The Bosses are Gloomy over New York.

Prom inent government officers, inluding Secretary Chandler and Assistant Postmaster-General Hatton, who have recently been in New York, bring back discouraging reports of Republican prospects. Mr. Hatton said to a friend that things were looking as bad as possible there, and Secretary Chandler's opinion was about as gloomy. They fear that the disaffection will cost the republicans a very serious loss in the congressional delegation, and for that reason will make a special effort

Next Tuesday the great battle will be fought in Pennsylvania between political freedom and political slavery. On the one side in this great conflict stand arrayed the masses of the people, the bone and sinew of the country-the brawny farmer, the industrious mechanic, the busy tradesman, contending for the sacred right of self-government, the right to choose their own rulers without dictation by party masters. er the bosses, the ringmeg, the pampered place helders, the monpolists, wealth.

The battle will be a desperate one but if Democrats do their whole duty the cause of the people will achieve a grand and lasting victory over the combined forces of money. office and despotie ring rule.

Ohio has already spoken. The Buckeye state sends greeting to the old Keystone, nearly 20,000 Democratic majority; and it becomes Pennsylvania as the great conservative centre of the Middle States. to redeem herself from the political misrule that has for years prostrated ger is less despondent, but he is evidently making no preparations to leave the Treasury. The Bosses Meet. The stalwart bosses had a secret meeting at Harrisburg the other Sunday, in regard to the political situation. They are much alarmed at the almost certain prospect of defeat, and are concocting their last desperate schemes to avert it. Money is to do it. $200,000 is to be raised with which to "persuade" democrats to vote for Armstrong. The business scare of two years ago is to be tried over. But the trick will not succeed. They may be able to buy up a few straggling votes in mining and manufacturing districts, but these will be a trifling offset to the thousands of independent voters who will cast their ballots for Pattison and Reform, in order to make the defeat of the bosses sure. -0.0

Betting on Election. Betting on the result of an election is a misdemeanor under the laws of the state, and it is proper that citizens as well as officers should know what the law is. By the act of March 24th, 1817, all bets on elections in this State are de clared null and void. By the act of 2nd July, 1839, any person making a bet on an election or offering to make such bet, forfeits three times the amount bet or offer to be bet, and all public officers and grand juries are required to commence proceedings against any person known to be guilty. It is also made the duty of election officers to reject the vote of any voter who has made a bet on the election or who is interested in such bet, and it is made the duty of On the other side are banded togeth | the Directors of the Poor to sue for any collect for the use of the poor of the proper district or .county all moneys wagered on elections. A Political Revolution.

The revolt within the republican party against the methods by which it 18 managed and controlled has become general. The result in Ohio was due in large degree to the dissatisfaction of the rank and file of the party with the "bossism" of the Arthur administration. In Pennsylvania the causes which produced the independent movement are well understood to be the one man power and its inherent tyranny and corruption. In New York the same causes are operating with the same effects. In Massachusetts there is a republican rebellion against the dictatorpremises at Coburn on SATURDAY, Nov. 18th, 1882,
