

Local Department.

The Millheim B. & L. Association meets next Monday evening.

A good town property at private sale. Inquire at this office.

President Arthur has by proclamation designated Thursday, November 30th as a day of national thanksgiving.

All kinds of leather sold and all kinds of hides bought, by A. J. Harter at Musser's Tannery, Millheim, Pa. tf

Mr. Michael S. Fiedler gives notice in another column that he is the executor of the estate of the late John Hess, deceased.

A good girl wanted to do general housework. Wages paid or privilege given to attend school. Apply at this office.

Mr. Louis Haas, the well-known Roopburg brewer, departed this life, Friday morning, the 27th of October, aged 62 years.

We learn incidentally that Mr. Wm. Wolf, residing on Mrs. Forster's farm, Penn township, expects to emigrate to Illinois next spring.

Prof. Wolf will hold a special examination of teachers at the Court House, Bellefonte, next Saturday, beginning at 9 A. M.

The new Reformed Church in Bellefonte, which was dedicated the other Sunday, is said to be the finest building of its kind in Centre county.

Reuben Grimm, administrator of Daniel Grimm, deceased, will sell a valuable lot with smithy thereon erected in Madisonburg, on Saturday the 18th instant.

Have any of our farmer patrons a few bushels of apples to spare for the poor printer? "Whoever giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord"—or words to that effect.

An overloaded car on the down train ran off the track near Weiker Run on Monday morning, and it was nearly night when the wreck was adjusted. Nobody hurt.

Sam is putting out goods with a rush at actual closing-out prices—to make room for the new clothing and merchant tailoring establishment that will be coming along about the first of January.

The election on Tuesday passed off very decently and orderly, here. There was no quarrelling nor violent argumentation and very little if any drunkenness. Much quiet electioneering was done and a very full vote polled.

The estate of John D. Foote still has a number of Keystone Cultivators on hand which will be sold out cheap and upon reasonable terms. Apply to P. T. Musser, Administrator.

If the winter just ahead of us will prove nearly as cold as is predicted we will need from 15 to 20 cords of wood to supply two families. Now, whoever of our patrons has more wood than cash may bring wood, the sooner the better, until we "holter" enough. tf

NEW OYSTER SALOON.—D. I. Brown has opened rooms in his dwelling where ladies and gentlemen will be served with the best and freshest oysters done up in the every form and best style. Families supplied by the quart or gallon. A share of patronage respectfully solicited.

Mr. A. S. Ruhl, of Rockford, Ill., a native Millheim boy, paid the old home a flying visit on Monday. He was happy as a May bird among the many friends of "Anil Lang Sayne", but his stay was entirely too short for anything like satisfaction. He promised however to call again.

We have no hesitation to pronounce the new Baker House at Lewisburg, first class in every respect. Everything is bright and new, both the building and furniture, and all in excellent style and taste. The fare is all that could be desired, while the gentlemanly proprietor, Mr. W. N. Baker, understands exactly how to treat his guests and make them comfortable.

Inventors and Patentees.—Should send for instructions, reasonable terms, references, &c., to Edson Brothers, Solicitors of Patents, Washington, D. C. who furnish the same without charge. Edson Brothers is a well known and successful firm of large experience, having been established in 1866.

The election is over and people will again be obliged to give due attention to the ordinary duties and wants of life, chief among which are the ever-recurring questions of what to eat and what to wear. Fortunately the latter question can be solved easily enough. Lewin, the boss clothier, can help you out of that trouble nicely. For a small amount of cash he will rig you out from head to foot in best style. His overcoats especially are indeed really fine and very cheap. You may need one any day, winter is squarely before your door. Don't delay to call on Lewin for good and cheap clothing.

SETTLEMENT NOTICE.—All persons having unsettled accounts with the estate of Samuel A. Bright, deceased, are hereby requested to meet the subscriber for settlement, at the late residence of decedent, Saturday, Nov. 11th next. ANDREW J. ALBRIGHT, Administrator.

The St. Elmo Hotel, Philadelphia, is fast growing into popularity and has a large and increasing trade. Its central location, excellent management and moderate rates commend themselves alike to business men and visitors. The arrangements, accommodations and treatment are strictly first-class while the rates are lower than at other hotels of its class. We advise our patrons who have occasion to visit Philadelphia to stop at the St. Elmo.

That a fine, enclosed Picnic Ground, with every convenience, Swings, Croquet Ground, Quoits, Pavilion, and a Fine Spring of pure water with plenty of shade, has now been completed at Spring Mills. Societies, Clubs, Lodges and all respectable parties will be accommodated on reasonable terms. Carriages and tickets to the celebrated Penn Caves at moderate rates. Address

GEO. B. NASH, Spring Mills House.

The monthly receipts of the Lutheran Ladies' Mite Society on Monday evening amounted to $7.80 cents. This society has grown in numbers and interest ever since its organization, nearly a year ago, and it is now an important auxiliary to the congregation. We think every live congregation should have a society of this kind. It fosters sociality and benevolence better, perhaps, than any other agency. Give the ladies but a fair chance and they will do more good than the same number of men, for they are more liberal, more sympathetic and generally more pious and devoted. God bless and prosper the ladies in their noble work.

We understand that the society contemplates holding a festival in the near future.

