ocratic meeting held at Wilkesbarre | Trade theories, regardless of old party last Friday Mr. Powderly delivered the following stirring speech, which deserves to be read by every laboring man in the state:

"I have acted with the labor reform party ever since its inception. I am a labor reformer now, but I am a labor reformer from principle, and I want to warn you against those who are not so, for it is an unfortunate fact that bad and vicious men from the slums have usurped the right to speak for the labor reform party and seek to barter its support to the old parties for a price. Such men have made themselves conspicuous in the pending campaign and have gone with an offer of the votes they cannot deliver to the Cameron party. They are wicked men and I warn you against them. I warn you not to vote the stalwart ticket nor the independ. ent ticket. Do not throw your votes away on the latter, neither on the so-called labor ticket or on any side ticket, but vote the democratic ticket entire. Vote for Pattison. Pattison rep resents true reform. He represents economy and honesty in public expenditures. He represents the reform that will lower taxes, relieve industries and thereby make better wages for

The next Congress.

The next House will certainly be Democratic. So much has been decided by the Ohio election. The Senate will certain ly be either squarely Republican or ahti-Dem ocrat. So much was decided by Virginia in 1881 and Oregon in 1882. The next Congress will therefore consist of a Democratic popular branch, an anti-Democratic Senate and a Stalwart President.

It seems idle for the Republicans to hope to recover from the Obio disaster in the election of Congressmen. The present Honse consists of 155 Republicans, including 4 Republican Greenbackers and 2 Republican-Mahone Readjusters; 136 Democrats, and 2 Independents. The Republican margin, counting all sorts of allies, is very narrow, even after admitting all Republi-The Millbeim Cornet Band meets in the can contestants, and that whole marown Hallon Monday and Thursday evenings.
W. Foote, Sec. D. I. Brown Prest. jority is swept away by Ohio. There will be a few Republica n gains in the South, but they won't reach haif a score in all, while the great Northern States and Texas must greatly increase the Democratic membership. Illinois now has 6 Democrats and 19 Republi. cans, and there must' be Democratic gains, if any, in that State. Indiana has 8 Republicans and 5 Democrats, with the certainty of a Domocratic gain of from 2 to 4. Michigan, Iowa, Kansas, Minneso ta and New Hampshire have solid Republican delegations so that no Republic an gains are possible there. New York has 20 Republicans and 13 Democrats, and 5 to 8 Dem ocratic gains may be confidently expected in that State. Pennsylvania has 19 Republicans and 8 Democrats, and of the 28 to be chosen in November not less than 14 will be Democrats, with a chance for several more. New Jersey now has 4 Republicans to 3 Democrats, and any gains must be Democratic, and Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin are each likely to give one or more Democratic gains.

The political tile is now against the Republicans, and that is fatal in all close contests. With the bulk of the Congressmen to be chosen just on the heels of the Ohio revolution, there is little to give promise of Republican gains and much to warrant the belief in general Democratic gains. Judging from the present outlook, a Democratic majority of not less than twenty is a reasonably safe estimate; and one peculiar feature of the new House, is the probable increase of Democratic Protectionist and the increase of Repulican Free Traders. The Democrats of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio and Indiana and throughout the South are growing in devotion to Protection, ly drifting toward Free Trade. The South wants factories and the West wants cheap manufactured articles, and both sections are rapidly tending At a large and enthusiastsc Dem- to their respective Protection and Free lines. It is safe to say that the next Congress will be Democratic and that it will be the strongest Democratic Tariff Congress eyer chosen by the people.-Philadelphia Times.
