Lodge & Society Directory.

Millheim Lodge, No. 365, I. O. O. F. meets in hall, Penn Street, every Saturday evening. Business Degree Meeting every Thursday or before the full moon of each month.

The Sunbury Democrat, determined to be in time, respectfully submits the following imposing list of candidates to the next Democratic National Convention.

FOR PRESIDENT: Samuel J. Tilden, of New York, Governor Cleveland, Samuel J. Randall, of Pennsylvania, W. S. Hancock,

FOR VICE PRESIDENT: Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana, Ex-Senator Mc Donald, Ex-Gov. Palmay, of Illinois, Gov. Stoneham, of California, Gov. Grant, of Colorado, A. S. Walters, of Connecticut, W. U. Hensel, of Pennsylvania.

A PRESIDENT'S message is about the greatest bore on a poor, harassed country editor there is. It is worse than the elephant which a New Jersey fellow won at a shooting match. One does not know at all how to handle or what to do with it. To publish it entire is utterly out of the question—squarely in our line. Moreover the few who care to read it entire have done so from the dailies long before their weekly paper can publish it. Cut off the head and you have a shapeless mass of words calculated more to provoke than to please your readers; lop off the tail and you make matters worse instead of improving them, and if you dissect the body you destroy all symmetry and proportion. It were indeed a real pity to treat Arthur's message so rudely, for the poor fellow had agony more than enough to frame and fit it together, and even when complete it seems to disappoint all and suit none.

No; we will not annoy our readers with the President's message or any part of it. Our space is fully taken up with other, and as we feel satisfied more acceptable matter.

Senator Butler Re-elected. COLUMBIA, S. C. December 5th.—General M. C. Butler was to-day re-elected by the General Assembly United States Senator. Colonel H. S. Thomson was inaugurated Governor. He delivered an address touching on national as well as home affairs.

The greenback vote in Indiana having increased 143 in two years, it is estimated that at the same ratio of increase, that party will take control of the State in 1887.

The Democratic State Committee will meet at Harrisburg on the third Monday in January, for organization under the new rules adopted by the last Democratic State Convention.

The suggestion that Mr. Curtin be urged for the speaker-ship of the House meets with more favor as it grows older. The Lewistown Press is the last of the many journals of the district who approve of it.—Clinton Democrat.

We consider it rather unseasonable at this time if not directly unwise, to urge our distinguished member for the position of Speaker. If done merely to "compliment" our grand old Ex-Governor it may be all right, but certainly does no good. We very much doubt whether Gov. Curtin has any desires in that direction himself. With all his great abilities he does not claim to be a trained parliamentarian, a la Randall, that anybody knows of, and perhaps lacks the physical strength so necessary for a Speaker to possess.

Gov. Curtin's natural and proper sphere will be as leader of the house—and don't any of you forget it. There his high order of statesmanship, coupled with his brilliant and masterly powers of oratory will be of more service to the country than in the Speaker's chair and there he can hit Speaker Kypker oftener and harder than he could as presiding officer of the House.

THE figures given by the treasurer of the United States in his report for the year 1882 are strong arguments in favor of the reduction of taxation. The total increase in net revenue of the government for the present year over 1881 is $12,742,957.71. This shows an increase from customs of $22,251,064.28; from internal revenue, $11,233,209.84; from sales of public lands, $2,581,277.20, and from miscellaneous sources $6,707,415. The net expenditures decrease from $280,712,887 to $257,81,440, a reduction of $2,741,447. Apparently the whole internal revenue system may be wiped out and still leave the government plenty of money to defray all necessary expenses. If civil service reform is to be practically established, there can be no reason why four thousand office holders should be retained at a cost of five millions of dollars per year for the purpose of collecting needless revenues, nor can the people be longer expected to bear the burdens of unnecessary taxation.—Patriot.

