NEW FIRM.

The new firm of Tomlinson & Frank, successors to H. H. Tomlinson, have removed their store into Alexander's spacious & well-lighted building, where they will be happy to serve their many customers and friends under better auspices than before. They will SELL AS LOW if not lower than ever before. The store is in two departments but all under one roof.

Thankful for past favors they kindly solicit the continued favors of the public.

Respectfully,
Tomlinson & Frank.

St. Elmo Hotel,
Nos. 317 & 319 ARCH ST.,
PHILADELPHIA.

RATES REDUCED TO $2.00 PER DAY.

The traveling public will find at this hotel the same liberal provision for their comfort. It is located in the immediate center of business and places of amusement and the different Rail-Road depots, as well as all parts of the city, are easily accessible by Street Cars or instantly passing the doors. It offers special inducements to those visiting the city for business or pleasure.

Your patronage respectfully solicited.
Jos. M. Fager, Proprietor.

—Benjamin Kerstetter, Administrator, will again offer a valuable property, situated at Coburn, at public sale, Saturday, Jan. 20th.

—Rev. J. K. Miller, of Centre Hall has accepted a formal call from the Longview church and expects to move to his field of labor next spring.

—There will be a meeting of the Centre County Pomona Grange, at Centre Hall, Thursday Jan. 19th inst.

James A. Kuller, Sec.

—The JOURNAL STORM is keeping up a full line of Family, Pocket and Sunday School Bibles, Books of Worship with and without tunes, Albums, Paper, Envelopes and Stationery of all kinds.

—Those of our western subscribers who have not yet responded to our recent invitation are most respectfully informed that we still have a lot of blank receipts on hand—"and don't you forget it."

—Our friend, Prof. J. H. Kurzweil, has accepted an engagement at Fayetteville, Seneca Co., N. Y. which consists in conducting three large singing classes numbering about one hundred each for six weeks and ending with a convention of the three classes combined.

—Read Kamp's closing out sale notice in another column. Mr. Kamp is not only a square and successful business man, but a full-sized gentleman throughout. His purpose is to retire from business and spend some time in travelling, and we feel sad to think that our pleasant social and business relations will soon cease, at least for a time. The best wishes of the JOURNAL will accompany him wherever he may go.

MUNIFICENT GIFT.—The bell on the new Lutheran church is simply first class in all respects. It has a very melodious minor or "A" tone, weighs 745 pounds, and was cast at the Buckeye Bell Foundry, VanDusen & Tit, proprietors, Cincinnati, Ohio. The entire cost including mounting & fixtures is between $225 and $230. H. E. Duck, Esq., and Mr. John H. Frank pay for all and donate the bell to the congregation.

Now if somebody would donate a first class organ, somebody else the pews for the audience room, a third party a good set of pulpit furniture, a fourth person the necessary carpet and a fifth a Daily Reflector, we have no doubt that the congregation would out of sheer gratitude pass a vote of thanks to the donors without one dissenting voice.

—Mr. W. A. Motz, of Berrien Springs, Mich., an old patron to the JOURNAL paid us a visit—also a few dollars cash—last week. Happy to make the acquaintance for the first time of such an intelligent, good looking man.

—Nearly the entire local page of last week's Semineer Times is filled with the proceedings of the Freeburg Musical Convention. It must have been a grand affair and we are glad to note that our friend, Prof. W. T. Meyer was a star of the first magnitude in the brilliant constellation.

PROFITABLE BUSINESS.—Esquire Mayes, of West Alexandria, Washington county, Pa., recently spiced his 200th couple, all in most approved form of law. He realized the gross sum of $264.14 from this business, so that each chap on an average paid the "squire a fraction over $3.18 for getting married—and that is considerably more than we received for such jobs when we played "squire."

—We call the attention of our readers to the reconstructed advertisement of Messrs. J. R. Smith & Co., the enterprising house furnishing dealers in Milton. Their popular establishment is full-grown and first class in all respects, filled to repletion with everything calculated to make a home comfortable and convenient, and at prices absolutely lower than anywhere else in Central Pennsylvania. J. R. Smith & Co.'s is a good place to buy.

