

Local Department.

—Venor says there will be a big snow storm in November.

—The Sunbury jail has a population of fifty-six prisoners.

—A good town property at private sale. Inquire at this office.

—Read Mr. John Oswald's notice in another column, and then, mind! keep hands off that property.

—A good girl wanted to do general housework. Wages paid or privilege given to attend school. Apply at this office.

—The Lutheran Ladies' Mite Society will meet at Mr. S. D. Musser's next Monday evening. Let there be a full attendance.

—Campaign documents, good reading for voters of all parties, can be had at the Journal office for the asking. All are welcome to call for them.

—D. F. Fortney and W. C. Heinle, Esqs., were among our visitors last week. They were on a tour making democratic speeches.

—Andrew J. Harter fitted into A. A. Frank's house on Penn Street, last week. Alteman has been housed with his father for some time.

—Charley Sturgis was in town again the other day. He looks sleek and sprightly and talks independent all over.

The Republican County Committee nominated Mr. G. R. Spigelmyer, of Spring Mills, for legislature, vice Leonard Rhone, who declined.

—Have any of our farmer patrons a few bushels of apples to spare for the poor printer? "Whoever giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord"—or words to that effect.

—The Grammar School will begin Thursday the 9th instant. It was intended to begin last Monday but Mr. Morrison, the teacher was sick and is not yet fully restored.

—Russ Stam has the "starkishest" selling out sign up in these diggings. It consists of a big lot of "grozen Frackturbruchstaben" and a demoralized politician and a long eared horse.

—Read Mrs. Anna M. Weaver's new advertisement in another column and do not fail to examine her splendid stock of goods. It will pay you to call at her establishment before you buy elsewhere.

—The estate of John D. Foote still has a number of Keystone Cultivators on hand which will be sold out cheap and upon reasonable terms. Apply to P. T. Musser, Administrator.

—We fondly hope to be able to announce the election of Pattison as Governor of Pennsylvania, next week, and may postpone the JOURNAL a day, in order to give more complete election returns from the state and New York.

CHURCH DEDICATION.—On Sunday Nov. 19th inst., the new Evangelical church at Cowan, Union Co., Pa., will be dedicated to the service of the Triune God. Bishop Bowman will officiate. Services begin Saturday, 7.30, P. M. All are cordially invited to attend.

D. F. KLINE, Pastor.

—The editor is in Philadelphia this week to buy his stock of goods for the Journal Store. It is his purpose to make the book and stationery department more full and complete than it is now. School and Sunday school requisites will be a specialty.

—Harry Tomlinson has a new clerk. He is a real fine looking young man, hails from Hartleton, and his name is James Yarger. We give the information gratis for the benefit of our young ladies, if they perchance did not discover it all before.

—If the winter just ahead of us will prove nearly as cold as is predicted we will need from 15 to 20 cords of wood to supply two families. Now, whoever of our patrons has more wood than cash may bring wood, the sooner the better, until we "holter" enough.

—If you want the neatest and best shoes in the market for your better half or daughters, or a most excellent pair of boots or gaiters for yourself, you had better go to Doll & Mingle's, Bellefonte, where you can be suited exactly and at prices that absolutely defy competition. Try them.

—Business is booming at Lewin's Philadelphia Branch Clothing House, in Bellefonte. It seems to be conceded on all hands that Lewin's immense stock of Overcoats, Suits, Hats, Underwear, Hosiery, Neck wear and other furnishing goods is the best and cheapest ever brought to Centre county, and that is what drives the people.

SETTLEMENT NOTICE.—All persons having unsettled accounts with the estate of Samuel Albright, deceased, are hereby requested to meet the subscriber for settlement, at the late residence of decedent, Saturday, Nov. 11th next.

ANDREW J. ALBRIGHT, Administrator.

—On Tuesday the 24th of last month the Board of Pardoners after a brief executive session decided to refuse the application of Uriah Moyer and hold Erb's case under advisement. Moyer's death warrant will be shortly issued by the governor, and he will be hanged in the jail yard at Middleburg from the same scaffold upon which his brother was executed only a short time ago.

—In a letter from Prof. J. H. Kurzenkabe we see that he was engaged for the last two weeks in teaching a class of singers, in Jersey Shore, Pa., numbering 183 members, and is this week conducting a convention there which will end with a grand concert on Saturday. The Professor is a musician of fame and success crowns his efforts wherever he goes.

—A stalwart republican meeting was held at Aaronsburg last Monday evening, which was presided over by Hon. J. P. Coburn and addressed by S. H. Orwig, Esq., of Union county, the republican candidate for congress in this district. The attendance was small and the enthusiasm of a faint nature. The Millheim Cornet Band furnished the music for the occasion.

