

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

—“Green Christmas—white Easter,” and the time-honored adage has again proved itself entirely reliable.

—Our friend Andrew Ocker has been appointed post master at Madisonburg. The JOURNAL takes pleasure to congratulate Andy.

FOR SALE.—Rev. C. F. Deininger offers his valuable property in Millheim at private sale. For particulars inquire of H. K. Luse, on the premises.

—Maj. J. B. Fisher and Mr. George Durst shipped the latest lot of fat cattle from Spring Mills, last Thursday that perhaps ever left Penn's Valley.

—Andrew Stover and Jacob Kerstetter, two of our substantial citizens, have each bought a lot and will put up good dwelling houses at Coburn the coming summer.

—The Logansville post office was broken into the other Friday and robbed of about two dollars in small change. Stamps and stamped envelopes were not disturbed.

—Pike manager Cook Hubler put a new floor on the Millheim bridge last week. But don't you think Cook, the bridge should have few abutments too?

—As far as now known three new dwellings will be built in Millheim next summer, by J. W. Snook, Wm. B. Hartman and Jerome Spigelmyer, respectively. Others may follow suit.

—The new town council will have its first business meeting on Monday evening when all who have claims against the borough are expected to present them.

—If some of our farmer subscribers have more corn than cash, they can settle their subscriptions in corn—and it makes no difference to the printer whether it be for arrears, in advance, or for the current year.

—The trout fishing season begins on the first of April and ends on the first of August, but our anglers had better postpone business until Monday as the law imposes a penalty of $25 for fishing or hunting on Sunday.

—We are happy to state that Dr. S. G. Gutelius has no idea of leaving town, all rumors to the contrary notwithstanding. The doctor thinks Millheim is the boss place to stay and herein his head is entirely level.

MUSIC.—Vocal and instrumental music practically and theoretically taught in the Musical College at Freeburg, Pa. A session of six weeks begins Tuesday, May 1st, 1883. Address F. C. MOYER, Musical Director.

—The improvement boom seems at last to have struck the staid old village of Lewisburg. The building of a mammoth flouring mill seems to be assured and now the citizens are holding meetings to get up water works. $25,000 are already subscribed.

—Miss Rachel Read, of Clearfield town was visiting friends in our village during the past two weeks. Miss Read is a vivacious and intelligent young lady and during her stay formed many acquaintances. She started for home on Monday followed by the best wishes of all and ardent hopes for a speedy return by at least one.

—J. A. Lambert is really one of the most accommodating and reliable fellows that ever drove a stage. Throughout the year he carries a very large amount of express goods all along the route, and delivers them in person. Everything is always right and his charges are really moderate. You can safely entrust our business to him.

—We learn with pleasure that work on the Buffalo Run Rail Road has commenced in earnest and that some 300 men are already engaged grading at different points along the route through the “barrens.” Without any inside knowledge whatever regarding this new enterprise it would seem obvious that the building of this road will necessitate the extension of the Lewisburg & Tyrone road to Lemont and thus give us connection with Bellefonte.

—In looking around for any kind of Parlor or Kitchen Furniture, whether needed in entire suits or only single articles, do not forget that Squire Camp, at Centre Hall, can furnish you as well and as cheaply as you can be accommodated anywhere in this part of the state. The squire understands his business thoroughly and will sell you good work at the lowest possible prices. Give him a call.

—Hon. T. H. Purdy, of Sunbury and Dr. Backhouse, of Lewisburg, recently purchased a fine tract of land northwest of our borough from the heirs of Jacob Derr, deceased, which they propose to lay out into town lots. They paid, we understand, at the rate of $240 per acre. They now offer to donate sufficient ground to any manufacturing enterprise that will put up works on the premises. This is the spirit that will push our town ahead.—Lewisburg Journal.

MUSICAL INSTRUCTION.—The undersigned will again resume his work of teaching and will give lessons on Piano or Organ at reasonable rates. The spring term will begin the first week in April. Persons residing in Aaronsburg, Millheim, Rebersburg or in the vicinity of any of these places, who are desirous of taking lessons will please write or apply in person to Wm. T. MEYER, 36 Aaronsburg, Pa.

—First of April comes on Sunday this year and people will be obliged to do their financial business on Saturday before or on Monday after. There will not be many heavy payments to make in this neighborhood as but little property has changed hands for some time. The dreaded “first” has largely lost its terrors. Even when the panic was at its worst the good people of these valleys exercised patience and forbearance with each other to a remarkable degree and we do not remember of a single instance hereabouts that a man was pushed to the wall because he could not pay. This praiseworthy trait is indeed a practical observation of the golden rule and we are proud to add a characteristic of Pennsylvania German communities.