The CENTRE REPORTER is out in a new, improved eight page form, has a new, neat title and appears right well throughout, externally. The local department is fuller and the items, obituary and marriage notices written with more care than usual for the Reporter—all of which strongly indicate that Mr. Kurtz must have employed some one else to edit this particular number. We are entirely willing to give even the devil his due, and why not the Reporter, although we never did and never expect to get the same compliment in return from that source.

We heartily wish the Reporter would still further improve by admitting into its columns at least a fair proportion of truth when "PERSONAL," or when it speaks of the JOURNAL and other papers.

Fifteen years ago last Spring Mr. Kurtz left Aaronsburg, retired as editor of Der Center Berichter published there and started The Centre Hall Reporter, do you know. The publication of the Berichter was continued at Aaronsburg with some interruptions for years after by Ludwig Kurtz, Thos. J. Kister and John M. Miller. Later the press, type and all that belonged to the concern was removed to Millheim by Phil. D. Stover and the paper continued here for some time by Mr. Stover, afterwards by Geo. W. Foote, as the Berichter. In May 1876 Walter & Deininger bought the material, subscription list and good will of the Berichter, but changed the name to that of MILLHEIM JOURNAL, for the only reason that to them it seemed to be more appropriate and local. Since that time it has been uninterrupted by the JOURNAL. These are the facts of the case, and we never heard our legitimate succession questioned—not even by Mr. Kurtz—until now. Fifteen years after starting a new paper, he suddenly discovers that his paper is 57 years old, and begins the new year 1843, with flaunting a brazen falsehood at the head of his sheet, in the egotistical and arrogant words "Volume, Old Series XL, New Series XVI," as if his own concocted ipsi dixit were sufficient to change plain facts. Candidly, what is wrong with that man?

For SATIS.—Rev. C. F. Deininger offers his valuable property in Millheim at private sale. For particulars inquire of H. K. Lase, on the premises. If —Good sleighing now and our people are making good use of it.

—Yesterday the new engine for S. K. Sankey & Co's new saw mill was hauled from Coburn to the site of the mill about half a mile south of Elias Krumme's residence. It is a large affair and required five teams of sixteen horses to move it.

THE "ADVERTISEMENT."—Whenever Yoney Deininger comes to Millheim everybody knows that the Building Association meets the same evening. Some of our people forget these meetings and would be fined for non-payment of their dues but for Yoney. When they see the "Advertisement"—that's what they call him—walk the streets they know that it is the exact time to sock up—and they do it.

News Miscellany.

Governor Hoyt has granted 148 pardons during his term of office. The chestnut crop of Somerset county this year was worth $25,000. Solomon Leibelsberger, of Berks county, has an almanac for every year from 1791 to 1883.

JOHN HOWARD PAYNE's original manuscript of "Home, Sweet Home," is owned in Athens, Ga.

The United Brethren of the State are erecting a Theological Seminary at Sugar Grove, Warren Co.

A Berks county farmer was in court the other day with three of his daughters, each one had a defendant in a breach of promise case.

At a family gathering in Bath, Northampton county, recently, Samuel Straub presented each of his six children with a $5,000 United States bond.

The society for the protection of public morals, of York, has notified the proprietors of cigar and other stores to close their places of business on Sunday.

John M. Smith, of Wonesboro, has a large collection of rare coins, among which is a coin of the period of Titus Antonius, one of the Roman Emperors. The coin is 1743 years old at least.

A loaded gun fell from the ceiling where it hung in a house at Englewood, Pa., and a child playing in the room was instantly killed by its accidental discharge.

Jacob Rogers, formerly of Philadelphia, Pa., now living in Iowa, is nearly 107 years old, and the railroad companies in his adopted state all furnish him with free passes.

Rival hunting parties of Brady and Union townships, Clearfield county, recently indulged in a squirrel hunting contest which resulted in the useless killing of 1,135 of the little animals.

York boasts of a church for every 600 inhabitants. Gettysburg has a church for every 300 inhabitants, and Hanover one for about every 500. Ex.

And Millheim has one for every 144.