GEO. B. NASH, Spring Mills House.

SETTLEMENT NOTICE.—All persons knowing themselves indebted to or who have unsettled accounts with the estate of John D. Foote, dec'd., will save themselves expense and trouble by calling with the undersigned and settling up. I will remain at my home at Aaronsburg for four successive Saturdays next ensue to accommodate those interested.

P. T. MUSSER, Administrator.

—By referring to the Jewelry Store advertisement, it will be seen that our young friend, Mr. P. H. Musser became a partner in that business. Sturgis & Musser both are practical mechanics and make repairing a specialty. They always keep the very best and cheapest watches and clocks of every kind, as well as everything imaginable in the jewelry line on hand. We wish the new firm success.

—Messrs. J. F. Everett & Co., of the large and popular Bee Hive Store, Lock Haven, place their regular fall and winter advertisement in the JOURNAL this week, and we advise all our readers to read it carefully. This well known firm has recently enlarged its store very much, to accommodate their great and growing business. They have just opened the largest and best stock of goods for fall and winter probably ever brought to Lock Haven, and they cordially invite their old friends and patrons of Penns and Brush Valleys to visit their store and examine their goods. It affords them much pleasure to serve their many customers from Centre county.

—"A Subscriber" in a correspondence to the Bellefonte News of last week utterly extinguishes, wipes out, annihilates the editor of the JOURNAL. How heartless and cruel! "Subscriber" knows a thing or two of our history—knows that Gen. Beaver will Governor, but he don't seem to know the utter uselessness of throwing mud at a Democratic editor. No indeed. They are just a trifle too clean and fine, it don't stick there. But what's the use in trying to put us into an equivocal and "silly" position before the public? We are no candidate: Gen. Beaver is; and if it affords "subscriber" amusement to rake up men's political inconsistencies of half a score years ago he ought to tell the readers of the News how Gen. Beaver about that time in a public speech in the town hall at Millheim said that as soon as the Republican party proposes to give niggers a vote, I will act with the Democrats—supplementing the declaration with the very "terse" remark: "I have no hankering for that sort of flesh."

CONSUMPTION CURED. An old physician, retired from active practice having had placed in his hands by an East Indiana Missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for General Debility and all nervous complaints after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, feels it his duty to make it known to his fellows. The recipe, with full particulars, directions for preparation and use, and all necessary advice and instructions for successful treatment at your own home will be received by you by return mail, free of charge, by addressing with stamp or stamped self addressed envelope to —The meeting last Saturday was an entire success, barring the disagreeable state of the weather. During all forenoon it looked rather doubtful whether the meeting would be a meeting at all and the committee hesitated whether to arrange the outside or inside of the Town Hall. The latter place was at last decided upon.

Early in the afternoon the rain and mist gave promise to hold up a little and people began to come in at a lively rate. At about two o'clock the large hall was well filled and the meeting organized. Judge Frank presided, assisted by a number of vice presidents and secretaries. Hon. John D. Stiles, of Allentown was the first speaker. For upwards of an hour he entertained the audience in a very able manner on the political questions of the day. Mr. Stiles' speech is highly spoken of by all that heard it. When he had taken his seat loud calls for "Curtin" came from every part of the hall. The grand old Governor did not suffer the audience to wait long. The moment he arose the applause became almost wild, nor did it abate in the least until he was through with his speech of over an hour's length.

To say that Gov. Curtin made an able speech would be putting the matter mildly. He speaks as Gov. Curtin only can speak. His special points were the Pennsylvania Ring Bosses, the Tariff, the Increasing Expenses of the State Government, the Homestead Law for Actual Settlers and Speaker Kuyfer. The audience was delighted with Gov. Curtin's speech and the election will tell the high estimate in which he is held by the people in this district.

Altogether it was a good meeting, and we are glad to note the excellent order and absence of drunkenness that prevailed throughout.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for November is on our table, ahead, as usual, of all others. How the publisher can afford not only to maintain its merit, but to keep improving it as he does, is a standing wonder. The present number, for example, has a beautiful steel-plate, "Little Red Riding Hood," a double-sized colored steel-plate, another exquisite engraving, "The Falling Leaves," a spirited illustration of a storm, "Searing Home," a ship in a storm on Thanksgiving Eve; and about fifty wood-cuts, in addition, of new dresses, bonnets, embroidery patterns, etc., etc. There is a beautiful colored pattern, "Cherries and Leaves," for a side-board cloth—one of these costly and recherche affairs only to be found in "Peterson's." The stories are even better than usual, which is saying a great deal, for thirty years they have been the best in any lady's book. With this number appears the Prospectus for next year, when six copyright novels will be given and more than a hundred shorter tales, many of them illustrated. For 1883, the reading matter is to be greatly increased. Undoubtedly, "Peterson's" is not only the best, but the cheapest magazine of the kind, being but two pence a year for single subscribers. To clubs, it is cheaper still, viz: four copies for six dollars and a half, with an extra copy for the person getting up the club. Or five copies for eight dollars, with both an extra copy and copyright engraving (20 inches by 27), "Christ Before Pilate," after Munkacsy's world-renowned picture, perhaps the greatest premium ever offered for larger clubs, the price is still lower, when even more premiums are given. Everybody should take this magazine. Now is the time to subscribe. Address CHARLES J. PETERSON, 309 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Specimens are sent, gratis, to get up clubs with.

