Another Veto from the Governor.

Governor Pattison has vetoed the bill to equalize taxation for school purposes only in independent districts formed from parts of one or more than one county. His reasons, are that the terms are local and special; it affects but a few school districts in the state; it creates new creates a new system of auditing school board officers; it creates new officers, and the title does not express to be performed by other persons althe purpose of the bill. The house sustained the yeto by a vote of 162 not only useless, but positively mischiev-

> The Philadelphia Ledger on the late Recorder Law.

Scandalous and Shameless.

The recorder's bill was one of the most scandalous and shameless pieces of legislation that ever stained the statute book of Pennsylvania. It violated nearly every principle of honesty and ly set forth in these columns. Its only agent of Vanderbilt and that Harrisboards of county commissioners; it purpose was to make a sinecure office, with large emoluments for a single person; the functions attached to the office were already provided for by law, ready under pay; the new creation was He says they have three thousand men ous; it was a fraud upon the treasury of the city and the state; it made it the interest of the incumbent to multiply suits for the sake of getting fees; and among its other scandals and infabe hard up for presidential timber mies it authorized an officer who was a magistrate to appoint "deputies." This was the climax of the scandalous nature of the act. The unreformed of satisfaction that General Hancock legislature of 1878 passed that act in obedience to party; it is now wiped out in obedience to the people.

Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21st, 1883. The Star-route trial is rapidly drawing to a close and it is interesting to note the different views and expectatio is concerning the result. The prosecution is very confident of conviction, while the defense is in high glee over the cerconvention in Columbus, on June 21. tainty of acquittal. The judge has seemed to lean heavily lately towards the defense, which has greatly surprised his friends. Certain it is that Brady and Dorsey are in excellent spirits, and they are already planning to begin big law suits against the papers that have slandered them. The first suit, they say, will be against the New York Times by Dorsey, and his damages will be laid at a half million dollars. He will engage the best and biggest lawyers, and, although he has had to raise money on his valuable property, he will, so he says, spend a lot of money to punish the Times. Brady announces that he intends to make the government pay him a large sum of money for defending him self against a prosecution for doing what the law required him to do. All this planning for revenge will come to naught if it should happen that these gentlemen are called upon to reside a few years in private quarters at government expense. It is hardly worth while to express an opinion as to the result. A pretty strong case has been made out by the prosecution, but it is hard to tell how the jury will stand nevertheless, The defense have fought tooth and toe nail to deal has been ruled out on technical grounds that would have thrown much light on the case.

It is only a sense of titter wrong that these people can feel against the Governments which have not made life tolerable in their own homes. There is a terrible feeling growing up in England against the Irish. The new landlords have given the latter but little relief. Every dispute between tenants and owners has to be referred to a law court. The latter generally leans towards the landlord. And then there is the usual delay attending all law proceedings, by which of course, the lawas they paused to listen, and they broke yers profit.