SETTLEMENT NOTICE.—All persons knowing themselves indebted to or who have unsettled accounts with the estate of John D. Foote, dec'd, will save themselves expense and trouble by calling with the undersigned and settling up. I will remain at my home at Aaronburg for four successive Saturdays next ensuig to accommodate those interested.

P. T. Musser, Administrator.

On Wednesday evening our young Democracy had a grand jollification over the result of the election. A magnificent flag with the electrifying words attached "Pattison Elected" was hung to the breeze; anvils were loaded and discharged that shook the very earth; the band discoursed its best patriotic airs; a drum corps of four tenor and one bass drum bode the welkin ring, while a large bonfire on the public crossing gave a brilliant, romantic light to the happy scene. Hundreds of people were gathered together. Old men, and ladies—yes indeed, the ladies, too where there. The Millheim boys were there, of course they were, to make a fuss and racket as only Millheim boys can. The "Spirit of '76" ran wild.

Eon. W. K. Alexander closed the exercises with a grand halleluiah spread eagle speech.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from active practice having had placed in his hands by an East Indian Missionary the formula of a simply vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung affections also a positive and radical cure for General Debility and all nervous complaints after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, feels it is his duty to make it known to his fellows. The recipe, with full particulars, directions for preparation and use, and all necessary advice and instructions for successful treatment at your own home will be received by you by return mail, free of charge, by addressing with stamp or stamped self addressed envelope to

Mr. T. H. Harter, late of the Nevada (Ohio) Enterprise, paid the JOURNAL office his compliments in person last Saturday. Mr. Harter has taken charge of the Middleburg Post establishment and will publish that paper henceforth. The Post needs renovation and improvement very badly and we hope the new proprietor will infuse new life and spirit into it. He has our best wishes.

THE PREMIUM ENGRAVING for "Peterson's Magazine" for 1883, beyond all question, is the most valuable ever issued. It is a copy, in line and style, of the extraordinary painting by the great Hungarian artist, Munkacsy, "Christ Before Pilate," which is creating such a sensation in Europe, thirty thousand persons having visited it when on exhibition at Vienna and as many at Prague. The picture is so real that the spectator seems to be actually present. The prominent object is the patient, forgiving, divine face of Christ. Then there is Pilate, with his puzzled, hesitating air; the angry bawls, the scowling brows of the High Priests and Scribes; the wild, almost insane, rage of some of the crowd; and more than all, the unspeakable pathos in the countenance of the pining mother who, with her babe in her arms, stands looking on from one corner. Never before was that ever memorable scene so vividly conceived, much less so successfully and powerfully depicted. The picture should be had in every family. It can be had, gratis, by getting up a club for "Peterson's." Only the enormous circulation of the Magazine can explain why the proprietors can afford to give such premiums. "Peterson's" is the best and cheapest of the lady's books, the price being but two dollars a year, with great deductions to clubs. Specimens of the Magazine, to assist in getting up clubs, are sent, gratis, if written for. Now is the time to get up clubs for 1883. Address, CHARLES J. PETERSON, 309 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

On Monday we received the following sorrowful letter from our friend, Mr. Philip B. Stover, who left our valley several years ago with a number of others, for Kansas. Mr. Stover's letter speaks for itself, and we hope it may not plead in vain to his many relatives, friends and acquaintances in this neighborhood:

Pleasant Valley, Lincoln Co., Kansas

Nov. 1st, 1882

Mr. B. O. Deininger,

Dear Sir:—I will endeavor to write a few lines for your worthy paper if you allow me a little space, to inform you and other friends of the sad misfortune that befel us on the evening of October 30th. At about four o'clock a terrible prairie fire reached us unawares and unexpectedly. We were engaged at butchering that day and had all our outside work done. We were working at the meat and sausage in the basement of the house and did not see the calamity that was about to befall us. I went outside for some water and was horrified at seeing the fire at our buildings. The main pile was all on fire, and two hay stacks containing about 15 tons of hay, close by the barn, and about 100 shocks of corn fodder as well as a pile of corn—all in flames. The flames struck as high as the granary. Nobody was at home but my two girls. I yelled "fire" with all my might and called for the girls and for water. I reached the granary with water just as it began to burn and succeeded to check the fire somewhat when the girls came to my help. We worked with all our might, rung the bell and called "fire" as loud as we possibly could. Everything seemed lost, but the neighbors heard our cries and saw the fire, and came to our help on horses and wagons just in time to save us from being entirely burnt out. We were almost roasted before help could come, but having abundance of water and timely help, we saved our buildings. All my feed, excepting about 8 tons of hay and a little corn fodder standing in the field, was burnt up. About 15 tons of hay, 100 shocks of fodder, 100 bushels of corn and my hog pen were all consumed, and the granary badly damaged. It was a dreadful sight to see. We worked all night to keep the fire from the buildings. I am so roasted and broken down by the terrible heat that I can't do anything since. I am so nervous and my hands are so burnt that I can scarcely write. My loss is at least $200. It is very hard on me and I feel help. It is not the custom here to help people when they are burnt out and I would be ever so thankful if my relatives and friends in Pennsylvania would come to my relief in this great loss. I helped others when I lived there and I feel like asking them in justice to help me now for I need it. I had a great deal of misfortune and bad luck since I came here. I must buy my feed for the winter for my stock and money is scarce. I will be thankful for any help which my friends in the east may generously give. I remain yours truly,

P. B. STOVER.