In view of the strong evidences that manifest themselves that the stalwart bosses will be lavish in the use of money to corrupt and purchase voters, Chairman Hensel offers a reward of $5000 for the arrest and conviction of persons caught in this wicked work. The following is the chairman's card:

The purposes of the Cameron stalwart republicans in Pennsylvania have been disclosed by the boast of one of their agents over his own signature, that they will put out "the greatest amount of cash ever spent in a state fight."

The democratic state committee proposes to try and put a stop to bribery and corruption at elections in Pennsylvania.

I will pay the following for the prosecution and conviction of this Commonwealth against bribery and corruption at election:

$1,000 for the first.
$500 for each of the next two.
$100 for each of the next ten.
$50 for each of the next twenty.
$10 for each of the next one hundred.

In all cases, the money will be paid to the party or parties to whose efforts the prosecuting officers will certify that the conviction is due.

These rewards to apply to any offences against said statutes committed between now and the time for the return of the vote by the election officers.

W. U. HENSEL, Chairman of Democratic State Com.

When a man is of "age." The "Times" stated some time ago that a voter is of legal age, and entitled to vote, on the day before the twenty-first anniversary of his birth. In other words, that a man born on the 8th day of November, 1861, can vote, on age, at the next election on the 7th of November. S. C. Collins, of Marietta, Pa., and others, have requested the "Times" to give the legal authority for that statement. Chief Justice Sharswood's Blackstone says, vol. 1, p. 464: "Full age in male and female is 21 years, which age is completed on the day proceeding the anniversary of a person's birth." In a note the same high authority says—"A person is of full age the day before the twenty-first anniversary of his birthday." Legal authorities uniformly sustain the point among which are 1. Salk, 44; 1. L. Rayon, 489; Howard's case, 2d, Salk; 4 Dana, 597, and 3d Harrington, 547. The case reported on Harrington was that of Clarke, who was born on October 7, 1819, and voted in Delaware on October 6, 1840. He was arrested for illegal voting, and Chief Justice Bayard quashed the indictment on the ground that Clarke was 21 years of age and entitled to vote. The question has never been disputed in the courts of Pennsylvania that we can recall. —Philadelphia Times.

The cablegram received announcing the death of Rev. A. D. Rowe in India cost $75. Ten words sent in reply cost $75.

A lawsuit in Fulton county involved the sum of seven cents. A man bought two penny pears and tendered a coin in payment. The seller gave him one cent in change. The buyer said the coin he tendered was a dime; the seller asserted that it was a three-cent piece. They went to law about it and the jury disagreed.

The Farmers' Friend. Published at South Bend, Indiana. Terms only fifty cents a year. Circulation $1,000. The largest and best agricultural paper in the country. Eight large pages, 48 columns, low advertisements and almost double the reading matter given by the $1.50 and $2.00 rural papers but we send it to you for 50 cents a year. Premiums to every subscriber, premiums to clubbers and 25 splendid presents given them in addition, consisting of a $10 New Birdsell Clover Haler, complete, including retooling attachment, which cleans the seed as threshed; a $10 Cassaday Sulky Plow; a $5 Studebaker Farm Wagon; Oliver Chilled Plows, Sewing Machine, Silverware, etc. Some of the departments of the Farmers' Friend are "Farm Topics," "The Farmer's Life," "The Poultry Yard," "Home and Health," "Domestic Economy," "Young Folks," "The Puzzler," "The Story Teller," "The Funny Place," "Sunday Reading," "The Clover Leaf," "The Apia ry," "Letter Basket," "Various Topics," "Correspondence," "Hints for the Season," "World Record," etc. Practical farmers and the best writers contribute to it. Agents make money canvassing for it. Any subscriber authorized to act as agent. Send 50 cents for a year's subscription, or write your name and those of your neighbors on a postal card for free sample copies and our illustrated Premium List. Address, Farmers' Friend Pub.
