as never heard of before in this section. This means square business QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS. All are cordially invited to call. Everything in the line of General Merchandise can be had at the Supply Depot at THE VERY LOWEST PRICES.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

—The grain fields in this neighborhood appear well.

—How are your "garden things" flourishing?

—Lock Haven is happy over a new town clock.

—Jacob Z. Long has been appointed postmaster at Howard this county.

—Rev. C. F. Deininger, and wife, of New Berlin, are here on a visit.

—Miss Mary Stroh's school will open next Monday the 23rd instant.

—Some papers say that we are to have the locusts this year. We will see.

—John Kersteter, of Booneville is here doing several first class jobs of masonry.

—We are having spells of fine spring weather interspersed with seasonable rains.

—The State Constitutional Amendment Convention will meet in Bellefonte some time in May.

—Mr. John S. Homan has a lot of fine, clean seed barley for sale. Call in time.

—It is predicted that we will have a good year for fruit. Guess we will know more about it by September.

—Col. Jacob Wolf has removed his tailor shop into Alexander's building, on the second floor.

—Last Friday Mr. A. Lukenbach showed his smiling face in Millheim for the first time since he removed to Bellefonte. Come again and oftener, Abraham.

—Rev. James H. Wilson, of New York city, son of Peter Wilson, Esq., of Spring Mills, sailed for Europe last week. His congregation voted him a vacation of six months.

—The mercantile firm of Fiedler & Runkle has dissolved. Mr. Runkle goes into the same business at Middleburg, Snyder county, while Mr. Fiedler continues at the old stand.

—Mr. Jacob Gephart has planted shade trees along his property on North street on both sides of the road. Hope they will all grow and that many others will follow his example.

—The Evangelical congregation of Millheim purpose building a new church. This is certainly a commendable step, a move in the right direction; and as they are abundantly able to do it they will no doubt build a good one.

—The following are the new officers of Millheim Lodge No 955, I. O. O. F. N. G.—E. W. Mauck; V. G.—Michael Ulrich; Secretary—C. W. Hartman; Assistant Secretary—James Witzmer; Treasurer—John Long. They were regularly installed on Saturday evening.

SELECT SCHOOL AT SPRING MILLS.
—The undersigned will open a select school in the Public School Building at Spring Mills. The spring term to consist of 5 weeks will open on Monday, May 7th. Tuition from $2.50 to $4.00. Boarding can be procured at from $2.50 to $3.00 per week.

C. M. SMITH, A. B.

—Millheim wants a first class shoemaker. A good chance is open for such a one.

OUR SICK.—Mr. Wm. Miller is slowly improving but still confined to the house. Mr. Michael Smith is able to be out of bed, but Mr. Wm. Reifsnider, Sr. does not seem to be improving any. He is afflicted with a cancerous affection in the face. They all have our hearty sympathies.

—Mr. & Mrs. C. W. Sturgis and son Fred, of Lancaster, and Mrs. Wm. Wolf, of Lewisburg, were here to attend the funeral of Mrs. C. A. Sturgis —to pay the last tribute of love and respect to a beloved daughter, sister and friend. They left for their respective homes on Wednesday.

—$2,500 worth of goods at bankrupt prices. Prints reduced from 7 to 5 & 5cts; Appleton A muslin down to 8c; 6 pounds choice sugar for 50c; 1 gallon extra syrup for 45c; rice 5c; boots & shoes very low; canned tomatoes at 9c; carpet chain at 20c. Produce taken in exchange for goods.

J. W. STAM.

—The subscriber proposes to teach a school in Millheim, provided a sufficient number of pupils can be secured without interfering with such as have already subscribed to other teachers. Tuition $1.50 for common branches, for a term of eight weeks. For the higher branches an additional charge will be asked. I will visit the parents to solicit pupils next Monday.

SUSAN STEPHENS.

—J. A. Lambert is really one of the most accommodating and reliable fellows that ever drove a stage. Throughout the year he carries a very large amount of express goods all along the route, and delivers them in person. Everything is always right and his charges are really moderate. You can safely entrust our business to him.

