firm of Wolf & Hosterman, at Woodward, has just returned from the city with a large and carefully selected stock of fall and winter goods. This firm does a thriving business and is determined not to be undersold by any store in the valley.

We never saw a better line of boots and shoes than those kept by Doll & Mingle in Bellefonte. If you go to Bellefonte just give them a call and be convinced for yourself. You will get the full worth of your money and will be fairly dealt with from beginning to end.

Inventors and Patentees.—Should send for instructions, reasonable terms, references, &c., to Edison Brothers, Solicitors of Patents, Washington, D. C. who furnish the same without charge. Edison Brothers is a well known and successful firm of large experience, having been established in 1866.

The Ellis Champion Thresher and Cleaner, manufactured at Pottstown, Pa., can now be seen at Daniel Hosterman's. It may be of interest to our farmers to take a look at it and witness the work it does. S. K. Sankey & Co. have the agency for this machine.

The outside painting of the new Lutheran church is now complete and the scaffolding has been removed. A clear unobstructed view may now be had of the building and it is universally pronounced a model of neatness and beauty.

Mr. Andrew Harter has rented Sheriff Musser's Tannery and opened a leather finishing business. He keeps on hand a full supply of all kinds of leather at the lowest cash prices. Cash also paid for hides. Mr. Harter is an experienced and practical finisher and we hope our people will give him a liberal patronage.

Read, Mark and Learn!

That a fine, enclosed Picnic Ground, with every convenience, Swings, Croquet Ground, Quoits, Pavilion, and a Fine Spring of pure water with plenty of shade, has now been completed at Spring Mills. Societies, Clubs, Lodges and all respectable parties will be accommodated on reasonable terms. Carriages and tickets to the celebrated Penn Caves at moderate rates. Address

GEO. B. NASH, Spring Mills House. 35,000 people attended the York County Fair in two days.

Have any of our farmer patrons a few bushels of apples to spare for the poor printer? "Whoever giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord"—or words to that effect.

On Friday last our people witnessed the novel sight of a steam thresher passing through town propelled by steam. Prof. Daniel Baney had the concern in charge.

Mr. J. Reeso VanOrmer, of the Democrat paid us a pop visit last Friday. Reese never forgets to call on us and always shakes our big paw quite warmly.

A rich miser named Joseph J. Lewis, of Hoboken, New York, bequeathed $90,000 to the government of the United States.

ANOTHER COUNTY TICKET.—The Greenback Labor county committee met in the office of Hon. S. H. Yocum, Bellefonte, the other Friday, and nominated the following ticket:

Assembly—George Alexander, Leonard Rhone.

Jury Commissioner—Andrew Shively.

Crowner—Dr. J. D. P. Glenn.

F. P. Musser returned from his trip to Montana on Saturday. The party of which he was one penetrated as far west as Billings, the present terminus of the Northern Pacific road. We understand that they will shortly make out a report for publication of observations, and in the mean time we must all possess ourselves in patience and not allow the Montana fever to unfit us for our work or business while we are yet here in old Pennsylvania.

You would be surprised to see the piles of clothing of all grades and prices in Lewin's Philadelphia Branch Clothing House, Bellefonte. But when you consider that there are about 18,000 men and boys of all ages and sizes in Centre county that each needs about two suits every year, you will no longer wonder where it all goes to. Lewin understands the business perfectly. He knows exactly what farmers, merchants, laboring and professional men want, and in the line of clothing he is prepared to suit them all. His prices are the very lowest that can be found anywhere. Lewin is master of the situation.

At the coming election our citizens of Centre county will have an opportunity to decide by their votes whether dogs shall be taxed or not. The law is intended for the protection of sheep. The tickets will be labeled on the outside with the words "Sheep Law," and on the inside either "For the Sheep Law" or "Against the Sheep Law." If the sheep law carries it will go into effect at once and dogs will then be taxed, 50 cents for a male and one dollar for a female, to be collected with other county taxes.

Next Monday the winter term of our schools begins and we fondly wish and hope that it may prove a successful one. The teachers, Mr. Morrison, Mr. E. Imonds and Miss Strohm have all passed very creditable examinations and are well qualified for their work.

The board of directors have been fortunate in their selections and have here come up to their duty fully, and now it becomes the plain duty of parents and citizens generally to second the efforts of teachers and directors by giving both all the encouragement and support they can.

The greatest hindering cause to the fullest measure of success in our schools is the seemingly utter indifference of many parents, and consequently of many children. It is obvious that it is frequently left entirely to the choice of pupils, especially the boys, to attend school or not. They are too often permitted to run the streets and loaf in stores and shops, when they ought to be at school. They are not taught and trained to love and appreciate school privileges properly, and it is a sad fact that not a few grow up to manhood and womanhood without an elementary education, but with all the evils of street education—bad manners and worse morals.

Parents, if you love your children do what you can for their mental and moral culture. Require them to attend school promptly and regularly, and allow no opportunity to become a truant. Home is the proper place for children, especially in the evenings. They can, and will if rightly encouraged, spend their time not only profitably, but pleasantly, in the preparation of lessons, general reading, conversation and innocent amusements.

As parents we have manifold and responsible duties to perform, but how little and how lightly do we think of them.

