

Local Department.

Please bring that wood. Our heavy editor is in Bellefonte this week, courtin'.

Gov. Pattison is opposed to having a big fuss and demonstration made over his inauguration.

Wasser, of the Girard Press, has a sore thumb ever since the election and can not write.

There will be a musical convention in the Reformed Church, Rebersburg, between Christmas and New Year.

Mr. J. A. Lambert our accommodating mail carrier on the Coburn-Woodward route hereby informs his many friends and patrons along the line that he will carry packages of almost all kinds and sizes at very reasonable rates.

FRESH OYSTERS.—If you get hungry for fresh oysters stop in at D. I. Brown's oyster saloon.

We are happy to see by the Girard, (Kansas) Press, that our friend P. J. Letzell, formerly of Spring Mills, was elected county superintendent of Crawford county, Kansas, over his Republican competitor, by the handsome majority of 243.

Driven Mad by the Election. ERIC, November 23.—There was a terrible scene in the county jail this morning with William MacAvoy, who was driven mad by the result of the elections.

CONSUMPTION CURED. An old physician, retired from active practice having had placed in his hands by an East Indiana Missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung Affections also a positive and radical cure for General Debility and all nervous complaints after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, feels it his duty to make it known to his fellows.

DR. J. C. RAYMOND, 164 Washington Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Our jovial friend, Mr. Wm. Pealer gave us a call on Monday afternoon. Mr. P. was formerly salesman in J. B. Fisher's store, Penn Hall, but is now on the look-out for a good location to set himself up in the mercantile business.

Hon. John E. Faunce, of Philadelphia, and Jake Zeigler, of Butler county are prominently mentioned as candidates for Speaker of the Legislature.

Those of our readers who took our advice of some time ago and got themselves good serviceable overcoats at Lewins, in Bellefonte, are now comfortable and happy while the other chaps are cold and shivering, and afraid to venture out.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving Day—Don't forget the time. Don't forget to be sincerely thankful for the many blessings—material and spiritual—which the great Giver of all good bestowed upon you during the past year.

The Ladies' Lutheran Mite Society expects to give a grand entertainment in the Town Hall, commencing with Christmas and ending Wednesday evening, Dec. 27th.

Rev. John A. De Moyer, of Ashland, Schuylkill county, will be presented by the members of that county for chaplain of the House.

There will be a musical convention in the Reformed Church, Rebersburg, between Christmas and New Year, conducted by that efficient and popular teacher, Prof. John A. Weaver.

Mr. William Pealer, book keeper at J. B. Fisher's has quit there and is looking around to start a ranch of his own.

W. S. Hettinger bought a farm from John Grove, known as the James I. Forster tract, for $4500.

Our burg is still on the increase. Barney Evans and Amos Koch both have houses under construction, and Jacob McCool's will be up in a few days.

Dan Runkle has greatly improved his house by giving it a coat of paint in the latest style.

St. Elmo Hotel, Nos. 317 & 319 ARCH ST., PHILADELPHIA.

RATES REDUCED TO $2.00 PER DAY. The traveling public will still find at this Hotel the same liberal provision for their comfort.

News Miscellany. Joseph Hill, a Williamsport machinist, has invented a steam street car, which he thinks meets every requirement.

The weekly production of glass at the Bellefonte glass works is 900 boxes, or about 150 boxes daily.

General B. F. Butler came within an ace of drowning in the rapids of the Merrimac near Lawrence, Mass., the other day.

Some of the women of Bopland, Luzerne county, had a little difficulty recently about some slanderous stories that had been circulated concerning one of the neighbors.

A BLACK ACT IN PANTOMIME. How a Tennesseean Nightly Re-enacts the Murder With Which He is Charged.

In the Davidson County Jail is confined a man on the charge of murder, whose name will not be mentioned, the American not wishing to prejudice his case.

The prisoner in question is given to somnambulistic habits. When the bells of the city utter in midnight the prisoner arises from his couch in a stealthy and noiseless manner, creeps out to the door of the cell and scrutinizes the hall, or as much of it as can be seen through the door, and also every corner of his narrow apartment, as if intent upon satisfying himself that no one is in the vicinity.

A party of Greene county hunters, just returned from the forest of Michigan, report a very sad affair which occurred and which hastened their return home.

General B. F. Butler came within an ace of drowning in the rapids of the Merrimac near Lawrence, Mass., the other day.

A Georgian Killed by an Elephant. From the Griffin News. A negro at Barnesville, on Wednesday, gave an elephant in Barrett's circus a chew of tobacco, for which the ungrateful beast caught him up in his trunk and injured him so that he died the next day.

A FIERCE FIRE. A fierce fire started in the Short Mountain Colliery at Lyken last Sunday evening, which throws about fifteen hundred employes out of work and will cause a general suspension of operations in the slope for months and perhaps a year.

The lower part of the slope house was cut away in order to save that building. The water from Bear creek and the old tunnel was turned in the slope and the work of drowning the fire commenced.

This is the second fire in this slope, and in this case as in the first, it was caused through the negligence of one of the employes, who went home in the evening for his supper.