—The baker's dozen of prisoners now in the Bellefonte Jail are strongly bent on escape. They have made several attempts to get out and the last one, the other Thursday night, well nigh proved successful. The vigilance of Sheriff Dunke, assisted by chief of police, Montgomery, W. C. Heinle and D. H. Hastings thwarted the jail birds. There are evidently some very bad characters among them.

—Mr. Morrison's school closed on Friday and on Saturday he left for Port Matilda, his home. He is without question one of the best teachers in the county and a most estimable gentleman throughout, and has endeared himself to the people of this community, both old and young, by a strict, conscientious discharge of duty and an exemplary walk and conduct. We sincerely regret his departure.

HOW TO RAISE A CROP OF PLUMS.
A valued friend gives us his experience in raising plums, as follows: Just before your trees go into blooming spread a good coating of quick lime under them making the radius as large as the branches spread. This is a sure preventive against the ravages of curculio and will not fail to insure a plentiful crop of the delicate fruit.

—The grand jurors for April term from this section of the county are J. H. Reifsnider, of Millheim, Harry Strohecker, Miles, and Frank J. Rurich, Wm. Stover and Chas. A. Krapp, Gregg. Traverse jurors, first week—J. B. Kreamer and Jerome Meyer, Miles, Wm. Neese, Gregg, Wm. Eisenhuth, Penn, and Jacob F. Stover, Samuel C. Musser, and S. M. Motz, Haines. Second week, George Miller, John Hoy, James Gentzel and S. J. Haring, Gregg, Geo. M. Stover, Haines.

Among the cases coming up for trial are A. J. Albright, Admin. vs. Jonathan Kreamer, W. H. Korman, Assignee, vs. Elias Wert and others, Same vs. S. K. Faust and others, J. B. Fisher vs. R. H. Duncan and others and Centre county vs. the old board of County Commissioners.

—If every man in town who has a home and a family—no matter whether he owns the home or occupies it only as a renter—would make up his mind to put everything in the best possible trim, what a difference it would very soon make in the general appearance of things. And this is the proper time to do it. Not only should houses and cellars be thoroughly cleansed and disinfected, but stables, wood sheds and other outbuildings should have attention. Gardens should be cleaned up, yards and fronts raked and swept, ash piles and other rubbish removed, fences straightened and white washed, trees pruned and flower beds trimmed and put in good shape. All this will cost but little cash—only proper industry and love of order; but it will be a source of comfort and satisfaction to yourselves and family if done. Practical men will see to having it all attended to seasonably and in good style; others will of course manage not to have time to attend to such matters. They will give the dear women full and exclusive privileges to do it all themselves, if they choose or can.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

—IN MEMORIAM.—Mrs. Jane M. B. Sturgis, the subject of this notice was born at Millheim, April 6th, 1860. She was the second daughter of D. A. & Lydia A. Musser. With the exception of a period of two years, during which she attended the Bellefonte Academy, and a residence at Lewisburg of a little over a year since her marriage, her whole life was spent at the parental home.

Sept. 10th, 1879, she was married to Mr. Chas. A. Sturgis, who for several years was engaged in the watch & jewelry business here. In Feb. 1882 Mr. Sturgis bought out Capt. Brooke's establishment in Lewisburg and removed with his family to that place. In January last Mrs. Sturgis' health began to fail. Her case grew more serious and turned into typhoid pneumonia. Hoping that a change of place might benefit her she was brought to here in February. But the fond hopes of her friends were not to be realized, and she grew worse gradually, but alas, too surely, until Saturday morning the 14th inst. at early dawn, her spirit took its flight into the better land beyond, surrounded by her deeply-afflicted husband, parents, brothers and sisters. She departed her earthly pilgrimage in the blessed hope of a glorious immortality. Her end was peace!