Anti-gossip societies are forming in some portions of the State. Very commendable. In Lewisburg such a society would be a "daisy," but the number of dead and dumb ladies is too small even for a nucleus.—Chronicle

Ex-County Commissioners Walker, Ehrman and Whitmayer, of Lebanon county, were arrested recently for malfeasance in office, upon information made by William M. Derr, a leading member of the bar.

Matthias Flaig, a Lock Haven butcher recently built a sausage 37 1/2 feet long and 14 feet—no inches, in diameter. The account does not state whether he intends to donate it to his preacher or present it to his printer.

The rare occurrence of three members of one family being married at one time was witnessed in Emmanuel Lutheran church Pottstown, lately. The parties were John Wahl and his sisters, Misses Christine and Mary Wahl.

A SOUTHERN OUTRAGE. The South Carolina legislature is credited with having some excellent work during its late session. It sat but twenty days, yet passed 181 important and much needed acts.

The distress in Ireland is on the increase. Even the better class of farmers are suffering from the famine. Reports from some districts state that a large number of farmers with holdings of twenty acres are absolutely without stock and food.

The Middleburg Post says: "A grim joke is going the rounds to the effect that Judge Baehler has directed the prisoners under sentence of death in the Snyder county jail, to go home until they are sent for to come back and get hanged."

A Human Brute Arrested. LEBANON, December 27.—Charles Peterson, a Swede, was arrested this afternoon near Fontana for having entered the house of John Umber near Cornwall last night and deliberately emptying a kettle of boiling water over two of Umber's children, scalding them severely and afterwards knocking Umber down with a club and beating him severely.

A Woman Who Never Was Tired. From the Detroit Post and Tribune. Achela, Tuscola county, boasts of a woman who has gone into the woods with her husband and done her half of the sawing, splitting and piling four cords of wood in a day, and can keep it up for any length of time. She weighs 120 pounds and is 35 years old. Of English descent, and the strangest of all is she says she never saw a tired day in her life.

MARRIED.

Nov. 2nd, 1882, by Rev. N. Shannon, Mr. John H. Kremer, of Millheim, and Miss Alice E. VanDusen, of Bellefonte.

On the 19th ult., at the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. J. Alfred Koser, Mr. Elmer C. Musser and Miss Nora Fortney, both of Ferguson township.

On the 3rd inst., at the Lutheran parsonage, Solons, Pa., by Rev. W. H. Brown, assisted by Rev. P. A. Heilmann, Rev. R. H. Fletcher and Mrs. Lucy C. Alkin, both of Lock Haven, Pa.

On the 25th ult., at Centre Hall, by Rev. W. F. Fisher, M. J. James Still and Miss Mary Grifer, both of that place.

DIED.

On the 5th inst., at Millheim, Amos Haugawa, youngest child and only son of Mr. John F. and Mrs. Agnes Alexander, aged 3 years 2 months and 15 days.

It is almost a pity that Amos is gone to a better world. The bright and buoyant spirit that characterized his life on earth, endeared him to all his loved ones, and we rejoice in the certainty that he now dwells with his master, another lamb of that blessed flock of which the Divine Shepherd was so fond on earth.

His home was a happy life—free from the cares and trials to which we are all subjected in this world. He never reigned with him who while on earth took little children in his arms and showed his love to them in these beautiful words—"Sweet little children to come unto Me and I will forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven," while a treasure has thus been taken from earth, another has been added in Heaven, and where your treasure is there shall your heart be also.

WHAT AN OPINION.—The Attorney General has given an opinion that all personages owed by churches or religious societies must be taxed the same as any other dwelling houses.

A Horrible Accident resulting in Death.

Mr. John S. Shrack, of East Buffalo, met with a shocking accident last Friday, which resulted in his death that night at 10 o'clock. He, in company with a party of hunters, were returning home; their wagon ran into a deep rut and threw them out, one of the guns discharging, the lead entering Mr. Shrack's left arm above the elbow, shattering it to the arm-pit. He bled profusely, and a few hours after the catastrophe the arm was amputated, but he died shortly after the operation. —Millheim Telegraph.

Gov. Pattison writes a neat and pretty hand. Very few public officials these days, are celebrated for good penmanship.