SUICIDE AT PINE GROVE.—On Tuesday morning Mr. Al Ralston, a resident of Pine Grove Mills attempted to commit suicide by shooting himself with a revolver. The ball entered his head, back of the right ear and was deflected downward. The act was done about six o'clock, just as preparations were being made to move to Phillipsburg. At this writing, Wednesday noon, the unfortunate man is still living but his physicians, Drs. Woods and Smith, pronounce his recovery extremely doubtful. Mr. Ralston was married, but childless, a carpenter of unusual ability and a good neighbor. For more than a year he has been melancholy, but that circumstance gave his friends no concern, and no cause is assigned for the rash act.—Centre Democrat.

Miscellaneous.

The Chester News claims that much of the present prosperity and advancement of Chester is due to building associations.

About 3,000 people attended a public sale, near Stoneburg, Berks Co., recently. About 1,200 took dinner at the house of the vendor.

Patrick McKenna, a once-noted Mollie Maguire in Schuylkill county, died miserably at Locust Gap, last week. His reason was dethroned, and he was a raging maniac. He had become very poor.

In Dallastown, York county, a few days ago a bull and a goat fought desperately for half an hour. The goat whipped the bull in seven rounds and chased him across the country for nearly two miles.

THERE CAN be no doubt that this is a free country. During the past three years there have been two murders a day and two executions a week. Evidently something is the matter with the law.

The Dixon committee learned one thing during the course of their investigation. They learned that Wiggins, the now famous weather prophet of Ottawa, Canada, was an inmate at one time of the asylum.

Within the last few weeks a number of persons living along the line of the Lebanon Valley Railroad have been swindled by sharpers who have been selling tickets purporting to have been issued by the Lewisburg Lottery Company. There is no lottery in Lewisburg.

Scared to Death by the False Prophet.

From the Cleveland Leader.
A bright little twelve-year old girl has died in Buffalo from the effects of Wiggins' prophecy. She was a great reader and very nervous about storms and became intensely excited as the time for the great blow drew near. The family tried to divert her thoughts, but it was impossible, and after a few days' illness the poor child died of meningitis, brought on, the doctor and her parents say, by excitement over the idle words of the Canadian fraud.

Fifty-Seven Scholars Whipped.

From the Boston Herald.
The ministering hand of gentle woman has been felt again, this time at Pawtucket, R. I. A child in one of the schools there whistled. The teacher asked who it was, and, failing to find out, flogged the whole school, with one exception, a girl who chose to be turned out instead. There were fifty-eight scholars, and fifty-seven of them got five blows apiece with a rattan.

How Two Georgia Boys Killed a Panther.

From the Hinesville Gazette.
On Friday evening, while two colored boys were out hunting rabbits on the edge of the swamp they saw a large animal, and, supposing it to be a wildcat, fired at him and gave chase. The animal clambered up a large tree and the boys fired again. Their ammunition was exhausted and one of the lads attempted to climb the tree, but a warning growl made him descend rapidly. They then built a fire and camped at the foot of the tree all night, and the next morning, procuring more ammunition, they kept up firing till he fell dead. He was a very large panther.

A Postmaster Hanged.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The governor of Montana sent the following dispatch to the post office department today: “The vigilantes at Green Horn, Montana have removed the democratic postmaster by hanging. The government must be severe as he was caught burning. The office is now vacant and the sureties have been notified to take the charge.”

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winstanley's Sorely Suffering Children's Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winstanley's Sorely Suffering Children's Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

A heartless villain by the name of Duella, of Erie county, has been the cause of dethroning the reason of a most excellent, accomplished and charming young lady by the name of Anna Peterson, of Harbor Creek, in that county. Their wedding was to have taken place on the 7th inst. Instead of appearing in person, the scoundrel sent a note very coolly informing her that he had changed his mind, and intended to travel. Miss Peterson has been taken to the Pennsylvania Insane Asylum, and the scoundrel goes free.

AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS IN 1882.

From the New edition of Messrs. Groe, P. Howell & Co's American Newspaper Directory, which is now in press, it appears that the newspapers and periodicals of all kinds issued in the United States and Territories now reach the imposing total of 11,136. This is an increase of 585 in twelve months. Taking the States one by one, the newspaper growth in some is very considerable. The present total in New York State, for instance, is 1,300—a gain of 80 in the past year. The increase in Pennsylvania is 18, the existing number being 935. Nebraska's total grew from 175 to 201, and Illinois' from 520 to 594. A year ago Massachusetts had 420 papers; now the number is 438. In Texas the new papers outnumbered the suspensions by 8, and Ohio now has 738 papers instead of 692. The most remarkable change has occurred in the Territories, in which the daily papers have grown from 31 to 63, and the weeklies from 192 to 233—Dakota being the chief area of activity. The number of monthlies throughout the country grew from 955 to 1,034, while the dailies leaped from 990 to 1,032. The figures given above are exclusive of Canada, which possesses a total of 693. It is interesting to note that the newly-settled regions of the Canadian North-West are productive of newspapers as well as of wheat, for the number of journals issued in Manitoba was nearly doubled during the year.

DUKES IN DANGER.

Notice Served Upon Him to Leave Uniontown Once.