The writer knew the now sainted girl, wife and mother from her earliest childhood, and bears sincere testimony to her unaffected modesty, her spotless purity of character and life, her quiet, gentle disposition, her genuine kindness of heart and her winning manner and bearing. She was one of those amiable, sweet-tempered women who so strongly endear themselves to all with whom they come into contact. Her memory will long remain fresh and green in the hearts of her family, relatives and friends.

She sleeps in the valley so sweet,
Not a breath ever disturbs her repose;
Her form is but dust, and her face
White like the snow upon a sage of light.

—From our exchanges we learn that there is to be a musical jubilee at Selinsgrove commencing June 12 and continuing four days. There are to be 1,500 trained voices in the chorus, with a full complement of brass, reed and stringed instruments. Dr. W. O. Perkins, of New York, is to be in charge of the jubilee exercises. The jubilee is to take place in a mammoth tabernacle capable of seating 4,000 persons, together with ample stage accommodations for the singers. Season tickets for the stage $1.00.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.
Mr. George Leitert officiated as groomsman twice in one week. Lucky fellow.
Our Sabbath schools are both flourishing.

Prof. Smith expects a very large school this summer.

Mr. David Burrell is preparing to build a new house.

Mr. Wm. Shell lost a valuable horse recently.

Prof. F. A. Jamison and Mr. Samuel Harter have returned from their trip to Virginia. They speak in glowing terms of the Old Dominion. Their friends down there are doing well.

The fort is still in the hands of Mr. Nash—probably only for a short time however.

Dr. Geo. S. Frank, a late graduate of one of our medical colleges in Philadelphia, is going to settle here. I wish him abundant success.

Miscellaneous.

The snow in the woods in Potter county is three feet deep in many places. A large number of wild animals have died from lack of food and water.

OF THE TWENTY-FIVE snows predicted for the winter of 1882-3 twenty-four have fallen. It is a mean sort of winter that will disappoint a weather prophet at the twenty-fourth hour.

At Millin on Tuesday two girls, Mary Hirschberger and Anna Fisher, each aged seven years, were instantly killed by the side of a rickety old barn falling on them.

At a wedding ceremony in Huntingdon recently the groom was John Brown, the bride Lizzie Brown, the minister was Rev. Brown, the best man Henry Brown, and the ceremony came off at the house of Burgess Brown. The local paper, noticing the event, said that it was certainly "done up Brown."

Lynched by a Masked Mob.
LYNCHBURG, April 12.—This morning early about one hundred disguised persons attacked the jail at Wytheville, forced the sheriff to surrender the keys and took Wm. M. Crockett from his cell and hung him from the beam of a mill on the outskirts of the town. Crockett was awaiting trial for the murder of Joseph H. F. Hurt, in Wythe county some time ago. The murder was a cold blooded affair, and Crockett would have been lynched at the time had he not escaped. He was captured about two months ago and brought back to Wytheville for trial. After hanging him the mob riddled his body with bullets to insure his death. None of the lynchers were recognized. Intense excitement prevails at Wytheville.

Thousands of Dollars in Coin Dug up.

A party of five Americans and a Mexican recently rode up to the house of a farmer in Leon county and told him there was a large sum of money buried in the vicinity, and if he would conduct them to a certain old house they would give him one-seventh of the treasure. The house was pointed out, and after taking measurements, the party unearthed $57,000 in coin. The Mexican had seen the money buried forty years before.

Lynchburg county has forty-eight prisoners in the Eastern Penitentiary who during the year 1882 cost $2,451.05, nineteen cents a day being charged for board and extra charge for clothing. But the prisoners earned $1,408.27, so the actual expense to the county for board was $1,042.77. Add to this $47.05 for clothing and the funeral expenses of one inmate, and the balance due the penitentiary is $1,092.82.

Where the Word Dude Came From.

