PATTISON'SINAUGURATION

The Governor-Elect in Favor of a Simple and Undemonstra-

Upon due reflection it must be admitted that Gov. Pattison is about right in declining to have a big demonstration over his inauguration, although many Democrats may feel rather keenly disappointed about the matter. If we rightly remember the inauguration of Gov. Hoyt cost the state some $17,000. Now it is pertinent to ask what substantial good comes to the people generally for the outlay of money? None whatever. It is the sheerest waste of the people's money, without any practical good to anybody, except the momentary pleasure of a comparatively small number. "A dollar saved is a dollar earned," and what is good ethics for an individual are also good for a commonwealth. Mr. Pattison means business. He will be a business Governor all through, just the kind of executive so much needed at this junctare ; and the people of the state, of all parties and classes, will sustain their noble young Governor in his great work of reform.

Is case the next Presidential e lection goes to the House of Representatives which is a possibility, a Democrat would be elected. Each State casts one vote as a majority of the delegation directs. There are 23 Democratic States and 16 Republican, a Democratic majority of