We agree entirely with the Patriot in all but one point. Let the entire internal revenue system be "wiped out" from our statute books at one swoop, excepting only the tax on whiskey and tobacco. Whiskey drinkers, smokers and chewers ought to pay the bigger part of the balance of our national debt without crumpling.

THE TENURE OF THE OFFICERS.—The Governor and Lieutenant Governor elected in Pennsylvania on the 7th of November will hold office for four years; the Secretary of Internal Affairs for three years, and the Judge of the Supreme Court for twenty-one years. Twenty-eight Congressmen were chosen to serve two years; twenty-five State Senators to serve four years, and the entire membership of the lower House for two years.

HE WILL BE LONELY.—The Greenbackers will have a single Representative in the Forty-eighth Congress, in the person of Hon. Charles N. Brumm, of the thirteenth district of Pennsylvania. In the present Congress there are nine Greenbackers. There is one thing that won't worry Brumm—attending party caucuses.

California's politicians express the opinion that the Chinese restrictive law can be easily amended by congress so that its constitutionality should be indisputable. They therefore oppose the suggestion of the national labor congress that the law should be tested in the courts. Imperfect as the law is it has had the effect of almost stopping Chinese emigration to this country. Moreover hundreds of Chinamen have departed for their own land, and have not returned to this country.

GROVER CLEVELAND, Governor-elect of New York, in addition to his Democratic majority against boss rule seems to have several characteristics in common with Governor-elect Pattison. He has declined the proffered services of a military company on inauguration day and expresses an earnest wish that there shall be as little ceremony on that occasion as possible. This seems to be a year in which Democratic Governors are thoroughly democratic.

Not That Kind of Legislature. It must be understood that the Legislature isn't going to give a roll of Brussels carpet, an oil painting, a case of penknives and enough shaving mugs to start a barber shop to every member. It must stop at the shaving mugs, anyhow.

A Washington special says: There is very general unanimity among the republicans in the house in charging the defeat of the party to Robeson's profligate leadership and his river and harbor plunder. The defeated republican members are very bitter against Robeson, and he will receive many hard blows from his own household if he attempts to lead this session.

Gov. Pattison will be inaugurated, Tuesday, Jan. 16th. The legislature meets Tuesday, Jan. 2nd, just two weeks before the inauguration.

THE PHILADELPHIA WEEKLY TIMES

The people generally get that which they make a market for. They demanded better newspapers, and within the last few years journalism has made rapid strides. THE TIMES, which from the day of its first issue, took place in the front rank of progressive journalism, has kept along at the double-quick step, and at this time is a better newspaper than ever. It is a journal that never sleeps and never takes a holiday. As there are 365 days, so there are 365 issues of THE TIMES in a year. The week-day edition of THE TIMES is of four pages, being in a form suitable for the busy man or the busy woman. The Sunday edition, of eight pages, contains a great deal of the best miscellany as well as all the news. The editorial strength of THE TIMES need not be dwelt upon—the fact that it is quoted more than any other paper in America's sufficient evidence of its excellence in that direction. Nor need the typographical superiority be more than mentioned—for it is widely known as "the handsomest paper in the country."

THE DAILY TIMES—Twelve Cents a week. MAIL SUBSCRIPTIONS, postage free, Six Dollars a year. Fifty Cents a month.

THE WEEKLY TIMES—Fifty-six columns of the choicest reading, especially prepared to meet the wants of weekly newspaper readers. One copy $2.00; Five copies, $8.00; Ten copies, $15.00; Twenty copies, $25.00. An extra copy sent free to any person getting up clubs of ten or twenty.

THE SUNDAY EDITION—Double Sheet, eight pages. The best known and most accomplished writers contribute to its columns every week. Two Dollars a year, postage free. Single copies, Four Cents.

THE TIMES ALMANAC—A Manual of Political and other Information, published on the first of January, every year. Fifteen Cents, a copy.

THE ANNALS OF THE WAR—A royal octavo volume of 800 pages, beautifully illustrated. Written by Principal Participants in the War, North and South. Price, $3.00.