From the Springfield Republican.
The just now popular word dude, meaning an empty-headed, lounging-manner young fellow who bangs his hair, proves to be no foreign importation, but, like many another expressive term, to be of good New England parentage. The word (pronounced in two syllables) has been used in the little town of Salem, N. H., for twenty years past and it is claimed was coined there. It is common there to speak of a dapper of a young man as a "dude of a fellow," of a small animal as "a little dude," of a sweetheart as "my dude." But how the word attained so sudden and wide-spread a notoriety puzzles Salem. Its revival at New York is credited to a disgusted Englishman, who remarked, after visiting a rich club, that the young men were all "dudes."

EVEN IN THE selfish hurry of modern life people sometimes live long enough to feel the force of retribution. A few weeks ago a widow living near Honesdale married a traveling salesman, sold her home and, leaving her four small children asleep in bed, left for the West. The children were cared for by the Directors of the Poor of Honesdale. Last week the woman returned home penniless and penitent. She had been robbed of her money by her husband in Chicago and had been forced to beg her way home. Her friends refused to receive her. Justice is not always tempered with mercy.

COST OF GETTING UP A GILDED YOUTH.

"Well? And so this is a gilded youth? Is it not a pretty dard?" "Oh, yes! It is as pretty as a little red wagon."
"Who made it?" "It is self-made, but the pattern was imported."
"Was it expensive to make?"
"Very costly. Figure it up."
Cravat and pin..... $15 00
Shirt collar..... 25
Outer clothing..... 100 00
Watch and chain..... 150 00
Jewelry..... 7 25
Cash on hand..... 230 00 00
Experience..... 33,929 00
Total..... $37,317 50
"Quite costly! What dividend is the investment paying?"
"Its running expenses are much too great for it to pay dividends. There are monthly assessments on its stockholders."
"There are persons then who take stock in it?"
"Oh, yes, plenty, for it has very pleasing ways."
As Useful a Person as the Dude.
From the Louisville Courier-Journal.
"There goes a stove-warmer," said one of the knowing ones to a reporter yesterday.
"What is a stove-warmer?"
"You see those fellows laying around the engine houses all day? Well, they are all stove-warmer. You have gone into a saloon and asked your friends to drink. You may have seen a fellow step up to the bar with those you have invited. He lays around the saloon all day. Set him down as a stove-warmer. He goes in a barber shop. He lays about there all day and reads the paper. You find him everywhere, in the billiard saloons, in the pool rooms, in the gambling houses. Wherever men gather to spend money or time you always find the stove-warmer."

MARRIED.

At the Lutheran Parsonage, Rebersburg, by Rev. A. K. Zimmerman, Mr. Wm. C. Carls, of Tyersville, and Miss Lydia J. Goodman, of Loganville.

On the 12th inst., by Rev. Z. A. Yearick, Mr. B. F. Edmunds and Miss Ellen Lucretia Weaver, both of Aaronsburg.

DIED.

On the 12th ult., in Sugar Valley, Mr. Philip Shreckengast, aged 73 years, 6 months and 13 days.

On the 29th ult., near Loganville, Mrs. Catharine Weaver, wife of Wm. Weaver, aged 47 years, 5 months and 13 days.

On the 31st ult., near Tyersville, after a long and painful suffering, Mr. Henry Weaver, aged 67 years, 10 months and 20 days.
(Clifton Co. papers please copy.)

On the morning of the 14th inst., at the home of her parents, Millheim, Pa., after a sickness of some weeks, Mrs. Jane Mary Belle, wife of C. A. Sturgis, and daughter of D. A. & Lydia A. Musser, aged 23 years and 8 days.

The funeral took place on Monday and was attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends. Rev. Furness Adams preached a very comforting sermon from the words, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." Rev. Benj. Bengtson followed in an earnest and impressive address in German.

TO THE MEMORY OF "OUR SISTER".
Sister thou wast mild and lovely,
Gentle as the summer breeze;
Pleasant as the air of evening,
When it floats among the trees.
Dearest sister thou hast left us,
Here thy loss we deeply feel;
But 'twas God that hath bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.
Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When Heaven calls of life is fled,
Then in Heaven, with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.
