Our state legislature has now been in session just one week over the hundred days and candor compels the confession that very little has yet been done. About a dozen bills have been passed, five of which have been vetoed by the Governor and the vetoes were sustained in every case. ARTHUR AND THE SEMINOLES. He Shakes Hands with an Indian and Gives a Papoose a Quarter.

KISSIMMEE, Fla., April 11 .- President Arthur and party went yesterday to Fort Gardiner on the Kissimmee river, forty miles south of Kissimmee City, and there met Tom Tigertail, a sub-chief of the Seminoles, who had come from Lake Rosalee, six miles distant, to meet the Great Father. The president shook hands with the Indians and gave a papoose a quarter. Secretary Chandler gave Tom Tigertail his pocket-knife. The secretary remarked to the president that Tigertail strongly resembled Alexander R. Sheppard. The President handed Tigertail a cigar, which was seized with avidity and he immediately reached for the president's cigar and obtained light and returned it. The president has caught many fish and Secretary Chandler today killed an alligator. The party returned to Kissimmee city about noon to day. They have gone on a special visit six miles up the shore of the lake. but have ordered a train for the purpose of leaving for Sanford at 6.80 this afternoon. They change their plans frequently. JOE BRADY GUILTY.

The First of the Phoenix Park Murderers Convicted

DUBLIN, April 13 .- The trial of Joe Brady was continued this morning. The defense called to the witness stand a clerk named Kennedy. He swore that he speke to Brady, who was accompanied by a girl, on Dominick street, between 5 and 7 o'clock on May 6 last, the date of the Phænix Park murders. He recognized Annie Meager, who testified yesterday that she was with Brady on that evening, as the girl in question. Witness said he also met Brady on the following day. The latter declared that the murders would ruin the cause of Ireland. Upon the conclusion of Kennedy's testimony the defense announced that the would call no other witnesses. Argument of counsel for the defense and the prosecution followed. The judge finished his charge at thirgeen minutes after 3 o'clock, whon the jury retired. They were absent but forty minutes, and on returning to the court room announced that they found Brady guilty of the murder of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. Burke. Brady was immediately sentenced to be hanged. RECEPTION OF THE VERDICT.

When the verdict was read a deep but suppressed murmur went round the court room, and Brady, who up to this time had been singularly composed and free from emotion, turned ashen pale. Dr. Webb started up to make a motion, and after complete silence had been restored and before the judge had pronounced sentence of death, said in an impressive voice, "I desire to move for an arrest of judgment." He alleged that under the crimes act the jury which had heard the case, and had just given in its verdict, was not legally formed; that the prisoner had not received notice that he was to be tried before a special jury. The motion was denied by Judge O'Brien, who then said to the prisoner: "Have you anything to say why sentence of death you?" Brady responsed in a loud, clear and firm voice, "I am not guilty of the charge which the informers have sworn on me. These men would swear away the life of any one to save their own." The sentence was fren pronounced. It was that on the 14th day of May next Joseph Brady be hanged by the neck until dead. After sentence had been pronounced Brady, who in the meantime had recovered his composure, rose in his seat and with solemn vehemence protested his innocence of the crime. After making his last disclaimer he was hurried from the court room by the officers. He was arraigned on the charge of forgery and remanded to jail without bail for a hearing on Tuesday morning next.

Impoverished Irish People. .

BOSTON, April 15 .- The British steamer Nestorian arrived here last night with 650 passengers, most of them impoverished Irish people sent over at the expense of the English government. The greater part are families, some of which number eight or ten members, while the average is about five. The majority came from Galway county, the others from Mayo, Derry and Donegal. Most of those from Galway have been evicted, and during the past winter lived as best they could finding shelter in tents.
