

Local Department.

Please bring that wood. The season of sausage and pon hoss is at hand. Court begins next week and will continue for three weeks in succession. A good town property at private sale. Inquire at this office. Mr. Wm. Kerstetter is building a bay window and making other improvements to his dwelling. John W. Luse, after an absence of some months in Crawford county, is back again brisk and lively as ever. Look out for the chap who sells carpet by sample. Don't buy any, don't sign any paper. The election is now over and the result all that could be desired. Now for work and business. All kinds of leather sold and all kinds of hides bought, by A. J. Harter at Musser's Tannery, Millheim, Pa. The Republican papers are not exactly overjoyed about the result of the election. But these chaps are like spoiled children, a little hard to please. At the regular meeting of the M. B. & L. Association on Monday evening money sold for twentyand seven eighth per cent. premium for permanent loan. This week for the first time Old Winter gives notice that he is still about. The gruff old buffer may give us many a severe shaking before he will let up on us for a season. M. S. Fiedler, executor, will make sale of the property of John Hess, dec'd, Tuesday Nov. 21st. A good lot of household goods will be sold. See bills. Have any of our farmer patrons a few bushels of apples to spare for the poor printer? "Whoever giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord"—or words to that effect. The estate of John D. Foote still has a number of Keystone Cultivators on hand which will be sold out cheap and upon reasonable terms. Apply to P. T. Musser, Administrator. A stage line has been established between Millburg and New Berlin. This is a great convenience to New Berlin, whose mail matter and public travel had all to go around by Northumberland. The Journal Store is just turning into a full sized Book & Stationery store, and the stock of notions, such as lacy, gloves, handkerchiefs, collars, Germantown wool, zephyr, underclothing, neckties, &c., will be sold out very cheap. Come and buy. If the winter just ahead of us will prove nearly as cold as is predicted we will need from 15 to 20 cords of wood to supply two families. Now, whoever of our patrons has more wood than cash may bring wood, the sooner the better, until we "holter" enough. NEW OYSTER SALOON.—D. I. Brown has opened rooms in his dwelling where ladies and gentlemen will be served with the best and freshest oysters done up in the very form and best style. Families supplied by the quart or gallon. A share of patronage respectfully solicited. Inventors and Patentes. should send for instructions, reasonable terms, references, &c., to Edson Brothers, Solicitors of Patents, Washington, D. C. who furnish the same without charge. Edson Brothers is a well known and successful firm of large experience, having been established in 1865. The election is over and people will again be obliged to give due attention to the ordinary duties and wants of life, chief among which are the ever-recurring questions of what to eat and what to wear. Fortunately the latter question can be solved easily enough. Lewin, the boss clothier, can help you out of that trouble nicely. For a small amount of cash he will rig you out from head to foot in best style. His overcoats especially are indeed really fine and very cheap. You may need one any day, winter is squarely before your door. Don't delay to call on Lewin for good and cheap clothing. In looking over the election returns of Union county we were much gratified to see that our young friend John F. Duncan, Esq., son of our former townsman, Hon. W. C. Duncan, is not only elected District Attorney of Union county, but that he has the biggest majority of them all. This is the more flattering to Mr. Duncan's social and professional standing, because he is a pronounced Beaver man in the strongest "independent" county in the state, and in a year when elections almost everywhere go helter skelter and no candidate could feel safe on a mere party majority. We knew Jonny ever since he was knee high to a grass hopper, and feel proud of our former pupil.

With the assistance of two clerks we took the census of Millheim, the other day. It was an enormous job and the figures swell up to a grand total of 572. We could easily say it is about three or four thousand as the manner of some is when speaking of such things, but we have too much respect for the story of Washington and his little hatchet.

SETTLEMENT NOTICE.—All persons knowing themselves indebted to or who have unsettled accounts with the estate of John D. Foote, dec'd, will save themselves expenses and trouble by calling with the undersigned and settling up. I will remain at my home at Aaronsburg for four successive Saturdays next ensuig to accommodate those interested.

P. T. MUSSER, Administrator.

BELLEFONTE REJOICES. Celebrating the Democratic Victory and Condoling With General Beaver.

BELLEFONTE November 12. The Democrats of Centre county held their jubilation meeting here last night. Three thousand people were present and the town was handsomely illuminated and decorated. There was a large torch-light parade and afterwards a mass meeting in the Court House. Addresses were delivered by Ex-Governor Curtin, Senator Alexander, J. L. Spangler and others. All expressed their personal regrets at General Beaver's failure, but rejoiced at the success of the Democratic party at large. Colonel D. H. Hastings, chairman of the Republican county committee, was noticed in the audience and loudly called on for a speech. He responded, saying that while the Democracy rejoiced at their victory in many States, there was not a man present who did not regret the defeat of General Beaver. He declared that General Beaver was stronger in Centre county than ever before, because of his manly campaign and the heroic manner in which he took the defeat. These Sentiments were loudly applauded. At the conclusion of the Court House meeting the crowd headed by Major R. H. Forster, chairman of the Democratic county committee, and a brass band, repaired to the residence of General Beaver and tendered him in a serenade. Major Forster and J. L. Spangler made addresses. General Beaver acknowledged the compliment in a happy speech, that was loudly applauded.