UNIONTOWN, March 26.—N. L. Dukes is now quartered in his old room at the Jennings house. He came in, it is thought, during last night, and the first news of his presence was passed around this morning in the statement that Dukes was in town closeted with Wm. Parshall, the same who refused to join his fellow members of the Fayette county bar in asking that the name of Dukes be stricken from the roll of attorneys. On learning of Dukes' presence a number of determined men met and resolved to adopt heroic measures. A notice was drawn up in which Dukes is given twenty-four hours to fix up his business and leave town, and stating that if he remained after that time it will be at his own peril. Two gentlemen took the notice and handed it to the proprietor of the hotel (Henry Jennings) and waited until the latter gave it to Dukes. He now has his papers and if he does not comply with the terms there will be some ngly work in Uniontown ere many hours. The feeling is ready for it. It is now stated that Dukes is on his way to Harrisburg and that he is afraid of being shot. This latter came from one of his intimate friends.

President Arthur's son was recently expelled from Princeton College for getting too lively. That's right! Let no one slip clear on account of the rank which their parents may hold.

A MOLLIE LEADER KILLED.

Labor Troubles in the Coke Region of Fayette County Result in a Homicide.

UNIONTOWN, March 21.
John Kane, the leader of the Mollie Maguire in Fayette county, was this evening pierced with four balls from a pistol in the hands of Superintendent F. C. Keighley, of the Youngstown Coke Works, four miles north of here. Trouble has been brewing for several days between Kane and his superintendent. When a reduction in wages was made, about a month ago, the employees of the works struck. After several weeks' idleness new men were put to work. This enraged Kane and he organized a force and drove the new men out of the pits. For this he was discharged permanently from the company's employ and notice was served on him to leave the house which he occupies and which belongs to the company. This still further enraged him and he threatened Keighley's life. He came to Uniontown yesterday and got drunk. He continued on the spree to-day, when he went into the court room during court and threatened Congressman Charles E. Boyle, whom he hates for helping to prosecute him for the murder of Maurice Healey. He was put out of the court room and then went to the Sheriff's house and told the family to be on the lookout for him, as he expected to be with them in a few days. He stayed about town till 5 o'clock this evening, back of Collins being constantly with him. They returned to the works about 5 o'clock and immediately entered the store. Kane approached Keighley and renewed the old trouble. The superintendent told him to go away, but Kane began to press him. Keighley retreated until he could get no further for the corner. Kane now motioned toward his hip-pocket, and instantly Keighley pulled his revolver and fired four shots into Kane's body, one of them passing clear through from the abdomen to the back. Keighley jumped on a horse came to Uniontown and gave himself up to Sheriff Hoover. Great excitement prevails about the works and it is feared an outbreak may occur. Kane was one of the men arrested for the murder of Maurice Healey at Dunbar, but after the acquittal of young McFarland he was released without trial. He has a wife and three or four children. Keighley is a native of England. His parents live near Youngstown, Ohio. He is about thirty years old and married. He has always been quiet and peaceful.

At midnight Kane was still alive, but the physician says it is impossible for him to survive. While lying at the point of death he curses Keighley and asks only to live long enough to kill him.

Kane's Tenacious Hold on Life.

UNIONTOWN, March 23.—John Kane remains apparently in the same condition, trembling between life and death. His physician declares that he never saw such a case. Kane himself said he knew he must die and yet forty-eight hours after that he seems no nearer death. In dying, as in living, he has proved himself worthy of the leader of the Mollie Maguires. There is something mysterious about the shooting. As no sworn testimony has yet been taken it is hard to get a straight story. That Superintendent Keighley believed his life to be in danger, owing to Kane's repeated threats, there is little doubt. But whether there was actual danger at the time of the shooting is not so clear. Police-man Kelly searched Kane after he was shot and found no pistol on his person. Kane himself declares he had none and would not have harmed Keighley. He says it was a cowardly act and he does not like to die from such an ignoble attack. Keighley is still in the custody of the Sheriff.

What the Public Eye Yearns For.

From the Shamokin Times.
Judge Tourgee says he would be willing to stand on his head all day if it would make Ben Butler president. If there is anything this country longs to see next is making Ben Butler president it is Judge Tourgee standing on his head.

The meanest Man on the Pacific Coast.

From the San Francisco Chronicle.
The meanest man on the coast is now claimed by Portland. Some benevolent ladies raised money to buy a stove for a poor widow. The money was placed in the mean man's hands to make the purchase, which he did, but kept the new stove himself and gave the poor widow his old one.

TUTT'S
PILLS

A NOTED DIVINE SAYS!

Dr. TUTT—Dear Sir: For ten years I have been a martyr to Dyspepsia, Constipation and Piles. Last spring your pills were recommended to me; I used them (just with little faith). I am now a well man, have good appetite, digestion perfect, regular stools, piles gone, and I have gained forty pounds solid flesh. They are worth their weight in gold.