The Bi-Centennial at Philadelphia. Ample preparations are being made by the citizens of Philadelphia to make the coming Bi-Centennial a grand and imposing affair.

On the 24th of October the celebration will commence with a representation of the landing of Penn, at the same location whereon he first set foot in 1682—Dock street wharf.

The ocean and river craft of the harbor of Philadelphia, together with the greater part of the North Atlantic squadron, will take part, and there will be a general display of bunting and other suitable decorations. All the troops of the Department of General Hancock are expected to participate.

The procession will embrace United States Government officers, sailors, marines, and officials from the Naval Hospital, Custom House, etc., headed by the Marine Band of Washington. The employees of the United States Mint will strike off 150,000 medals and distribute the same during the procession. City and State departments, fire and police, Girard College Cadets, as well as visiting firemen and benevolent societies, Hibernian, Swiss, Italian, and German societies will take part and wear the appropriate insignia.

On Wednesday, the 27th, will be the Trades' Day. All the leading machine shops, factories, wholesale and retail by wagons in which will be exhibited the workings of the various trades. It is estimated that between 15,000 and 20,000 men will participate, and at least six hundred wagons will be employed.

On the third day, October 28th, there will be the greatest display of Knights Templars probably ever held. This procession will be under the auspices of the commanderies of Philadelphia and the grand commandery of Pennsylvania.

Friday, October 27th, will be the last day, the attractions being a grand army and navy parade, including the National Guard of New Jersey and Pennsylvania and visiting troops from neighboring States to the number of 12,000 men. It is expected that there will also be 15,000 men of the G. A. R. In the evening a reception will be tendered the visiting military at the Academy of Music and Horticulture Hall, and a general illumination.

Political News. A Wilkesbarre correspondence to the Philadelphia Times says: It is safe to say that Governor Hoyt will refuse to speak for Beaver. He will most likely be silent in the contest, as he holds the first office of the State conferred by the Republican organization, but if he shall make any utterance at all before the election it will be against the whole Cameron Boss system; and if he publicly declares for any gubernatorial candidate, it will be for Stewart and not for Beaver. He has exhausted himself to effect the withdrawal of Beaver and Stewart, but as that is now impossible, he does not conceal his conviction that Beaver cannot be elected and that, in the present aspect of the canvass, Beaver ought not to be elected.

Leonard Rhone, one of the Republican nominees of this county, declines the proffered honor. Mr. Rhone is a gentleman of excellent character and reputation, and one of the most wide awake and intelligent farmers in the county. At present he holds the position of Master of the State Grange, Patrons of Husbandry. He would have received his full party vote, although his election was out of the question, and no doubt this "existing circumstance" determined his course.

The following is Mr. Rhone's letter of declination. CENTRE HALL, PA., Oct. 7, 1882. A. O. FURNER, Esq., Chairman Centre County Republican Convention.

DEAR SIR: Your letter of Sept. 29th, announcing my name as a candidate for member of the House of Representatives of the General Assembly, is received.

Under existing circumstances I can not accept the position tendered me, and hereby respectfully decline it. LEONARD RHONE.

What Daniel Dougherty thinks of Pattison. PHILADELPHIA, October 11.—Daniel Dougherty, who has just returned from Europe, was interviewed to-day. He proposes to support Pattison and declares that the democratic nominee is above the standard of Pennsylvania governors; that his public deliverances are admirable and straight forward; that he has business ability, practical sense, force of character, unswerving adherence to exact integrity, and he was sure he would be faithful and clean in the great office, would stop all raids upon the treasury and would be free from improper partisan complications.

JAY Hubbell's political assessment corruption fund amounts to $400,000. It was collected from government clerks and officials of all kinds to be used for electioneering purposes in helping the stalwart candidates, but it has utterly failed in Ohio, as it will in Pennsylvania and New York.

THE Republican congressional conference of this district met at Bellefonte on the 10th inst., and nominated Hon. Samuel H. Orwig, of Millinburg by acclamation.

Grover Cleveland, the Democratic candidate for Governor of New York, is said to resemble General Hancock. He is six feet tall, weighs over 200 pounds, is rather bald, and brushes his hair back from his forehead over the bald spot. He begins an argument in court with visible reluctance, but when he has fully entered on his plea he speaks with fluency and force.

News Miscellany.

The Juniata Tribune complains that the marrying fever has broken out among the children in that neighborhood.

Prof. A. L. Burrows, County Superintendent of Union county, resigned his office and expects soon to go to Topeka, Kansas.

The Houtzdale Observer says: "In this immediate neighborhood there are about thirty licensed bar-rooms, each of which takes in on an average, $30.00 per day for liquor. This doesn't look to be much at first glance, but it aggregates $900.00 per day, or $281,700 per year, exclusive of Sundays, and at least half as much is sold on Sunday on other days, it brings the grand total up to $305,100 per year.

Killed His by Own Watermelon. PINE BLUFFS, Ark., October 11.—Daniel Camp, a well-known planter, died to-day from the effects of carelessly eating watermelon in which he had placed poison for the benefit of thieves who made inroads on his melon patch. Three of his children, who also partook of the melon, are likely to die.
